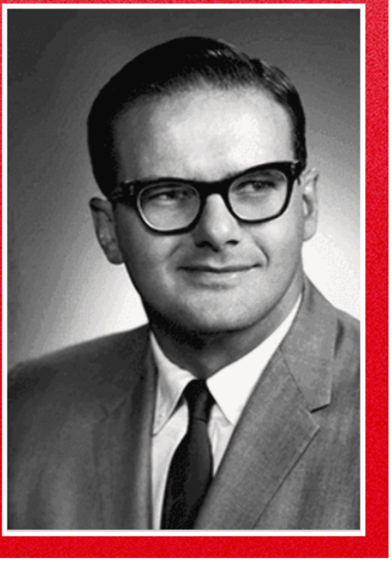
LAMAR HUNT

FOUNDER



Lamar Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history, and he served as the guiding force behind the formation of both the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Hunt's influence on the game of football spanned nearly five decades, dating back to his inception of the AFL in 1959. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier. As the catalyst who brought together the whimsically named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners, Hunt's "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took the field for the 1960 season.

On June 8, 1966, after years of clashing with the mighty NFL, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle. Months later, on Jan. 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. "Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League. Whether it was serving as the central figure behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key role in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the 1960s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late 1960s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with unintentionally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game— the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." It was Hunt who not only recommended enumerating each Super Bowl with Roman numerals, but he also suggested that the league's iconic championship trophy bear the name of Vince Lombardi. For years, he was an advocate of the two-point conversion — a college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in 1994. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule, efforts that were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead in 2006.

Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara, and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain. His AFL model for the equal sharing of television revenue has helped maintain competitive balance in the NFL for many years. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference. The franchise hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy for the first time following the 2019 season, and were also AFC Champions following the 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024 seasons.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success. In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-OT victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by his franchise during the league's 10-year existence. Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in 1963, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs.

His team truly put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded squad that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL. The Chiefs were among the first teams to scout and sign players from historically black colleges and universities, a progressive approach that yielded key performers such as DT Buck Buchanan, LB Willie Lanier, WR Otis Taylor and CB Emmitt Thomas.

Hunt's team repeated as league champions in both 1966 and 1969. The Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

In the late 1960s, Hunt was influential in the original plans for Arrowhead Stadium. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, the stadium continues to serve as a point of pride for Kansas City. Hunt worked diligently to bring college football to the stadium, which hosted the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game five times, most recently in 2008. In addition to numerous other college football games, the stadium also served as a venue for international soccer matches thanks to Hunt. In 2026, Arrowhead Stadium hosted six matches for the FIFA World Cup.

Since 2010, Hunt's legacy has been honored in Founder's Plaza, an expansive outdoor area that forms a dramatic entrance to the north side of Arrowhead Stadium. A nine- foot heroic statue of Hunt stands as a tribute to the Chiefs late founder. In addition, eight fountains for the original eight AFL franchises symbolize Lamar's innovation and dedication to growing the game of football.

During the 1990s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely loyal fan following, not just in mid-America, but across the country and around the globe. Kansas City represented the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany (1990), Tokyo, Japan (1994, 1998) and Monterrey, Mexico (1996) and has since gone on to play games in London (2015), Mexico City (2019), Frankfurt (2023), and Sao Paulo (2025).

Nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises. Hunt was involved in the development of both NASL and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt was inducted into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (1982) and International Tennis (1993). He was also honored by the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Texas (1984) and Missouri (1995).

In 1981, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet. He also received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club in 1993.

In 2008, Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City, Missouri. That same year, he was inducted as one of four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

In August of 2009, the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery officially opened at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This 4,000-square foot exhibit showcases the greatest moments in Super Bowl history and is appropriately named after the individual who gave the world's biggest single-game sporting spectacle its current moniker. In October of 2009, the Missouri DOT officially designated a stretch of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex as the "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway."

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in 1999 after the 95-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

In total, Hunt has been selected to 11 "Halls of Fame."

The Hunt family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards (Sporting KC) franchise of Major League Soccer from 1995-2006 and claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. They also founded and operated the Columbus Crew for 18 years, eventually selling the operating rights of the Crew in 2013. The Hunt family still oversees the operations of FC Dallas. Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt family owns 16 championship trophies from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup").

A successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just a few miles north of Arrowhead Stadium. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in 1973, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun, which was completed in 1982. While both of those entities were sold in 1995, Hunt Midwest Enterprises continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

In February 2025, the Chiefs announced the formation of "Foolish Club Studios," a new studio focused on developing original scripted and unscripted programs for both short-form and long-form storytelling that goes beyond the field. Building on the legacy of Lamar Hunt, the studio will prioritize telling unique stories that not only highlight the rich, deep history of the franchise, the characters that have defined it and its position within the Kansas City and global communities, but also stories that reflect the spirit of humility, heart, and hard work that have been part of the team's heritage since the beginning. The name of the studio is a tribute to Lamar Hunt and his resilience in forming the American Football League, where the eight original team owners called themselves the "Foolish Club" because they were crazy enough to take on the firmly entrenched National Football League. This spirit of risk-taking and innovation has been a stalwart of the franchise since day one, and as Lamar himself said, "Dream big and set audacious goals. It's only by aiming high that we can reach our full potential." The logo even includes a special nod to Lamar, as the word "studio" was inspired by Lamar's handwritten letters.

Hunt was born on Aug. 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Ark., and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in 1956. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the varsity football team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl.

Hunt had four children – Lamar Jr., Sharron, Clark, and Daniel – and each now have children of their own. He enjoyed more than 40 years of marriage to his beloved Norma, who became known by many as "the first lady of football". In 1998, Hunt was diagnosed with prostate cancer, and he quietly underwent treatment while maintaining his service to the team and community. Lamar Hunt passed away at the age of 74 on December 13, 2006.

REMEMBERING NORMA HUNT

KANSAS CITY
Chiefs
1969 WORLD CHAMPION
KC

Norma Knobel Hunt was a high school teacher in a northern suburb of Dallas when she met Lamar Hunt. The two would soon fall in love and enjoy more than 40 years of marriage, before Lamar passed away in 2006. Throughout her life, Norma was known for her kindness, her positivity, and her rare ability to make everyone she encountered feel valued and at ease.

She was also known as the "first lady of football", and was the only woman to attend each of the first 57 Super Bowls. Her final football game was Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, where the Chiefs lifted the franchise's third Lombardi Trophy.

Norma passed away on June 4, 2023. Later that year, during the 2023 NFL season, Chiefs players donned a commemorative patch on home and road jerseys featuring Norma's initials – "NKH" – at the center of a football. The patch was worn on the right side of the jersey, serving as a perfect partner to the patch on the jersey's left side honoring Lamar Hunt and the American Football League.

In addition, the NFL and the Kansas City Chiefs announced the creation of the Norma Hunt Super Bowl Champion of Education program. Beginning with Super Bowl LVIII, each year one female educator is selected to attend the game and be honored for their commitment to education, their dedication in the classroom and their selfless service to the next generation of students. The program honors Norma's passion for education, her renowned Super Bowl attendance streak and her lifelong love of football.

CLARK HUNT

CHAIRMAN & CEO

Clark Hunt serves as Chairman & CEO of the Kansas City Chiefs and FC Dallas, and is a leading voice among owners and executives in the National Football League and Major League Soccer.

Hunt is the driving force behind the resurgence of the Kansas City Chiefs, transforming the iconic franchise into a global entertainment powerhouse and one of the most successful teams in the history of the NFL.

Since Hunt became CEO of the Chiefs in 2010, the club has earned 10 AFC West Division championships, including nine consecutive division titles (2016-2024). Hunt has hoisted the award that bears his father's name, the Lamar Hunt Trophy, five times as the club claimed AFC championships and earned Super Bowl appearances following the 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024 seasons. The club has also taken home the Lombardi Trophy as Super Bowl champions in three of the past seven seasons, winning Super Bowls LIV, LVII and LVIII.

In January 2013, after a string of losing seasons, Hunt reorganized the leadership structure of the Chiefs, shouldering full responsibility for its turnaround. For the first time in club history, the head coach, general manager, and team president would all report directly to the Chairman and CEO. Hunt soon hired Head Coach Andy Reid, who has since become the winningest head coach in franchise history. In April 2024, Hunt extended the contracts of Reid, General Manager Brett Veach and Team President Mark Donovan, ensuring the leadership of the club's football and business operations will remain in place for years to come.

Hunt is a leading voice among NFL owners. In 2019, he was named chairman of the influential NFL Finance Committee. He also serves on the Ownership Policy Committee, the 32 Equity Committee, the International Committee, and the Management Council Executive Committee (CEC), where he helped to secure the NFL's last two collective bargaining agreements in 2011 and 2020. Hunt was a member of the Commissioner Search Committee in 2006 which recommended Roger Goodell as the successor to then-Commissioner Paul Tagliabue.

In addition to his leadership of the Chiefs and his standing as one of the most respected voices in the NFL, Hunt has also been instrumental in bringing football to the world – and bringing the world of international football to the United States. From 2011-18, Hunt served as chairman of the NFL International Committee and significantly expanded the league's international efforts and investment overseas. Before Hunt's chairmanship, the league had played four regular season games internationally. Since Hunt was named committee chairman in 2011, the league has hosted 60 international regular season contests. Hunt continues to serve as a member of the committee.

Hunt has also helped lead the effort to bring FIFA World Cup 2026 to the United States. He served as co-chair of the Kansas City bid to host the World Cup at Arrowhead Stadium, which hosted nearly 420,000 fans across six tournament matches, including a quarterfinal.

He carries forward the Hunt family legacy of promoting soccer in the United States. Hunt is a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer, serving as Chairman and CEO of FC Dallas. Hunt and his family originally founded two other MLS clubs, the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting Kansas City) and the Columbus Crew, before acquiring FC Dallas in 2003. Hunt remains actively involved in the continued growth of MLS, serving as a member of the MLS Board of Governors, the Product Strategy Committee, and the Labor Committee.

The son of legendary American sports pioneer and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, Clark Hunt has built upon his father's legacy at the Hunt Sports Group by ensuring the Chiefs and FC Dallas remain focused on their core mission, and continue to have a positive impact on the communities they serve.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in 1987, earning a degree in Business Administration and a concentration in finance while also serving as captain of the Mustangs nationally ranked soccer team.

Hunt and his siblings also sit on the board of The Hunt Family Foundation, which is known for its numerous philanthropic initiatives in Kansas City. The Foundation's most visible programs include the Chiefs Charity Game, annual Red Friday flag sales, and the largest annual food drive in the NFL. Hunt is also a personal benefactor to numerous charities in the Kansas City and Dallas metro areas.

EXECUTIVES

MARK DONOVAN

PRESIDENT

28TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Entering his 18th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and 28th in the NFL, Mark Donovan is one of the league's most innovative and impactful executives. As President of the Chiefs, Donovan oversees all aspects of the team's business operations and has been instrumental in shaping the club into a global sports and entertainment powerhouse.

Under Donovan's leadership, the Chiefs have become a model NFL franchise—pioneering digital ticketing, expanding international social engagement and fandom, and securing game-changing partnerships. He spearheaded the creation of Foolish Club Studios, elevated Arrowhead Events into a premier national venue brand, and helped deliver landmark moments such as hosting the 2023 NFL Draft, securing six 2026 FIFA World Cup matches, and staging major events like the return of NCAA Division I football with the launch of the Battle Sports Kansas City Classic.

He has also played a pivotal role in the organization's facility and development efforts, having served as lead negotiator for a new stadium and mixed-use development set to open ahead of the 2031 season in Wyandotte County, Kansas, as well as a new practice facility, team headquarters, and mixed-use district in Olathe, Kansas, also set to open in 2031.

Donovan has championed a modern, content-driven approach to brand expansion, with the Chiefs becoming the number one fanbase in the NFL and leading the league in platforms like TikTok and YouTube. The club now ranks in the top three in fandom across all nine of the NFL's international markets—and is number one in six of them. He has also guided the club's multi-market growth strategy under the NFL Global Markets Program, securing global marketing and commercialization rights and building lasting fan and business engagement across Europe and Latin America.

Locally, Donovan has driven significant economic and civic impact. The Chiefs and events at Arrowhead Stadium generate nearly $1 billion annually for the Kansas City region, supporting 6,000 jobs and contributing over $28 million in tax revenue to the State of Missouri.

A former Brown University quarterback, Donovan previously held senior roles at the NFL league office, the NHL, and the Philadelphia Eagles. Under his leadership, the Chiefs are a two-time Kansas City Business Journal "Champion of Business," and he was named the 2021 Kansas City Sports Executive of the Year. A respected civic leader committed to community impact and service, he serves on the Board of Directors for the Hunt Family Foundation, has championed numerous other causes, and has redefined the club's charitable strategy to deliver a greater, more focused impact across the region.

ANDY REID

HEAD COACH

REID'S FOOTBALL CAREER

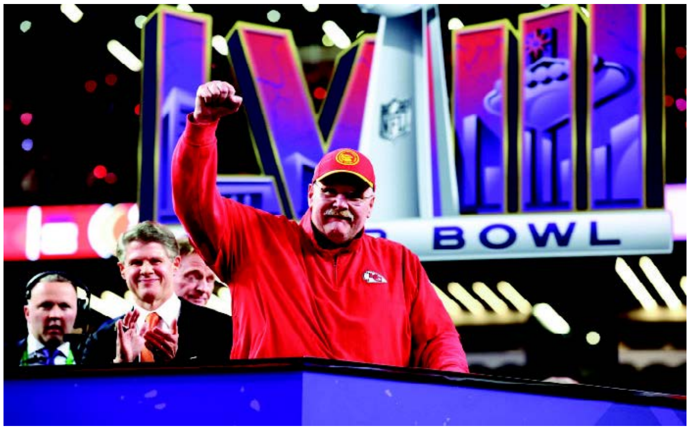
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Head Coach



Andy Reid enters his 14th season at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026. He was hired as the club's 13th head coach in franchise history on January 7, 2013.

Entering his 28th season as an NFL head coach, Reid owns a 279-157-1 regular season record and adds a 28-17 postseason record, giving him 307 total wins, which ranks fourth in NFL history and first among active head coaches. He is the first head coach to become the winningest coach for two different franchises (Chiefs, 149 regular season wins; Eagles, 130 regular season wins). Reid is a three-time Super Bowl Champion (LIV, LVII, LVIII). In 2019, his squad beat the San Francisco 49ers 31-20 in Super Bowl LIV. Just three seasons later, he led the Chiefs to three-straight Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII, LIX), winning back-to-back championships, marking the first time in NFL history a club won back-to-back Super Bowl titles in two decades. Kansas City beat the Philadelphia Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII followed by a 25-22 overtime victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII.

Reid joined the Chiefs after 14 seasons as Head Coach/Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Philadelphia Eagles where he compiled a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record. Including his years as an assistant coach, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 26 times (37-22 record). He has coached in eight Super Bowls and 15 Championship Games (8 NFC, 7 AFC), including being the first coach in NFL history to coach in five-consecutive home Conference Championship Games (2018-22). He owns three NFL Coach of the Year honors.

Since his arrival in Kansas City, Reid's teams have made it to the playoffs 11 out of 13 seasons and played in seven-straight AFC Championship games (2018-24). He has led his squad to the Super Bowl five times in six seasons (2019, 2020, 2022, 2023, 2024), winning three championships, including back-to-back titles. In 13 seasons under Reid, the Chiefs have recorded 11 10-plus win seasons, logging a .699 (149-64) winning percentage, which is the top mark in franchise history.

Reid led the 2024 Kansas City Chiefs to a 15-2 record, the best single-season record in franchise history and extended its current streak to nine-straight AFC West division championships. As the No. 1 seed in the NFL playoffs, the club beat the Houston Texans 23-14 in the Divisional Round, marking Reid's 300th career win which made him just the fourth coach in NFL history to record 300 wins. The team then beat the Buffalo Bills 32-29 in the club's seventh-consecutive AFC Championship Game.

Reid's 2023 squad achieved an 11-6 record, extending the club's franchise record streak to eight-straight division titles. Entering the playoffs as the No. 3 seed, the Chiefs beat the Miami Dolphins 26-7 in the Wild Card Round at home before QB Patrick Mahomes had to play a playoff game on the road for the first time in his six-year career as a starter. The club beat the No. 2 seed Buffalo Bills 27-24 in the Divisional Round and the No. 1 seed Baltimore Ravens 17-10 in the AFC Championship Game before taking down the San Francisco 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes earned his third Super Bowl MVP honor as the club secured its third Super Bowl title (LIV, LVII, LVIII) in five seasons. Earlier that season in a Week 5 win over the Minnesota Vikings, Reid surpassed Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach Tom Landry to sit in the fourth spot on the NFL's all-time wins list.

In 2022, Reid led his team to a 14-3 record, securing the club's seventh-consecutive AFC West title and a No. 1 seed in the playoffs. The Chiefs defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars 27-20 in the Divisional Round and beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 in an AFC Championship Game rematch, extending the club's NFL record to five championship games hosted at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs went on to beat the Philadelphia Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII. Under Reid's tutelage, QB Patrick Mahomes added his second NFL MVP (2019, 2022) honor and second Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII) award to his resume after leading the NFL in several statistical categories, including passing yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) and 25+ yard passes (49).

Reid's 2021 squad recorded a 12-5 record in the NFL's first 17-game season, won a sixth-straight AFC West title and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Pittsburgh 42-21 in the wild card round and Buffalo 42-36 in the Divisional Round en route to hosting the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs fell to Cincinnati 27-24. In Week 4, Reid recorded his 100th victory with Kansas City (postseason included), becoming the first head coach in NFL history to tally 100-plus wins with two franchises.

The 2020 Kansas City Chiefs tallied a franchise-record 14 wins (14-2 record), won their fifth-straight AFC West title and secured the No. 1 seed in the AFC for the second time in three years (2018, 2020). Kansas City defeated Cleveland 22-17 in the Divisional Round and Buffalo 38-24 in its third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the second-straight year en route to its second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. After just three years as starting QB, Reid-mentored Mahomes was the fastest player to throw 100 touchdown passes, doing so in just 40 games.

In 2019, Reid's 12-4 Chiefs finished the regular season as AFC West Champs for a fourth-straight season and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. The club defeated Houston 51-31 in the Divisional Round and Tennessee 35-24 in the AFC Championship Game on it's way to returning to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history, marking the first Super Bowl appearance since the club won Super Bowl IV following the 1969 season. In Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Florida, Reid's Chiefs fell behind 20-10. Entering the fourth quarter, Mahomes rallied the offense, putting up 21-unanswered points to secure a 31-20 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Mahomes' performance earned him Super Bowl MVP honors.

In 2018, Reid's team notched a 12-4 record and third-straight AFC West title. Mahomes became the first player in Chiefs history to be named NFL MVP. The club earned a No. 1 seed in the playoffs and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-13 in the Divisional Round. The win marked Kansas City's first home playoff win since Jan. 8, 1994. The Chiefs hosted their first AFC Championship Game in franchise history, falling 37-31 in overtime to the eventual Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots. Following the season, Reid was named Coach of the Year from the Maxwell Football Club for the fourth time in his career (2000, 2002, 2010, 2018). That season, following the club's Week 7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals, Reid became just the ninth head coach in NFL history to log 200 wins (regular and postseason).

In 2017, Reid led the Chiefs to a 10-6 record en route to the club's second-consecutive AFC West title, the first time in franchise history the club had won the division in back-to-back years.

In 2016, Reid led the Chiefs to a 12-4 record and an AFC West title for the first time since 2010. The team finished a perfect 6-0 against its division foes. It was the club's best record since going 13-3 in 2003. The Chiefs earned a first-round bye in the NFL playoffs and hosted a home AFC Divisional Game.

In 2015, Reid's Chiefs rattled off 10-consecutive regular season wins to finish 11-5 and earn a playoff berth. The Chiefs defeated the Houston Texans 30-0 in an AFC Wild Card game in Houston, marking the team's first playoff win in 22 years. Reid and company advanced to the AFC Divisional Round. The club's 10-straight wins after starting just 1-5 marked the greatest turnaround in a single season in NFL history. Reid's efforts earned him AFC Coach of the Year honors.

In his first year with the club, Reid was named the 2013 AFC Coach of the Year by the 101 Committee after his squad recorded the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history. Reid's team finished with an 11-5 record, a nine-game turnaround from the previous season and qualified for the postseason for the first time since 2010. Additionally, Reid mentored 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors, more than any other team in the NFL that season.

One of the most successful coaches in professional sports, Reid utilizes a passionate, yet workmanlike approach as an NFL head coach. A former offensive lineman at BYU, Reid still lives and works with those humble principles he learned during his time in the trenches.

"Kansas City is just going to get better. This is just the start of it," the late Pro Football Hall of Fame Head Coach John Madden said upon Reid joining the Chiefs. "He has a plan. And he's very thorough, very smart. He's a good coach, always has been."

His vision, his dedication and his organizational skills have been impeccable during his coaching career. Reid joined Philadelphia as head coach in 1999 and remained in that role through the 2012 season, becoming one of just 11 first-time NFL head coaches to lead 12-or-more seasons with the same club. Reid assumed the additional role of Executive Vice President of Football Operations in 2001.

While compiling his 10-9 postseason record with Philadelphia, Reid led the Eagles franchise to one Super Bowl appearance, a game that saw Philadelphia fall by a mere field goal to the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXIX following the 2004 season. Reid guided Philadelphia to nine playoff appearances (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2010) during his 14-year tenure in the City of Brotherly Love. During that time period, only Indianapolis (12) and New England (10) had more postseason appearances than the Eagles.

The Eagles captured their sixth NFC East division title under Reid in 2010. Along the way, Reid played a vital role in the rebirth of QB Michael Vick, who earned Comeback Player of the Year honors as well as a Pro Bowl berth. Reid, himself, earned Coach of the Year honors from the Maxwell Football Club.

In 2008, Reid became the 37th coach to reach the 100-win plateau and the 22nd to win 100 games with one franchise. He overcame a 5-5-1 start to reach the NFC Championship Game.

In 2006, the Eagles lost six of their first 11 games and two of their most explosive players in QB Donovan McNabb and DE Jevon Kearse, but Reid led a five-game win streak to close out the season, capturing the NFC East division title.

The 2004 Eagles clinched the NFC East title with five games remaining in the regular season and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. Along the way, Reid passed Greasy Neale for the most wins in franchise history as the Eagles earned their first trip to the Super Bowl since 1980.

In 2003, Philadelphia overcame an 0-2 start and a slew of injuries to post its second consecutive 12-win season. A year earlier, Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's Coach of the Year as the Eagles thrived without the services of McNabb to still capture home-field advantage in the playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing second in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

Throughout his time in the NFL, Reid has continuously evaluated what is best for the game of football, serving on the NFL Competition Committee's Coaches Subcommittee. The subcommittee is instrumental in providing feedback to the NFL Competition Committee for potential rule changes and ways to improve the game.

"I am a huge fan of Coach Reid," NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell said. "He is a person I have tremendous respect for as a coach and family man. Andy has been very helpful to me as Commissioner. He has tremendous insight into our game, and we are fortunate to have him in the NFL."

Reid was originally introduced as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on Jan. 11, 1999, after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. During his seven years with the Packers, Reid served as the tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach (1992-96) and as quarterbacks coach (1997-98). In his span with the Packers, the team reached the playoffs six times and represented the NFC twice in back-to-back Super Bowls, defeating New England in Super Bowl XXXI and falling to Denver in Super Bowl XXXII.

During his two-year stint as quarterbacks coach, Reid worked with Pro Football Hall of Fame QB Brett Favre. While tutoring Favre, Reid and the Packers won their second straight NFC title, and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third-consecutive season.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Reid's final collegiate stop was in Columbia, Missouri, as he coached the offensive line at the University of Missouri (1989-91). Prior to his stint with the Tigers, Reid spent two years working with the offensive line at the University of Texas – El Paso, and before that, he held the same position with Northern Arizona. Reid was hired as offensive line coach in 1983 and later promoted to offensive coordinator in 1984 at San Francisco State, helping the Gators lead the nation in passing and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85).

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at BYU under Head Coach LaVell Edwards in 1982. It was in that time at BYU that Reid began his association with Holmgren, who served as the quarterbacks coach for the Cougars. While at BYU, Reid earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics. While playing for the Cougars, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo Daily Herald.

A native of Los Angeles, Reid prepped at John Marshall High School in Los Angeles and went on to go to Glendale (Calif.) Junior College before attending BYU. Reid has been inducted into the Marshall High School Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as the Glendale Junior College Hall of Fame.

Education: Brigham Young University (B.A. 1981; M.A. 1983). Born: Los Angeles Family: Wife - Tammy; Children - Sons Spencer, Britt and the late Garrett, and daughters Drew Ann and Crosby. He has 14 grandchildren - Maverick, Somers, Saylor, Blake, Reid, Brigitte, Deacon, Canyon, Ryker, Rylen, Garrett, Ford, Levi and Monroe.

BRETT VEACH

GENERAL MANAGER

VEACH'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1998-03	Delaware	Wide Receiver ('98-01) Graduate Assistant Coach ('02-03)
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Pro & College Analyst ('13-14) Co-Director of Player Personnel ('15-16) General Manager ('17-26)

Brett Veach enters his 10th season as the Kansas City Chiefs General Manager and his 20th year in the National Football League in 2026. Veach was named the seventh general manager in Kansas City Chiefs history on July 10, 2017, reporting directly to Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt on all player personnel matters.

"After a comprehensive search process, I am pleased to announce that we have hired Brett Veach to serve as the next General Manager of the Kansas City Chiefs," Hunt said in a statement upon his hire. "Brett has a sharp football mind, a tremendous work ethic and a keen eye for finding talent. Over the last four seasons, he's played a critical role in building our football team. I look forward to working with him to continue to build on the strong foundation we have in place."

Veach enters his 14th season with the Chiefs after originally joining the club in 2013. He was promoted to Co-Director of Player Personnel prior to the 2015 season after serving two seasons as the club's Pro and College Personnel Analyst (2013-14).

During Veach's nine seasons as general manager, the club has won the AFC West eight times. The club played in seven straight AFC Championship Games, including hosting an NFL record five-straight at Arrowhead Stadium. In that span, the club also played in five Super Bowls in six years, hoisting the Lombardi trophy three times (LIV, LVII & LVIII), including back-to-back championship seasons.

The 2024 Kansas City Chiefs owned a franchise-best 15-2 record. After securing the ninth-straight AFC West Championship, the Chiefs entered the playoffs with home field advantage and a first-round bye. In facing the No. 4 seed Houston Texans in the Divisional Round, the Chiefs earned a 23-14 victory advancing them to another AFC Championship Game. The club would then host the Buffalo Bills who had previously won the regular season matchup on November 11, 2024. Kansas City escaped with a 32-29 win over the No. 2 seed Bills to advance to its fourth Super Bowl appearance in six years, marking the third trip in a row (LVII, LVIII & LIX). The Chiefs then fell to Philadelphia 40-22 in Super Bowl LIX.

The 2023 Kansas City Chiefs recorded an 11-6 record, extending the club's streak to eight-straight AFC West Championships. Entering the playoffs as the No. 3 seed, the Chiefs beat the No. 6 seed Miami Dolphins 26-7 in the Wild Card Round at home before QB Patrick Mahomes had to go on the road for the first time in his six-year career as a starter. The club beat the No. 2 seed Buffalo Bills 27-24 and the No. 1 seed Baltimore Ravens 17-10 before taking down the San Francisco 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes earned his third Super Bowl MVP honor as the club secured a third Super Bowl title (LIV, LVII, LVIII) in five seasons.

In 2022, the Chiefs recorded a 14-3 record, securing a franchise-record seventh-consecutive AFC West title and a No. 1 seed in the playoffs. Kansas City defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars 27-20 in the divisional round and beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 in an AFC Championship Game rematch, extending the club's NFL record to five-straight championship games hosted at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Patrick Mahomes added his second NFL MVP and second Super Bowl MVP to his resume after leading the NFL in several statistical categories, including passing yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) and 25+ yard passes (49).

The 2021 Kansas City Chiefs recorded a 12-5 record in the NFL's first 17-game season, extended the franchise record to six-straight AFC West titles and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Pittsburgh 42-21 in the wild card round and Buffalo 42-36 in the divisional round en route to hosting an NFL-record fourth-consecutive AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs fell to Cincinnati 27-24.

The 2020 squad went 14-2, earning a fifth-straight AFC West title and the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Kansas City defeated Cleveland 22-17 in the divisional round and Buffalo 38-24 in the third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City hoisted the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the second-straight year en route to its second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. The club fell to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 31-9 in Super Bowl LV.

In 2019, the Chiefs finished 12-4 in the regular season, notched a fourth-consecutive AFC West Championship and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. The club defeated the Houston Texans 51-31 in the divisional round and the Tennessee Titans 35-24 in the AFC Championship Game on it's way to returning to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history and first time since the club won Super Bowl IV following the 1969 season. In Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Florida, the Chiefs fell behind 20-10. Entering the fourth quarter, Mahomes rallied his offense, putting up 21-unanswered points to secure a 31-20 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Mahomes' performance earned Super Bowl MVP honors. At 41 years old, Veach became the second-youngest general manager to win a Super Bowl.

In 2018, the team notched a 12-4 record and thirdstraight AFC West title. The club earned a No. 1 seed in the playoffs and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-13 in the divisional round. The win marked Kansas City's first home playoff win since Jan. 8, 1994. The Chiefs hosted the first AFC Championship Game in franchise history, falling 37-31 in overtime to the eventual Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots. Following the season, Mahomes became the first player in Chiefs history to be named NFL MVP as he became just the second quarterback (QB Peyton Manning in 2013) in NFL history to throw for 50 touchdowns and 5,000 passing yards in a single season.

In 2017, the club compiled a 10-6 record and led the division for the second-consecutive season, marking the first time in franchise history the Chiefs had won the division in back-to-back seasons.

The 2026 NFL Draft marked the ninth draft that Veach was at the helm of the personnel department. In that span, he has made eight first-round selections, including two in both 2026 and 2022. Veach has a reputation for being aggressive in the draft, especially in the first round. He has initiated a trade with the first-round selection in seven of his nine drafts as general manager. In 2026, Veach traded the ninth overall pick to Cleveland in order to select CB Mansoor Delane (LSU) sixth overall and later drafted DL Peter Woods (Clemson) 29th overall. The 29th pick was aquired via trade with the Los Angeles Rams. In 2025, he conducted a trade with the Eagles in order to move back one spot and select T Josh Simmons (Ohio State) with the 32nd overall pick. In 2024, Veach traded up four spots from No. 32, selecting WR Xavier Worthy (Texas) with the 28th overall pick. He drafted DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah (Kansas State) with the 31st pick in 2023. In the 2022 NFL Draft, Veach traded up to select CB Trent McDuffie (Washington) with the 21st overall selection, and at No. 30, he selected DE George Karlaftis (Purdue). Veach traded the club's first round pick in 2021 as part of a deal acquiring T Orlando Brown from the Baltimore Ravens. The 2022 NFL Draft marked the first draft during Veach's tenure as GM that he made a first-round selection, picking RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire (LSU) at No. 32. Veach traded the 2018 and 2019 first-round picks to Buffalo and Seattle, respectively. The 2018 first-round pick was part of the package to trade up in 2017 to select QB Patrick Mahomes (Texas Tech), and the 2019 first round selection was part of the deal to acquire DE Frank Clark.

Prior to being promoted to General Manager, Veach played an integral role in the scouting process of QB Patrick Mahomes. The club's 22nd overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft was traded to Buffalo in 2017 in order to move up and draft Mahomes 10th overall. Since being drafted by the Chiefs, Mahomes is a two-time NFL MVP (2018, 2022), as well as a three-time Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII, LVIII).

Veach also has proven his due diligence in evaluating veteran talent both currently on the Chiefs roster or elsewhere around the NFL. During his time as General Manager, Veach has worked with players and their representatives to extend, re-sign or acquire several players. QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce and DE Chris Jones are the most notable players drafted by the club prior to Veach's time as GM that he has made a priority to keep in the red and gold. Similarly, his ability to evaluate and recruit veteran free agents has been proven as he's signed key contributors that have come in and played a significant role on the club's Super Bowl Championship teams including - S Tyrann Mathieu (2019), DE Frank Clark (2019), S Justin Reid (2022), WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (2022), WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling (2022), T Jawaan Taylor (2023), T Donovan Smith (2023), LB Drue Tranquill (2023) and S Mike Edwards (2023). During the 2026 Free Agency period, Veach signed Super Bowl MVP RB Kenneth Walker, S Alohi Gilman, NT Khyiris Tonga and QB Justin Fields.

The Mt. Carmel, Pennsylvania, native joined the Chiefs after spending six years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2007- 12). He served as a Southeast Regional Scout (2011-12) after originally joining Philadelphia's Player Personnel Department as a Pro and College Scout in 2010. Prior to entering the scouting department, Veach was the Assistant to Head Coach Andy Reid for three seasons (2007-09). Before joining the Eagles, Veach was the Supervisor of Intercollegiate Athletic Events at his alma mater, the University of Delaware (2005-06). He was a four-year letterman as a wide receiver for the Blue Hens, catching 99 passes for 1,470 yards (14.8 avg.). He left Delaware as the school's all-time leader in kickoff return yards with 1,558 yards.

Veach earned a bachelor's degree in health and physicaleducation and a master's degree in education from Delaware.Along the way, he earned Atlantic 10 Conference All-Academic honors three times during his collegiate career. He was a standout running back for Mt. Carmel High School where he was named state player of the year in 1996 and was a two-time all-state selection. He was also selected to participate in the Big 33 game between the top high school players from Pennsylvania and Ohio.

DAN

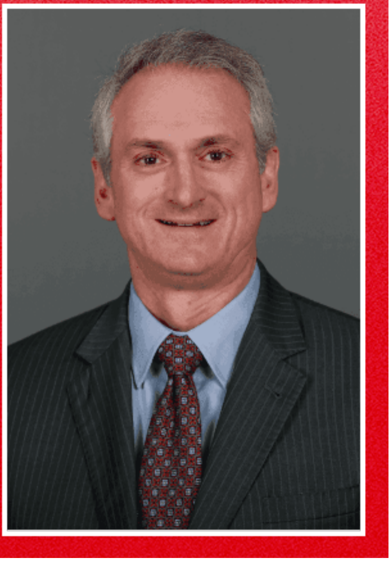
17TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 17TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS



Dan Crumb was named Kansas City's Chief Financial Officer on September 17, 2010, and added the title of Executive Vice President in March 2021. He enters his 17th season in the National Football League in 2026, working with Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and President Mark Donovan in directing the club's financial operations and supporting the team's business operations.

Since joining the Chiefs, Crumb has been instrumental in instituting changes that have improved the team's business performance and efficiency, employing the use of pricing models in a variety of business facets to ensure the club is planning for a future of growth across its football and business ventures. He also oversaw the implementation of new forecasting and budgeting, financial reporting, human resources/payroll and CRM systems along with the development of a company-wide internal business planning system complete with dashboarding and benchmarking tools to maximize efficiency in the strategic/business planning process. Additionally, Crumb plays a key role in evaluating and supporting ancillary business opportunities and investments, helping to identify new ventures that contribute to the team's continued success.

Along with the club's finance, strategy and data analytics and accounting departments, Crumb also oversees the team's information technology department, which serves the technology needs of both the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises. In addition, he leads the club's risk management efforts and directs the organization's artificial intelligence strategy and implementation, helping identify and deploy emerging technologies that enhance business operations, innovation, and efficiency across the organization. He also serves as Chief Financial Officer of Foolish Club Studios, the Chiefs official entertainment studio focused on developing original scripted and unscripted programming. For his work, Crumb was recognized as a 2016 CFO of the Year by the Kansas City Business Journal.

Since 2021, Crumb and the club's information technology department continue to strategically outsource software as a service partner while maintaining closer control on the internal systems needed to facilitate gameday and other major events at Arrowhead Stadium. New solutions in payment processing as well as customer data, marketing and loyalty were introduced to improve the fan experience. Additionally, enhanced protective controls were added at both Arrowhead Stadium and the team's practice facility. Lastly, the technology team digitized many of the processes and displays in the club's player personnel department, including the evolution to dynamic scouting systems to allow more streamlined processes.

Crumb worked closely with the information technology department throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, ensuring that the team's e-commerce structure was sustainable while emphasizing vendor satisfaction. Crumb also led the charge on the club's transition to a virtual work environment, ensuring that many of the club's practices would be transferable to a post-pandemic environment.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Crumb, a New Orleans native, worked for the New Orleans Hornets of the National Basketball Association as the team's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. During his time with the Hornets, he led the club's finance, human resources and information technology departments. He oversaw the transition of the finance department from Oklahoma City to New Orleans following Hurricane Katrina. In addition to financial leadership, Crumb was responsible for compliance with league standards and policies.

Before joining the Hornets, Crumb served as the Chief Financial Officer of Abita Springs Water Company, Inc. He guided the company's rebuilding efforts through Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, which included adjusting the company's business model, procuring product from alternate sources and preparing business interruption and property and casualty claims related to Hurricane Katrina. He also managed the company's finance, information technology and human resources departments for the organization's multi-state operation. Crumb began his professional career at KPMG, an international audit, tax and advisory firm.

An active member of the New Orleans community, Crumb served on the Board of Directors for The Salvation Army, Café Hope and Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans and Acadiana. He was also a guest lecturer at the Tulane University Law School Sports Law Program and has authored a number of articles for national and state CPA society journals. In 2025, Dan was elected to the Board of Directors for the Kentucky Horse Park Foundation.

Crumb has brought that same community involvement to the Midwest and is part of numerous philanthropic organizations in Kansas City. He sat on the Board of Trustees for the National World War I Museum and Memorial for nearly a decade and served as chairman of their Gallery Refresh Task Force for three years. He is also a member of the Board of Directors for the Truman Library Institute and the United Way of Greater Kansas City. Crumb has also been involved with Harvesters Community Food Network since 2011, serving as a member of the Board of Directors and a former Chair. He also brings his expertise to colleges across the country with yearly sports finance and management presentations to business students at Tulane University and the Universities of Oregon, Nebraska, Wyoming, Alaska, San Francisco and LSU New Orleans.

In addition to his community service, Crumb is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants. He also served on the Board of Directors of the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Education: University of New Orleans (B.S. Finance 1987); Tulane University (M.B.A. 1989). Family: Wife - Janet; Children - Pat and Ally.

LARA

6TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 6TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Lara Krug was hired as Kansas City's Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer on June 29, 2021. In her sixth season in the National Football League in 2026, she now holds the title of Executive Vice President and Chief Media and Marketing Officer. She also serves as President and Chief Operating Officer of Foolish Club Studios. In 2025, she was also honored as a member of Sports Business Journal’s Forty Under 40 Class of 2025, and in 2026 she received the WIN for KC Women’s Sports Awards – Kissick Construction Game Changer Award.

As the first CMO in franchise history, Krug oversees all club marketing functions, including brand marketing; digital, social and website operations; influencer activation; event entertainment and content production, and international. Krug is also responsible for all consumer products.

Reporting directly to team President Mark Donovan, she strategically and proactively works across the organization to identify opportunities to help internal and external stakeholders achieve key growth objectives. Employing short- and long-term strategies, Krug and the marketing team are focused on brand extensions and loyalty with current and new fans; engaging with Chiefs Kingdom through original content across all the club’s social, digital and mobile channels; and creating once-in-a-lifetime experiences domestically and globally to welcome all to Chiefs Kingdom.

Krug had a leading role in the Chiefs formation of Foolish Club Studios, a new studio focused on developing original scripted and unscripted content for short-form and long-form storytelling. Building on the legacy of American sports pioneer and Kansas City Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt, the studio prioritizes telling unique stories that not only highlight the rich, deep history of the franchise, the characters that have defined it and its position within the Kansas City and global communities, but also stories that reflect the spirit of humility, heart, and hard work that have been part of the team's heritage since the beginning. Coming off of the success of the Hallmark Channel collaboration Holiday Touchdown: A Chiefs Love Story – the number one cable movie of 2024 – along with viral online hits like the holiday Claymation short A Kingdom Christmas Story: Hail Merry (nearly one million views), the Chiefs have formalized their entertainment efforts by launching a dedicated studio to oversee production and development of stories that transcend football and sport.

In August 2025, the studio released its first credited project, The Kingdom, a six-episode documentary on ESPN, ESPN+ and Disney+ chronicling the more than 60-year history of the franchise and the club’s pursuit of an unprecedented third-consecutive world championship. The series became one of the top 10 most-watched programs on Disney+ during its opening weekend. The studio has also announced its next project: a yet-to-be-titled soccer feature documentary in partnership with Wavelength and Trevor Noah’s Day Zero Productions, highlighting a team of teen refugees preparing for a potentially life-changing international tournament.

Krug continues to play a pivotal role in helping the brand reach new heights off the field, including surpassing one million subscribers on the official YouTube channel at the end of 2024. This achievement made the Chiefs the first NFL team – and only the second American professional sports team – to reach this milestone. In total, the team’s social footprint grew by four million last year, and they also ranked first in TikTok followers. The Chiefs are now home of the #1 fanbase in the NFL, with 57 percent of fans being female.

In addition to managing all domestic marketing efforts for the team, Krug is leading the club’s rapid international expansion across all NFL Global Markets Program (GMP) territories. This league initiative grants clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization, enabling the Chiefs to build a more robust global brand while driving NFL fan growth internationally. In 2025, the Chiefs were awarded additional marketing and commercialization rights for the United Kingdom, Ireland, and Spain. These three new markets add to the Chiefs existing rights in Mexico, Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, bringing the team's total to seven, among the highest in the NFL. The Chiefs are the first NFL team to play regular-season games in five different countries (the United States plus four international markets), opening the 2025 season in Brazil – the franchise’s fourth international regular-season game. The Chiefs were the only NFL team to activate in every GMP market in 2025, doing so through their innovative “Chiefs House” experience. Krug and her team also helped secure the club's first ever game in Germany during the 2023 season and activated the “Chiefs ChampionShip,” a yacht fan activation on the banks of the Main River in central Frankfurt, that served as a fan hub for new and loyal fans to experience Chiefs Kingdom.

Her leadership has been instrumental in overseeing hallmark initiatives such as the city’s hosting of the 2023 NFL Draft, which utilized historic and iconic Union Station and the National WWI Museum and Memorial serving as the backdrop to one of the event’s largest footprints. Fans of all teams attending the NFL Draft got to take a peak into the unique experience of Chiefs Kingdom through the “Chiefs Kingdom Experience,” which combined the rich history of the franchise with the immersive experience that can only be found at Arrowhead Stadium.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Krug spent more than seven years in multiple marketing roles with Anheuser-Busch InBev, eventually taking over as Vice President of U.S. Marketing for Stella Artois (2018-21). Before leading the national marketing efforts for Stella Artois, she served as the Vice President of U.S. Marketing for Anheuser-Busch InBev's Regional Brands, including Estrella Jalisco, Landshark, Presidenté, Beck's and Kirin. Those roles saw her develop and lead experiential platforms and campaigns around Super Bowl LIV (2020) and the FIFA World Cup (2018). She also held positions as the Director of Global Experiential Marketing and Director of Global Digital and Media Operations at Anheuser-Busch InBev.

Before joining A-B InBev, she spent three years with L'Oréal USA, where she finished her time as Associate Vice President of Global Digital Marketing, overseeing the creation of digital and social content toolkits, CRM and data capture strategy. Prior to L'Oréal, Krug was the Manager of Online Marketing for Avon Inc. and Avon.com and was a Media Strategist for multiple national clients at PHD Media.

Krug became a board member for EarlyStart in 2024 and serves on the Future Council for the Effie’s, an organization that drives education and awards programs for effective marketing campaigns and platforms. She also serves on the Tribeca X Advisory Board and the Women Leaders in Sport Advisory Board.

MATT
KENNY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATIONS OFFICER

10TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Matt Kenny enters his 10th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and was promoted to Kansas City's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer in June 2026. He most recently served as Executive Vice President of Operations and Events (2021-26) after originally joining the team as the Vice President of Stadium Services and Events in September 2017.

Kenny oversees the security, operations, and fan experience of Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex. His purview includes capital planning, facilities, maintenance, grounds parking and logistics, event operations, guest services, concessions and merchandise partners. He also oversees Arrowhead Events, the non-football revenue-generating arm of the Chiefs, the team's training camp, and is the club's main point of contact with the Jackson County Sports Complex Authority.

Kenny is also leading the evolution of the club's retail and hospitality experience. With the guiding principles of speed of service, quality product, customer value and optionality, the advancements include the transition to frictionless and cashless payments, introduction and expansion of mobile ordering, kiosk order and payment and grab-and-go concessions stands. Additionally, Kenny has spearheaded the introduction of six new all-inclusive club spaces inside the stadium, the development of the Ford Tailgate District, the repositioning of the Tailgate Suites presented by Tickets for Less and the redesign and renovation of the retail experience at Arrowhead Stadium.

Arrowhead Events continues to drive the event calendar and utilization of Arrowhead throughout the calendar year with regional and world class events including biggest touring artists, motor sports, NCAA, Division 1 Football, and international soccer.

Kenny is part of a group of team and civic leaders, which included the Kansas City Sports Commission, who successfully secured the bid for Kansas City to host the 2023 NFL Draft, and he was a member of the committee that successfully won Kansas City's bid to host six 2026 FIFA World Cup matches at Arrowhead Stadium. Kenny served as the Chiefs representative on the board of KC2026, the entity responsible for planning and executing Kansas City's obligations to host the tournament.

In additional to his current responsibilities and oversight, Kenny has assumed a leadership role in the design, development, execution, and operations of the team's new stadium, practice facility and headquarters, as well as the mixed-use developments around the facilities.

Kenny joined the Chiefs after five years as Senior Director of Event Operations for the Chicago Cubs and Wrigley Field in Chicago. While in Chicago, he was responsible for leading event operations and transforming the guest experience. In addition, he led the development and operations of the enterprise-wide events business and served as an executive project manager and decision maker for the Wrigley Field restoration and related real estate developments.

Prior to his time at Wrigley Field, Kenny served as Senior Director of Security and Event Services for the Milwaukee Brewers and Miller Park in Milwaukee. In his role, he oversaw all events and the guest experience at Miller Park, including food and beverage and parking partners, and supported the procurement of non-baseball event opportunities. In addition, he maintained relationships with the City of Milwaukee and the Stadium District.

Before joining the Major League Baseball ranks, Kenny worked for the Metropolitan Entertainment and Convention Authority in Omaha, Nebraska, serving as House Manager for Omaha Civic Auditorium. While there, he coordinated and managed all aspects of facilities and events at the venues, including the group's arena, convention center and theater.

He currently sits on the Board of Directors for the Kansas City Sports Commission and the Stadium Managers Association.

TYLER

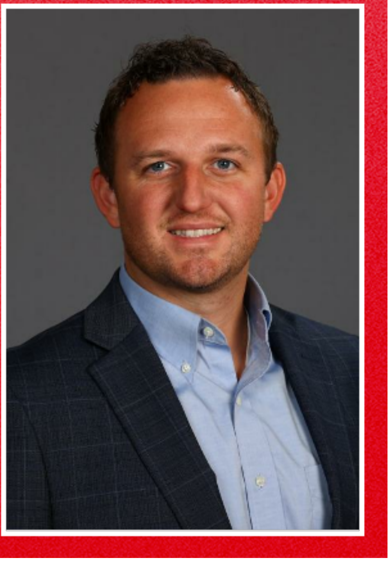
18TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS



Tyler Kirby enters his 18th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and is in his fourth season as the club's Executive Vice President of Business Development, having been promoted to the position in May 2022. In 2025, he also assumed the role of Chief Revenue Officer, expanding his leadership oversight across the organization’s revenue operations.

In his current position, Kirby oversees all aspects of the team's corporate partnership, ticketing, premium and hospitality sales, client services and performance marketing efforts. Kirby's team focuses on growing fans and corporate partnerships throughout Chiefs Kingdom.

Over the years, Kirby has been integral in launching innovative revenue driving initiatives at Arrowhead Stadium as well as strengthening the club's digital marketing efforts, using data and technology to transform the way the club connects with companies and individuals, markets to fans and grows Chiefs Kingdom. Kirby’s team has led sales efforts to create and enhance corporate partnerships, premium hospitality and experiences around the Chiefs and Arrowhead Stadium. The club has consistently been an NFL leader in partnerships, ticketing, digital marketing, premium hospitality and innovation during Kirby’s tenure.

Prior to being elevated to his current position, Kirby served as the Vice President of Business Development for one year (2021), Vice President of Ticketing for four years (2017-20), Director of Ticket Sales and Operations for four years (2013-16) and spent two seasons as Ticket Sales Manager (2011-12) after originally being hired by the club as a Ticket Sales Representative in April of 2009.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, he spent time with the Illinois State University Athletic Department and as the Marketing Coordinator at U.S. Cellular Coliseum in Bloomington, Illinois.

Kirby received his bachelor's degree in marketing and business administration from Illinois State University in 2007 and received his MBA in marketing from the Bloch School of Management at the University of Missouri - Kansas City in 2011.

In 2024, Kirby was named to Sports Business Journal’s Forty Under 40 class, he’s an active board member of the YMCA of Great Kansas City and is an alumni of the KC Chamber's Centurions Leadership Program after serving his two-year term from 2017 to 2018.

Education: Illinois State University (B.A. 2007); University of Missouri - Kansas City (MBA 2011). Family: Wife - Ashley; Children – Colin, Emma and Addison.

KIRSTEN

17TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 17TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Kirsten Krug enters her 17th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and her sixth year as the club's Executive Vice President of Administration after being promoted to the position on March 23, 2021. In her current role, Krug is responsible for overseeing all facets of human resources for the club, including benefits administration, recruiting, employee relations, compensation analysis, training and special projects.

She also oversees the club's Player Services Department, which includes the team's Player Engagement staff as well as the Vice President of Player Services and Assessment. Those departments are designed to assist players, coaches and staff members in making positive contributions to the Chiefs and the NFL as well as using various resources to help prepare individuals for life after football, including career placement and financial guidance. In addition, the team historian role reports to her.

In 2024, Krug accepted an invitation to join the inaugural steering committee for the NFL Women's Community to connect women across the National Football League. The NFL Women's Community will streamline communication and amplify resources available to women in the league and serve as a platform for resources, events, program and initiatives. As a member of the steering committee, Krug is tasked with implementing many new initiatives and providing input while representing the broader interests of the women of the National Football League.

In 2022, Krug was appointed to serve on the NFL Employee Benefit Committee which is responsible for administering club and league benefit plans. The NFL Investment Committee was established in 2003 as a separate entity to oversee the assets of retirement plans. The committee is responsible for all other areas including plan design and amendment, benefit and administrative expense payments and employee eligibility issues.

In 2020 and 2021, Krug served as one of two Infection Control Officers (ICOs) for the club during the pandemic-impacted football season, playing a vital role in the health and safety of staff members, coaches and players inside and outside of team facilities.

Prior to being named the Executive Vice President of Administration, Krug served as the Vice President of Administration for nine years (2012-20) and as Director of Human Resources for two years (2010-11). Before beginning her NFL career, she spent more than 13 years as the Director of Human Resources and Training for Amarr Garage Doors, one of the nation's largest manufacturers of residential and commercial garage doors. While there, she managed all aspects of human resources and training for the more than 600 employees that made up Amarr's workforce.

Prior to her stint at Amarr, Krug served as the Vice President of Business Development at the KU Credit Union and as a Quality Control Supervisor at Kemper Financial Services. The Lawrence, Kansas, native was a letter winner on the University of Kansas tennis team.

Education: University of Kansas (B.A. 1989). Family: Husband - Robin; Children - Ainsley and Payton.

ROBERT

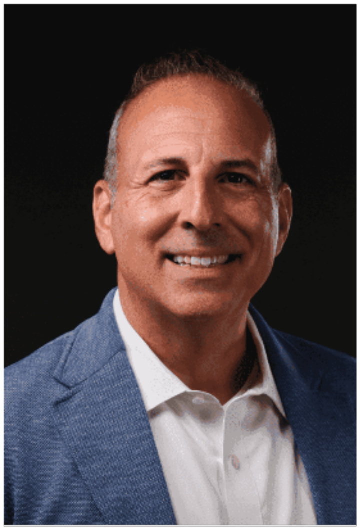
VICE PRESIDENT OF CONTENT AND PRODUCTION

32ND YEAR IN THE NFL | 10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS



Robert Alberino, Jr. re-joined the Chiefs in 2021 as the Vice President of Content and Production after originally serving as the club's Vice President of Media and Marketing for four years (2010-13). He enters his 10th season with the club and his 32nd season in the NFL in 2026.

Alberino leads all global content efforts, including creation and distribution across the club's traditional, digital, social and over-the-top platforms. He also oversees all aspects of game production, presentation and entertainment elements at Arrowhead Stadium.

The 2022 season was the first time that Alberino oversaw a new division of production which helped launch the team and the brand into new international markets, as well as complete special projects and new long-form concepts. These efforts were delivered with best-in-class content to Chiefs fans in Germany and Mexico and then further expanded in 2025 to Spain, Ireland and the United Kingdom. These efforts have been integral in helping grow Chiefs Kingdom overseas as well as in the expansion of the NFL’s international fanbase.

In his first stint with the franchise, Alberino oversaw the club's media partnerships and creation of the in-house production team, 65 Toss Power Trap Productions, as well as the team's digital operations on Chiefs.com while playing a key role in the club's marketing initiatives. Alberino has been awarded 75 NATAS Emmy Awards for his work in the creative arts and multiple other production accolades.

He spent eight seasons (2013-20) as Vice President/Executive Producer for the San Francisco 49ers between his stops in Kansas City. With San Francisco, Alberino oversaw all marketing, creative and design, as well as the launch and direction of 49ers Studios, the team's in-house production division. His group created all multimedia and broadcasts across all platforms, while he managed branding, events, social media, and new media efforts.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2010, Alberino spent 13 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (1997-2009) as Vice President of Broadcasting where he helped launch the Eagles Television Network. He spent three years (1995-97) as a filmmaker/producer with NFL Films where he was a writer/director for HBO's "Inside the NFL."

In 2012, while with the Chiefs, Alberino was bestowed an honorary enlistment in the United States Army and continues to pay forward the honor by continually working alongside all branches of the military to this day. He sits on the Board of Directors for The First Twenty, a non-profit dedicated to improving the performance, health and safety of the American First Responder.

BEGNOCHE

16TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 16TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Kellen Begnoche is in his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and serves as the organization’s Vice President of Partnership Strategy, a role he assumed in 2023. Begnoche oversees the full scope of the Chiefs current corporate partnership portfolio and guides the long-term commercial strategy that supports both domestic and international growth.

In his role, Begnoche leads partner relationship management, revenue optimization, and the development of innovative brand platforms that elevate partner objectives and deepen fan engagement. He is responsible for securing multi-year commitments, expanding global commercial opportunities, and identifying new revenue streams that strengthen the franchise’s business performance. His leadership has helped shape the club’s approach to integrated marketing, strategic activation, and international market expansion.

Begnoche brings more than a decade of experience in partnership activation and client service within the Chiefs organization. Prior to his current position, he held progressive leadership roles within the partnership and premium hospitality departments. He began his career with marketing internships at the Chiefs, the Houston Astros, and Hallmark.

Education: Kansas State University (B.S. 2009), Wichita State University (M.Ed. 2011). Family: Wife - Rachel; Children - three sons.

NICK
CAPO

VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENT OPERATIONS

21ST YEAR IN THE NFL | 9TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Nick Capo was promoted to Vice President of Event Operations & Security on September 9, 2021, and enters his ninth season with the club in 2026 after originally joining the Chiefs in 2018 as the Director of Event Operations.

Reporting to the Executive Vice President of Arrowhead Operations and Events, Capo plays a critical leadership role in strategic planning and cross-functional coordination to ensure the safe, secure and efficient execution of all events at Arrowhead Stadium, including NFL games, concerts and large-scale special events. He oversees comprehensive operational readiness planning, integrating stadium logistics, life-safety protocols, emergency preparedness, and multi-agency security coordination into a unified event delivery framework.

Capo's team leads advanced operational planning and command-level alignment across internal departments and external partners, ensuring seamless communication and execution of event-day logistics. His portfolio includes oversight of stadium and practice facility security operations, encompassing threat assessment integration, credentialed access control, perimeter and ingress/egress strategy, public safety coordination, incident command structure implementation, and compliance with NFL and federal security standards. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement partners to support layered security planning and intelligence-informed operational decision-making.

In addition to overseeing day-to-day operational security, Capo has provided executive-level support for major internal initiatives and high-profile events, including the organization's four Super Bowl appearances following the 2019, 2020, 2022 and 2023 seasons, where he contributed comprehensive travel logistics, team operations security support, and host-site coordination. He also served on the internal leadership committee responsible for launching Chiefs Fit, the organization's two state-of-the-art fitness, health and wellness centers, ensuring operational security, facility readiness, and risk mitigation frameworks were embedded from inception.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Capo spent four years as the Senior Director of Ballpark Operations and Events for the San Diego Padres and Petco Park (2014-17). While in San Diego, he oversaw multiple departments, including security, event operations, guest services, groundskeeping, special events and ticket operations, and supported an event calendar that featured more than 150 baseball games and other special events. He served as the primary lead for operations and logistical planning for the 2016 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Petco Park and was the club's primary contact with the City of San Diego related to the venue's event schedule.

Before making the jump to baseball, he spent 10 years (2005-14) in various managerial and director-level roles with both the Miami Dolphins and what is now Hard Rock Stadium. While in Miami, Capo served as the Executive Director of the Dolphins Cycling Challenge (2011-14), the Miami Dolphins premier fundraising event. He also served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations and Events (2010-12), Senior Manager of Stadium Operations (2008-10) and Manager of Event Operations (2005-07), handling many facets of operations for the football team and stadium, including event set-up and conversion, as well as staffing. He also completed two separate year-long internships with the Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium in 1999 and 2002.

Over the course of his professional career Capo has worked a number of notable events, including 11 Super Bowls, the MLB All-Star Game, WrestleMania and multiple major stadium concert tours.

Capo graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management from Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kansas.

CHUCK CASTELLANO

VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNITY OUTREACH & ALUMNI AFFAIRS

27TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 27TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Chuck Castellano is in his first season as the Vice President of Community Outreach and Alumni Affairs. After originally joining the Chiefs in 2000 as a seasonal assistant in the Public Relations department, Castellano was hired to join the Community Outreach team when it was formally established in 2001 and now enters his 27th season with the club in 2026.

Castellano reports to the club's Vice President of Community Impact and Civic Affairs. He leads all aspects of the club's community outreach programming and strategy, as well as overseeing all alumni relations efforts across the Kansas City Ambassadors and all Chiefs Legends.

Over his 26 years, Castellano has helped shape the vision and growth of the organization's community outreach efforts, launching the Chiefs Community Caring Team and developing the annual "Rookie Club" to help introduce young players to the countless charitable causes throughout the Kansas City region.

He helped Will Shields (2003) and Brian Waters (2009) earn the prestigious Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Honors – recognizing their play on the field as well as their commitment to philanthropy and community impact off it. In addition, he's worked extensively with the Red Coaters, a highly dedicated group of community service-minded Season Ticket Members who volunteer their time on behalf of the Chiefs organization to serve the community, as well as the Kansas City Ambassadors, former Chiefs players who serve as a liaison between the team, the community, and various civic organizations.

Castellano's team orchestrates more than 100 individual community outreach moments throughout the region each year that align with organizational initiatives and NFL celebrations, while also supporting countless player-led events and initiatives.

A native of Lake Mary, Florida, Castellano graduated from the University of Central Florida with an associate's degree in 1996, earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Flagler College in 1998 and received his master's in education degree with a focus in sport studies from the University of Kansas in 2004. In addition to his seasonal role with the Chiefs, Castellano also spent the 2001 season with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

Education: University of Central Florida (A.A.), Flagler College (B.A. sport management) and University of Kansas (M.S. in education with a focus in sport studies). Family: Wife – Heather; Children – Braelyn, Gwendolyn, and Shea.

LAUREN DENOWITZ

2ND YEAR IN THE NFL | 2ND YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Lauren Denowitz enters her second season as Vice President of Brand and Fan Engagement for the Kansas City Chiefs, joining the organization as the club accelerates its mission to become “The World’s Team,” leading efforts to deepen fan connection, drive global relevance, and expand the Chiefs brand into new cultural arenas.

Denowitz is responsible for shaping the team’s brand strategy – both domestically and in the Chiefs’ international expansion markets – overseeing several departments including core football marketing, culture marketing, partnership marketing, youth marketing, as well as influencers and talent. She also owns the brand’s research and insights agenda, which drives the work she and her team do year-round.

She supports the creative and strategic development of integrated campaigns, fan engagement initiatives, and branded entertainment platforms – and partners closely with cross-functional partners to ensure these are executed cohesively and with impact.

Football Development also sits under her remit – where her focus is largely on growing the game amongst youth and girls, primarily via flag football.

Prior to joining the Chiefs full-time, Denowitz served as an entertainment and marketing consultant through her company, Witz About Her LLC. In that role, she helped shape the strategic vision and development of Foolish Club Studios, the Kansas City Chiefs’ premium content studio, and led the creative development of the Chiefs’ first-ever global brand positioning platform. As a consultant, she also partnered with brands including Northwell Health, fable.works, and New York Cares, crafting brand-driven storytelling strategies across entertainment formats.

Previously, Denowitz was Global Studio Head of draftLine Entertainment at Anheuser-Busch InBev, where she launched the company’s branded entertainment studio and greenlit and packaged premium TV, film, and podcast projects for AB InBev’s global portfolio. Earlier, she led U.S. marketing for Stella Artois, modernizing the heritage brand, developing commercially integrated retail programs, and producing award-winning campaigns—including several Super Bowl spots. She also managed marketing for LandShark Lager, Beck’s, and Kirin Ichiban. She began her career at Philips, where she led go-to-market strategy and retail marketing across North America for the Philips Avent portfolio.

Originally from Westport, CT, Denowitz holds a B.A. in Political Science from the University of Michigan. After more than a decade in New York City, she recently made the move to Kansas City.

BRIAN
DUNN

VICE PRESIDENT OF ACCOUNTING AND CONTROLLER

16TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 16TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Entering his 16th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026, Brian Dunn was promoted to Vice President of Accounting and Controller in May 2022.

In his position, Dunn oversees the club's financial and NFL reporting, payroll, cash management and all aspects of the club's accounting activities. Additionally, he assists in the team's annual budgeting process and oversees the operations of the Hunt Family Foundation 50/50 Raffle at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, which has raised nearly $8 million for local charities since it was first introduced in 2013.

Dunn originally joined the Chiefs in 2011 as the Controller. During his tenure, he has spearheaded efforts to improve the club's financial reporting systems, internal controls and processes. These improvements included the implementation of a variety of information technology solutions to automate processes and streamline reporting.

Prior to arriving at the Chiefs, Dunn served as Director of SEC Reporting and Compliance for CVR Energy (2008-11) focusing on external financial reporting, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and technical accounting research. He also spent nearly nine years (1999-08) with KPMG LLP, one of the world's leading accounting and financial services firms, reaching the level of Senior Manager, serving clients in several industries, including financial services, professional sports and engineering.

He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants. Dunn is also a board member of the Derrick Thomas/Neil Smith Third and long Foundation.

Education: University of Kansas (B.S. Business/Accounting 1998; Master of Accounting and Information Systems 1999). Family: Wife – Mandi; Children – Mason, Sarah and Henry.

BRAD

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS

19TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Brad Gee enters his 19th NFL season and 18th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and embarks on his sixth season as Vice President of Football Communications after being promoted to the position on September 9, 2021.

He originally joined the club as a public relations intern in 2009 before being hired full-time that same year. In 2011 he was promoted to Manager of Football Communications and has since continued his rise in shaping the club's football communications efforts as Assistant Director of Football Communications (2014-15) and most recently as Director of Football Communications (2016-20).

Gee works closely with the team's players, coaches, personnel executives and football operations departments on numerous projects and initiatives, including interviews, feature sit-downs, media preparation, team partnership obligations, internal and external player asks and special projects.

Since 2018, Gee has been a part of the communications efforts for 21 postseason games, which included the Chiefs hosting an NFL-record five-straight AFC Championship Games, while appearing in six, and five Super Bowl appearances. The three-time Super Bowl champion organized player and coach media responsibilities, schedules and preparations for Super Bowls LIV, LV, LVII, LVIII and LIX.

Gee oversees the club's day-to-day media operations and logistics, serving as the lead point of contact for media regularly assigned to cover the team. He is also the main liaison for the club's internal content teams.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Gee served as a communications intern with the Denver Broncos (2008) and was a training camp intern with the Broncos (2006-07), giving him a total of 17 NFL seasons and 19 NFL training camps.

He has worked nine Super Bowls, two Pro Bowls and one AFC Championship Game as a member of the NFL's public relations staff.

The Des Moines, Iowa, native graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications from Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa, where he spent three years working in the Iowa State Athletics Communications office. In 2024, Gee was honored for his continued dedication to young sports professionals and his commitment to Iowa State as he was selected as the 2024 Kansas City Cyclone of the Year. Gee was also honored with the 2024 Greenlee School of Journalism Professional Achievement award for a Greenlee graduate who exemplifies leadership, impact and achievement in the field.

BRANDON HAMILTON

PROJECT EXECUTIVE, FACILITIES DEVELOPMENT

17TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 17TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Brandon Hamilton enters his 17th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and was named Project Executive, Facilities Development in June 2026. In the newly created role, Hamilton serves as the club's construction lead for its major facilities development program, including the new stadium in Wyandotte County, Kansas, and the team's new practice facility and headquarters in Olathe, Kansas, both scheduled to open in advance of the 2031 season.

Hamilton leads the club's construction efforts throughout all phases of development, working closely with architects, engineers, construction managers, consultants, partners and contractors to coordinate the planning, design and delivery of the organization's new facilities.

Hamilton originally joined the Chiefs in 2010 as the Director of Facilities and was then promoted to Vice President of Stadium Operations and Facilities in 2017. During his tenure, his responsibilities have spanned facility operations, capital construction, major-event readiness and sustainable venue management at Arrowhead Stadium and The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex.

Over the past 16 years, Hamilton has overseen numerous construction and renovation projects at Arrowhead Stadium, including a three-year seating replacement program, end zone video and technology upgrades, suite renovations, a complete Chiefs Team Store remodel, the reimagination of the Chiefs Hall of Honor and the renovation of the club's home locker room complex.

Hamilton also played a key role in Kansas City's successful effort to become a host city for the FIFA World Cup 2026 and led the club's stadium renovation efforts in preparation for the tournament. The project included significant field, seating, electrical and broadcast infrastructure improvements, including the installation of a SubAir subsurface aeration system and 11 rows of removable seating along the north sideline. He also oversaw preparations to ensure the playing surface and stadium infrastructure met FIFA requirements for the six World Cup matches hosted at the venue.

Sustainability has been another major focus throughout Hamilton's tenure with the Chiefs. He directs the club's Extra Yard for the Environment program, which focuses on waste diversion, recycling, energy efficiency and other environmentally responsible practices throughout the organization's facilities and operations. In 2025, Hamilton led efforts that resulted in LEED Existing Building and Operations Certification and ISO 20121 Event Sustainability Certification.

Hamilton is a member of the NFL Green Initiatives program, where he participates in industry discussions and educational programs focused on sustainability initiatives across the league.

He is also active in the professional venue management community. He is a member of the Stadium Managers Association and was named to the association's Board of Directors in February 2026. He also serves on the Stadium Managers Association Seminar Planning Committee.

In May 2021, Hamilton was named to the Board of Directors of the Green Sports Alliance, an environmentally focused trade organization that brings together stakeholders from across the sports industry to advance healthy and sustainable communities. He serves on the organization's strategic planning committee and chairs a working group focused on improving the Play to Zero platform, a web-based application used to track sustainability performance.

Hamilton's connection to Arrowhead Stadium predates his employment with the Chiefs. Prior to joining the organization in 2010, he served as a Program Manager with The Konrath Group, where he worked on the major renovation of Arrowhead Stadium completed between 2007 and 2010. Before entering the sports and venue industry, Hamilton spent a decade in residential construction as a builder and superintendent.

Hamilton earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Northwest Missouri State University in 1995 and completed the IAVM Venue Management School program in 2014.

KEVIN

VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

10TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Kevin Higgins begins his 10th season with the club in 2026 and is in his sixth season as the Vice President of Information Technology/CISO after being promoted to the position on Sept. 8, 2021.

Reporting to the club's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Higgins originally joined the franchise in 2017 as the Director of Information Technology and in 2019, added the title of Club Information Security Officer to his duties.

In his role he oversees the operations, management and security of information assets and technology resources for the club as well as Hunt Midwest. He and his staff handle all technology-related needs for the club, including device security and management, network security, product management, software development and help desk support. For his efforts, Higgins was recognized as a CIO Award recipient by the Info-Tech Research Group in 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024 for extraordinary technology leadership. This award recognizes CIOs who have achieved a world-class level of business leadership satisfaction.

Throughout 2025, Higgins and his team focused on strengthening Arrowhead Stadium's core technology foundation while advancing innovation across the organization. A multi-year modernization effort was completed with the full upgrade of the stadium's Wi-Fi and distributed antenna system (DAS), significantly improving connectivity, capacity, and resiliency for fans, staff, and large-scale events. The technology organization also advanced several artificial intelligence–related initiatives aimed at improving operational efficiency and unlocking new revenue opportunities, while maintaining strong governance and oversight. In support of these efforts, Higgins oversaw both the Fan Privacy and Artificial Intelligence Steering Committees, ensuring that emerging technologies were deployed responsibly and in alignment with organizational values, regulatory expectations, and fan trust.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Higgins held multiple director-level and executive roles in the information technology space focusing on data-informed technical and operational solutions to meet a variety of business needs. These stops included three years as the Chief Technology Officer at Ad Astra Information Systems in Overland Park, Kansas (2015-17), three years as IT Director for the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine in Leawood, Kansas (2013-15), and nearly seven years as Director of E-Commerce and Marketing Solutions at Collective Brands, Inc. in Topeka, Kansas (2007-13).

In addition, he made three professional stops in Atlanta, Georgia, in various IT capacities, including as the Director of Product Development at PRGX Inc. (2006-07) and Vice President of IT and E-Commerce at Anderson Press Inc. (2003-06). He also served as Chief Architect and Owner for Digital Research Enterprises, Inc., a family-owned professional services, software development and business consulting firm (1995-03).

Higgins graduated with a bachelor's degree in computer science from Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga.

NEALE

VICE PRESIDENT OF PARTNERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

5TH YEAR IN THE NFL

5TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Neale Hood enters his fifth season in the NFL and with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 after joining the club in June 2022 as the club's Vice President of Partnership Development. In his role he helps direct all new sales efforts, as well as assists in renewal efforts for the organization.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Hood spent more than a decade in partnership activation, business development and revenue generation at multiple stops in the motorsports industry. He was responsible for helping secure tens of millions of dollars in partnership and sponsorship agreements in that time.

He most recently served as the Senior Director of Partnerships for John Force Racing (2021-22), running the day-to-day sales operation and building out the racing team's initial commercial division. Prior to that stop, Hood spent three years (2018-20) as the Senior Director of Partnerships for Indianapolis Motor Speedway/INDYCAR, the premier level of open-wheel racing in North America.

He spent six years (2012-17) with two separate NASCAR teams, serving as the Director of Business Development and Marketing for Furniture Row Racing for three years (2015-17) and as the Director of Business Development for Michael Waltrip Racing (2012-15).

Hood had an initial stint at INDYCAR from 2010-12, serving as the Manager of Partner Strategy, running the INDYCAR Discover Card program and building a business-to-business platform for sales generation.

JAYNE

VICE PRESIDENT OF FAN EXPERIENCE

25TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 25TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Jayne Martin enters her 25th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and her fifth as the club's Vice President of Fan Experience after being promoted to the role in May 2022. Across more than two decades with the organization, Martin has dedicated her career to elevating the guest and fan experience while stewarding the club's longstanding service culture.

Martin originally joined the franchise as the Hospitality and Volunteer Programs Coordinator (2002-05) and has since held progressive leadership roles including Hospitality and Volunteer Programs Manager (2005-09), Premium Services Manager (2009-10), Customer Relations Manager (2010-13) and Director of Fan Experience (2013-21).

In her current role, Martin leads a full-time, fan-facing guest services organization and oversees event services operations supported by more than 750 event staff members. Her responsibilities include Season Ticket Member communications and year-round programs, chairing the Fan Conduct Committee, fan insights and sentiment tracking, accessibility initiatives, and staff education and training. Her leadership has centered on aligning internal teams and vendor partners around a shared service commitment while elevating both staff and guest experiences. In recognition of her community-focused leadership approach, Martin was named the 2023 City Year Idealist of the Year.

Martin has led the intentional evolution of the club's long-standing Championship Service platform into Serve Like Lamar, a modern service and training framework designed to preserve and carry forward the leadership principles and people-first values established by founder Lamar Hunt. The reimagined platform is informed by Martin's firsthand professional experience working during Hunt's tenure with the organization, bringing authenticity and continuity to how the club's service culture is expressed today. In this capacity, she serves as a steward of the club's service legacy, translating foundational values into contemporary expectations, training programs and gameday execution.

She also provides oversight of the club's Voice of the Fan and fan sentiment tracking programs, ensuring guest feedback is actively used to inform both operational and strategic decisions. In addition, Martin leads the organization's accessibility initiatives, reinforcing a culture of inclusion through staff education, awareness and expanded experiences designed to meet the needs of all guests.

At the league level, Martin currently serves as Chairperson of the NFL Guest Services & Stadium Operations Committee, representing NFL stadiums, operators and clubs in advancing guest experience, customer service standards and stadium operations initiatives. The committee works in coordination with the NFL Security Department, all 32 clubs and stadium operators, and focuses on fan conduct, training programs, stadium management and overall guest experience. This role marks the first year of her two-year term as chair.

In addition to her guest services leadership, Martin has previously managed alumni player relations and Kansas City Ambassador relationships and coordinated the Chiefs Red Coater Program.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Martin worked as Marketing Coordinator (1998-00) and Marketing Manager (2001) for Polo Ralph Lauren.

ANTHONY MATTHIES

VICE PRESIDENT OF PREMIUM SALES

19TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Anthony Matthies enters his 18th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and is in his second stint with the club. Matthies first joined the Chiefs in 2008 as a Suite Sales Manager before departing the team in 2012. He rejoined the Chiefs in 2014 as Manager of Suite Sales and was promptly promoted in 2015 to Director of Suite Sales.

Matthies oversees all premium sales offerings, working directly with and further securing corporate partners and suite holders. Matthies and his team prioritize strong execution of experiences while also offering innovative and fresh experiences collaborating frequently with the club’s partnerships team to offer the best fit to each premium space holder.

From 2022 to 2024, Matthies served as the Senior Director of Premium Sales, focusing on developing and implementing sales and marketing business plans and strategies to deliver premium offerings and profitability opportunities for corporate partners and suite holders. During his time as Senior Director of Premium Sales, Matthies utilized unique spaces such as Chiefs Tailgate Suites to make each experience unique.

Matthies’ time in San Francisco with the 49ers was spent as the Manager of New Stadium Suite Sales for Legends Sales and Marketing (2012-13). His two years with the 49ers focused on the business development ahead of the opening of Levi’s Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif. In his first season with the 49ers (2012), Matthies experienced a unique sales landscape as the 49ers reached Super Bowl XLVII.

Once promoted to Director of Suite Sales in 2015 after his return to Kansas City in 2014, Matthies focused on local and regional corporate prospects. In May 2018, Matthies added corporate partnership responsibilities to his plate, being elevated to Director of Partnerships and Suite Sales. In his first stint with the Chiefs (2008-12), Matthies joined the Chiefs in the midst of Arrowhead Stadium's renovations, creating unique, new premium space opportunities.

Prior to his time with Kansas City, Matthies had several other sports stops along the way including a role in premium seats and sales with the Phoenix Coyotes of the NHL and at Cricket Pavilion in the Phoenix area. Matthies originally entered the sports space with time at Louisiana State University (1999-00) and Arizona State University (2000) after gaining premium space sales experience in the concert and entertainment industry.

Matthies is in his 12th year on the Board of Directors for the Kansas and Missouri Chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) and has contributed his time to the Kansas City community as a youth sports coach over the years. Matthies graduated from Wayne State College in Wayne, Neb., with a degree in sport management and later earned his MBA from Park University in Parkville, Mo.

MICHAEL RAGSDALE

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE, STRATEGY AND ANALYTICS

Michael Ragsdale enters his 20th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and was promoted to Vice President of Finance, Strategy and Analytics in May 2022.

In his role, Ragsdale is responsible for all areas of finance, including budgeting, forecasting and reporting, as well as the club's data science efforts, including analytics and business intelligence. Over his tenure, he has also been involved in helping revamp the club's financial systems and also serves as the lead analyst for Arrowhead Events, the team's dedicated special events business that brings concerts, college football, motorsports and other events to Arrowhead Stadium.

Ragsdale originally joined the Chiefs in 2007 as a staff accountant and worked in that capacity until 2016 when he was promoted to Director of Financial Planning and Analysis (2016-18). He most recently served as Director of Strategy and Analytics (2019-21).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Ragsdale spent nearly three years at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. He received his Bachelor of Science in accounting and finance from Rockhurst University in Kansas City and went on to earn a Master of Business Administration in accounting and finance from Rockhurst while with the Chiefs.

He is a member of both the Missouri Society of Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and has been a CPA since 2016. He currently serves on the American Cancer Society Charmen's Circle. He previously served as a Young Alumni Trustee for the Rockhurst University Board of Trustees and was a member of the board for the Young Professional Association at The University of Kansas Health System.

Education: Rockhurst University (B.S. 2007; MBA 2009). Family: Wife – Kelsey; Children – Rose, Tessa and Benson.

ANNE SCHARF

VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNITY IMPACT AND CIVIC AFFAIRS

24TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Anne Scharf has served as Vice President of Community Impact since May 2022, and she enters her 18th season with the Chiefs and her 24th season with the NFL in 2026.

In her role, she is responsible for the community engagement strategy for the Chiefs organization, including philanthropy, community impact, community partnerships and community activations. She oversees the Hunt Family Foundation which provides wide-ranging support for local children facing barriers to opportunity and is also responsible for the Chiefs organization’s governmental and civic affairs. She also provides support for club ownership and team executives as it relates to civic engagement and responsibility.

The Hunt Family Foundation serves as a separate non-profit entity that supports the team's community outreach efforts and provides vital support to more than 100 local agencies annually. Signature community partnerships include the Chiefs Charity Game, which has raised more than $16.3 million for local charities, an education-based partnership with City Year Kansas City supporting the Kansas City Public School District and a collaboration with MOCSA to expand their programs that prevent sexual violence and increase awareness about victim services in Kansas City. In 2024, the Chiefs and Hunt Family Foundation provided more than $3 million in financial support to over 100 organizations in the greater Kansas City area. Over the past 10 years, the Chiefs and Hunt Family Foundation philanthropic footprint has surpassed $33 million.

Scharf has also been instrumental in several of the club’s community focused efforts, including education, food insecurity, children’s health and wellness and Inspire Change efforts to help support historically under resourced communities. This work has included voter registration efforts and overseeing the effort for Arrowhead Stadium to serve as a polling location for the November 2020 general election.

Scharf originally joined the Chiefs in December of 2009 as the club's Manager of Business Operations, spending more than four years supporting business development and strategic planning for the organization. In February of 2014, she was promoted to Director of Foundation and Development, eventually taking on the title of Director of Foundation and Civic Affairs in May of 2017, when she began overseeing the club's community outreach efforts.

She joined the Chiefs after six years with the National Football League office in New York City where she worked in the International Media and Events departments, with a focus on business development efforts for special events, including the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl, Draft, and International Series.

Scharf currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Metropolitan Organization to Counter Sexual Assault (MOCSA), the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Kansas City, the Visit KC Foundation and the Young Men’s Service League. She is also a graduate of the Kansas City Civic Council’s Kansas City Tomorrow program. Previously she served on the Board of Directors for The Children’s Place, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City and has participated in the Governance Academy for the United Way of Greater Kansas City.

She earned her bachelor's degree in history from Yale University, where she was captain of the Yale field hockey team and was a member of both the Yale College Council and the Yale Community Outreach Committee.

LUKE SHANNO

VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

18TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 18TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Luke Shanno enters his 18th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and third as the Vice President of Corporate Communications in 2026.

Prior to being elevated to his current position, Shanno held various titles after arriving in Kansas City in 2009 as a Communications Seasonal Assistant. After two internship seasons, he served as the Communications Coordinator for three seasons (2011-13), Corporate Communications Manager for seven seasons (2014-20) and Sr. Director of Corporate Communications for three seasons (2021-23). Shanno entered the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 2008 as a training camp intern.

In 2014, Shanno became the first communications staff member dedicated to corporate communications, and since then he has worked with key executives, including ownership, the team president, and the executive leadership team on media planning, event planning, presentation and speaking engagement preparation, internal communication strategy, award nominations, story pitching, crisis communications, and other special projects. He and his team serve a vital role within the organization working with various departments, pitching club campaigns, lifestyle, entertainment, community, and other off-field storylines to help the organization drive earned media value across the business portfolio each year.

In his role, Shanno serves as the main communications representative for the club's ongoing stadium and practice facility development projects. In addition, he and his team support Arrowhead Events – the club's special events arm responsible for securing major stadium events, as well as for Foolish Club Studios, the organization's newly announced studio focused on developing original scripted and unscripted projects for film and television. Shanno has also served as the club's main communications representative for various national and international events involving the organization, including the 2023 NFL Draft in Kansas City and 2026 FIFA World Cup.

Shanno leads the organization's international communications efforts which began in advance of the club's 2015 NFL International Series game in the United Kingdom. His role expanded in 2021 as the club announced its Global Markets Program rights for Germany and Mexico, and now also includes Austria, Switzerland, United Kingdom, Ireland and Spain. He helped lead communication efforts for the team's appearances in Mexico City (2019), Frankfurt (2023), and Sao Paulo (2025), working closely with a cross-functional team of internal staff, NFL staff, and multiple in-market agencies to support communications and media operations needs.

During Shanno's tenure in Kansas City, the club has played in five Super Bowls (LIV, LV, LVII, LVIII, LIX), winning three championships (LIV, LVII, LVIII). Prior to each game, Shanno sat on an internal working group supporting the planning and execution of potential Super Bowl trips.

He also consistently offers communications insights and assistance to the club's roster of business partners around joint opportunities and unique storylines, including two separate facility naming rights agreements. He previously served as the communications representative to the Chiefs Green Initiative and the Extra Yard for the Environment program beginning in 2011 to help roll out a multi-step, multi-year sustainability program focused on increasing recycling efforts and decreasing the carbon footprint at Arrowhead Stadium.

A native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Shanno graduated from Wartburg College in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in public relations and a minor in business. He spent four years working in the sports information department and served two years as student assistant to the Sports Information Director.

Education: Wartburg College (B.A. 2009).

JEREMY SLAVENS

VICE PRESIDENT OF ARROWHEAD EVENTS

24TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 24TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Jeremy Slavens enters his 24th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and his sixth as the club's Vice President of Arrowhead Events after being promoted to the newly created position on September 8, 2021. He previously served seven seasons (2014-20) as the team's Director of Events.

Reporting to the Executive Vice President of Arrowhead Operations and Events, Slavens is responsible for all aspects of Arrowhead Events, the team's non-football revenue-generating events business that works to make Arrowhead Stadium a year-round entertainment destination that serves the entire Midwest region. This includes the development and fostering of local and national relationships with promoters of all types across the sports and entertainment industry.

These efforts account for many of the organization's largest events, including major concert tours, motorsports, international soccer matches, college football games, stadium festivals, 5K runs and corporate events. In addition, Slavens directs the franchise's training camp operations at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri, serving as the key liaison between the team's football operations and the college, as well as overseeing a staff responsible for the daily operation of the fan-facing elements of training camp.

In 2024, Slavens and his team helped create a record setting year for Arrowhead Events. Ten large-scale events were hosted in the stadium, the most in one year in venue history. The 2024 mix of events included two soccer matches, four college football games, three concerts and a Monster Jam. The stadium played host to Kenny Chesney and two nights of Morgan Wallen’s One Night at a Time Tour. In 2024, they also hosted a Sporting KC soccer match which held the largest soccer attendance in Missouri history and the third-largest attendance for a standalone MLS regular season match.

Slavens also oversees the corporate event sales staff, the corporate event operations staff, and the stadium tour staff, with the group typically selling and operating more than 300 events at Arrowhead Stadium annually.

Additionally, he served on the bid committee that secured the 2023 NFL Draft for Kansas City and was a member of KC2026, Kansas City's Executive Committee that was successfully awarded host city status for the 2026 FIFA World Cup, with six matches played at Arrowhead Stadium. He served as the organization's venue contact for FIFA's on-site Venue Manager and his Arrowhead Events team served as project managers for FIFA representatives throughout their months-long stay in Kansas City as Arrowhead Stadium was transformed into Kansas City Stadium for the tournament.

He originally joined the Chiefs in 2000 as a sponsorship intern and went on to spend three years (2001-03) as a Sponsorship Coordinator with the Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting KC), which was under Hunt family ownership at the time. In 2004, Slavens was hired by the Chiefs as a Sponsorship Coordinator and went on to become the club's Marketing Manager (2006-09) and eventually the Manager of Special Events and Marketing (2009-10). During that time he worked on integrated marketing and media plans for sales and special events, as well as performing customer and market research.

In 2011, he was named Director of Marketing and Special Events where he spent three full seasons focusing on marketing campaigns that encompassed a wide range of team initiatives and fan-facing events before being named Director of Events (2014-2020), where his sole focus became attracting and creating events to generate a sustained annual revenue source for the club.

Slavens graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri, and is a 2018 graduate of the Venue Management School at the International Association of Venue Managers.

Education: Westminster College (B.A. 2000). Family: Wife - Tammy, Son – Henry.

DAVE TOUB

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

26TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 14TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

TOUB'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1980-81	Springfield College	Offensive Lineman
1983-84	Texas-El Paso	Offensive Lineman
1989-00	Missouri	Defensive Line/Strength & Cond.
2004-12	Chicago Bears	Special Teams Coord.
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	ST Coord. ('13-17) Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord. ('18-26)

Dave Toub enters his 14th season in Kansas City in 2026. He added assistant head coach to his title in 2018 after serving five seasons (2013-17) as the club's special teams coordinator.

In his 14 seasons, the Chiefs have won a franchise-record nine-straight AFC West titles (2016-24), appeared in seven-straight AFC Championship Games (2018-24), hosting six of those, appeared in five Super Bowls in six years (LIV, LV, LVII, LVIII and LIX), including three-straight appearances (LVII, LVIII and LIX) and added a third Super Bowl ring to his collection in 2023 (LIV, LVII and LVIII). In 13 seasons under Toub, the Chiefs special teams units have led the league in several categories. Since 2013, the club ranks first in punt return yards (4,528) and return touchdowns (14 total - eight PR, six KR), is tied for first in return touchdowns allowed (one), fourth in kick return average (24.8) and sixth in punt return average (9.6).

Toub has seen consistency at both long snapper and kicker, coaching 12-year veteran LS James Winchester for 11 years and K Harrison Butker since he arrived as a rookie in 2017. Butker has rewritten the team's history books, ranking third in career points scored (1,122) and has made 251 of his 284 FGs (88.4%) – 35 of which are 50+ yards, another franchise record. Butker converted four field goals in Super Bowl LVIII - tied at the time for the most in a Super Bowl - and set a Super Bowl record for longest made FG in Super Bowl history (57 yards). His 57-yarder was his sixth 50+ yard field goal in the postseason, surpassing Adam Vinatieri and Tyler Bass (five) for the most 50+ yarders in NFL postseason history and tying with K Matt Prater.

Through the 2025 season, Toub helped K Harrison Butker to another solid season, with Butker converting 33 of 38 field goals (86.8%) and 31 of 35 PATs (88.6%). Butker racked up 130 points throughout the season, which marked his seventh season with at least 100 points. P Matt Araiza recorded his second season with the Chiefs, tying his record for punts inside the 20-yard line with 25. Araiza had 56 punts this season for 2,664 yards (47.6 avg).

In 2024, Toub integrated rookie P Matt Araiza to the unit who went on to punt 62 times averaging 48.8 yards per punt with 25 punts inside the 20-yard line. Butker had another productive year making 29 of his 31 PATs and going 21-for-25 on field goals including two 50+ yard field goals. Toub's unit was featured Week 10 when LB Leo Chenal blocked a 35-yard walk off field goal to secure the team's win and move them to 9-0 on the season. This was Chenal's second block of his career after batting a PAT in Super Bowl LVIII.

Also in 2024, Toub saw a product of his coaching cemented into the Pro Football Hall of Fame when wide receiver and return specialist Devin Hester was inducted. Toub coached Hester from 2006-12 which included three of his four Pro Bowl selections (2006-07, 2010), an AP All-Pro Selection (2010), three PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team selections (2006-07, 2010) and his 92-yard kickoff return to open Super Bowl XLI – the only time in SB history that has occurred.

The 2023 season was Butker's best of his career, going 33-for-35 (94.3%) on field goals and a perfect 38-for-38 on PATs. Butker totaled 137 points throughout the season, tying his third-most points in a season. Butker converted five regular season field goals of 50+ yards and two in the postseason. In the postseason, Butker did not miss a field goal or PAT and set new single-postseason records for himself with 41 points and 11 field goals, helping propel the team to their second-straight Super Bowl title (LVII, LVIII). P Tommy Townsend had single season records of 59 punts and 2,469 net yards, flipping the field in key moments. Toub utilized newcomer WR Richie James at punt and kick return who went on to average 20.8 yards on kick return (nine returns) and 10.0 yards on punt return (20 returns).

In 2022, Toub faced injuries and youth with Butker experiencing a Week 1 ankle injury and having to fill both the kick and punt return positions. Butker missed four games due to his early injury but returned to make 17-of-23 regular season FGs and nailed a 62-yard FG (Week 6 vs. Buffalo), the longest in Chiefs history. P Tommy Townsend also had a standout year, recording two of the top five longest punts in franchise history (Week 2 vs. L.A. Chargers, 74-yards and Week 14 at Denver, 76-yards). He led the league in net punting average (45.6) and was second in the league for punting average (50.4) - both of which were Chiefs single season records. Toub mentored rookie RB Isiah Pacheco to average 20.6 yards per return to fill the kick return role and utilized WR Kadarius Toney throughout the season who recorded a Super Bowl record-setting punt return of 65 yards.

In 2021, Butker made 25 of his 28 field goals and hit 47-of-49 PAT's on the season, his second best percentage of his career (95.9%). The special teams unit ranked third in punt return average (12.0 yards).

In 2020, Toub's special teams units ranked in the top 10 in field goal percentage (92.6%) and kickoff return average (25.8) en route to a second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Butker converted 25 of his 27 field goal attempts and converted two 58-yard field goals in the Week 2 win over the Chargers to secure Week 2 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Townsend set a Chiefs single-game record 60.8 yards punting average in Week 4 vs. New England.

The 2019 Super Bowl Champion Chiefs special teams ranked in the top 10 in kick returns, kick return coverage and punt return coverage. To close out the regular season, rookie WR Mecole Hardman took one to the house, returning a kick 104 yards, the third-longest kickoff return in franchise history. He was named second-team All-Pro as a kick returner and named to his first Pro Bowl as a return specialist. Butker set a franchise record for most points by a kicker in a single season with 147 points.

In 2018, the Chiefs special teams ranked in the top 10 in punt return, punt return coverage and kickoff return. Butker had a strong second season, making 24-of-27 kicks and P Dustin Colquitt placed 21 kicks inside the 20-yard line, moving him to third all-time in NFL history (441).

In 2017, the Chiefs led the NFL with 41 field goals, 38 of those FGs were made by rookie Butker who exceeded expectations since joining the team in Week 4.

Prior to arriving in Kansas City, Toub's special teams units in Chicago finished in the top third of the league for eight straight seasons (2004-11) according to the Dallas Morning News ranking system, including a No. 1 overall finish in 2006 and 2007. Toub was named Special Teams Coach of the Year in 2006 as voted on by his NFL coaching peers.

Toub guided five different Bears players to eight Pro Bowl berths, including PFHOF WR Devin Hester's three selections (2006-07 and 2010), WR Johnny Knox (2009), LB Brendon Ayanbadejo (2006-07), K Robbie Gould (2006) and S Corey Graham (2011).

During Toub's tenure, Chicago had an NFL-high 22 kick return touchdowns compiled by six different players. The Bears also added a touchdown return on two missed field goals and a 92-yard kickoff return touchdown in Super Bowl XLI. Toub helped Hester develop into the NFL's all-time leader in kick return touchdowns (17), a record Hester still holds with 19 touchdowns.

During his stint with Philadelphia (2001-03), Toub helped Eagles Special Teams Coordinator John Harbaugh earn 2001 NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year honors.

Toub spent 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, ending his collegiate coaching at Missouri where he coached the defensive line (1998-00) after nine years (1989-97) as the school's head strength coach. Toub began his coaching career in 1986 at his alma mater, Texas-El Paso, as a graduate assistant, and one year later was named the school's head strength and conditioning coach.

Toub was selected in the ninth round of the 1985 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles as a center. He also spent time with the Los Angeles Rams in 1986. At the University of Texas-El Paso, Toub was a two-time All-WAC selection and earned two Academic All-WAC nominations (1983-84). He was a two-time team captain and was named the program's most outstanding offensive lineman during his junior and senior seasons. He began his collegiate playing career as an offensive lineman at Springfield College in Springfield, Mass. (1980-81). He earned his Bachelor of Science and Master of Education degrees from UTEP.

Education: University of Texas - El Paso (B.S. 1986, M.E.1988). Born: Ossining, N.Y. Family: Wife - Cheryl; Children - Shane and Nicolette.

2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Coordinator

Eric Bieniemy enters his 11th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and sixth as offensive coordinator in 2026 after holding the position for five years (2018-22) during a previous 10-year stint in Kansas City. Bieniemy has also served as the club's running backs coach (2013-17).

In 2025, Bieniemy joined the Chicago Bears overseeing the running backs and helping to lead the team to an NFC North Division title and advancing to the NFC Divisional Round Game. Under Bieniemy's guidance, RB D'Andre Swift had a career year with 1,087 rushing yards and nine rushing touchdowns. He also helped to develop Rookie RB Kyle Monangai who had a strong season with 783 rushing yards and five touchdowns and added 18 receptions for 164 yards. Under Bieniemy, the Bears ranked first in rushes of 4+ yards (267), third in rushing yards per game (144.5) and third in rushing plays of 10+ yards (67).

For the 2024 season, Bieniemy joined UCLA as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator after spending one season (2023) with the Washington Commanders as the team's offensive coordinator.

As assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for the Chiefs in 2022, Bieniemy led the team's offense to 14 wins, the team's seventh-straight AFC West title and a Super Bowl LVII victory, marking Bieniemy's second Super Bowl victory. The Chiefs offense led the league in points per game (29.2), and QB Patrick Mahomes led the league in several categories including passing yards (5,250), touchdowns (41) and 25+ yard passes (49) en route to earning his second AP NFL Most Valuable Player award.

In 2021, Bieniemy continued to lead the Kansas City Chiefs offense to finish in the top five in multiple NFL categories including, third down conversion percentage (1st; 52.2), fourth down conversion percentage (T-1st; 66.7), first downs (1st; 419), yards per game (3rd; 396.8), yards after catch (1st; 2,691), offensive touchdowns (5th; 53) and points per game (4th; 28.2) en route to the team's sixth-straight AFC West title. QB Patrick Mahomes continued to add to his NFL resume, adding 4,839 passing yards on 436 completions and 37 touchdowns. Mahomes had 31 career games with 300+ passing yards, which is the most such games by a player in his first five seasons in NFL history. WR Tyreek Hill (111) and TE Travis Kelce (92) each finished the season with more than 90 receptions, marking the first time in franchise history that a pair of teammates each recorded 90+ receptions in the same season.

The 2020 Kansas City Chiefs offense led the NFL in multiple categories including, net passing yards per game (303.4), yards per game (415.8), first downs (397), yards after the catch (2,456) and plays of at least 20 yards (79) en route to the club's fifth-straight AFC West title and second-straight Super Bowl appearance. QB Patrick Mahomes continued to leave his mark in the NFL record book tying Pro Football Hall of Fame QB Kurt Warner's NFL record of 26 games of at least 300 passing yards in a players first four seasons. Mahomes also became the fastest QB to record 100 career passing touchdowns, doing so in just 40 games. TE Travis Kelce set an NFL record for a tight end with 1,416 receiving yards, extending his NFL record to five-straight seasons with at least 1,000 yards receiving. WR Tyreek Hill had 1,276 receiving yards and 15 touchdown receptions, tying the franchise record. RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire recorded 803 rushing yards his rookie season and earned the Mack Lee Hill award, an honor voted on by his teammates and given to the top rookie or first year player.

Under Bieniemy, the 2019 Super Bowl Champion Chiefs offense finished in the top 10 in total yards per game (379.2), pass yards per game (281.1), yards per play (6.22) and total points scored (28.2). In his second year as the starter, Mahomes became the fastest QB in NFL history to reach 9,000 passing yards and 75 touchdowns, doing so in only 30 games. Kelce became the fastest TE to reach 500 career receptions in NFL history and became the first TE in NFL history to record back-to-back 1,200 receiving yards seasons. Hill became the fastest wide receiver in Chiefs history to record 4,000 career receiving yards, tallying 4,054 receiving yards in 58 games.

In his first year as offensive coordinator, Bieniemy oversaw one of the most prolific offenses in Chiefs history as the club finished 12-4, earned its third-consecutive AFC West Championship and a No.1 seed in the playoffs en route to hosting the first AFC Championship Game in team history. Mahomes was named the NFL MVP as he passed for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns in just his first season as a starting quarterback. Kelce ranked second among NFL tight ends with 1,336 receiving yards, and Hill's 1,479 single-season receiving yards ranked first in Chiefs history.

Under Bieniemy's tutelage in 2017, rookie RB Kareem Hunt logged 1,327 yards rushing, with the group logging a combined 1,903 yards on the season. From 2013-15, he mentored RB Jamaal Charles. In 2014, Charles recorded 1,000 yards for the fifth time in his career. Charles became the all-time leading rusher in franchise history and finished his Chiefs career with 7,260 career rushing yards. His 5.5 yards per carry average is also the best in Chiefs history. In 2013 under Bieniemy, Charles led the NFL in touchdowns (19) and first downs (104) and ranked second in yards from scrimmage (1,980 yards). He recorded the most receiving yards by a running back in Chiefs history and led the AFC in rushing (1,287 yards).

Prior to returning to the NFL coaching ranks, Bieniemy spent two seasons (2011-12) at his alma mater Colorado after coaching the running backs for five seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (2006-10). In those five seasons, the Vikings produced a 1,000-yard rusher each year while his stable of running backs broke the 100-yard mark 31 times in 80 regular season games.

In 2006, he coached RB Chester Taylor, who rushed for 1,216 yards; the next season, Taylor and RB Adrian Peterson combined for 2,185 yards (1,341 by Peterson, who was All-Pro as a rookie). Peterson set a then-Vikings record with 1,760 yards in 2008, earning the Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year. Overall, Peterson totaled 5,782 rushing yards and 52 touchdowns in four seasons under Bieniemy’s guidance.

Bieniemy made the move to the professional ranks after three seasons as the running backs coach at UCLA (2003-05). While at UCLA, Bieniemy tutored former NFL RB Maurice Jones-Drew for three seasons. Jones-Drew earned Freshman All-America honors in 2003, rushed for 1,007 yards in 2004 and was a consensus All-America selection as a kick returner in 2005.

Following his nine-year NFL career, Bieniemy served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver prior to securing his first job as running backs coach with Colorado. In his first two seasons coaching the position, CU ranked in the top-10 in rushing.

He was a second-round draft pick (39th overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft. He enjoyed a nine-year pro career with three teams: San Diego (1991-94), Cincinnati (1995-98) and Philadelphia (1999), where he played for Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid. In 142 career NFL games, he rushed for 1,589 yards and 11 touchdowns while catching 146 passes for 1,223 yards. His final year with the Chargers, he played in Super Bowl XXIX.

A letterwinner from Bishop Amat High School in La Puente, Calif., Bieniemy earned second-team All-America honors in football as a senior when he rushed for 2,002 yards and 30 touchdowns.

Education: Colorado (B.A. 2001). Born: New Orleans. Family: Wife - Mia; Sons - Eric III and Elijah.

Steve Spagnuolo enters his eighth season as the Chiefs defensive coordinator in 2026. In his career, he owns four Super Bowl rings (XLII, LIV, LVII and LVIII) as a defensive coordinator making him the only coordinator in NFL history to win four Super Bowls and sole coordinator to win a Super Bowl with two different franchises (Giants XLII, Chiefs LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is a part of one of just eight teams in NFL history to win back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII) and appeared in three-straight (LVII, LVIII and LIX). Over the past four years (2022-25) Spagnuolo's defense has led the NFL in defensive points allowed, limiting the opponent to an average of 18.9 points per game.

In 2025, Spagnuolo's defense was steadfast, ranking sixth across the league for points allowed per game (19.3). The defense also ranked first in opponent fourth down conversion percentage (.261), second in opponent plays of 10+ yards (169) and tied for fourth in opponent first downs allowed per game (291). The defense also held up well against the run, ranking ninth in the league allowing an average of 105.7 rushing yards. DT Chris Jones earned his seventh career Pro Bowl nomination in 2025, earning the nod after recording 7.0 sacks (-39.0 yards), 12 tackles for loss, and two passes defensed. LB Nick Bolton also had a standout season and led the defense with 154 tackles (73 solo), 10 tackles for loss and six passes defensed. Bolton had eight games in 2025 with 10+ tackles and five-straight such games from weeks 13-17.

In 2024, Spagnuolo and his defense helped propel the Chiefs to their third consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Going undefeated at home for the first time in franchise history (8-0), the Chiefs earned a first-round bye in the 2024 playoffs and rested their starters Week 18 in Denver. Through Week 17, the Chiefs defense averaged just 18.0 points allowed per game, the second fewest in the league and allowed the fourth fewest yards per game (310.8), rushing yards per game (98.3) and rushing plays of 10+ yards (39). Stacked up against the league, the defense was fourth in points allowed per game (19.2), eighth in net rushing yards allowed per game (101.8) and red zone touchdown percentage (.519), and ninth in net yards allowed per game (320.6). DE George Karlaftis had a standout year recording 28 quarterback hits, 8.0 sacks (-46.0 yards), nine tackles for loss and five passes defensed. DT Chris Jones earned his sixth Pro Bowl nomination along with his third AP All-Pro selection (first-team) with 5.0 sacks (-23.0 yards), 20 quarterback hits and nine tackles for loss. LB Nick Bolton led the defense with 106 tackles (73 solo), 11 tackles for loss and six passes defensed while rookie DB Jaden Hicks made an impression with three interceptions, the most amongst the defense's 13 total.

Spagnuolo's defense was a powerhouse in 2023, continually providing game-changing production en route to the club's second-consecutive Super Bowl title. Spagnuolo and his unit allowed the fewest 20+ yard plays allowed (46), second-fewest total points per game (17.3), second-fewest offensive points (271), second-fewest opponent yards per game (289) and the third-fewest yards per pass attempt (6.03). Spagnuolo consistently shut teams out in the second half, ranking first in second-half points allowed (126) and including three second-half shutouts. His defense did not allow more than 27 points the entire season, including the postseason. Through the playoffs in 2023, the Chiefs defense held the top three ranked offenses in the AFC to an average of 15.7 points per game.

For the second-straight year, Spagnuolo's defense recorded the second-most sacks (57.0) across the league, which was also the second-most sacks in a single season in Chiefs history. Much of the defense's production was spurred from DT Chris Jones who recorded his second-straight season of double-digit sacks with 10.5 (-71.5 yards). Alongside him was second-year DE George Karlaftis who matched Jones' 10.5 sacks (-55.5 yards). Jones was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl, and second AP All-Pro Team (first-team) and was voted by his teammates to be a postseason team captain. As one of the top duos in the NFL, CB Trent McDuffie and CB L'Jarius Sneed consistently locked up the league's top receivers. McDuffie was the team's second-leading tackler with 80 tackles (60 solo) and added 3.0 sacks (-24.0 yards), five forced fumbles, seven passes defensed and nine QB pressures. McDuffie was selected to his first AP All-Pro Team (first-team) following the season. Sneed led the team with two interceptions, totaled 78 tackles (60 solo), had 14 passes defensed and made a key play during the AFC Championship Game, knocking the ball out of WR Zay Flowers' hands for a touchback. The defense also featured newcomer LB Drue Tranquill who quickly made an impact with 4.5 sacks (-19.0 yards) and seven tackles for loss while LB Nick Bolton and S Justin Reid continued to be defensive leaders. Reid topped the defense with 95 tackles (74 solo) and showed his versatility with 3.0 sacks (-16.0 yards) while adding seven passes defensed and five QB pressures.

Spagnuolo's 2022 defense achieved a top three ranking in four critical categories: QB hits (1st, 198), sacks (2nd, 55.0 sacks, -388.0 yards), QB pressures (2nd, 241) and third downs of more than two yards (3rd). With Spagnuolo's guidance, the team's eight total defensive rookies handled 25 percent of the defensive snaps - the third most in the league - and set the second highest snap percentage in NFL history for a team to reach the Super Bowl. All eight took the field for Super Bowl LVII which were the most defensive rookies in Super Bowl history and included three starters (DE George Karlaftis, CB Trent McDuffie and CB Jaylen Watson). As a rookie, Karlaftis made an immediate impact and recorded 6.0 sacks (-40.0 yards), seven passes defensed and 11 quarterback hits. CB L'Jarius Sneed and S Juan Thornhill led the team with three interceptions a piece. Sneed showcased his versatility as he notched a career-high 3.5 sacks (-31.0 yards). Second-year LB Nick Bolton broke the Chiefs record for single season tackles with 108 solo tackles and recovered a fumble for a touchdown in Super Bowl LVII. In his seventh year, DT Chris Jones had one of his most productive seasons with 15.5 (-105.5 yards) sacks, tying his career-high and bringing his career total to 65.0 (-457.0 yards), which tied for third in the NFL amongst active DTs. Jones was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, 2022 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Award and was named to the AP All-Pro Team (first-team). Jones and Bolton were both voted by their teammates to be 2022 playoff captains.

In 2021, the Chiefs defense went on a 10-game stretch allowing only 14.3 points per game, which led the NFL and held five opponents to 10 points or fewer, ranking ninth in total points allowed. For the third year in a row, Spagnuolo's defense ranked in the top 10 in takeaways, finishing fifth in the NFL. DT Chris Jones logged a team-high 9.0 sacks (-65.5 yards) and his inside presence helped the defense to rank ninth in the NFL QB hurries and earned him Pro Bowl recognition. As a rookie, Bolton led the team with 112 tackles, including 11 for loss as he was named the club's Mack Lee Hill award winner as the team's best rookie or first-year player, an award voted on by his teammates.

The 2020 Chiefs defense held opponents to 22.6 points per game and allowed 20 points or fewer in nine contests en route to the team's second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. As a unit, the defense forced 16 interceptions and six fumble recoveries enabling 67 points off 22 takeaways. S Tyrann Mathieu led the team with six interceptions, and DT Chris Jones led the team in sacks for the third-straight season with 7.5 sacks (-28.0 yards). Mathieu, Jones and DE Frank Clark earned Pro Bowl honors. Jones also was named first-team All-Pro.

In his first season as defensive coordinator of the eventual Super Bowl Champion Chiefs, Spagnuolo oversaw a defense that ranked in the top 10 in several categories: points allowed (7th, 19.3), takeaways (T-10th, 23), red zone touchdown percentage (T-9th, .509), QB passer rating (5th, 80.8), yards per pass attempt (6th, 6.67) and 20+ yard plays (T-10th, 55). In 2019, the defense logged five-consecutive games holding teams to no more than 17 points and in the final five games, allowed no more than 10.4 points from their opposition. In Super Bowl LIV, Spagnuolo's defense stopped three consecutive drives, allowing just 58 total yards, which gave QB Patrick Mahomes the field position to score the final 21 points, sealing a Chiefs 31-20 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. Two members of the Chiefs 2019 defense were nominated for the Pro Bowl following the season, DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Spagnuolo served as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants for three seasons (2015-17) and was named the Giants interim head coach for the final four weeks of the 2017 season. In 2016, the Giants fielded the NFL's most-improved defense, one that was a catalyst behind the team's 11-5 record and first postseason berth in five years. Spagnuolo's defense achieved top-10 rankings in 12 statistical categories, including a top-five ranking in eight critical statistical categories during the 2016 season: touchdowns allowed (1st), red zone efficiency (1st), points allowed per game (2nd), opposing quarterback rating (2nd), yards allowed per rush (2nd), third-down efficiency (3rd), completion percentage (3rd) and first downs allowed per game (5th). His three years coordinating New York's defense marked his second stint in that role as he served as the Giants defensive coordinator from 2007-08. Spagnuolo's defense helped lead the Giants to a 17-14 victory over the previously undefeated New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII following the 2007 season holding Tom Brady and the NFL's top offense to 274 total yards, including just 45 yards rushing and no completion greater than 19 yards.

After his first stop with the Giants (2007-08), Spagnuolo was hired as head coach of the St. Louis Rams, where he spent three seasons at the helm (2009-11) and led the Rams to a six-game turnaround between 2009-10. Spagnuolo also had a stint as defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints (2012) where he led a unit that finished with 15 interceptions, including four that were returned for touchdowns, and forced 11 fumbles to help the Saints finish with a plus-two turnover differential. Following New Orleans he spent two seasons on the defensive staff of the Baltimore Ravens, first as a senior defensive assistant (2013) and then as assistant head coach/secondary coach (2014).

Spagnuolo broke into the NFL under Kansas City Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid when Reid held the same position with the Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2012). Spagnuolo spent eight seasons (1999-2006) working on the defensive coaching staff in Philadelphia under the late Jim Johnson, holding the positions of defensive assistant/quality control coach (1999-2000), defensive backs coach (2001-03) and linebackers coach (2004-06). While with the Eagles, Spagnuolo was part of four-consecutive NFC East titles, reached four-straight conference title games and earned a Super Bowl appearance following the 2004 season.

A native of Whitinsville, Massachusetts, he attended Grafton (Mass.) High School, where he is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College (Springfield, Mass.), where he was a two-year starter at wide receiver. In the spring of 2026, Spagnuolo was inducted into the Springfield College Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts.

Spagnuolo and his wife, Maria, have a passion for philanthropy and maintain a strong commitment to giving back to both their Philadelphia and Kansas City communities. The Spagnuolos have a particular passion for supporting underprivileged youth and annually support causes that provide physical and emotional aid to youth and people with disabilities, including the Northern Children Home (Philadelphia), Inglis House (Philadelphia) and the Salvation Army (Kansas City and Philadelphia).

Education: Springfield College (B.S. 1982); University of Massachusetts (M.S. 1983) Born: Whitinsville, Mass. Family: Wife - Maria.

RICK BURKHOLDER

VICE PRESIDENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE AND PERFORMANCE

BURKHOLDER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1986	New England Patriots	Summer Intern AT
1991-93	University of Pittsburgh	Asst. Athletic Trainer
1994-98	Pittsburgh Steelers	Asst. Athletic Trainer
1999-12	Philadelphia Eagles	Head Athletic Trainer
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Head Athletic Trainer ('13-17) VP of Sports Medicine & Performance ('18-26)

Known as one of the top athletic trainers in the National Football League, Rick Burkholder enters his 14th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and his ninth serving as the club's Vice President of Sports Medicine and Performance. Following his promotion in 2018, he continued to oversee the athletic training staff and added the team's strength and conditioning and equipment departments to his responsibilities.

Burkholder and his staff were instrumental to the health of the team as the Chiefs appeared in three-straight Super Bowls with back-to-back victories in Super Bowl LVII and LVIII. The work of Burkholder and his staff was brought to the limelight especially in 2023 when several key players including LB Nick Bolton (ankle and wrist) and RB Isiah Pacheco (shoulder) faced injuries. Burkholder and his staff were able to develop rehab plans conducive to a return to the field as both players finished the regular season and had strong postseason performances. In 2022, five key players, including QB Patrick Mahomes and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster, experienced injuries during the AFC Championship Game win. Under Burkholder's direction, including the development and execution of their individual treatment plans, and with the aid of the athletic training staff, four of the five injured players were able to return to action for Super Bowl LVII. Smith-Schuster went on to be the team's second-leading receiver in the victory and Mahomes threw for 182 yards and three touchdowns as he was named Super Bowl MVP.

On Feb. 19, 2014, Burkholder received one of the highest honors in his profession as he was elected to a three-year term as president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), which serves the players of the NFL, the member clubs and other members of the community, while ensuring the highest quality of health care provided to the NFL. During his term, he focused on two specific initiatives – emphasizing the need for gender equality in athletic training and the importance of athletic trainers at youth levels. During his three-year presidency, Burkholder spearheaded the implementation of a $1,000 league-wide scholarship specifically for a female training camp fellowship. Since its inception in 2015, this yearly scholarship has now contributed over $300,000 to advancing women in athletic training and now grants $2,000 scholarships.

After his term, Burkholder has continued to be recognized for his service to both the Chiefs and the field. In 2023, Burkholder was honored for his work with his induction into the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Hall of Fame (2016).

Burkholder is actively involved in the Kansas City community, particularly with youth sports, and in 2022, he added two more honors to his resume. The first being his NATA Service Award as recognition for his contributions to the athletic training profession as a volunteer at the local and state levels. Burkholder has given educational presentations on concussions and heat and hydration as part of The University of Kansas Health System Sports Medicine and Performance Center and currently sits on the athletic trainers advisory group and served on the head, neck and spine committee and the return to play task force, all of which address the treatment and prevention of concussions in the sport. ATSA recipients have been involved in professional associations, community organizations, grassroots public relations efforts and service as a volunteer athletic trainer.

In February 2022, he earned the Fain-Cain Memorial Award for 2021 Outstanding NFL Athletic Trainer of the Year. The Fain-Cain award is named for Dr. Thomas E. Cain and Dr. Robert H. Fain, both long time team physicians for the then-Houston Oilers. The award was established shortly after Dr. Cain's death and Dr. Fain's retirement. Both physicians exhibited long term commitments to the NFL and exemplary performances. The award is given annually to an NFL athletic trainer who manifests these traits and is presented to the PFATS member who best reflects the virtues of a certified athletic trainer and displays the highest level of professionalism.

In back-to-back years, Burkholder received prestigious awards for his work on the field. First in 2017, he became just the second person and first athletic trainer to receive the NATA's President's Award, honoring his contribution to the profession after earning the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award in 2016. He and his staff were recognized by their peers following the 2010 season, being named the NFL's top training staff for the year.

In 2020, the NFL and the world faced a public health crisis, the coronavirus pandemic, forcing the adoption of new COVID-19 protocols across the National Football League. Burkholder became the team's Infection Control Officer (ICO), a leading member of the club's Infection Response Team (IRT). As the local ICO, Burkholder was integral in the development and execution of the club's IDER (infectious disease emergency response) plan, a document detailing how the club adapted its operations to mitigate risk, cleaning protocols, how the team complied with state and local guidelines, as well as an action plan for positive COVID-19 tests or symptoms within the staff or locker room, among other topics. Burkholder's plan was the first among all clubs to be reviewed and approved by the NFL, the NFLPA and jointly appointed infectious disease experts.

Having spent 27 years with Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid, including 14 in Philadelphia as Reid held the same position with the Eagles (1999-2012), Burkholder became well known for his expertise in his rehabilitation programs. In 2004, an aggressive rehabilitation program allowed WR Terrell Owens to return from a surgically-repaired ankle in seven weeks to play in Super Bowl XXXIX with the Eagles. He also helped RB Duce Staley return to the field in 2001, who suffered a severe Lisfranc sprain in his foot. The process went so well that Burkholder was published and has spoken nationally on the Lisfranc injury and its rehabilitation process. In addition, Burkholder designed a rehab program for Steelers CB Rod Woodson in 1995 after he suffered a torn ACL in the season opener. Woodson returned just four and a half months after surgery to play in Super Bowl XXX. Burkholder has created specialized rehab programs for several Chiefs over the years, including several Achilles tendon injuries: LB Derrick Johnson (2014 & 2016), DE Mike DeVito (2014), WR Chris Conley (2017) and S Eric Berry (2017). He also played a major role in Berry's return to the field in 2015 after battling Hodgkin's lymphoma.

Before joining the Eagles training staff, he spent five seasons as an assistant athletic trainer with the Pittsburgh Steelers and three seasons as an assistant football athletic trainer at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh. A 1987 Pittsburgh graduate, Burkholder went on to earn his master's degree in athletic training from the University of Arizona where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant and another as an assistant athletic trainer.

Burkholder is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society, in addition to his membership in PFATS. While with Philadelphia, he served as the NFC head athletic trainer representative on the PFATS executive committee.

Burkholder first gained NFL experience serving as a summer intern with the New England Patriots training staff in 1986. He was influenced by his father, Richard, a long-time athletic trainer at Carlisle High School, and his mother, Nancy, a registered nurse. In 2003, Burkholder and his father were named distinguished alumni of Carlisle High School, and in 2013, Burkholder was honored with the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society Distinguished Merit Award.

JOE BLEYMAIER

BLEYMAIER'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2002-05	Delaware	Wide Receiver
2006-07	Wauwatosa East	High School Asst. Coach
2007-09	Philadelphia Eagles	FB Ops./Summer Intern
2013-15	Colorado	Offensive Quality Control
2016-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive QC ('16-17)
		Passing Game Analyst/Asst. QBs ('18-20)
		Wide Receivers ('21-22)
		Pass Game Coordinator ('23-26)

Joe Bleymaier enters his 11th season with the Chiefs and in the NFL in 2026. This season marks his fourth as the team's pass game coordinator. He also served two seasons as the wide receivers coach (2021-22), three seasons as the pass game analyst/assistant quarterbacks coach (2018-20) and two seasons as an offensive quality control coach (2016-17).

In 2025, Bleymaier oversaw the team's passing game, led by QB Patrick Mahomes. Mahomes recorded several career milestones in 2025 including becoming the youngest player to throw 250 career touchdowns (30 years, 11 days), the most wins in a QB's first 125 starts (93 games, 119 starts), and the fewest games to surpass 35,000 career passing yards (123 games). The Chiefs offense produced five-straight games with 28+ points, tying for the third-most consecutive such games in the regular season in team history.

Bleymaier again worked closely with the wide receivers in 2024 as the Chiefs recorded a franchise record 15-2 season en route to their third-straight Super Bowl appearance. Bleymaier's coaching helped rookie WR Xavier Worthy emerge as the offense's top receiver reporting 59 receptions for 638 yards for six touchdowns. Worthy was second only to TE Travis Kelce who led the team for a third-straight season (2022-24) with 97 receptions for 823 yards and three touchdowns. Despite losing several key pass catchers to injuries, Mahomes still hit several milestones himself while maintaining his highest career completion percentage (67.5%). Mahomes also passed PFHOF QB Len Dawson for the most passing yards in franchise history (28,715) as well as most passing touchdowns (238) while also claiming the most wins in a quarterback's first 100 starts (77 wins, 99 starts), besting QB Tom Brady and PFHOF Roger Staubach.

In 2023, Bleymaier worked closely with the wide receivers as the pass game coordinator helping to develop an offense with another year of high productivity. With Bleymaier's guidance, the offensive passing game was again top five in several categories including red zone passing touchdowns (25, 2nd), completions (421, 3rd) and passing first downs (216, 5th). The Chiefs offense and QB Patrick Mahomes had the third-most completions in team history with 421, short of only the 2021 (448) and 2022 (435) offensive units. Bleymaier's guidance in the passing game helped Mahomes reach his third Super Bowl MVP performance in his career after going 34-for-46 for 333 yards and two touchdowns en route to the team's Super Bowl LVIII victory – back-to-back Super Bowl victories for the Chiefs (LVII and LVIII). TE Travis Kelce and rookie WR Rashee Rice led the receiving charge with 984 and 938 yards, respectively and the two combined for 12 regular season receiving touchdowns (Rice, seven; Kelce, five). Rice broke the team's rookie record for receptions (79) and receiving touchdowns (seven), earning him the Mack Lee Hill award (101 Awards) as voted on by his teammates.

As the club's wide receivers coach in 2022, Bleymaier was tasked with developing a new group of receiver talent with newcomer WRs Marquez Valdes-Scantling, JuJu Smith-Schuster, Kadarius Toney, Justin Watson and rookie Skyy Moore. Chemistry was quickly developed between the Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes, the newcomers and returning WR Mecole Hardman, who played in just eight games due to injury but managed to score four TDs. Mahomes found 11 different receivers throughout the season, the second most in the league, producing a historic passing performance in which they led the league in receiving yards (5,250), touchdowns (41), passing first downs (272), passes of 25+ yards (49) and points per game (29.2). Smith-Schuster led the receiver group with 78 receptions for 933 yards and three trips to the end zone.

In 2021, Bleymaier led one of the most explosive passing games in the NFL with Mahomes at the helm. Bleymaier assisted the Chiefs offense to rank fourth in net passing yards per game (281.8) and third in net yards per game (396.8). WR Tyreek Hill recorded 1,239 receiving yards, ranking seventh in the NFL, en route to his sixth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2020, the Chiefs offense ranked first in the league in passing yards per game (303.4) and net passing yards (4,854), third in average gain per pass play (7.48) and tied for third in passing touchdowns (40). As assistant quarterbacks coach, Bleymaier aided Mahomes to his third-straight Pro Bowl (2018-2020), and an AP All-Pro (second-team) selection after Mahomes threw for 4,740 yards and 38 passing touchdowns.

In 2019, Bleymaier emphasized the passing game and worked closely with Mahomes to help the Chiefs passing game rank fifth in passing yards per game (281.1) and second in average gain per pass play (7.48). In the fourth quarter of Super Bowl LIV the payoff was clear as Mahomes and the offense rallied to score 21 points, coming back from a 10-point deficit to defeat the 49ers.

In 2018, Bleymaier worked with a Chiefs offense that featured the NFL MVP QB Mahomes, as he threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, which was only the second time in NFL history that a player has thrown for 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns.

Prior to his time at Colorado where he served as an offensive quality control coach (2013-15), Bleymaier spent two seasons as the assistant coach at Wauwatosa East High School in Milwaukee, Wis., while he was attending law school (2006-07).

Additionally, Bleymaier spent three summers as a football operations intern with Andy Reid and the Philadelphia Eagles (2007-09) while Reid was the Head Coach and Executive Vice President of Football Operations in Philadelphia.

Bleymaier was a four-year letterman as a wide receiver at Delaware (2002-05), where he hauled in 74 career receptions for 864 yards (11.7 avg.) with 11 total offensive touchdowns. In his sophomore season, Bleymaier was a member of the Blue Hens 15-1, I-AA National Championship team.

Education: University of Delaware (B.A. 2005); Marquette University (J.D. 2009). Born: Boise, Idaho. Family: Wife - Stephanie; Son - Calvin; Daughter - Hayden.

TERRY BRADDEN

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

9TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 9TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

BRADDEN'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2009-11	Howard University	Quarterback
2011-13	Tuskegee University	Quarterback
2014	Florida Atlantic University	QC Special Teams
2015	Inlet Grove HS	Athletic Dir. & Head Coach
2017-24	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant ('17) Defensive Quality Control ('18-20) Asst. Defensive Line ('21-24)
2025	University of Nebraska	Defensive Line
2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Assistant Defensive Line

Terry Bradden returns to Kansas City in 2026 and enters his ninth season with the Chiefs after spending last season at the University of Nebraska. This will mark Bradden's fifth season with the Chiefs as the assistant defensive line coach. Bradden spent his first three seasons as a defensive quality control coach (2018-20), followed by one season as a defensive assistant (2017).

In 2025, Bradden spent one season at the University of Nebraska coaching the defensive line. With six of the team's nine defensive lineman in their first or second season in the Husker program, Bradden was able to help Nebraska rank 30th nationally in total defense. The team's three starting defensive linemen produced career highs in tackles and freshmen DEs Williams Nwaneri and Kade Pietrzak combined for 12 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

In 2024, Bradden coached in his third-straight Super Bowl (LVII, LVIII and LIX). The team recorded a franchise-best 15-2 regular season record and with Bradden's assistance, the defensive front had a standout year. DE George Karlaftis starred with 28 quarterback hits, nine tackles for loss, 8.0 sacks, and five passes defensed. DT Chris Jones earned his sixth career Pro Bowl nomination and third AP All-Pro selection (first-team) after 20 quarterback hits, nine tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks throughout the season.

In 2023, Bradden assisted the defensive line who helped the defense finish top two in the NFL in sacks for the second-straight year (57.0; -351 yards). The defense's 57.0 sacks were the second-most in a single season in Chiefs history. The defensive line was led by DT Chris Jones and DE George Karlaftis, who both led the team in sacks with 10.5 each. Jones recorded his second-consecutive season with double-digit sacks and added 29 quarterback pressures, 13 tackles for loss and four passes defensed. He was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain for the second-straight year, an AP All-Pro first-team selection and earned his fifth Pro Bowl. In just his second year, Karlaftis had 17 quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble. Bradden helped lead the defense to allow just 17.3 points per game which was second-fewest in the league, allowed the fewest second-half points in the league (126), had three second-half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in a game during the season – including the postseason. With Bradden's assistance, the dominant defensive line helped the Chiefs secure back-to-back Super Bowl titles (LVII and LVIII).

Bradden worked closely with Joe Cullen and the defensive line in 2022, helping guide the defensive front to 55.0 sacks (-388 yards), which was the second-most in the league en route to the club's eventual Super Bowl LVII victory. DT Chris Jones tied his own season-high sack number of 15.5, which he previously notched in 2018 and secured his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl nomination. Jones highlighted his season when he took down elusive Bengals QB Joe Burrow in the AFC Championship Game (1/29/23) for 2.0 sacks. His performance through the 2022 season earned him AFC Defensive Player of the Year (101 Awards), an AP All-Pro first-team selection and was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. Bradden also helped mentor rookie DE George Karlaftis to 6.0 sacks (-40.0 yards) with seven passes defensed and 11 quarterback pressures. Karlaftis' 6.0 sacks was the fifth-most for a rookie in franchise history.

In 2021, Bradden worked alongside Brendan Daly overseeing the defensive line. DT Chris Jones led the team with 9.0 sacks (-65.5 yards), including a single-game career-high of 3.5 sacks of Cowboys QB Dak Prescott (11/21/21), en route to his third Pro Bowl selection. DE Frank Clark ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks (-23.5 yards). Both DE Mike Danna and DT Derrick Nnadi posted career highs in sacks that season with 3.0 each.

In 2020, as a defensive quality control coach Bradden worked mostly with a defensive line that included Pro Bowlers DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark. Jones and Clark ranked first and second on the team in sacks with 7.5 and 6.0, respectively. Jones was named to the AP All-Pro (second-team) and named to the Pro

In 2019, Bradden primarily worked with the defensive backs. He worked with S Tyrann Mathieu who was nominated to the AP All-Pro Team for the second time and CB Charvarius Ward who had a productive season, recording 74 tackles (56 solo), 10 passes defensed and two interceptions.

Bradden spent the 2018 season working with the defensive line including third-year DT Chris Jones who led the team with 15.5 sacks (-122.0 yards), ranking third in the NFL. He spent the 2017 season working closely with the defensive backs unit under the tutelage of Pro Football Hall of Famer and Chiefs Hall of Famer Emmitt Thomas.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Bradden served as a quarterback graduate assistant at Bethune Cookman University for the 2016 season. He was named to the first American Football Coaches Association Top 30 Under 30 class that year.

Before his season in Daytona Beach, Bradden spent the 2014 season at Florida Atlantic University as the quality control special teams coach before returning to his alma mater, Inlet Grove High School as the head football coach and athletic director for the 2015 season. During the 2015 season, he claimed the title of the youngest head football coach and athletic director in the state of Florida at the age of 24. Bradden played two seasons at Inlet Grove, leading the Hurricanes to consecutive Class 2A regional semifinal berths as a junior and senior (2008-09).

The Riviera Beach, Fla., native played quarterback for three seasons at Howard University (2009-11) in Washington, D.C., before transferring to Tuskegee University (2011-13), where he also played quarterback and graduated with a degree in social work.

Education: Tuskegee University (B.S. 2014). Born: Riviera Beach, Fla. Family: Wife - Kendall; Sons - Christopher and Carter.

2018	Ohio University	Strength & Conditioning GA
2019-21	New Mexico State	Asst. Strength & Conditioning
2022	Rice University	Asst. Strength & Conditioning
2023-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Strength & Conditioning

Nick Cassetta returns for his fourth season with the Chiefs as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2026. Cassetta joined the club in 2023 after a season at Rice University where he assisted the football strength program as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

In 2024, Cassetta assisted the Chiefs to take on another long season, the team's 10th straight postseason run which ended in their ninth consecutive AFC West title, seventh-straight AFC Championship game appearance and third straight Super Bowl appearance (LVII, LVIII and LIX). As part of the staff in 2023, he helped prepare the Chiefs for a season that culminated in the team's eighth-consecutive AFC West title, sixth-straight AFC Championship game appearance and third Super Bowl title in five seasons (LIV, LVII and LVIII) giving them back-to-back Super Bowl Championships (LVII, LVIII).

While at Rice University (2022), Cassetta coordinated all aspects of the nutrition program as well as assisted with the design and implementation of the strength and conditioning plan for the team. He also managed all of the sports science technology including SPT GPS, Nordbord and Force Plates.

Cassetta spent three seasons (2019-21) at New Mexico State as the director of Olympic sports and exercise prescription/nutrition manager. In this role, Cassetta acted as the assistant director of the design and implementation of the football strength and conditioning program, overseeing the development of the offensive and defensive lines, quarterbacks, specialists and redshirts. Cassetta was the bridge between the sports medicine and sports performance staffs, working closely with the athletic training staff while overseeing the Olympic strength and conditioning program. Cassetta also oversaw the baseball and women's track and field programs helping the women's team earn its first ever Indoor Conference Championship in 2020. Cassetta furthered his experience with nutrition, overseeing all aspects of the nutrition program of NMSU.

In 2018, he spent time at his alma mater, Ohio University, as a graduate assistant for the strength and conditioning department. While at Ohio University, Cassetta assisted in all aspects of the football strength and conditioning program and was responsible for the design and supervision of the training programs for a variety of the school's sports including men's and women's golf and women's swimming and diving.

Prior to his arrival at Ohio University, he spent time at UCLA as an intern (2016) and as a graduate assistant (2017). As a graduate assistant, Cassetta was responsible for the implementation of the developmental lifting group and worked alongside the sports medicine staff to oversee the progression of injured student-athletes. Cassetta began his coaching career in 2016 with a short stint at the University of Buffalo as an intern of the strength and conditioning staff, working directly with the football team.

Cassetta earned his bachelors in exercise science from Monclair State in 2015 and went on to get his masters in coaching education from Ohio University in 2019 while serving as a graduate assistant for strength and conditioning.

Education: Montclair State (B.S. 2015), Ohio University (M. Coaching Ed. 2019). Born: Lodi, N.J. Family: Wife – Lauren; Daughter - Quinn.

Cox enters his first season in the NFL and his first season with the Chiefs in 2026. Cox previously served as the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellow for Kansas City (2022 and 2023) and for the Los Angeles Rams in 2024, while also working for Kent State.

Cox spent the 2025 season coaching safeties at Coastal Carolina. Cox's safeties group helped the Chanticleers defense rank fourth in the Sun Belt Conference in turnovers and 36th nationally. They also ranked sixth in the Sun Belt in passes intercepted (T-41st nationally), second in the Sun Belt in fourth down conversion defense (T-13th nationally), and third in the Sun Belt in third down conversion defense. Cox also was responsible for recruiting in several areas including northern South Carolina, Charlotte, N.C., and Orlando, Fla.

Cox spent the 2024 season at the University of Alabama at Birmingham as the safeties coach/pass game coordinator. He helped improve the pass defense from 88th in the country to 17th in the country and the passing efficiency defense from 85th in the country to 51st in the country (fifth in the AAC). Cox coached S Adrian Maddox in a season where he ranked 12th in the AAC in passes defensed and tied for fifth in the AAC in fumbles forced.

Cox spent three years (2021-23) at Kent State where he served as the cornerbacks/pass game coordinator (2023), secondary/pass game coordinator/defensive recruiting coordinator (2021-22), interim defensive coordinator and cornerbacks/defensive recruiting coordinator (2021). In 2023, Cox helped improve a pass defense that was ranked 116th in the nation to 50th in the nation and helped DB Capone Blue finish fifth in the MAC and 25th in the nation in passes defensed. The Golden Flashes defense finished fourth in the MAC in red zone defense. As interim defensive coordinator in 2021, Cox held Kent State's rival, Akron, to zero points in his first game, recording the first Kent State shutout since 2009. He also helped Kent State win the MAC East Title and earn an appearance in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Game.

Prior to his time at Kent State, Cox served as the cornerbacks coach at the University of Montana (2018-20) and was also in charge of recruiting the southern California, northern California, central Texas, and central Oklahoma areas. In 2019, the Grizzlies reached the FCS Championship quarterfinals. Montana ranked second in the Big Sky in passes intercepted (T-12th nationally) and second in turnovers forced (13th nationally), which were both improvements from the season prior.

Before joining the staff at the University of Montana, Cox coached cornerbacks at Sacramento State (2017). Cox's unit was a part of a defense that ranked first in sacks in the Big Sky and nationally. The unit was also ranked first in the Big Sky Conference in defensive touchdowns (tied for third nationally), third down conversion defense (fourth nationally) and turnover margin (sixth nationally).

Cox started his coaching career at UNLV, his alma mater, where he spent five seasons (2012-16). Cox served in many roles including director of player personnel and recruiting (2016), defensive graduate assistant (2015), offensive graduate assistant (2014-15), special teams/defensive graduate assistant (2013-14) and student assistant (2012).

The Garland, Texas, native graduated from UNLV where he had a three-year playing career as a running back and linebacker. He was featured on the 2023 AFCA 35 Under 35 list and participated in the 2023 Fiesta Bowl Path to the Summit - a program for emerging leaders in coaching. Cox received his masters in public administration and his bachelor of arts in political science.

In 2025, Cullen and his defensive line helped propel the defense to top 10 marks across several league categories. The defense ranked first in opponent fourth-down conversion rate (.261), second in opponent plays of 10+ yards (169), sixth in fewest points allowed per game (19.3) and ninth in rushing yards allowed per game (105.7). DT Chris Jones led the unit, earning his seventh Pro Bowl nomination (2019-25) after posting 7.0 sacks (-39.0 yards), 25 quarterback hits and 12 tackles for loss. DE George Karlaftis added 6.0 sacks (-23.5 yards), 23 quarterback hits and 10 tackles for loss.

Cullen coached in his third-straight Super Bowl with the club in 2024 (LVII, LVIII and LIX) and recorded a franchise-best 15-2 regular season record. Cullen's defensive front was led by DT Chris Jones and DE George Karlaftis. Karlaftis had a standout year with 28 quarterback hits, 8.0 sacks (-46.0 yards), nine tackles for loss and five passes defensed. Jones' play earned him his sixth Pro Bowl nomination and third AP All-Pro selection (first-team) after posting 5.0 sacks (-23.0 yards) along with 20 quarterback hits and nine tackles for loss.

In 2023, the defensive line helped lead the charge to back-to-back Super Bowl titles for Cullen and the Chiefs (LVII and LVIII). Cullen again had a top performing defensive line which was highlighted by DT Chris Jones and DE George Karlaftis. Jones recorded his second-consecutive season with double-digit sacks with 10.5 (-71.5 yards) with four passes defensed, 29 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss. Jones was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain for the second-straight year, earned an AP All-Pro team (first-team) selection and was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl. In just his second year, Karlaftis recorded 10.5 sacks (-55.5 yards). In total, the defensive line had the second-most sacks in the league for a second-straight year with 57.0 (-351.0 yards) and the second-most in a single season in Chiefs history. With Cullen's direction, the defense allowed the fewest second half points in the league (126), including three second half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in a game in both the regular season and postseason.

In his first year with the club, Cullen made an immediate impact on the organization, coaching the 2022 defensive line as a component of a top producing defense. In 2022, the Chiefs defense ranked in the top 10 in many categories: first in QB hits (198), second in sacks (55.0 sacks, -388 yards), second in QB pressures (241), fifth in rushing plays of 20+ yards (seven) and eighth in rushing yards allowed (107.2). The defensive line's success culminated in the Super Bowl LVII victory where they held a highly regarded Eagles run game to just 28 rushing yards in the second half. Cullen mentored veteran DT Chris Jones to another Pro Bowl season with 15.5 sacks (-105.5 yards), tying his career-high (2018). Jones was the AFC Defensive Player of the Year (101 Awards), selected to AP All-Pro (first-team) and voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. Fellow 2022 Pro Bowler DE Frank Clark brought his postseason sack total to 13.5 (-32.0) en route to Super Bowl LVII, which ranked him third all-time in the NFL. Cullen quickly developed rookie DE George Karlaftis who started all 17 regular season games and recorded 6.0 (-40.0) sacks, 11 quarterback pressures and seven passes defensed. His 6.0 sacks were the fifth most for a rookie in franchise history.

In 2021, Cullen served as the defensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Cullen helped lead the defense to improvements in all major categories, including yards per game allowed, points per game allowed, yards per carry allowed and passing yards per game. Jacksonville's sack total improved from 18.0 to 32.0 in one season with Cullen leading the defense. Under his tutelage, DE Josh Allen led the defensive line in total tackles with 71, four passes defensed and 7.5 (-70 yards) sacks.

The 2021 season marked his second stint with the Jaguars after spending three seasons (2010-12) as their defensive line coach where he assisted the Jaguars to a No. 6 finish in the NFL in yards allowed (313.0 ypg) in 2011.

Prior to arriving in Jacksonville the second time, Cullen spent five seasons as the defensive line coach in Baltimore (2016-20). In 2020, Baltimore allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game. The Ravens also owned the No. 2 third-down defense (34.0%) and produced a league-high 25 forced fumbles. That season, Cullen oversaw DT Calais Campbell to his sixth Pro Bowl selection, as well as LB Matt Judon to his third-straight Pro Bowl (2018-20). In 2019, the Ravens finished with the NFL's No. 4 defense (300.6 ypg) and allowed the third-fewest points per game (17.6). In 2018, Baltimore boasted the league's top-ranked defense (292.9 ypg) and permitted the league's second-fewest points per game (17.9), en route to winning the AFC North title. That season, Cullen tutored DT Brandon Williams to his first Pro Bowl selection. In 2017, Cullen led Baltimore's defensive line, which was part of a defensive unit that led the league in takeaways (34) and finished tied for 11th with 41.0 sacks (-280 yards), including 11.0 sacks coming from DE Terrell Suggs en route to his seventh Pro Bowl selection. The Ravens defense ranked sixth in points allowed (18.9 ppg).

Cullen spent two seasons (2014-15) as the defensive line coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Over those two seasons, the Bucs ranked fifth in tackles for loss (173), totaled 74.0 (-442 yards) sacks and allowed just 4.9 yards after catch per reception, which tied for second in the NFL. He tutored DT Gerald McCoy to back-to-back Pro Bowl selections.

In 2013, Cullen helped guide one of the best defensive turnarounds in team history as the Cleveland Browns finished ninth in total defense (332.4 ypg) after ranking 23rd the previous season.

In 2009, Cullen left the NFL to be the defensive line coach at Idaho State. His first NFL coaching job came in 2006 where he was the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions for three seasons (2006-08). Under Cullen, four different Lions players recorded career-high sack numbers, including DT Shaun Rogers (7.0 in 2007) and DE Cory Redding (8.0 in 2006).

Prior to his time as an NFL coach, Cullen was a defensive assistant at Illinois in 2005. He spent two seasons (2002-03) with Indiana University as their defensive line coach, before transitioning to their defensive coordinator in 2004. Cullen spent four seasons (1992-96) with the University of Richmond as their defensive line coach before becoming their defensive coordinator (1997-98). After doing a year at Louisiana State University (1999) as their defensive line coach, he returned to Richmond to be their defensive coordinator in 2000.

In college at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Cullen was a four-year starting nose tackle. He was a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection and was the Minutemen's team MVP in 1989. He graduated in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He got his first collegiate coaching job at his alma mater, where he started as a graduate assistant there before becoming a position coach.

2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Backs/Safeties

Andre Curtis joins the Chiefs for his first season with the club in 2026 as defensive backs/safeties coach. Curtis joins the Chiefs with 21 years of NFL coaching experience.

Curtis spent the 2025 season with the Dallas Cowboys serving as the team's defensive pass game coordinator.

Prior to his time with the Cowboys, he had a three year stint with the Chicago Bears (2022-24). While with Chicago, his unit ranked sixth in the NFL with 47 interceptions and coached S Jaquan Brisker to 6.0 sacks in his first three seasons. His 6.0 sacks ranked sixth among all defensive backs in the league. During Brisker's rookie season in 2022, Curtis coached him to a Bears rookie record 4.0 sacks.

Curtis spent seven seasons (2015-21) with the Seattle Seahawks, working with the secondary in a variety of capacities. Curtis spent his first two seasons in Seattle as the assistant secondary coach before taking on the defensive backs in 2017. For his final four seasons (2018-21) in Seattle, Curtis served as the defensive pass game coordinator. While with Seattle, six defensive backs earned nine trips to the Pro Bowl including S Kam Chancellor (2015), CB Richard Sherman (2015-16), S Earl Thomas (2015, 2017), CB Shaquill Griffin (2019), then S Jamal Adams (2020) and S Quandre Diggs (2020-21). In 2021, Curtis coached Diggs to his second-career Pro Bowl selection after recording five interceptions and a then career-high 94 tackles. It marked Diggs' second-straight season with five picks. In 2020, Curtis' leadership helped Adams set the NFL record for most sacks by a defensive back in a season (9.5). In 2017, as Curtis was promoted to defensive backs coach, his unit ranked 12th in passes defensed and tied for first among the league with three interceptions returned for a touchdown. As Curtis assisted the secondary during his first season in Seattle (2015), the Seahawks secondary featured three Pro Bowlers in Chancellor, Sherman and Thomas and their efforts helped the Seattle defense rank second in yards allowed per game (291.8 yards).

Prior to his time in Seattle, Curtis spent two seasons with the New Orleans Saints as the assistant secondary coach (2012-14). In 2013, he worked closely with S Kenny Vaccaro, who was a PFWA All-Rookie selection as he led the secondary with 77 tackles.

Curtis first entered the NFL ranks as a defensive quality control coach for the Giants from 2006-08. He went on to coach defensive backs/safeties for the St. Louis Rams from 2009-11 and helped them finish seventh in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (206.3 yards) in 2011.

Returning to his alma mater, Virginia Military Institute, Curtis began his coaching journey as he oversaw the linebacker unit from 2000-03 before spending two seasons (2004-05) at Georgia Southern with the defensive ends.

While with the Virginia Military Institute, Curtis expanded his knowledge, spending training camps with the New York Jets and Tampa Bay Buccaneers a part of the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship.

Prior to coaching, Curtis played linebacker for four seasons (1996-99) at the Virginia Military Institute and started in 31 consecutive games. Throughout his collegiate playing career, he tallied 354 career tackles before graduating in 1999.

A native of Beaverdam, Va., Curtis earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business from the Virginia Military Institute.

Education: Virginia Military Institute (B.S. Economics and Business) Born: Beaverdam, Va. Family: Wife - Erica; Children - A.J., Andrew, Allen and Avery.

Brendan Daly begins his eighth season with Kansas City in 2026 and his 21st season in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons with the Chiefs coaching the defensive line before transitioning to linebackers coach in 2022.

In 2025, Daly was a part of a defensive unit that ranked top 10 in a multitide of categories. Across the league, the defense ranked first in opponent fourth-down conversion rate (.261), second in opponent plays of 10+ yards (169), sixth in opponent points per game (19.3), eighth in opponent redzone scoring (.529) and ninth in opponent rushing yards per game (105.7). At the helm of the linebacker unit, Daly helped LB Nick Bolton produce one of his best seasons as Bolton was tied for sixth in the league in total tackles with 154 (73 solo), while also recording 10 tackles for loss, seven quarterback hits, six passes defensed, 1.0 sack (-8.0 yards), one interception and one forced fumble. Playing alongside Bolton, LB Drue Tranquill was third on the team in tackles with 103 (55 solo), while also tallying 10 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks (-13.0 yards), one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In 2024, Daly coached the linebackers to another successful year en route to the club's third-straight Super Bowl appearance (LVII, LVIII and LIX), ultimately falling to the Philadelphia Eagles after posting a franchise-best 15-2 regular season record. Daly's unit was highlighted by elite tackling with two of the defense's top three tackle leaders coming from Daly's room. LB Nick Bolton led the defense with 106 tackles (73 solo) and added 3.0 sacks (-28.0 yards), 11 tackles for loss and six passes defensed. LB Drue Tranquill was close behind with 94 tackles (54 solo), 2.0 sacks (-11.0), nine quarterback hits and four tackles for loss. Daly also continued to develop LB Leo Chenal who had a standout season with 53 tackles (35 solo), 1.0 sack, three forced fumbles, three passes defensed and four tackles for loss.

Daly's linebackers unit had one of its most impactful years in 2023, helping the club to their second-straight Super Bowl title (LVII and LVIII). Daly's unit helped the defense to allow no more than 27 points the entire season (including postseason) and allowed the fewest second-half points league wide (126) with three second-half shutouts. LB Nick Bolton again was a dominant force. Despite playing in just eight regular season games due to injury, Bolton was the defense's fifth-leading tackler with 60 tackles (38 solo) and was the leading tackler in Super Bowl LVIII with 13 (five solo). Daly welcomed LB Drue Tranquill to the unit and tutored him to the third-most tackles on the defense with 79 (54 solo). Tranquill had the most sacks of any non-defensive line position with 4.5 (-19.0 yards) and added seven quarterback hits, seven tackles for loss and two forced fumbles, putting the exclamation point on his first year as a member of the Chiefs. Daly continued to develop second year LB Leo Chenal who made big plays in key moments, adding 3.0 sacks himself (-17.0 yards) with 57 tackles (22 solo). LB Willie Gay and LB Nick Bolton both added an interception to their seasons.

In his first year as linebackers coach in 2022, Daly helped further develop second-year LB Nick Bolton. Bolton took over as the team's defensive green dot and went on to lead the team in tackles and break the Chiefs single season tackle record with 180 tackles (108 solo). Under Daly's direction, Bolton recorded nine games with 10+ tackles, the most 10+ tackle games in a single season in team history. Bolton highlighted his historic season with a fumble recovery in Super Bowl LVII that he took 36-yards to the house to tie the Chiefs and Eagles 14-14 in the eventual Chiefs victory. He was voted by his teammates to be a playoff captain. LB Willie Gay ranked third on the team with 88 tackles (51 solo). Gay notched career highs in sacks (2.5, -8.0 yards), passes defensed (eight) and quarterback hits (four). With Daly's guidance, rookie LB Leo Chenal also developed throughout the year playing in all 17 games (eight starts) and logged 29 tackles (16 solo), three quarterback hits and three tackles for loss. Bolton and Gay also accounted for three of the team's 11 interceptions in the regular season (Bolton - 2; Gay - 1).

In his third year with the Chiefs, Daly oversaw a defensive line led by DT Chris Jones and DE Frank Clark. Jones led the team in sacks with 9.0 (-65.5 yards) en route to his third Pro Bowl selection. Clark ranked second on the team with 4.5 sacks (-23.5). Both DE Mike Danna and DT Derrick Nnadi posted career highs in sacks during the 2021 season with 3.0 each. Under Daly's direction, the Chiefs defensive line tied for eighth in quarterback hurries.

In 2020, Daly led the Chiefs defensive front featuring Pro Bowlers Jones and Clark who were ranked first and second on the team in sacks with 7.5 (-28.0 yards) and 6.0 (-49.0), respectively helping them reach their second-consecutive Super Bowl appearance. Jones was named to the AP All-Pro (second-team) and the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career.

In his first season with the Chiefs in 2019, Daly oversaw a defensive line unit who ranked first in the NFL in passes defensed with 16. During Week 7, the Chiefs defense tallied 9.0 sacks against the Denver Broncos with 5.0 of the 9.0 sacks coming from the defensive line (DE Alex Okafor - 2.0; Clark - 2.0 & DE Emmanuel Ogbah - 1.0). Daly helped Jones and Clark to their first Pro Bowl nominations.

Daly spent four seasons as the defensive line coach (2015-18) for the New England Patriots. In those four seasons, his defensive line was a part of a defense that was top 10 in stopping the run. He was hired in New England in 2014 as a defensive coaching assistant before being promoted to defensive line coach in 2015.

Before his time with the Patriots, Daly had two stints with the Minnesota Vikings as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2006-08) and defensive line coach (2012-13) and made the playoffs two times (2008, 2012). During his first tenure, the Vikings became the first team in NFL history to lead the league in rushing defense for three consecutive seasons (2006-08), holding opponents to under 75 yards rushing per game.

Daly also spent three seasons (2009-11) with Chiefs Defensive Coordinator and then-Rams Head Coach Steve Spagnuolo as the defensive line coach in St. Louis. In 2011, he coached DE Chris Long to a career-best 13.0 sacks (-86.0 yards). Under Daly's leadership in 2010, the Rams had 43.0 sacks (-290.0 yards) as a team, which ranked seventh-most in the NFL.

Before breaking into the NFL ranks, Daly had multiple stops at the collegiate level (1998-05). He was the defensive line coach at Villanova in 2005 and the tight ends coach at Illinois State in 2004. He was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State in 2003 after serving as a graduate assistant from 2001-02. In 2000, Daly was a graduate assistant at Maryland after coaching tight ends at Villanova in 1999. He had his first collegiate coaching job at his alma mater, Drake University, where he coached tight ends in 1998. He began his coaching career at Ridgewood High School in New Port Richey, Fla., in 1997 after graduating from Drake, where he played tight end.

Education: Drake University (1997). Born: Chicago, Ill. Family: Wife - Keely. Son - Liam and Daughters - Ciara and Avelin.

PORTER

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

10TH YEAR IN THE NFL | 10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

ELLETT'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2010-14	BYU	Equipment Room Attendant
2016	SMG Stadium	Graduate Assistant
2017-26	KC Chiefs	Senior Asst. to the HC ('17-19) Offensive Quality Control ('20-22) Asst. Running Backs ('23-24) Asst. Special Teams ('25-26)

Porter Ellett enters his 10th season with the Chiefs and second as the assistant special teams coach in 2026. Prior to his promotion, Ellett spent two seasons as the assistant running backs coach (2023-24) and three seasons as an offensive quality control coach (2020-22) after serving three seasons as the senior assistant to the head coach (2017-19).

Ellett began a new role in 2025 as assistant special teams coach, working alongside Assistant Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator Dave Toub. In his first season in the role, K Harrison Butker had another solid season, converting 33-of-38 field goals (86.8%) and 31-of-35 PATs (88.6%). Through the season, Butker earned his seventh season with at least 100+ points, with 130 on the season. P Matt Araiza spent his second season with the Chiefs and had a productive season, tying his record for punts inside the 20-yard line with 25. Araiza had 56 punts for 2,664 yards (47.6 avg).

In 2024, Ellett continued to help with the running backs unit led by RB Kareem Hunt. After joining the team in Week 4, Hunt ended the regular season as the team's leading rusher with 728 rushing yards on 200 attempts and seven touchdowns. Hunt scored five of his touchdowns in four consecutive weeks which ranks third most in Chiefs history for rushing touchdowns in consecutive games. Alongside Ellett's guidance, Hunt and RB Isiah Pacheco played key roles in leading the Chiefs to their third-straight Super Bowl appearance (LVII, LVIII and LIX).

Ellett worked closely with Running Backs Coach Todd Pinkston in 2023, guiding RB Isiah Pacheco to a strong second-year performance. Pacheco led the team's rushing charge with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven touchdowns, besting his rookie numbers in all three categories. Pacheco also recorded three games with 100+ rushing yards (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). With Ellett's assistance, the rushing attack by Pacheco and veteran RBs Jerick McKinnon and Clyde Edwards-Helaire helped earn the Chiefs a second-consecutive Super Bowl title (LVII and LVIII).

In 2022, Ellett worked closely with the tight ends, running backs and QB Patrick Mahomes. The Chiefs offense led the league in many categories: yards per game (413.6), points per game (29.2), passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49). Ellett assisted with the development of rookie RB Isiah Pacheco who went on to rush for 830 yards and five touchdowns and TE Travis Kelce recorded his seventh-consecutive 1,000-yard season, passing former TE Rob Gronkowski in career receiving yards with 10,344. With Ellett's assistance, Mahomes completed 435 of his 648 passes for a 67.1 completion percentage, as he set franchise records for passing yards (5,250) and single-season passing first downs (272). Mahomes' 2022 performance earned him his second NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP after the Chiefs beat the Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII.

For the 2021 season, Ellett continued to work closely with the tight end group. Kelce recorded his sixth-consecutive 1,000-yard season, extending his NFL record for tight ends. Kelce recorded two game-winning touchdowns in overtime in 2021, his first coming against the Chargers in LA and second in the Divisional Round Game against Buffalo. Following the season, Kelce earned his seventh Pro Bowl nomination.

In 2020, Ellett worked with an offense that finished first in total net yards per game (415.8) and passing yards per game (303.4). He also assisted with the tight ends group which featured first-team AP All-Pro, PFWA All-NFL and Pro Bowler Kelce who recorded over 1,000 receiving yards for the fifth-consecutive season, extending his previously established NFL record for tight ends. He became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018.

During his time as senior assistant to the head coach (2017-19), Ellett worked closely with Head Coach Andy Reid and Offensive Coordinator Eric Bieniemy organizing the day-to-day operations of the team, player and staff communications with the head coach and the football calendar. In this role, Ellett also assisted with the development of the quarterbacks.

Prior to his arrival, Ellett served as a graduate assistant at SMG McLane Stadium at Baylor University while pursuing his Masters of Sport Management. While completing his undergraduate degree at Brigham Young University, he served as an equipment room attendant for the football team.

Outside of athletics, Ellett has a long history of service work under his belt. Since 2007, he has partnered with Coolspeak as a motivational speaker and facilitator, delivering over 1,000 keynotes across the country.

Additionally, Ellett owns Camp Overcome, a youth development program that implements positive attitudes through sports. When he isn't volunteering, Ellett trains and competes in Paralympic swimming and triathlons.

Education: Brigham Young University (B.S. 2014); Baylor University (M.S. Sports Management). Born: Loa, Utah. Family: Wife - Carlie; Children – Porter Brigham, Griffin Kole and Piper Joan.

DAVID

QUARTERBACKS

9TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

GIRARDI'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2007-10	Geneva College	Quarterback
2011-12	Seton Hill University	Defensive Graduate Asst.
2013	Geneva College	Quarterbacks
2014-16	Northwestern	Offensive Quality Control ('14) Defensive Graduate Asst. ('15-16)
2017	Lafayette College	Quarterbacks
2018-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Quality Control ('18-20) Pass Game Analyst/Asst. QBs ('21-22) Quarterbacks ('23-26)

David Girardi enters his ninth season with the Chiefs and fourth season as the Chiefs quarterbacks coach in 2026. Girardi has worked with the offense since QB Patrick Mahomes' first season as a starter (2018). Prior to his promotion he spent two seasons as the pass game analyst/assistant quarterbacks coach (2021-22) and three seasons as the offensive quality control coach (2018-20).

In 2025, QB Patrick Mahomes continued to reach new heights, including throwing his 250th career touchdown at 30 years old and 11 days. He was the youngest player to reach such a mark. After Mahomes threw two touchdown passes in Week 6, Mahomes eclipsed 300 career touchdowns (regular and postseason) surpassing QB Aaron Rodgers (118 games) for the fewest games to reach 300 combined touchdown passes. Later in Week 12 against the Colts, Mahomes surpassed 35,000 career passing yards in just 123 games also making him the fastest QB to reach that mark. On his feet, Mahomes set his single-season rushing record with 422 yards and five rushing touchdowns. Mahomes started in 14 games, posting 315 completions for 3,587 yards and 22 touchdowns before being placed on IR at the end of the season.

Girardi again helped QB Patrick Mahomes and the Chiefs to another Super Bowl appearance in 2024, the club's third-straight (LVII, LVIII and LIX). Girardi has now coached in five Super Bowls in six years, coming away with three rings (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Mahomes' season was highlighted by several milestones including his 100th start. With 77 wins in just 99 starts, Mahomes surpassed QB Tom Brady and PFHOF QB Roger Staubach for the most wins in a quarterback's first 100 starts. Mahomes also surpassed PFHOF QB Len Dawson for the team's most passing yards (28,715) and touchdown passes (238). With Girardi's leadership, Mahomes maintained his highest career completion percentage (67.5%), despite facing injuries amongst his pass catchers. Mahomes quickly found chemistry with rookie WR Xavier Worthy who went on to record 59 receptions for 638 yards and six touchdowns, the most touchdowns on the team. Mahomes also quickly connected with WR DeAndre Hopkins who the team acquired via trade with the Tennessee Titans in Week 8. Hopkins and Mahomes connected on 41 catches for 437 yards and four touchdowns.

In 2023, Girardi led QB Patrick Mahomes to another standout season en route to back-to-back Super Bowl victories (LVII and LVIII) and his fourth Super Bowl appearance in five years (2019-23), coming away with three victories (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Mahomes and the offense were top five in several categories including red zone passing touchdowns (25, 2nd), completions (401, 3rd) and passing first downs (206, 5th). Mahomes recorded his sixth-consecutive season of 4,000+ passing yards (4,183), tying him with former QB Tom Brady and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning for the sixth-longest streak of such kind. With Girardi's leadership, Mahomes had another historic postseason run, playing on the road for the first time in his career in both the Divisional Round and AFC Championship Game before an eventual 25-22 overtime victory against the 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII. His Super Bowl LVIII performance earned him his third career Super Bowl MVP honors (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Mahomes had his fourth postseason campaign with a passer rating greater than 100.0 and recorded 104 completions - the most in his postseason career - for 1,051 yards and six touchdowns. Mahomes was honored with the Derrick Thomas Award (101 Committee) as voted on by his teammates, as well as his sixth Pro Bowl selection. Girardi also tutored newcomer backup QB Blaine Gabbert who saw action in two games this season.

In 2022, Girardi assisted the quarterbacks room with a focus on the pass game. He worked closely with Super Bowl MVP QB Mahomes en route to his second Super Bowl victory and another prolific season. The Chiefs offense led the league in yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6), points per game (29.2) and net passing yards per game (297.8). Mahomes led the league in many pass-game categories: passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing TD percentage (6.3%), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49) on his way to earning his second NFL MVP recognition. The sixth-year QB became one of four quarterbacks in NFL history (Tom Brady, Drew Brees and Peyton Manning) to have at least four seasons of 35 or more touchdown passes and more than 4,500 passing yards. He found 11 different receivers throughout the regular season, the second most in the league. Mahomes added his second league MVP (‘18, ‘22) and Super Bowl MVP (‘19, ‘22) honors to his resume along with the Derrick Thomas award and AFC Offensive Player of the Year (101 Awards). Mahomes was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2021, Girardi helped the Chiefs offense win their sixth-straight division title and fourth-straight AFC Championship game appearance. He worked closely with the quarterbacks as Mahomes posted 4,839 yards and 37 touchdowns, completing 66.3 percent of his passes en route to his fourth Pro Bowl nomination.

In 2020, Girardi worked with a Chiefs offense that finished first in total net yards per game (415.8) and passing yards per game (303.4). He primarily worked with the wide receivers which featured first-team AP All-Pro and Pro Bowl WR Tyreek Hill. Hill finished the season tied for the most receiving touchdowns in a single season (15) in franchise history, adding two more on the ground.

In 2019, he primarily assisted the quarterbacks room helping the Chiefs offense finish in the top 10 in total yards per game (379.2), pass yards per game (281.1), yards per play (6.22) and total points scored (28.2). This offensive performance earned the Chiefs a Super Bowl LIV title.

Girardi joined the Chiefs as an offensive quality control coach in 2018. He worked closely with the quarterbacks and helped guide the Chiefs to their first ever home AFC Championship game. The Chiefs offense was number one in the NFL in points per game (35.3), yards per game (425.6) and yards per play (6.84) in 2018.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Girardi spent the 2017 season as the quarterbacks coach at Lafayette College. During his time he coached a true freshman who went on to start 11 games and break the school record for completions.

Prior to Lafayette, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Northwestern University during the 2015-16 seasons, where he helped coach the secondary and ran the offensive scout team. He served as an offensive quality control coach during his initial season at Northwestern in 2014, assisting the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

During the 2013 season, Girardi served as an assistant football coach at Geneva College where he coached the quarterbacks. The Golden Tornadoes broke numerous single-game and single-season school passing records during his time in charge of the passing game. Before Geneva College, he spent two seasons (2011-12) at Seton Hill University as a graduate assistant, focusing on the defensive secondary.

Girardi played quarterback at Geneva College from 2007 to 2010 and was named an NCCAA All-American twice. He led his team to a Victory Bowl win in 2009 and was named captain twice (2009-10).

Education: Geneva College (B.S. 2011), Seton Hill (M.B.A. 2013), Northwestern (M.S.A. 2016). Born: New Kensington, Pa. Family: Wife - Kristen; Son – Joseph, Daughter - Giada.

2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Line

Andy Heck enters his 35th year in the NFL in 2026, including a 12-year career as an offensive lineman. He begins his 23rd season as an NFL coach and 14th leading the offensive line in Kansas City. For six-straight seasons (2018-23), Heck led offensive line units that allowed at least the top five fewest sacks through the regular season in the NFL. Over the past seven years (2019-25), Heck and his units have been to five Super Bowls, coming away with three rings (LIV, LVII and LVIII), including back-to-back wins (LVII and LVIII) and three straight appearances (LVII, LVIII and LIX.)

The 2025 season was highlighted by C Creed Humphrey who earned his second AP All-Pro first-team honor as well as PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team accolades. G Trey Smith also earned another Pro Bowl nod, marking back-to-back (2024-25) Pro Bowls for Smith and four straight (2022-25) Pro Bowl selections for Humphrey.

In 2024, Heck and his unit added rookie LT Kingsley Suamataia and continued their strong interior presence with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney. Thuney was selected to his third Pro Bowl in 2024 and earned AP All-Pro (first-team) and PFW/PFWA All-NFL team selections after transitioning late in the regular season from RG to LT. Humphrey also earned an AP All-Pro selection (first-team), his third Pro Bowl selection and a PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team selection. Smith earned his first Pro Bowl selection as well. In the 2024 postseason, the Chiefs offensive front gave up just 11.0 sacks, the second-fewest across the NFL playoffs.

Heck's unit had some new faces in 2023 with LT Donovan Smith and RT Jawaan Taylor joining the Chiefs. The line had consistency with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney all returning to the lineup. With Heck's leadership, there were just 28.0 allowed sacks, the second-fewest in the league. In the postseason, the offensive line allowed no sacks in the Wild Card and Divisional Round Games and just five through the AFC Championship Game and Super Bowl LVIII. The offensive front led the way for the team's rushing attack, clearing the way for RB Isiah Pacheco's 935 yards on 205 attempts for seven rushing touchdowns. Pacheco totaled three 100+ yard rushing games (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the Pro Bowl while Thuney was also selected to the PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team and the AP All-Pro Team (first-team).

The 2022 season was a standout for Heck's line that culminated in the Chiefs third Super Bowl title. Behind Heck's front, the offense found rhythm leading the league in passing yards (5,250), yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6) and points per game (29.2). With Heck's assistance, the Chiefs offense was second in both third down percentage (48.7%) and red zone touchdown percentage (69.4%). Familiar faces returned in 2022 with C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith both back for their second seasons while T Orlando Brown and G Joe Thuney also returned to the squad. The chemistry was evident, as they allowed just 26.0 sacks through the regular season, the third fewest in the NFL, and allowed just 3.0 in the postseason. Heck's offensive front recorded six games with no sacks allowed, including Super Bowl LVII against an Eagles defense that led the league in sacks during the regular season. With help in the trenches, rookie RB Isiah Pacheco totaled the fifth most rushing yards in a Chiefs rookie campaign with 830 yards and five touchdowns. Humphrey, Brown and Thuney were all named to the 2022 Pro Bowl. Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the AP All-Pro Team (second-team).

In 2021, Heck had an offensive line full of new faces, including T Orlando Brown, G Joe Thuney, G Kyle Long and C Austin Blythe, in addition to draft picks C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith. Rookies Humphrey and Smith started all 17 regular season games in 2021, becoming the 17th and 18th players in franchise history to start all regular season games in their rookie season. Humphrey and Smith are the third pair of teammates to both start all regular season games in their rookie campaign. The group ranked tied for third in the NFL allowing just 28.0 sacks all season. Following the season, Brown earned his third Pro Bowl selection.

In 2020, Heck led an offensive line that was marred by injuries, seeing 12 different starters at various positions along the line throughout the season while still ranking fifth in sacks allowed with 24.0. Chiefs T Eric Fisher was selected to his second-career Pro Bowl (2018), while enjoying one of the top seasons of his career. He was even able to get into the end zone, scoring on a two-yard pass from QB Patrick Mahomes, joining Mark Adickes and Joe Valerio as the only offensive linemen to catch touchdown passes in team history.

In 2019, Heck led an offensive line unit that finished third in the NFL in sacks allowed with 25.0 in the regular season. T Mitchell Schwartz started every game at RT, extending his streak of the most straight starts for an offensive tackle to 128. Schwartz was named second-team All-Pro at right tackle.

The 2018 season featured Heck's offensive line protecting NFL MVP QB Mahomes who threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, which is only the second time in NFL history that a QB threw for 4,000+ yards and 25+ passing touchdowns. On the way to an AFC Championship berth, the offensive line only gave up 34.0 sacks (regular and post season), which ranked tied for sixth in the league. First-year OL Andrew Wylie was awarded the Mack Lee Hill Award, which is annually presented to the Chiefs' top rookie or first-year player in remembrance of the late Mack Lee Hill.

During the 2017 season, Heck coached seven different starting offensive linemen with six different combinations, paving the way for the running backs group to record a combined 1,903 yards. With Heck's leadership, rookie RB Kareem Hunt led the league with 1,327 rushing yards. QB Alex Smith threw for a career-high 4,042 and both Smith and Hunt made the Pro Bowl in 2017.

In 2016, the offensive line proved its versatility once again as eight different linemen filled a starting role throughout the season. Behind a Heck-coached offensive line, RB Spencer Ware had 921 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns while RB Charcandrick West rushed for 293 yards and one touchdown.

In 2015, nine different offensive line combinations including eight different offensive linemen made up the starting lineup. Rookie Mitch Morse started all but one game at center, and Fisher solidified the left tackle spot during the club's 11-game winning streak.

During the 2014 season, the line helped RBs Jamaal Charles and Knile Davis carry the scoring load for the Chiefs. The two scored 22 of the Chiefs 40 total touchdowns, which ranked first among a pair of teammates across the NFL. Charles' 1,033 rushing yards in 2014 was his third consecutive year over 1,000 yards and second consecutive behind Heck's line.

In 2013, Heck led Kansas City's offensive line to help RB Jamaal Charles reach 1,287 rushing yards, enough for third-most in the NFL. T Branden Albert made his first appearance in the Pro Bowl under Heck's guidance.

Prior to joining the Chiefs staff, Heck served nine years on the Jacksonville Jaguars coaching staff as the assistant offensive line coach (2005) and offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach (2004) before being promoted to offensive line coach (2006-12).

In 2011, Jacksonville's offensive line paved the way for RB Maurice Jones-Drew to rush for 1,606 yards to earn the NFL rushing title. In 2010, the Jaguars boasted the third-ranked rushing offense in the NFL, averaging 149.7 yards per game, including 4.7 yards per carry to rank fifth in the league.

In 2006 and 2007, the offensive line led the offense to the two highest single-season rushing totals in franchise history to date and two of the three lowest sack totals. The Jaguars set the single-season franchise record for rushing yards (2,541) in 2006 and allowed only 30.0 sacks, the second-fewest in team history.

Prior to Jacksonville, Heck served three seasons on the University of Virginia coaching staff, the first two seasons as a graduate assistant and the final year as tight ends coach. He tutored All-American TE Heath Miller, who set numerous Atlantic Coast Conference tight end records for receiving and scoring. Miller was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2005.

Heck played in the NFL for 12 seasons (1989-2000) as an offensive lineman. He finished his playing career with Washington, where he played for two seasons (1999-00). As the starting left tackle in 1999, he blocked for an offense that ranked second in the NFL. From 1994 to 1998, Heck was a five-year starter for the Chicago Bears. In 1995, he gave up no sacks as part of an offensive line that yielded the fewest sacks in the NFL (15.0). Heck was drafted in the first round (15th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks, where he was a unanimous All-Rookie selection in 1989. A starter for all five years with the Seahawks, he played three seasons without missing a snap.

A 1989 graduate of Notre Dame, Heck was a first-team All-American and a tri-captain of the 1988 national championship team that finished 12-0. He was a tight end for his first three seasons at Notre Dame before moving to tackle in spring drills in his senior season. Heck's son, Charlie, is a tackle in the NFL drafted in the fourth round (126th overall) in the 2020 NFL Draft.

2022-23	LSU	Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
2024	Jacksonville Jaguars	Linebackers
2025-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Senior Defensive Assistant ('25) Linebackers/Outside Linebackers ('26)

Matt House enters his first season as Kansas City's linebackers/outside linebackers coach in 2026. House served as the senior defensive assistant in 2025 after previously spending three seasons with the club as the linebackers coach (2019-21). Before his current stint with the Chiefs, House served as the linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2024 after spending two seasons (2022-23) at LSU, where he was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach.

In 2025, House worked closely with a defensive unit that ranked top 10 in numerous categories. Across the league, the defense ranked first in opponent fourth-down conversion rate (.261), second in opponent plays of 10+ yards (169), sixth in opponent points per game (19.3), eighth in opponent redzone scoring (.529) and ninth in opponent rushing yards per game (105.7). Leading the linebackers, House guided LB Nick Bolton to tie for sixth in the league in total tackles with 154 (73 solo), while also recording 10 tackles for loss, seven quarterback hits, six passes defensed, 1.0 sack (-8.0 yards) one interception and one forced fumble.

In 2024, House led a linebacking unit for Jacksonville that was spearheaded by LB Devin Lloyd, who recorded a team-high 113 tackles and LB Foyesade Oluokun who also recorded 108 tackles which ranked second on the Jaguars defense. The pair also combined for 3.0 sacks, 11 passes defensed, six quarterback hits, 13 tackles for loss and one forced fumble.

House served as LSU's defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for the 2022 and 2023 seasons. While at LSU, House's defensive unit ranked among the top half of the SEC in nearly every major defensive category in 2022.

In 2021, LBs Nick Bolton and Anthony Hitchens led the Kansas City defense with 192 combined tackles under House's leadership. LBs Willie Gay Jr. and Ben Niemann also had 45+ tackles on the season (Gay Jr.; 48 and Niemman; 52). Altogether, the unit recorded 1.5 sacks, 10 passes defensed and 18 tackles for loss.

In 2020, House led a linebacking group that accounted for 3.0 sacks and 245 tackles. LBs Anthony Hitchens (78) and Damien Wilson (70) ranked second and third on the team in total tackles for the season.

In 2019, House led a linebacker group that accounted for 5.5 sacks and 275 tackles. For the second-consecutive season LB Anthony Hitchens led the team in tackles tallying 88 in 2019.

House's defenses anchored a Kentucky team that reached three-straight bowl games for the first time since 2007-2009, and culminated in a 27-24 victory over Penn State in the 2019 Citrus Bowl. His 2018 defense ranked sixth in the country in scoring defense. In his first year with the Wildcats, House served as the special teams coordinator/inside linebackers coach. Under House's guidance, he led a pair of first-time starters at middle linebacker in Courtney Love and Jordan Jones. Together, the duo combined for 185 tackles and Jones earned second-team All-SEC honors.

House spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Florida International (2015) in which his defense limited four opponents to less than 14 points and finished the season ranked 16th nationally in red zone defense. House's defense boasted five players who earned all-conference honors and four would go on to sign NFL contracts.

Before his time in Lexington and Miami, House spent time as a defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh (2012-14). House's defenses anchored a Pittsburgh team that won two bowl games in his three years on campus. House coached Pittsburgh defensive tackle Aaron Donald, who was then drafted 13th overall by the Rams in the 2014 NFL Draft and has since won NFL Defensive Player of the Year twice (2017-18) and been named to four All-Pro teams (2015-18). In his most successful season with the Panthers, his 2013 defense ranked 34th nationally in total defense.

Before his collegiate experiences, House spent four seasons in the NFL as defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach for the St. Louis Rams (2009-11) and special teams/strength and conditioning assistant for the Carolina Panthers (2008). While in St. Louis, House worked under then-head coach and now-Chiefs defensive coordinator Steve Spagnuolo. In his season in Carolina, the Panthers went 12-4 and claimed the NFC South title and the franchise's fourth-ever playoff berth.

House's final stop of his first collegiate stint was at the University of Buffalo (2006-07), where he was the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the Bulls. During his time in Western New York, House helped the Bulls to a share of the 2007 MAC East title and helped developed All-MAC safety Davonte Shannon, who finished as the school's all-time leading tackler and signed as an NFL free agent.

House spent the 2005 season as the defensive line coach at Gardner-Webb. He coached as a defensive assistant at North Carolina (2003-04), helping UNC to the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl.

House began his coaching career at Michigan State University (2001-02) as a graduate assistant, helping the Spartans to the 2001 Silicon Valley Classic with the secondary and special teams units.

Education: Michigan State University (B.S. 2000). Born: Harrison, Mich. Family: Wife - Jessi. Children - Avery, Jackson, Jacob and Trent.

MATTHAEI'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2008-12	Philadelphia Eagles	Coaching Asst. ('08-09) Assistant to the Head Coach ('09-12)
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive QC ('13-14) Assistant Quarterbacks ('15-17) Assistant Offensive Line ('18-26)

Corey Matthaei enters his 14th season with the Chiefs and ninth as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 2026.

In 2025, Matthaei continued to assist Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck, as the duo completed their eighth year together working with the offensive line. C Creed Humphrey was selected to his fourth-consecutive Pro Bowl (2022-25) and his second-straight AP All-Pro first team selection (2024-25) while he has never missed a game across five seasons (2021-25). G Trey Smith earned his second-straight Pro Bowl nod (2024-25) while playing in 12 games and only allowing 0.5 sack. Matthaei helped OL Kingsley Suamataia transition to LG, where he started in all 17 games and only allowed 1.0 sack.

Matthaei coached in his third-straight Super Bowl in 2024, marking his fifth Super Bowl that he has coached in through the past six years and including three victories (LIV, LVII and LVIII). Matthaei assisted Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck as they developed rookie LT Kingsley Suamataia and maintained the front's strong interior presence with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney. All three earned Pro Bowl selections while Thuney and Humphrey earned AP All-Pro (first team) selections. The front gave up the second-fewest sacks across the league in the postseason, giving up 11.0.

In 2023, Matthaei assisted the offensive line to another productive year with two key new faces in LT Donovan Smith and RT Jawaan Taylor. The line continued their strong interior with C Creed Humphrey, G Trey Smith and G Joe Thuney. The unit allowed just 28.0 sacks, the second fewest in the league and allowed no sacks in the Wild Card and Divisional Round Games en route to their second-consecutive Super Bowl win (LVII and LVIII). With Matthaei's assistance, the front cleared the way for RB Isiah Pacheco's standout season with 205 rushes for 935 yards and seven endzone trips. Pacheco had three 100+ rushing yard games (Weeks 4, 13 and 17). Humphrey and Thuney were both selected to the Pro Bowl while Thuney was also selected to the PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team and the AP All-Pro Team (first-team). Matthaei continues to coordinate the team's screen game and is responsible for preparing the opponent blitz package. He also works closely with Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck to formulate the short-yardage and goal line run and pass game.

In 2022, Matthaei worked closely with the Chiefs offensive line that helped the Chiefs offense lead the league in passing yards (5,250), yards per play (6.43), yards per game (413.6) and points per game (29.2). With a line highlighted by second-year linemen C Creed Humphrey and G Trey Smith and returners T Orlando Brown and G Joe Thuney, the 2022 offensive front allowed just 26.0 sacks through the regular season (third in NFL), recorded six games with no sacks and despite the Eagles leading the league in sacks in 2022, the Chiefs front allowed no sacks during the Super Bowl LVII win. With Matthaei's guidance, the offensive line helped rookie RB Isiah Pacheco total the fifth-most rushing yards in a Chiefs rookie campaign with 830 yards and five touchdowns. Three offensive linemen (Humphrey, Brown and Thuney) were named to the 2022 Pro Bowl. Matthaei coordinated the Chiefs screen game and was responsible for preparing the opponent blitz package, and also worked closely with offensive line coach Andy Heck to formulate the short-yardage and goal line run game.

For the 2021 season, Matthaei helped a group of veterans and rookies merge into an offensive line that only allowed 28.0 sacks on QB Patrick Mahomes, which was tied at third for the season. Prior to the season, Brown joined the club via trade with the Ravens, and following the season, he earned his third Pro Bowl nomination. Rookie offensive linemen Humphrey and Smith started all 17 regular season games in 2021, becoming the 17th and 18th players in franchise history to start all regular season games in their rookie season.

In 2020, Matthaei helped lead an offensive line that was marred by injuries, seeing 12 different starters at various positions along the line throughout the season while still ranking fifth in sacks allowed with 24.0.

In 2019, Matthaei assisted an offensive line unit that finished tied for third in the NFL in sacks allowed with 25.0 in the regular season on their way to defeating the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV.

In his first year as the assistant offensive line coach, he helped lead a group that blocked for NFL MVP QB Patrick Mahomes. The offensive line only allowed 26.0 sacks in the regular season and paved the way for 1,855 yards rushing as a team.

Prior to the 2018 season, Matthaei served as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach from 2015 to 2017. In addition to tutoring the quarterbacks, Matthaei assisted Offensive Line Coach Andy Heck. Before being promoted in 2015, Matthaei was an offensive quality control coach for two seasons with the team (2013-14). In the five seasons Matthaei worked alongside QB Alex Smith (2013-17), Smith recorded five consecutive seasons passing for 3,000 yards and became the franchise's all-time leading rusher among QBs after the 2017 season (1,672 yards). In 2013, Matthaei assisted an offensive staff that propelled the Chiefs to the single best season turnaround in franchise history, winning 11 games after a 2-14 season.

Prior to his move to Kansas City, Matthaei served three seasons under Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid with the Philadelphia Eagles as the assistant to the head coach from 2009-12 after completing two seasons with the Eagles as a coaching assistant (2008-09). He spent 2006-07 as Philadelphia's football operations intern for training camp.

Before embarking on his NFL career, Matthaei played on the offensive line at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., (2003-06). Upon graduating, he spent one season as the offensive assistant at his alma mater.

Education: Willamette University (B.A. 2007). Born: Fircrest, Wash. Family: Wife - Cari; Children - Taylor, Brayden and Kacey.

MELVIN

MELVIN'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1982-85	San Francisco State	Offensive Lineman ('82-83) Graduate Assistant ('84-85)
1986-87	Northern Arizona	RB/OL/TE
1988-90	UC Santa Barbara	Off. Coord./OL
1991-98	Occidental	Off. Coord./OL
2013-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Tight Ends

Tom Melvin enters his 14th season as Kansas City's tight ends coach and his 28th season as an NFL coach in 2026.

Melvin joined the Chiefs in 2013 - the same year Chiefs TE Travis Kelce was drafted in the third round (63rd overall) - making him Kelce's position coach for the entirety of his 14-year career. Entering 2026, Kelce holds a streak of 191 games with a reception, the longest in franchise history and longest active streak in the National Football League. In 2025, Kelce surpassed RB Priest Holmes (83) for the most total touchdowns in Chiefs history with 85 (82 rec., 2 rush, 1 fum.) One year prior (2024), Kelce passed PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez (76) for the most touchdown receptions in team annals. Under Melvin's tutelage, Kelce recorded seven-straight seasons of 1,000 receiving yards (2016-22) and was the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach the 6,000 – 13,000 receiving yard plateaus. Since QB Patrick Mahomes took over at QB, the two have had an obvious chemistry that has paid off on the field, connecting 59 times for touchdowns - the third-most QB-TE TD connections in NFL history. Kelce's been a vital player in the club's nine-straight AFC West Titles (2018-24), seven-consecutive AFC Championship Game appearances (2018-24) and three Super Bowl wins (LIV, LVII and LVIII), including back-to-back Super Bowl rings (LVII and LVIII). Kelce has also cemented himself as a prolific postseason player, tied for the most postseason game appearances (25) in Chiefs history, second-most points in Chiefs postseason history (120). His 20-career postseason receiving touchdowns, 178 receptions and 2,078 receiving yards are all the most in franchise history. His 178 career postseason receptions are the most in NFL history and his 2,078 postseason receiving yards top all tight ends in league history and are second to only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice. With 20 postseason receiving touchdowns, he is second to only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (22) for the most all time amongst pass catchers. Since 2015, Kelce has not missed a Pro Bowl nomination, and from 2016-22, he made the All-Pro Team for seven-straight seasons (first-team: '16, '18, '20, '22; second-team: '17, '19, '21). Kelce has been voted by his teammates to be an offensive postseason captain every year since 2017, helping to lead the team to three Super Bowl victories in five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII) and three-straight appearances (LVII, LVIII and LIX). Due to injury, Kelce only played in one game in his rookie season (2013) but since his return in 2014 he has been the team's leading receiver each season except 2015 (second to WR Jeremy Maclin) and 2021 (second to WR Tyreek Hill).

In 2025, Melvin's tight end room was led by TE Travis Kelce who led the offense with 76 receptions for 851 yards. Kelce had five touchdown receptions in 2025, giving him 85 total career touchdowns (82 rec. 2 rush, 1 fum.) for the most in Chiefs history. Throughout the season, Kelce extended his record with 191 consecutive games with a pass reception, the fourth-longest in NFL history. In Week 5, Kelce hauled in a touchdown bringing his career points to 502, making him the highest non-kicker scorer in Chiefs annals. Kelce's 800+ yards are tied with PFHOF WR Jerry Rice for the most consecutive seasons with 800+ receiving yards by any position. He is tied with. TE Noah Gray completed his season with 21 receptions for 178 yards.

In 2024, Melvin had another reliable season with TE Travis Kelce who again led the team with 823 yards and 97 receptions for three touchdowns and earned his 10th Pro Bowl nomination. Melvin helped Kelce make history again as he recorded his 1,000th career reception, the only player in franchise history to reach the mark and the fastest tight end to surpass 1,000 catches. Kelce added on 13 receptions for 175 yards and a touchdown in the postseason. TE Noah Gray had a productive year, the second-leading tight end with 40 receptions for 437 yards and five touchdowns. Gray's year was the best of his career with highs in receptions, yards, and touchdowns.

Melvin had a productive tight end room in 2023 with Kelce leading the charge and bolstered by TE Noah Gray and TE Blake Bell. Kelce had a standout postseason performance with 32 receptions, the most in his postseason career and 355 receiving yards which were the second-most in his postseason career. He added three touchdown receptions to his performance. He had back-to-back 100+ receiving yard games (Weeks 5 and 6) and added a postseason 100+ receiving yard performance in the AFC Championship Game in Baltimore (11 rec., 116 yards). Gray set a then single-season high for himself with 305 receiving yards (28 catches) and two touchdowns.

The 2022 season proved to be another record setting year for Kelce and further development of TEs Noah Gray and Blake Bell. After Kelce recorded 92 yards against Tampa Bay (10/2/2022) he passed former NFL TE Rob Gronkowski for fifth-most receiving yards in league history (tight ends) with 9,328. Following the season, Kelce’s 10,344 career receiving yards trailed only TE Tony Gonzalez for the most receiving yards in team history and fourth-most by a TE in league history. Back for his second year, Gray recorded 28 receptions for 299 yards and one touchdown.

In 2021, Melvin coached Kelce to another 1,000-yard season as he recorded 1,125 receiving yards and nine touchdowns en route to his seventh Pro Bowl nomination. With 9,006 career receiving yards, he became just the sixth tight end in NFL history to reach 9,000 career receiving yards and is the quickest tight end to do so.

In 2020, Melvin's coaching helped Kelce set two NFL records in Week 15. Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle’s previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. His 105 receptions in 2020 set a franchise record and marked the fourth-most single season receptions by a tight end in NFL history.

In 2019, Melvin helped Kelce become the first tight end in NFL history to record back-to-back 1,200+ yard receiving seasons. In the Week 16 game against the Chicago Bears in 2019, Kelce finished the game with 504-career receptions becoming the fastest tight end in NFL history to record 500-career receptions, doing so in just 95 games played.

Under Melvin's tutelage in 2018, Kelce was a key component to Mahomes’ breakout season as Mahomes took the starting quarterback role. Mahomes threw for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns, earning Mahomes NFL MVP.

Melvin has developed well-rounded tight ends including TE Demetrius Harris. Harris entered the league in 2013 as an undrafted free agent, spending the season on the club's practice squad after playing college basketball at UW-Milwaukee. In 2017, he recorded 18 catches for 224 yards and one touchdown.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2013, Melvin spent 14 seasons on the offensive coaching staff in Philadelphia, including the last 11 years of his tenure as the Eagles tight ends coach. During his time overseeing the tight ends, Melvin played a key role in the development of Brent Celek, who caught 280 passes for 3,473 yards and 20 touchdowns in his six-years playing for Melvin and the Eagles. He had 684 receiving yards in 2012 after registering 811 yards in 2011 with six touchdowns in those two seasons. Celek turned in one of the finest seasons ever by an Eagles tight end in 2009 with 76 receptions for 971 yards and eight touchdowns. Prior to being elevated to tight ends coach, Melvin was the club’s offensive assistant/quality control coach from 1999-01.

Melvin joined the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school’s offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, he led the Tigers to a then-school record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards on the way to an 8-1 record.

Prior to his time at Occidental, he served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of California—Santa Barbara. At UCSB, Melvin directed the nation’s fifth-ranked offense in 1989 while coaching five All-America selections.

From 1982-83, Melvin played on the offensive line at San Francisco State University. During the 1983 season, his position coach at San Francisco State was current Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid.

Following his playing career at SFSU, Melvin began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, serving on the same staff with Reid. He then moved on to Northern Arizona, where he mentored TE Shawn Collins, a first-round draft pick of Atlanta in the 1989 NFL Draft.

Melvin attended Cubberley High School in Palo Alto, Calif. Today, he holds a bachelor’s degree in physical education from San Francisco State and a master’s degree in educational administration from Northern Arizona.

Melvin’s cousin, Bob Melvin, is a former major league catcher and current manager of the San Francisco Giants.

Education: San Francisco State University (B.A. 1984, M.E. 1987). Born: Redwood City, Calif. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Justin, Joshua, J.T., Heather; Grandchildren - Haylee, Noa, Travis and Lorelei.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

MERRITT'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1989-92	NC State	Linebacker
1993	Miami Dolphins	Linebacker
1993-96	Phoenix/Arizona Cardinals	Linebacker
1997	Rhein Fire (NFL Europe)	Linebacker
1997	UT-Chattanooga	Outside Linebackers
2001-03	New York Jets	Def. Assistant/Linebackers
2018	Arizona Cardinals	Defensive Backs
2019-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Backs

Dave Merritt enters his eighth season as the defensive backs coach with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and his 30th season in the NFL, including a four-year playing career as a linebacker.

In 2025, Merritt and the defensive backs played a vital role in helping the defense rank top 10 across several league categories, including sixth in points allowed per game (19.3). Veteran CB Trent McDuffie continued to serve as a leader in the room, recording 63 tackles (45 solo), seven passes defensed tied with rookie CB Nohl Williams, added two tackles for loss, 1.0 sack (-3.0 yards), one interception, one quarterback hit and one forced fumble. DB Chamarri Conner turned in an impressive season, leading the Chiefs defensive backs in total tackles with 107 (68 solo), and added four tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and 2.0 sacks (-14.0 yards). Merritt also helped accelerate rookie CB Nohl Williams' game throughout the season which led him to play in 17 games (five starts) with 37 tackles (22 solo), seven passes defensed, four tackles for loss, 1.0 sack (-8.0 yards) and one quarterback hit.

In 2024, Merritt again helped lead the defensive backs room en route to the team's third-straight Super Bowl appearance (LVII, LVIII and LIX). CB Trent McDuffie continued to be a cornerstone of the room posting 59 tackles (45 solo) and added career-highs with 13 passes defensed and six tackles for loss while adding four quarterback hits. S Justin Reid continued to be a leader in the room as well, putting up the most tackles of the defensive backs with 85 (59 solo), nine passes defensed, five tackles for loss and two quarterback hits. Merritt continued to develop CB Nazeeh Johnson who stepped up and recorded all new career highs with 53 tackles (31 solo), 1.0 sack (-17.0 yards), three passes defensed and three tackles for loss. Rookie DB Jaden Hicks also emerged, leading the defense with three interceptions totaling 50 return yards (long of 47 yards). Hicks also posted five passes defensed and three tackles for loss along with his 24 tackles (19 solo).

In 2023, Merritt and the defensive backs contributed to a defense that was keen on second half shutdowns. In fact, the Chiefs defense allowed the fewest second-half points across the league (126), had three second-half shutouts and allowed no more than 27 points in any game this season – including the postseason. Much of the unit's production was due to CB L'Jarius Sneed and CB Trent McDuffie who became one of the league's top cornerback duos. Sneed had a career-year, locking up many of the NFL's top receivers and leading the defense in interceptions (two) and passes defensed (14). He was the team's fourth-leading tackler with 78 tackles (60 solo) and added five tackles for loss. He had a key forced fumble in the AFC Championship Game, knocking the ball out of Ravens WR Zay Flowers' hands in the endzone for a touchback en route to the team's 17-10 victory. McDuffie was the second-leading tackler with 80 tackles (60 solo) and tied with S Justin Reid with 3.0 sacks (-24.0 yards) while adding nine quarterback pressures, seven passes defensed and five forced fumbles. McDuffie was voted to his first AP All-Pro (first-team) selection. Merritt was also tasked with developing rookie DB Chamarri Conner who logged 28 tackles (24 solo), an interception, a pass defensed and two tackles for loss.

With five defensive back rookies in 2022, no other playoff team had more rookie defensive backs. Under Merritt's tutelage, rookie CBs Jaylen Watson and Joshua Williams both snagged a regular and postseason interception. CB L'Jarius Sneed and S Juan Thornhill led the team with three interceptions a piece, contributing to the defense's 10 interceptions in the final 10 games – including playoffs. Back for his third year, Sneed showed his versatility as a blitzer and recorded a career-high 3.5 sacks en route to the team's Super Bowl LVII victory. Another rookie standout was 2022 first-round draft pick (21st overall) CB Trent McDuffie who battled back from a hamstring injury in Week 1. McDuffie returned after six games, starting the remaining 13 games of the season, and recorded 44 tackles (28 solo), 1.0 sack (-12 yards) and seven passes defensed. The Chiefs acquired S Justin Reid via free agency in 2022. Reid racked up 81 tackles (59 solo), 1.0 sack and seven passes defensed. Rookie CB Jaylen Watson made a name for himself after a momentum-shifting interception during the Week 2 victory over the Chargers. His 99-yard pick-six was the longest go-ahead fourth-quarter touchdown scored by a rookie in NFL history. Through the season, Merritt developed rookie S Bryan Cook who ended up playing 16 games and totaled 27 tackles (19 solo), 1.0 sack and two passes defensed. In the AFC Championship Game his progress showed as he broke up a pass which led to an interception by fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams. The defensive backs helped to allow just 18 opponent plays of 20+ yards in the final eight games, the second fewest in the league.

In 2021, Merritt coached S Tyrann Mathieu to his third Pro Bowl. Mathieu led the team in interceptions with three, including a pick-six. S Dan Sorensen followed up close behind with two interceptions and a pick-six.

In 2020, Merritt coached S Tyrann Mathieu to his second-consecutive first-team AP All-Pro nomination and third of his career, first at the safety position. Mathieu led all NFL safeties with six interceptions in the regular season, adding one in the postseason. Merritt also mentored rookie CB L'Jarius Sneed who showed a lot of potential in the nine games he saw action (six starts), snagging three interceptions, 2.0 sacks (-19.0 yards) and seven passes defensed.

In 2019, Merritt helped coach Mathieu to two AP All-Pro Team nominations, first-team as a defensive back and second-team as a safety. He was also voted by his teammates as the team’s most valuable player with the Derrick Thomas award after ranking fourth in the NFL in passes defended amongst safeties with 12. He paired that with 75 tackles (63 solo), four interceptions and 2.0 sacks en route to the Chiefs Super Bowl LIV victory.

Merritt joined Kansas City after spending the 2018 season with the defensive backs at the Arizona Cardinals, where he coached CB Patrick Peterson to his eighth career Pro Bowl. Before the Cardinals, he spent 14 seasons with the New York Giants with stints as a defensive assistant (2004-2005) and secondary/safeties coach (2006-2017). Merritt worked there with the Chiefs current Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, where they led a defense that helped win Super Bowl XLII. He also went on to win Super Bowl XLVI, both teams under Head Coach Tom Coughlin.

With the Giants, he coached multiple Pro Bowlers: All-Pro S Antrel Rolle, S Landon Collins, CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and CB Janoris Jenkins; Collins and Rolle both leading tacklers. During his tenure with the secondary/safeties, the Giants backfield recorded 198 interceptions, which was tied for sixth in the NFL during that time frame.

His coaching career in the NFL began as a defensive assistant/linebacker coach for three seasons with the New York Jets (2001-2003) under Head Coach Herm Edwards and Defensive Coordinator Ted Cottrell. Prior to the Jets, he had two stops at the collegiate level, outside linebacker coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga (1997) and the same position along with defensive ends and defensive line at Virginia Military Institute (1998-2000).

While earning his political science degree, Merritt was a linebacker for the North Carolina State Wolfpack (1989-1992) and was named first-team All-ACC (1992) after leading the conference in tackles. He was then drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the seventh round (1993), and also played three seasons for the Arizona Cardinals. In his last season before transitioning to coaching, he played for NFL Europe’s Dusseldorf Rhein Fire, who competed in the World Bowl Championship that year (1997).

A standout player from Millbrook High School in Raleigh, North Carolina, he was inducted to the school’s first Hall of Fame class (2012).

Education: North Carolina State (1994). Born: Raleigh, N.C. Family: Wife - Yolonda; Sons - David Jr., Devin, Dawson and Daughters - Drayah and Kiki.

MURRAY'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2007-10	Oklahoma	Running Back
2011-14	Dallas Cowboys	Running Back
2015	Philadelphia Eagles	Running Back
2016-17	Tennessee Titans	Running Back
2018	FOX Sports	Analyst
2019	University of Arizona	Running Backs
2020-25	Oklahoma	Running Backs
2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Running Backs

DeMarco Murray joins the Chiefs for his first season coaching in the NFL in 2026. Murray had a seven year career in the NFL as a running back before spending time in the college coaching ranks.

Murray most recently served as Oklahoma's running backs coach, returning to his alma mater and holding the position from 2020-25. During his time at OU, he coached the 2023 running backs to help the team lead the Big 12 with 41.7 points (ranked fourth nationally) and 507.0 total yards per contest. In the final five games, sophomore RB Gavin Sawchuk rushed for 100+ yards in each game. In 2022, his group averaged 219.8 rushing yards per game which led the Big 12. The group featured RB Eric Gray who was second-team All-Big 12 and a fifth-round NFL Draft selection after rushing for 1,366 yards and 11 TDs that season.

In 2019, Murray entered the college coaching ranks at the University of Arizona and oversaw the running backs. Redshirt junior RB J.J. Taylor earned 2019 honorable mention All-Pac 12 honors after rushing for a team-high 721 yards and five TDs.

Murray spent one season as a college football analyst for FOX Sports, calling games in 2018 with Justin Kutcher and Petros Papadakis.

Murray spent four seasons (2011-2014) with the Dallas Cowboys after being drafted in the third round (71st overall pick) in 2011. Murray then signed with the Philadelphia Eagles for one season in 2015 before finishing his career with the Tennessee Titans from 2016-17 before he retired. In 99 games and 86 starts, Murray recorded three 1,000+ rushing yard seasons including back-to-back 1,000+ yard seasons (2013-14). In 2014, Murray recorded career highs with 1,845 rushing yards, 392 rushes and 13 touchdowns. His performance in 2014 earned him AP Offensive Player of the Year, PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team, AP All-Pro (first-team) and PFW/PFWA Offensive Player of the Year. Throughout his career, Murray recorded 7,174 rushing yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry and totaling 49 rushing touchdowns. He added 2,165 receiving yards and six touchdowns. Murray was selected to the Pro Bowl three times in his career (2013, 2014, 2016) and was selected to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2011.

Prior to his professional career, Murray attended the University of Oklahoma, starring with the Sooners for four seasons (2007-10). In his career with Oklahoma, they won three Big 12 Championships and two bowl games. Murray was a first-team All-Big 12 pick in 2010 after rushing for career highs of 1,214 yards and 15 TDs. He also caught 71 passes for 594 yards and five TDs. In 2008, Murray played a crucial role in helping get the Sooners to the BCS National Championship Game, which he had to miss due to injury. Murray rushed for 1,002 yards that season and 13 rushing touchdowns while adding 395 yards receiving and four touchdown receptions, earning him first-team All-Big 12 honors. Murray recorded several school records while at Oklahoma including all-purpose yards (6,718) and touchdowns scored (65) and is the school's all-time leader in kickoff return average (27.6 yards).

Off the field, Murray started the DeMarco Murray Foundation with the mission to provide families with seriously and chronically ill kids with daily encouragement and life-changing experiences.

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

ORR'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2015-19	University of Wisconsin-Madison	Linebacker
2020	Carolina Panthers	Linebacker
2021-23	University of Wisconsin-Madison	Dir. of Player Dev.
2024	Kansas City Chiefs	Football Intern
	Baylor	Assistant Linebackers
	Jackson State	Assistant Linebackers
2025-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Quality Control

Chris Orr enters his second season with Kansas City as defensive quality control coach in 2026. Orr previously spent time with the Chiefs as a football intern in 2024.

In 2025, Orr worked with Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, playing a key role in assisting the defense while primarily working with the linebacker unit. The defense marked several top 10 categories across the league: first in opponent fourth-down conversion rate (.261), second in opponent plays of 10+ yards (169), sixth in fewest points allowed per game (19.3), and ninth in rushing yards allowed per game (105.7).

Prior to joining the Kansas City coaching staff, Orr spent time with Baylor University serving as assistant linebackers coach in 2024. Orr was tasked with assisting Head Coach Dave Aranda and Coach Jamar Chaney with the linebacker group. Orr also spent a part of 2024 with HBCU National Champion Jackson State University as linebackers coach and run game coordinator. From 2021-23, Orr served as director of player development at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Orr signed with the Carolina Panthers in 2020 and spent one NFL season with them. Prior to joining the Panthers as an undrafted free agent, Orr spent five seasons at University of Wisconsin-Madison (2015-19) where he was a four-time NCAA Division I Scholarship Student-Athlete letter winner, a Lott Impact semifinalist and a team captain. He is also the record holder for most sacks by an inside/middle linebacker in school history, recording 11.5 sacks in his senior season.

The Orr family has a long football linage. Orr's father, Terry Orr, played collegiately at the University of Texas (1980-84) and professionally for the Washington Commanders (1984-93) where he was a two-time Super Bowl champion. His brother, Zach, is currently the defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens. Zach played his collegiate football at North Texas (2011-14) and professionally for the Ravens (2014-16). Nick Orr played at TCU from 2014-18 and professionally for the Chicago Bears in 2018. Terrance Orr is currently the head coach at Mesquite Poteet High School.

The DeSoto, Texas, native received his Bachelor of Science in Life Science Communication (2018) and his Master of Science in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis (2019) from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

2022-26	Kansas City Chiefs	FB Research Analyst ('22-'24) Dir. of Football Research & Dev. ('25-26)

Marc Richards enters his fifth season with the Chiefs and second as the Director of Football Research & Development in 2026. He spent the previous three seasons as a Football Research Analyst (2022-24).

In his current position, Richards helps oversee R&D efforts and assists the Chiefs coaching and personnel staffs by developing metrics and processes for player and team performance, decision making, trade valuations, and in-game situational analysis.

Prior to arriving in Kansas City, Richards spent time with the Oklahoma City Thunder working with the Thunder's Strategic Planning Group in Basketball Operations.

In 2021, Richards took home the grand prize in the Big Data Bowl. His team used Next Gen Statistics to develop a framework for accessing individual defensive performance in coverage. Richards was also a finalist in the 2022 NFL Big Data Bowl as his team used Next Gen Statistics to explore punter's optimal aiming location and hang time.

As he worked on a Ph.D. in Statistics at the University of Pittsburgh, Richards TA'd and taught undergraduate and graduate level courses in statistics. Advised by Dr. Lucas Mentch, his main research areas involved using classical statistical inference to understand modern machine learning algorithms as well as spatial-temporal modeling of crime such as quantifying the impact of COVID-19 on crime across US Cities. Prior to graduate school, he spent nearly four years working in the reinsurance industry helping model, assess and evaluate insurance companies' risk to natural and man-made disasters.

The Wayzata, Minn., native also has a background in hockey. On the ice, Richards played right defense at St. Olaf and was elected team captain for the 2015-16 season. Off the ice, he won the RITSAC Data Competition in 2019 and was a finalist in the Big Data Cup in 2021.

Education: St. Olaf College (B.A. 2016); Pittsburgh (M.A. 2021). Born: Wayzata, Minn. Family: Wife - Kate. Son - Macklin.

2019	Miami Dolphins	Offensive Coordinator
2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Wide Receivers

Chad O'Shea enters his fourth season with the Chiefs and first as the team's wide receiver's coach. He previously spent three seasons with the Chiefs in 2003-05, spending one season as a volunteer with special teams and two seasons as asst. special teams/linebackers. O'Shea has spent the past six seasons with the Cleveland Browns and comes with 24 years of NFL coaching experience. O'Shea has been a part of three Super Bowl victories (XLIX, LI, LIII) throughout his career along with 12 division titles and five conference championships.

O'Shea most recently spent six seasons with the Browns (2020-25) as the team's wide receivers coach. In 2024, WR Jerry Jeudy set the team's single-season reception record with 90, totaling 1,229 receiving yards - which was also fifth-most in a season in team history. With O'Shea's guidance, Jeudy's performance earned him his first career Pro Bowl selection. In 2023, O'Shea's leadership pushed WR Amari Cooper to become the first player in Browns history to record back-to-back 1,000+ yard receiving seasons. He led the team with 1,250 receiving yards which was the third-most in a season in Browns history. Upon joining the Browns in 2020, O'Shea helped the offense to some of its best numbers including the second-most points in franchise history (408), second-most scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for second-most first down (355).

Prior to joining the Browns, O'Shea spent the 2019 season with the Miami Dolphins as offensive coordinator. O'Shea helped assemble the team's 5-4 record in the final nine games after starting the season 0-7. The team's progress featured WR DeVante Parker who finished fifth in receiving yards across the league (1,202) and tied for fourth in touchdowns with nine.

O'Shea spent the bulk of his coaching career with the New England Patriots, spending 10 seasons (2009-18) and helping the team earn division titles each season, five AFC Championship Titles and three Super Bowls (XLIX, LI, LIII). While with New England, O'Shea helped coached WRs Wes Welker and Julian Edelman to three 1,000 + receiving yard seasons and WRs Randy Moss and Brandin Cooks to 1,000+ yard receiving seasons. With his guidane, Welker earned Pro Bowl honors each season from 2009-12 and AP All-Pro (first-team) in 2009 and 2011. Edelman was honored with Super Bowl LIII MVP honors after recording 10 catches for 141 yeards in the team's 13-3 victory. Under O'Shea's tutelage in his inaugural season with the Patriots (2009), Welker and Moss were a strong duo with Moss tying the NFL lead with 13 touchdowns while Welker led the NFL with 123 receptions. The tandem finished second (Welker; 1,384) and tied for fifth (Moss; 1,264) for receiving yards.

From 2006-08, O'Shea served as an offensive assistant/wide receivers coach with the Minnesota Vikings. In 2008, he helped WR Bernard Berrian rank second in the NFL with an average of 20.1 yards per catch. The Vikings also led the NFL for TD receptions of 20+ yards with 13 such TDs.

O'Shea first entered the NFL ranks with a volunteer position in 2003 with the Kansas City Chiefs before joining the staff in a similar role as an assistant special teams and linebackers coach. In 2004, the Chiefs set a team record for kickoff return yards (1,820).

Prior to his NFL coaching career, O'Shea spent three seasons with Southern Mississippi as a special teams coach and recruiting coordinator (2000-02) after spending four seasons (1996-99) at his alma mater, University of Houston. O'Shea first entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant in 1996 before spending the 1997 seasons coaching wide receivers. In 1998, O'Shea oversaw the tight ends and special teams before adding recruiting coordinator to his role in 1999.

O'Shea played quarterback at Marshall University (1991-93) before transferring to the University of Houston (1994-95). He was named team captain as a senior in 1995.

O'Shea graduated with a bachelor's in psychology in 1995. His father, Mike, was a longtime athletic trainer in the collegiate and NFL ranks. He and his wife, Melissa have three children.

2026	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Quality Control

Pagan enters his first season with the Chiefs and first NFL season in 2026. Pagan previously spent time with Kansas City in July of 2025 as the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellow.

Pagan most recently spent nine seasons at Villanova University (2017-25) where he served as the tight ends/assistant wide receivers coach (2017-18) before being promoted to oversee the wide receivers and work with both the kick and punt returners (2019-25). Pagan was also responsible for recruiting the eastern, central and western Pennsylvania areas. In 2025, Pagan helped the Villanova offense, who averaged 29.5 points per game, to a 12-3 overall record and reach the semi-final round of the FCS National playoffs. From 2021-25, the Wildcats made the FCS National Playoffs four times (2021, 2023-25). Villanova averaged 30+ points per game in the 2021 and 2023 seasons. In 2019, Villanova was third in the country in passing touchdowns (37) and eighth in the country in points per game (37.3). Throughout his Villanova stint, he coached multiple CAA All-Conference performers including WR Luke Colella (first-team; 2025), PR Braden Reed (third-team; 2025), WR Rayjuon Pringle (first-team; 2023, second-team; 2021), and WR Jaaron Hayek (first-team; 2022). Hayek was also invited to the Kansas City Chiefs rookie minicamp in 2024.

Prior to his time with Villanova, Pagan was the special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach for Stevenson University (2015-17). Pagan helped lead Stevenson win the Middle Atlantic Conference Championship after averaging 34.9 points per game and going 9-2 in 2016. Pagan coached multiple MAC All-Conference selections including WR Preston Addo, who was a first-team wide receiver and the first-team returner of the year in 2016, WR Devin Salisbury (second-team; 2016), RB Devonte Williams (first-team special teams player of the year; 2016) and K Tim Sternfeld (second-team; 2016). He also worked with the Philadelphia Eagles as the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellow in July of 2017.

Before joining Stevenson, Pagan served as the wide receivers coach/co-special teams coordinator for State University of New York at Cortland (2013-15). At SUNY Cortland, he also served as the JV head coach and punt coordinator while coaching the returners.

Pagan got his first coaching opportunity as a volunteer coach at his alma mater, West Chester University in 2013. While at West Chester, he assisted the defensive coaches with schemes and coached the offensive scout team. He also assisted the recruiting coordinator in all aspects of recruiting weekends. Additionally, Pagan was in charge of coaching the kick returners and punt returners.

The Lancaster, Pa., native attended West Chester University of Pennsylvania (2009-12) where he was a wide receiver, defensive back and return specialist. Pagan was a three-year letter winner during his collegiate playing career. Pagan graduated with a degree in liberal studies and health and coaching. Before transferring to West Chester, he attended Clarion University (2008) where he was a wide receiver and won the Newcomer of the Year award.

REID

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

REID'S FOOTBALL CAREER

2017	University of Utah	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2018	Kansas City Chiefs	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2019	Boston College	Asst. Strength & Condit. Dietician
2020-21	Colorado State	Assoc. Strength & Conditioning Coach
2022	BYU	Asst./Interim Head Strength & Cond.
2023-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Strength & Conditioning

Spencer Reid enters his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2026 and fourth as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. Reid joined the Chiefs coaching staff in 2023 after spending the 2022 season at Brigham Young University as an assistant strength and conditioning coach before being promoted to interim head strength and conditioning coach in December. Reid had a previous stint with the Chiefs as a strength and conditioning intern during the 2018 season.

Since rejoining the staff, he has helped prepare the Chiefs for long seasons resulting in the team's ninth-consecutive AFC West title, seventh-straight AFC Championship game appearance and third-straight Super Bowl appearance (LVII, LVIII and LIX) including back-to-back Super Bowl Championships (LVII, LVIII).

As interim head strength and conditioning coach at BYU, Reid designed and assigned the weight room responsibilities for the coaching staff as well as oversaw the sprinting and weightlifting sessions and overall program design. Reid worked closely with the rest of the performance staff including nutritionists and athletic trainers to coordinate the rehabilitation and return of players to the field.

Reid spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons at Colorado State as an associate strength and conditioning coach while also earning his masters in sports management. He helped to plan and conduct the strength and conditioning sessions for all football position groups while also being an active part of the recruiting process, answering all inquiries related to the strength and conditioning program. During his time at Colorado State, Reid focused on working with student-athletes on acceleration, sprinting and change of direction techniques.

Prior to his time at Colorado State, Reid spent one season at Boston College (2019) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. In this role, he worked directly with Boston College's dietician to examine the nutritional needs of student-athletes and worked closely with the athletic training staff to design and execute strength programs for injured student-athletes.

Reid started his coaching career as a strength and conditioning intern for the Chiefs during portions of the 2018 season through the 2019 season. Reid gained experience in the field assisting in the planning and execution of training sessions and preparing the weight room each day after spending the majority of 2017 as a strength and conditioning intern for football and women's tennis at the University of Utah.

Reid's father, Andy Reid, is the head coach of the Chiefs. Reid attended Temple University for undergrad (2011-13) where he was awarded a scholarship to play football after completing a two-year mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Upon finishing his mission, Reid transferred to the University of Utah where he earned his kinesiology degree before earning his Master of Sports Management at Colorado State.

Education: University of Utah (B.S. 2017), Colorado State (M. Sports Management 2022) Born: Green Bay, Wis. Family: Wife – Maggie; Children – Garrett, Ford, Levi and Monroe.

DAN
ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

WILLIAMS' FOOTBALL CAREER

2015-18	Stevenson University	Quarterback
2019-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Coaching Intern ('19) Assistant to the HC ('20-21) Offensive Assistant ('22) Offensive Quality Control/Asst. QBs ('23-24) Assistant Quarterbacks ('25-26)

Dan Williams enters his eighth season with the Chiefs in 2026, and his fourth season as assistant quarterbacks coach after serving as the offensive quality control/assistant quarterbacks coach for two seasons (2023-24). Williams served one season as an offensive assistant in 2022. Williams spent his first two seasons with the Chiefs as the assistant to the head coach (2020-21) and spent the 2019 season as a coaching intern. Williams has now been a part of three Super Bowl wins (LIV, LVII and LVIII) in five years, including back-to-back championships (LVII and LVIII), and three-straight appearances (LVII, LVIII and LIX).

In his first season as assistant quarterbacks coach, Williams helped the QB unit to another productive season with QB Patrick Mahomes at the helm. Mahomes reached several milestones including becoming the youngest player to throw 250 career touchdowns (30 years, 11 days), the fastest to reach 300 combined touchdown passes (139 games; regular and postseason), the fastest to surpass 35,000 passing yards (123 games) and surpassed QB Tom Brady for the most wins in a QB's first 125 starts (93 wins, 119 starts). Mahomes started in 14 games completing 315 passes for 3,587 yards and 22 touchdowns before being placed on IR on 12/17/2025, ending his 2025 season.

Williams continued to assist the quarterback's unit in 2024 led by QB Patrick Mahomes. Mahomes spearheaded the offense throwing for 3,928 yards on 392 completions, giving him a career-high .675 completion percentage, which helped guide the Chiefs to a franchise best 15-2 regular season record.

In 2023, Williams worked closely with Quarterbacks Coach David Girardi and the rest of the quarterback room. Williams worked closely with QB Chris Oladokun throughout the season and assisted QB Patick Mahomes to earn his third Super Bowl MVP (LIV, LVII and LVIII) after defeating the 49ers 25-22 in overtime in Super Bowl LVIII. Mahomes had another standout year throwing for 4,183 yards on 401 completions with 27 touchdowns.

Williams worked closely with the quarterbacks in 2022 in his sole season as an offensive assistant. With Williams' assistance, QB Patrick Mahomes and the Chiefs offense produced a historic season en route to their second Super Bowl victory in four years (LIV, LVII). Mahomes and the offense led the league in many categories: passing yards (5,250), passing touchdowns (41), passing TD percentage (6.3%), passing first downs (272) and pass plays of 25+ yards (49). Mahomes completed 435 of his 648 passes and his 67.1 completion percentage was the highest of his career so far. The sixth-year quarterback set franchise records for passing yards (5,250) and single-season passing first downs (272) in 2022. Mahomes' 2022 performance earned him his second NFL MVP and Super Bowl MVP after the Chiefs took down the Eagles 38-35 in Super Bowl LVII.

In 2019, Williams worked closely with the quarterbacks and tight ends, gaining experience as a coaching intern of Super Bowl LIV Champion Chiefs before moving to his role as assistant to the head coach. During his time as assistant to the head coach, Williams worked directly with Head Coach Andy Reid in organizing the day-to-day operations of the team. His responsibilities included overseeing player and staff communications with the head coach and managing the football calendar, which includes the offseason program, mini-camp and in-season schedules.

The Sicklerville, N.J., native spent four seasons (2015-18) at Stevenson University where he served as the starting quarterback and team captain. Williams left the Mustangs as the school's all-time leader in career completions (482), attempts (755), completion percentage (64%), passing yards (6,812) and passing touchdowns (57).

Williams' father, Ted Williams, spent 20 years on the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff working with the tight ends (1995-96; 2013-14) and running backs (1997-2012). He also spent two years as a pro scout with the Eagles in 2015-16. Ted Williams spent 14 seasons under Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid while Reid was the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2012).

Education: Stevenson University (B.S. 2018; M.Comm. 2019). Hometown: Sicklerville, N.J. Family: Wife - Ashley; Daughters - Kaia and Naomi.

Assistant General Manager Chris Shea enters his 10th season with the Kansas City Chiefs and his 28th in the NFL. Shea works closely with General Manager Brett Veach and Head Coach Andy Reid to provide input and support on all football operations matters including roster building strategy, roster decisions, staffing, and legal matters. He directly oversees the departments responsible for player personnel analytics, football administration, salary cap management, football-related legal matters, and team security. Shea is the club's lead negotiator for player contracts and trades, serves as a senior evaluator of players, and manages the club's analytical, legal, neurological, and personality assessments of players. He works across the Chiefs organization to foster communication, alignment, and implementation of best practices.

Shea possesses leadership experience in all aspects of NFL roster building, managed a college football recruiting department, coached at the college and high school levels, and is an attorney. He has been employed by the NFL Management Council, six NFL clubs, two NCAA football programs, a high school football team, and a law firm specializing in labor and employment law. A seasoned college and pro talent evaluator with 26 years of NFL scouting experience, Shea spent 10 seasons as a pro/advance scout and has coordinated preparations for 14 drafts. He has 13 seasons of experience managing the salary cap for the league or teams. He has been involved with every contract negotiation, player transaction, and trade since arriving in Kansas City. Shea contributed to building four Super Bowl champion teams with two different organizations (Philadelphia 2017, Kansas City 2019, 2022 and 2023) and has helped build the rosters of teams who have competed in six of the last eight Super Bowls (Philadelphia 2017, Kansas City 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023, and 2024). He has worked in organizations headed by Super Bowl winning leaders including general managers Bill Polian, Howie Roseman and Brett Veach as well as head coaches Tom Coughlin, Bill Parcells, Doug Peterson, and Andy Reid.

His roles with the Chiefs have blended player personnel, football administration, legal, and leadership responsibilities. Shea joined the Chiefs in May 2017. He previously served as the Senior Vice President of Football Operations and Strategy (2024), Vice President of Football Operations/Team Counsel in 2021 (2021-2023), Football Operations Counsel and Personnel Executive (2018-20), and Salary Cap and Legal Executive (2017). In 2025, he was selected to represent the Chiefs at the Stanford-NFL League of Leaders executive education program conducted by the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Shea spent the previous two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2015-16), serving as the Director of Scouting Administration/Personnel Scout in 2016-May 2017 after initially joining the Eagles as Director of Scouting Administration/Strategic Management in May 2015. In Philadelphia, he helped develop the team's roster-building strategy, scouted pro and college players, scouted opponents, oversaw daily operations of the player personnel department, coordinated data research for player personnel, and managed development of the club's scouting-related technology. Shea coordinated all administrative aspects of the Eagles 2016 draft and contributed to building the 2017 Eagles roster that went on to win Super Bowl LII.

Shea spent seven seasons with the Miami Dolphins (2008-14), including his final four as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. In that capacity, he served as the Dolphins primary advance scout, was a senior evaluator of all pro players and oversaw the daily operations of Miami's pro scouting department. He was promoted in May 2011 after previously serving as the Dolphins Player Personnel Administrator (2010-11) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2008-10). In those roles, he combined scouting, legal, salary cap management, information technology and analytics duties. From 2008-11, he coordinated all aspects of the Dolphins draft efforts.

During 2007-08, he was employed by the NFL Management Council. Initially, Shea served as a law clerk focusing on player grievances and litigation. Shea was later hired as the Coordinator of Labor Operations. In that capacity, he reviewed all player contracts to ensure compliance with league policies and the NFL CBA, advised club executives on player contract and salary cap issues and was a speaker at the NFL's annual Labor Seminar. He was also an Instant Replay Communicator for the NFL Officiating Department in 2007.

Shea was a scouting consultant with the Dallas Cowboys in 2005-06. From 2000-04, he was the New York Jets Pro Personnel Assistant. Shea broke into the NFL in 1995 as an operations/equipment intern for the Carolina Panthers.

Shea worked in college football from 1992-2000 spending time as the Football Recruiting Assistant at Boston College (1998-2000), the Assistant Offensive Line Coach for Harvard University (1997-98) and a Student Football Manager at Boston College (Head 1994-96, Varsity 1992-93). While at Harvard, Shea was part of the 1997 Ivy League Championship staff and coached four future NFL players including Pro Bowl center Matt Birk. The two recruiting classes Shea managed at Boston College were ranked in the Top 20 nationally and featured sixteen future NFL players of which six were drafted, including future All-Pro guard Chris Snee and Pro Bowl center Dan Koppen. Boston College participated in four bowl games during Shea's time at the school. In 1991, Shea was an assistant coach at Belmont High School (Mass.).

While an undergraduate, Shea took courses at Harvard University for credit toward his Boston College degree. As a law student, he was President of the Hofstra University Law School Sports and Entertainment Law Society.

Shea is licensed to practice law in New York and is a member of the New York and American Bar Associations. The Belmont, Mass., native has also been employed outside of the football industry as a law clerk at the New York law firm of Colleran, O'Hara and Mills, and as a Temporary Corrections Officer in Middlesex County (Mass.) Sheriff's Department.

Education: Hofstra University School of Law (J.D. 2007), Boston College (B.A. 1998). Family: Wife – Kirsten; Daughter – Caitlin.

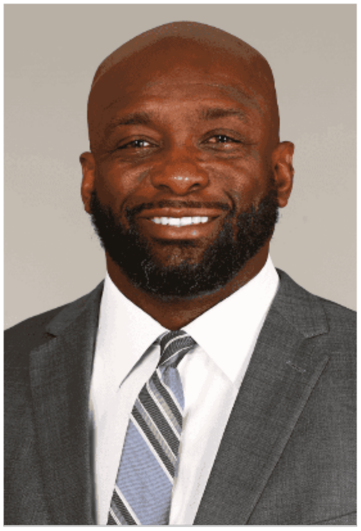
TIM TERRY

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

23RD YEAR IN THE NFL | 10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS



TERRY'S FOOTBALL CAREER

1993-97	Temple	Defensive Lineman
1997-98	Cincinnati Bengals	Defensive Lineman
1999	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Lineman
1999	Hamilton Tiger-Cats	Defensive Lineman
2000-03	Seattle Seahawks	Outside Linebacker
2017-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Dir. of Pro Personnel ('17-20) Senior Dir. of Pro Personnel ('21) Dir. of Player Personnel/Pro Scouting ('22-24) VP of Player Personnel ('25-26)

Tim Terry enters his 10th season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2026 and his second as the club's Vice President of Player Personnel after serving as Director of Player Personnel/Pro Scouting for three seasons (2022-24).

In his current capacity, Terry oversees the team's advance scouting efforts for upcoming Chiefs opponents and oversees the scouting efforts of collegiate and professional prospects. Terry works closely with the entire pro department to coordinate the identification of free agents throughout the year, with his primary scouting focus being the AFC West.

In 2023 and 2022, Terry was voted by his peers to the BART List, named after former Rams scout Danton Barto, for Pro Scout of the Year at the Inside the League Draft Awards. Terry also earned his League of Leaders certificate from the Stanford School of Business in 2023. He has been an Ozzie Newsome General Manager Forum presenter and participant. While in Kansas City, Terry has been a part of the NFL Accelerator program twice (2021 and 2023).

Prior to his current position, he spent one year as the club's Senior Director of Pro Personnel (2021) and four seasons as the Director of Pro Personnel (2017-20), where his primary duties included scouting professional prospects in the NFL, CFL, XFL, USFL and Arena Football League. He was also involved with in-season advance scouting of upcoming Chiefs opponents.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Terry spent 13 seasons in the Packers pro personnel department, most recently serving as Green Bay's assistant director of pro personnel.

In 2008, Terry was named Assistant Director of Pro Personnel after serving as a pro personnel assistant the previous three years. During his time as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel, he helped assemble the Packers teams that went on to win seven NFC North Division Titles, an NFC Conference Championship and Super Bowl XLV. In his role with the Packers, Terry focused on identifying free agents to add to the roster and advance scouting of opponents. During the 2007 season, he continued to work in the personnel department while also serving as the director of player development.

Terry originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent out of Temple with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997. As a rookie, he saw action in five games, logging three stops and five special teams tackles. Terry spent the 1998 season on the team's practice squad.

In 1999, he went to camp with the Kansas City Chiefs but was released and subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL, helping that club to a Grey Cup championship.

Terry then joined the Seattle Seahawks practice squad in early 2000 before being signed to the active roster, playing in six games, collecting two special teams stops and forcing a fumble on a kickoff return.

Terry saw action in all 16 games for Seattle each of the following two seasons (2001-02), with his best professional campaign coming in 2002. That year, Terry posted a career-high 42 tackles, including 1.0 sack, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. His NFL career included 43 games played (eight starts), 55 tackles, 3.5 sacks and 19 special teams stops.

At Temple, Terry played in all 44 games (43 starts) as a defensive lineman during his four seasons and finished his career with 208 tackles. Terry graduated with a degree in political science and a minor in African-American studies. He obtained his master's degree in management at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in the winter of 2011. Terry was also a recipient of The Network Journal's 40 Under Forty achievement award in 2012. Terry has been a prominent leader in each community he has worked, staying active in Big Brothers Big Sisters of America while he was in Green Bay and working with Journey House in Milwaukee. Terry also served as a chaplain for the Brown County Jail (Wisc.).

An all-state selection at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School, he also lettered in track, basketball and lacrosse.

Jason Lamb enters his 12th season in Kansas City’s player personnel department in 2026 and embarks on his fifth season as a Regional Scout after taking on the role in 2022.

Prior to taking on the Regional Scout title, he was an Area Scout in 2021, covering the Southwest region for the club.

Before being promoted to Area Scout in 2021, Lamb spent three seasons as a College and Pro Scout (2018-20) and three seasons as the club's Midwest NFS Area Scout (2015-17).

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Lamb spent the 2014 season as a pro personnel assistant in the Houston Texans organization. In 2013, he served as a player personnel intern during training camp for the Green Bay Packers. He originally entered the NFL ranks as a college free agent signed by the New York Jets and spent training camp with the Jets in 2010.

Between his NFL stops, the Richardson, Texas, native worked as a student research assistant, while he earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Houston Law Center. He earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Baylor University where he played defensive end and was a two-time All-Big 12 honoree and four-time Academic All-Big 12.

Education: Baylor University (B.B.A. 2009), University of Houston Law Center (J.D. 2014).

		Player Personnel Assistant ('20)
		Pro Scout ('21)
		College and Pro Scout ('22-25)
		Player Personnel Executive

Jalen Myrick enters his seventh season as a full-time member of Kansas City's personnel staff in 2026 and his first as Player Personnel Executive. Myrick held the title of Pro Scout for five seasons (2021-25). He spent the 2020 season as a Player Personnel Assistant after serving as the club's scouting intern in 2019.

Myrick's primary college scouting region is the Great Plains where he focuses on identifying and assessing prospects for the Chiefs roster throughout the season. He also aids in the free agency process by writing up potential fits for the roster and assessing their value to the team. He leads weekly personnel meetings with the coaching staff regarding upcoming opponents prior to their game week preparation. In addition, he oversees daily transactions, injuries and news throughout the league and writes reports on various professional and college prospects throughout the season.

During the 2026 offseason, Myrick completed the NFL’s Executive Education program at the University of Michigan. At the 2025 NFL Combine, Myrick completed a professional development program where he received media coaching and was interviewed by former NFL general managers in mock general manager interviews.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Myrick served as a game-week intern during the 2019 Reese's Senior Bowl and a marketing and events intern with the Indianapolis Colts for the 2018 season.

The Kansas City native played four years (2015-18) at linebacker for John Carroll University. During his time at John Carroll, he also worked in the Sports Information Department as a staff writer.

Education: John Carroll University (B.S. 2019), University of Kansas (M.S.E. 2021).

		Player Personnel Coordinator ('24-25)
		Pro Scout/Player Personnel Coord. ('26)

Madison Aponte enters her fifth season with the Chiefs in 2026 and her first season as Pro Scout/Player Personnel Coordinator. Aponte previously served as Player Personnel Coordinator (2024-25) and Player Personnel Assistant (2022-23). She originally served as one of the inaugural Norma Hunt Fellowship Player Personnel Interns for Kansas City during the club's 2021 training camp.

In her current role, Aponte assists the personnel staff with evaluating prospects on both the pro and college levels helping to identify talent for the team. Aponte also assists with the team's 30 visits and other draft preparation throughout the season.

In addition to her training camp internship - which focused on learning the day-to-day responsibilities of both the pro and college scouting staffs, film evaluation, as well as team and roster building - Aponte assisted the club during the 2022 NFL Combine in Indianapolis. She helped the personnel staff during formal and informal interviews with draft prospects, Combine preparation and setup, as well as workout evaluations.

Her first experience in the NFL came in the summer of 2017 with an experienceship with the player personnel department for the Atlanta Falcons.

As a student, she spent four years with the Penn State Football program (2019-22) in various recruiting roles, assisting with contacting, planning and hosting official visits for recruits and their families, as well as coordinating and communicating with high school coaches, recruits and commits.

Aponte's mother, Dawn, has spent more than 25 years in football and currently serves as the NFL's Chief Football Administrative Officer.

Education: Penn State University (B.A. 2022).

2023	Kansas City Current	Player Care Coordinator
2023-26	Kansas City Chiefs	Norma Hunt Fellow (2023) Player Personnel Assistant ('24-26)

Perrigo enters her fifth season with the Chiefs in 2026 and third season as a Player Personnel Assistant. Perrigo served as the Norma Hunt Player Personnel Fellow during the 2023 season before being hired on full time in 2024.

As the Norma Hunt Player Personnel Fellow, Perrigo gained hands-on experience with film evaluation and team and roster building. She helped with player evaluations and player visits throughout the season, free agency and to prepare for the club's '30 visits' prior to the 2024 NFL Draft. Perrigo worked with both the pro and college scouting departments throughout her year as a Norma Hunt Player Personnel Fellow.

Prior to her time in the club's personnel department, Perrigo spent a year as an Arrowhead Events Seasonal Assistant in 2022. During her time as a seasonal assistant, she worked closely with the stadium tours team to coordinate and schedule group and private tours of Arrowhead Stadium. Perrigo worked closely with the events staff to plan and execute internal events such as the Chiefs Christmas Party, 101 Awards and the club's 2022 training camp.

During her time as a seasonal assistant, Perrigo began shadowing in the personnel department and at the conclusion of her year as a seasonal assistant, she spent several months with the Kansas City Current as the team's Player Care Coordinator (March-June). In her time with the Current, she worked closely with players and the front office to create synergy between the needs of the players and the demands of the club.

Perrigo first began her work with the Chiefs as a training camp operations intern, spending the summer of 2021 in St. Joseph at Missouri Western State University assisting fans and the day-to-day operation.

A graduate of University of Miami, Perrigo spent time in the Miami Athletic Office as a Facility and Event Operations intern in 2021 and has had various stints with ESPN as a production runner (2020-22) and as a production coordinator (2022).

She graduated from University of Miami in 2022 with a bachelor's degree in communications and media studies.

TYLER BRADSTREET

VICE PRESIDENT OF PERFORMANCE PSYCHOLOGY

1ST YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Dr. Tyler Bradstreet enters his first season with the Chiefs as vice president of performance psychology in 2026, joining the club with over a decade of experience at the professional, Olympic and collegiate levels.

As the team's vice president of performance psychology, Bradstreet will work with the entire sports medicine and performance staff serving as the team's psychologist and ensuring the highest level of care for Chiefs players, coaches and club staff. Bradstreet will oversee the club's mental health services and provide performance mindset training.

Bradstreet joined the Chiefs from the Milwaukee Brewers where he served as director of performance psychology and team psychologist for four seasons (2023-26). During his tenure, Bradstreet helped integrate performance psychology into player development across its seven minor league teams and the major league club. Prior to the Brewers, Bradstreet was at Texas Tech University where he served as director of sport psychology (2018-21) and later as associate athletics director of psychological health and performance (2021-23). While at Texas Tech, he provided mental health services, mental skills training and development support to athletes and coaches across 17 NCAA Division I varsity sports programs.

Along with his team experiences, Bradstreet is also a co-founder of Strength with Heart - a program that is deeply committed to advancing the mental health and wellness of boys and men.

Bradstreet is a licensed psychologist and certified mental performance coach. Before beginning his career, he completed his pyschology residency at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Baylor University in 2011, his master's degree in kinesiology from the University of North Texas in 2013 and his doctorate in counseling psychology from Texas Tech University in 2018.

ALLEN WRIGHT

EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

Allen Wright enters his 44th season with the Chiefs and his 43rd in the equipment department after joining the Chiefs in 1983 as a training camp courier. Wright joined the equipment staff in 1984 as an equipment assistant and served in that role for 27 seasons until being promoted to Head Equipment Manager in 2011. Wright was named Director of Equipment in 2016.

Wright oversees all facets of the equipment operation, ensuring each player is equipped with properly fitted and safe equipment each practice and gameday and oversees all logistics, purchasing and inventory for players, coaches and the football staff. Wright and his staff are responsible for preparing the sideline every game day, anticipating any and all needs of the players and coaches. Wright works closely with Head Coach Andy Reid, ensuring that the team's practices and walk throughs run seamlessly each day and that the proper practice equipment is prepared prior to each time the team takes the field.

Wright has worked with Head Coach Andy Reid for the entirety of his Chiefs career (2013-current) and has worked with nine different head coaches while with the club, including former Chiefs Head Coaches Marty Schottenheimer and Dick Vermeil.

Over the past decade, Wright has ensured the team's preparedness during a historic run with seven AFC Championship Games (2018-24), including hosting an NFL record five-straight (2018-22), and five Super Bowl appearances in six years with three rings (LIV, LVII and LVIII). In Wright's tenure, he has led the equipment operation for seven international games, taking the team's equipment operations to four different countries and managing the logistics of equipment needs through each trip.

Wright also oversees the team's move each summer to training camp. For the past 16 seasons, Wright has moved the team's equipment needs to Missouri Western State in St. Joseph, Mo. for the team's training camp securing everything the team could need for the month they are away at camp. Wright also helped in the efforts of moving the team to William Jewell College (1983-90) and the University of Wisconsin – River Falls (1991-2009) for camp each summer.

A key component to the success of his department is his dedication to safety. Wright became the first NFL equipment manager to take and pass the AEMA Certification Test, despite being eligible to be grandfathered in, noting the importance of all equipment managers passing the certification. Wright went on to conduct two workshops at the Annual AEMA Equipment Managers Convention on the fitting of helmets and shoulder pads.

Wright earned NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year in 2018 while working his fourth-straight Pro Bowl and was runner up for the award in 2014. In 2017, Wright was awarded the Innovation in Safety Award by the Maxwell Football Club and co-sponsor, VICIS, a developer of high-tech football helmets. Wright's rigorous and detail-oriented helmet fitting protocol, which aims to optimize the fit of every player's helmet prior to every week's game, earned him the honor. Wright was also named Equipment Manager of the Year from New Era in 2015. In Wright's career, he has worked four Senior Bowls (1990-91, 1997 and 2000) and five Pro Bowls (1993, 2014-17).

Off the field, Wright has emphasized giving back to the community. He has served on the board of directors for Kansas City's FOX 4 Love Fund and has been heavily involved with Mother's Refuge, an organization that supports local teenage mothers with housing, clothing and other necessities. Wright also lends his expertise to the community, helping Blue Spring Athletic Association Little League Football with their equipment fittings.

The Sugar Creek, Mo. native is a graduate of Willliam Chrisman High School in Independence, Mo.

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

23RD YEAR IN THE NFL

21ST YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

Ken Radino is in his 23rd NFL season, including his 21st with the Kansas City Chiefs and his first as the club's Director of Video Operations. He previously spent 19 seasons (2007–2025) as Assistant Director of Video Operations after beginning his career with the organization as a Video Assistant in 2006.

Radino oversees all daily video operations responsibilities, including the production and editing of practice and game film for team personnel. He also manages the systems and software teams responsible for deploying and maintaining the club's mobile playbook and video solutions. In addition, Radino and his staff coordinate film exchanges with other teams and NFL Films, while maintaining comprehensive video libraries for the Chiefs, the NFL, other professional football leagues, and collegiate programs.

As technology has evolved, Radino's department has expanded its role in managing content across multiple platforms, enabling players, coaches, and staff to access film on iPads, laptops, and other mobile devices from a variety of locations. He is also a member of the NFL's Future of Video Committee, which evaluates emerging technologies and helps shape the league's video workflows.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Radino spent time with the New York Giants as a part-time video assistant (2005) and intern (2004). He also served as the Head Producer of Sports at William Paterson University and Football Video Coordinator at Lakeland Regional High School in 2004-05.

2026 CHIEFS TRAINING CAMP

The Kansas City Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri, for the 16th time to host 2026 Chiefs Training Camp presented by Mosaic Life Care. With the exception of a one-year hiatus caused by the coronavirus pandemic in 2020, the Chiefs have hosted training camp in St. Joseph every year since 2010.

In March 2023, the parties exercised the agreement's two-year option to stay through 2024 and in 2025, the Chiefs and MWSU reached another long-term extension for camp in St. Joseph. To ensure the best experience, Missouri Western made a number of updates to better serve Chiefs fans, the club, the community and Missouri Western students. Most notably, this included the development of a new seating area on the north end of the existing practice fields. This, along with other improvements, were completed through a collaboration with the city of St. Joseph and Buchanan County. In addition, the university renovated Scanlon Hall in order to provide a better experience for Chiefs players, coaches and staff who use that dorm throughout the duration of training camp.

"We are thrilled to announce that we will return to Missouri Western State University and the St. Joseph community for another two years…We look forward to starting our 2023 season at Missouri Western again this summer," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the announcement.

St. Joseph and Missouri Western are located approximately an hour north of Arrowhead Stadium and roughly 35 minutes north of Kansas City International Airport. The community of 72,000 and Missouri Western have embraced the Chiefs since camp returned to the Show-Me State in 2010.

The Chiefs enjoy a number of amenities at the climate-controlled Griffon Indoor Complex, including state-of-the-art locker rooms, training rooms, meeting rooms, weight room facilities and a 120-yard indoor field. In addition to the indoor practice area, two 120-yard regulation NFL grass fields have been installed. The team also has access to the artificial surface of Craig Field at Spratt Memorial Stadium. Blum Union houses the team's dining hall and serves as the club's media headquarters.

The Missouri Development Finance Board approved a $25 million tax credit in June of 2009 to help bring Chiefs Training Camp back to Missouri. Through the Hunt family's additional contributions to the GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium renovation project, the family and the Chiefs organization made a $10 million investment toward the Griffon Indoor Complex at Missouri Western.

CHIEFS PRESEASON TV -- A 65TPT PRODUCTION

Chiefs All-Pro QB Trent Green and NFL Network's Ari Wolfe are joined by NFL Network's Kimmi Chex and Chiefs Senior Team Reporter Matt McMullen as they headline the Chiefs Television Network preseason broadcasts. Chiefs 2026 preseason television broadcasts can be found on KSHB, the Home of the Chiefs. Chiefs preseason broadcasts will be seen in 13 different markets in a seven-state region. In addition, two of the clubs preseason games will be broadcast internationally in Mexico on ESPN. Produced by the award-winning Chiefs in-house production team, 65 Toss Power Trap Productions, and aired by KSHB in Kansas City, all preseason games will be available in high definition. All games will be streamed live on Chiefs.com and through the Chiefs Mobile app in-market only.

Green will serve as a color commentator, Wolfe will handle play-by-play and Chex will serve as a sideline analyst alongside McMullen.

Trent Green joined CBS Sports as a game analyst for CBS Television Network's coverage of THE NFL ON CBS in April 2014. Green concluded his 16-year NFL playing career in 2008 and launched his broadcasting career with FOX Sports in 2009. In six seasons with Kansas City (2001-06), Green established then-franchise career records for passer rating (87.3), completion percentage (61.9) and 300-yard games (24). A two-time winner of the Derrick Thomas Award as Kansas City's MVP (2003-04), Green threw for 21,459 yards and 118 TDs in a Chiefs uniform.

In 2024, Ari Wolfe became a college football announcer for TNT Sports. An award-winning broadcaster with experience calling Mountain West football since 2009, Wolfe also has extensive work with the Tennis Channel. He also previously served as a studio host and play-by-play talent for NFL Network and was a member of NBC Sports' Olympics talent team. For the 2014 NFL preseason, Wolfe called games with Kurt Warner for NFL Network broadcasts. His work in the NFL began in 2003, where he served as a sideline reporter for Fox Sports for three seasons.

Kimmi Chex is entering her fifth season on the club's preseason broadcast team in 2026. An on-air personality for NFL Media, Chex can be seen across multiple NFL platforms as a regular contributor and host for various shows and projects. Her work has focused extensively on fantasy football as well as entertainment coverage of NFL events, such as the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl and the NFL Draft. A Kansas City, Missouri, native, she originally joined the NFL as part of the league's junior rotational program, working in both the league's New York and Los Angeles offices as a business analyst after graduating from the University of Iowa with a degree in journalism and mass communication.

Matt McMullen joined the Chiefs in 2017 as an in-house reporter with a multimedia focus, contributing as a written, video and social content producer in addition to serving as an on-camera host and commentator. McMullen has assisted behind-the-scenes with the Chiefs preseason productions over the years and 2026 will mark his sixth season as a sideline reporter for the broadcast.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

The Chiefs Radio Network is one of the largest and highest rated in the National Football League, boasting more than 100 affiliates throughout 15 states. Anchored by the flagship station, The Fan (96.5 FM), the Chiefs Radio Network will broadcast all 2026 Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live.

One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 33rd-straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Entering 2026, Holthus has called a franchise-record 549 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award, a winner of the Missouri Sportscaster of the Year Award, was named the 2024 Kansan of the Year by the Kansas Society of Washington, D.C. and has been inducted into both the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame (2008) and the Missouri Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame (2022). The Smith Center, Kansas, native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from 1983-96. Holthus was elected into the Kansas State Hall of Fame in 2016.

Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt celebrates Holthus' 500th career game, called on Oct. 12, 2023 as the Chiefs take on the Broncos at Empower Field at Mile High Stadium.

Former Chiefs wide receiver and current Ambassador Danan Hughes enters his seventh campaign as the network's color commentator alongside Holthus in the booth in 2026. Hughes has been broadcasting football and baseball as part of the Big Ten Network since 2008, as well as Chiefs pregame and postgame shows on local television since 2014.

Entering his seventh season as the network's sideline reporter is Josh Klingler. Klingler was previously the sideline reporter for the University of Kansas football team.

Eric Townsend enters his 22nd season with Chiefs Radio Network and second season as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. Townsend was the producer for Clemson Sports Radio Network where he covered football, men's and women's basketball and baseball. He joined the Chiefs Radio Network in 2005 as a Studio Producer and was promoted to Assistant Producer in 2008. In May of 2025, Townsend was promoted by Audacy to executive producer.

TICO SPORTS - CHIEFS SPANISH FOOTBALL RADIO NETWORK

In 2026, the Tico Sports Spanish broadcast team marks a major milestone—its 11th season bringing the Kansas City Chiefs to life for Spanish-speaking fans across the region. Over the past decade, the team has built a strong legacy of excellence, energy, and community engagement, continuing to elevate the fan experience for a growing Latino audience.

Leading the charge is Oscar "El Tico" Monterroso, who enters his 11th season as Executive Producer and his third full year as the team's play-by-play announcer. A seasoned mass media journalist and the founder of Tico Productions, LLC | Tico Sports, Monterroso blends broadcast expertise with entrepreneurial vision, ensuring a dynamic and professional product every week.

Joining him in the booth is Hannah Bassham, now in her 11th season with the crew and third as color commentator. A proud graduate of Texas Christian University, Bassham holds a J.D. from the University of Missouri–Kansas City School of Law and is currently pursuing her MBA. As one of the few Spanish-speaking female sideline reporters in professional sports, she brings a unique and insightful perspective to the broadcast.

Alvaro Alvarez joined the Tico Sports family in 2025 and enters his second season as a sideline reporter. He is a seasoned sports anchor for Telemundo Kansas City with nearly a decade of experience across radio, TV, and digital media. He has covered major events like MLB, MLS, FIFA, and the NFL, bringing energy and authenticity to every broadcast.

The team's Executive Director, CiCi Rojas, adds over two decades of experience in corporate partnerships and media engagement. A respected leader in the Kansas City business and nonprofit communities, Rojas serves on numerous local and national boards, reinforcing the team's deep ties to the region.

Fans can catch every game live in Spanish on the Audacy app by searching "Chiefs en Español", on La Ke Buena 105.9 FM (KSSA) in Garden City, Kansas, and KSMM 1770 AM in Liberal, Kansas. Streams are also available through the Chiefs Mobile app (restrictions apply), the Tico Sports website, and NFL Game Pass (membership required).

As Tico Sports enters this 11th anniversary season, the team remains committed to delivering high-quality, culturally relevant coverage to Chiefs Kingdom—en Español.

6TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT:	5'11"
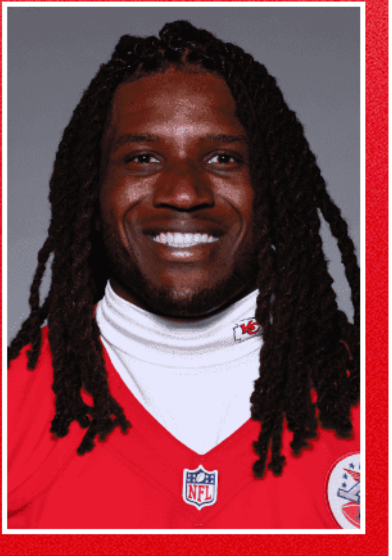
HOW ACQUIRED:	D2A-21
BIRTHDAY:	3/10/00



- Bolton enters his sixth season with the Chiefs in 2026.
- Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (58th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Finished second overall league wide in total tackles made in 2022 (180) and recorded the franchise's single-season best.
- Had nine games with 10 or more tackles in 2022, marking the most 10+-tackle games in a single-season in Chiefs history.
- Against the Denver Broncos (1/8/22), Bolton scooped up a fumble and returned it 86 yards for a touchdown. The fumble return ties for the fifth-longest fumble return for a touchdown in franchise history. It marked Bolton’s first-career fumble recovery and his first career defensive touchdown.
- Led the team with 112 total tackles (70 solo) and 11 tackles for loss in 2021.
- Moved into fifth place for most tackles in a season (112) by a rookie player in franchise history, passing S Greg Wesley (101, 2000).
- His 612 tackles rank third in franchise history among linebackers.
- Led the club in tackles in back-to-back seasons (106 in 2024; 154 in 2025).

Postseason Career Highlights:

- In Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, Bolton returned a fumble 36 yards for a touchdown that tied the Chiefs 14-14 with the Eagles. Bolton had a similar play later in the game that was called back. His touchdown made him the first Missouri Tiger to score in the Super Bowl.

Honors:

- Was voted by teammates as a defensive team captain prior to the club's 2022, 2023 and 2024 playoff games.
- 2021 Mack Lee Hill Award winner, voted by teammates as best rookie.
- 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team.
- October 2021 Defensive Rookie of the Month.

Transactions:

Re-signed with Kansas City (3/14/25) ... Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (58th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Appeared in 35 games at Mizzou over three seasons (2018-20) ... Totaled 224 tackles (141 solo), 16.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, two interceptions, 15 passes defensed and one fumble recovery ... Was a two-time first-team All-SEC and second and third-team All-American ... Led Missouri in tackles in each of his last two seasons - racking up 202 total tackles since 2019 while averaging more than nine tackles per game ... During his final season at Mizzou, a ten-game season due to COVID-19, he tallied 95 tackles (61 solo), 7.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, five passes defensed and his first-career fumble recovery ... In 2019, his 107 tackles were the SEC’s top-mark during the regular season and only LSU’s Jacob Phillips, who played in 15 games vs. Bolton’s 12, finished ahead of Bolton on the SEC tackle chart (113 in 15 games) ... His 8.92 tackles per game were far-and-away the best mark in the league, beating Arkansas De’Jon Harris (8.42 per game) ... His 74 solo tackles were 15 more than any other defender in the SEC and ranked 31st nationally in tackles per game while his 74 solo tackles were the fifth-most in the nation.

PERSONAL

- Was a proven leader at Frisco Lone Star (Texas), earning District MVP honors twice.
- As a senior, he was named District 13-5A Defensive MVP for the second consecutive season after totaling 130 tackles, with 16 tackles for loss and five interceptions.
- Named 2016 District 13-5A Defensive MVP after totaling 111 tackles, seven tackles for loss, three forced fumbles and one interception.

HARRISON BUTKER

KICKER #7

GEORGIA TECH

10TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT: 6'4"
HOW ACQUIRED: FA-17
BIRTHDAY: 7/14/95

- Butker enters his 10th season with the Chiefs in 2026.
- Originally entered the NFL as a seventh-round pick (233rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- His 1,122 points are the third-most all-time points in franchise history. He is only the third player in franchise history with 900 or more career points. His 284 field goal attempts and 251 makes are the third-most in Chiefs history.
- Passed the 100-point plateau for five-consecutive seasons (2017-21). He was eight points shy in 2022 due to a high ankle sprain that forced him to sit for four games. Butker's seven seasons with 100 or more points are the second-most in franchise history, passing PFHOF K Jan Stenerud (1967-71).
- Passed K Nick Lowery (20) for first in franchise history for most field goals made of 50+ yards in a Chiefs kicker's career with 35.
- Against Cincinnati (12/31/23), recorded career single-game highs for field goals made (6), field goal attempts (6) and points (19).
- Did not miss a single PAT in the 2023 season and missed just two field goals all season for a conversion percentage of .943.
- Made 24 consecutive field goals from 2022 to 2023, the most in Chiefs history.
- Tallied 844 points in his first 100 games, second only to Justin Tucker's 850 points.
- During his return in Week 6 of the 2022 season, Butker kicked the longest field goal recorded at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium with a 62-yard boot. His 62-yard field goal against the Buffalo Bills is his longest field goal of his career and is also the longest field goal in franchise history.
- Butker kicked two field goals and a point after to force three overtime games in the 2021 season. The point after came against the Chargers (12/16/21). The two field goals were versus the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Divisional Round Game (1/23/22) and versus the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship Game (1/30/22).
- In the game vs. the L.A. Chargers (9/20/20), Butker converted two former career-long 58-yard field goals (one in the third quarter and one in overtime) to tie Lowery for the longest-made field goal in Chiefs history, at the time. During this game Butker also notched his 16th-consecutive game with a made field goal setting the franchise record for most consecutive games with a made field goal, passing K Lawrence Tynes who scored a field goal in 15-consecutive games from Week 15 of 2004 to Week 13 of 2005.
- During the 2019 season, Butker reached 147 points setting a new record for the most points by a kicker in a single season. It trailed only Priest Holmes' 162 points in 2003 for most in franchise history.
- Butker converted a field goal in 14-straight games in 2019, tying for the longest individual streak in a single-season in franchise history with Jan Stenerud with 14.
- In the game vs. Minnesota (11/3/19), Butker converted 54- and 44-yard field goals in the final three minutes of the game allowing the Chiefs to tie and then win the game. The last kicker in NFL History to kick a game tying FG of 50+ yards and a FG of 40+ yards to put his team ahead for good with both coming in the final three minutes of the fourth quarter was Buccaneers K Martin Gramatica on Oct. 27, 2002.
- With 38 made field goals during the 2017 season Butker holds the franchise record for most field goals made in a single season.
- Butker tallied 426 career points in his first three NFL seasons, the most by any player in NFL history in their first three seasons.
- During his rookie season he recorded 142 points for the 2017 season, ranking first in franchise history, at the time, for most points by a kicker in a single season, passing Lowery's previous mark of 139 set in 1990.
- In the game vs. the Buffalo Bills (11/26/17), Butker converted a 45-yard field goal, giving him 23 consecutive made field goals, which ranked first at the time for the most consecutive field goals made in franchise history.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- One of five players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past six years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by DT Chris Jones, TE Travis Kelce, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.
- Has played in 22 postseason games for the Chiefs, tying him with teammate DT Chris Jones for the third-most in franchise history.
- In eight postseasons, Butker owns 175 career postseason points, extending his franchise record. He has 67 career PATs to go along with 36 made field goals, both sitting as the top marks in franchise history.
- With 175 points in the postseason, Butker is tied for the third-most points scored in the postseason by any player in NFL history. He ranks third amongst kickers as well.
- Converted two 50+ yard field goals in the 2023 postseason giving him six career postseason 50+ yard field goals, the most in NFL history passing K Adam Vinatieri.
- Butker did not miss a single kick in the 2023 postseason and recorded career postseason highs for made field goals (11) and attempts (11). He added eight extra points.
- In his first four postseason campaigns, Butker scored 65 points, passing RB Damien Williams (60) for the most playoff points scored in franchise history, at the time.

- In Super Bowl LVIII in Las Vegas, Butker converted a 57-yard field goal, the longest field goal in Super Bowl history, helping propel the club to their 25-22 victory.
- In Super Bowl LVIII against the 49ers, Butker converted a 29-yard field goal to send the game into overtime tied at 19-19. He converted four field goals in Super Bowl LVIII, tying his postseason career high that he had set just a few weeks before against Miami in the Wild Card Game for made field goals in a game.
- In Super Bowl LV in Tampa Bay, Butker scored three field goals giving him 11 made field goals in the postseason passing Stenerud (nine) for the most playoff field goals made in franchise history. His three field goals in the game tied for the most field goals made in a single postseason game in team history, at the time.
- In Super Bowl LV, Butker connected on a 52-yard field goal, marking the longest made field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He topped the previous franchise-long kick of 50 yards, which he set in the 2020 AFC Divisional matchup against the Cleveland Browns.

Honors:

- Voted by his teammates to be a captain prior to the 2023 and 2024 Playoffs.
- 2023 Week 17 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- 2020 Week 2 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- November 2019 AFC Special Teams Player of the Month.
- 2019 Week 9 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.
- October and December 2017 AFC Special Teams Player of the Month.

6TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT: 6'4"
HOW ACQUIRED: D2B-21
BIRTHDAY: 6/28/99

- Humphrey enters his sixth season with the Chiefs in 2026.
- Originally entered the NFL as the second of two second-round picks (63rd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Started in 85 consecutive games and only trails Gary Barbaro for the most consecutive games started in Chiefs history to start a career.
- As a rookie, Humphrey and G Trey Smith started all 17 regular season games in 2021, becoming the 17th and 18th players in franchise history to start all regular season games in their rookie season. Humphrey and Smith are the third pair of teammates to both start all regular season games in their rookie campaign, joining DE Sylvester Hicks and DE Art Still (16 games, 1978) and CB Brandon Carr and DL Glenn Dorsey (16 games, 2008). S Juan Thornhill was the last player to start all games in his rookie season, starting all 16 games in 2019.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Did not allow a sack on QB Patrick Mahomes in the first two playoffs games in 2023 which included the Wild Card game against Miami and the Divisional Round Game in Buffalo. The team went on to secure back-to-back Super Bowl victories (LVII and LVIII).
- Did not allow a sack on QB Patrick Mahomes in Super Bowl LVII against the Philadelphia Eagles who recorded the most sacks in the regular season (70.0).

Honors:

- Selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025 seasons.
- Named an AP All-Pro following the 2022 (second-team), 2024 (first-team), 2025 (first-team) seasons.
- 2021 PFWA All-Rookie Team.
- 2021 PFWA All-AFC Team.

Transactions:

Re-signed with Kansas City (8/23/24) ... Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (63rd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2021 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Started 37 career games (all at center), including 36 consecutive starts to finish his career at Oklahoma ... During his three years as a starter, OU ranked second nationally in scoring offense (44.6 ppg), total offense (537.3 ypg), pass efficiency rating (185.1), yards per rush (5.8) and sixth in passing offense (311.5 ypg) ... Two-time Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year (2019 and 2020) ... Two-time first-team All-Big 12 selection (2019 and 2020) and a second-team pick by media in 2018 ... Second-team All-American in 2019 by AP, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation, and one of three Rimington Trophy finalists ... Third-team All-American in 2020 by AP ... Three-time member of Academic All-Big 12 Team (2018-20) ... Did not allow a single sack across his 2,488 snaps at center during his career ... Did not allow a sack on 1,297 career pass plays according to PFF (allowed only two QB hits) ... Named a Freshman All-American by the FWAA and The Athletic.

PERSONAL

- Made 35 tackles and 1.0 sack as a defensive lineman his senior season at Shawnee High School.
- Named first-team All-State by The Oklahoman.
- Hometown: Shawnee, Okla.

CHRIS JONES

DEFENSIVE TACKLE #95

11TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT: 6'6"
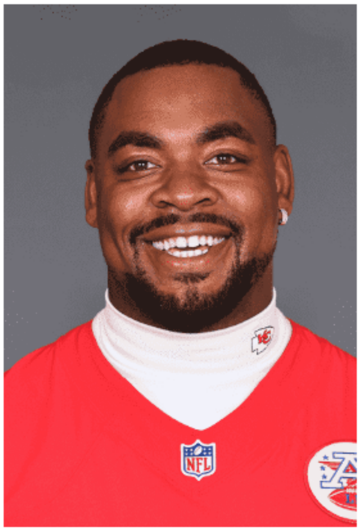
HOW ACQUIRED: D2-16
BIRTHDAY: 7/3/94



- Jones enters his 11th season with the Chiefs in 2026.
- Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (37th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Tied with DE George Karlaftis to lead the defense in sacks for sixth-consecutive season in 2023 with 10.5 sacks (-71.5 yards). Led the team in sacks with 15.5 sacks (-105.5 yards) in 2022, tying his career-high set in 2018. Recorded double-digit sacks in back-to-back seasons (15.5, 2022; 10.5, 2023). It was his third season with double-digit sacks (2023, 2022 and 2018).
- Jones and Karlaftis led the defense to 57.0 sacks in 2023, the second-most sacks by a defensive unit in Chiefs history.
- Jones has tallied 87.5 career sacks (-590.5 yards), which is the second-most in the NFL amongst DTs since entering the league in 2016 and the seventh-most amongst all defenders since 2016.
- Jones' 87.5 sacks are the third-most sacks in franchise history since sacks became an official stat in 1982. His 590.5 sack yards are the third-most in franchise history.
- Established a single-game career-high with 3.5 sacks (-20.0 yards) of Dallas QB Dak Prescott in Week 11 (11/21/21), including sacks on back-to-back plays in the second quarter with a forced fumble on the second of the two sacks. In addition to a single-game career-high, it marked the club's first time having a player record 3.5 or more sacks in a game since OLB Dee Ford recorded 3.5 sacks at Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2016. It tied for the ninth-best single-game sack performance in team history. For Jones, it marked his 11th-career multi-sack performance and his first multi-sack game since recording 2.0 sacks vs. Cleveland (9/12/21) to open the 2021 season.
- In 2018, he recorded at least one sack in 11-consecutive games becoming the first player to do so in NFL history.
- Logged a career-high 15.5 sacks during the 2018 season, leading the Chiefs defense and ranking third in the NFL.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of five players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by K Harrison Butker, TE Travis Kelce, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.
- Helped propel the Chiefs to their third Super Bowl title in five years (LV, LVII and LVIII) with six quarterback pressures, two passes defensed and 0.5 sacks in the 2023 postseason.
- Recorded his first postseason sack in the 2022 AFC Championship Game against the Cincinnati Bengals. He sacked Bengals QB Joe Burrow twice.

Honors:

- Selected to the Pro Bowl every year since 2019.
- Named an AP All-Pro following the 2024 (first-team), 2023 (first-team), 2022 (first-team), 2021 (second-team), 2020 (second-team) and, 2018 (second-team) seasons.
- Received PFWA All-AFC Team honors in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021.
- Received PFW/PFWA All-NFL Team honors following the 2022, 2023 and 2024 seasons.
- Received TSN All-NFL Team honors in 2020 and 2021.
- Was voted by teammates as a defensive team captain prior to the club's 2022, 2023 and 2024 playoff campaigns.
- 2022 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Award (101 Awards).
- 2021 Week 11 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- November 2018 AFC Player of the Month.
- 2017 Week 2 AFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- 2016 PFW All-Rookie Team.

Transactions:

Re-signed with the Chiefs (3/10/24) ... Re-signed with the Chiefs (7/15/20) ... Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (37th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2016 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE

Appeared in 39 games (16 starts) ... Totaled 102 tackles, including 18.0 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks (-54.0 yards) ... Tallied nine passes defensed ... Named second-team All-American by Pro Football Focus in 2015.

PERSONAL

- Attended Houston High School.
- Rated by ESPN.com as the number six defensive end in the country his senior year.
- As a senior, led the team in tackles with 160 and recorded 14.0 sacks, 10 pass deflections, two fumble recoveries and a 74-yard interception return for a touchdown.
- Five-year letterman for his high school varsity basketball team.
- Named to the Mississippi North/South All-Star Basketball Game for 2011.

TRAVIS
KELCE

CINCINNATI

14TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT: 6'5"
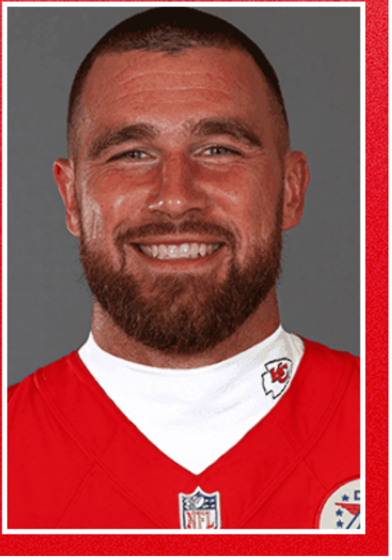
HOW ACQUIRED: D3A-13
BIRTHDAY: 10/5/89



- Kelce enters his 14th season with the Chiefs in 2026.
- Spent the majority of the 2013 season on the club's injured reserve list.
- Originally entered the NFL as the first of two third-round picks (63rd overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Kelce has caught a pass in 191 consecutive games, marking the longest streak in franchise history and besting PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez's 131 consecutive games.
- Kelce became the fastest tight end to reach 13,000 receiving yards, doing so in just 192 games.
- His 13,002 receiving yards are the most by any Chiefs player and the third-most by an NFL tight end. Passed 11,000 total yards Week 12 (11/26/23) in Las Vegas and finished the season with 11,342 combined yards. He is one of only two players to exceed 11,000 combined yards (Dante Hall; 12,356). Kelce is the only player in Chiefs history to record over 12,000 scrimmage yards.
- Kelce (85) passed RB Priest Holmes (83) for the most touchdowns in franchise history in Week 11 vs. Denver.
- Kelce's 82 career receiving touchdowns are the most in Chiefs history.
- Between Kelce and QB Patrick Mahomes, the pair has 59 touchdown connections. Their 59 touchdown connections passed PFHOF QB Len Dawson and former WR Otis Taylor for most QB-pass catcher connections in Chiefs history. They have the third-most QB-tight end touchdown connections in league history.
- Kelce holds the record for most receptions by any NFL tight end in their first 10 seasons with 814 catches.
- Kelce has caught 693 first down receptions, the second-most first down receptions by a tight end in NFL history.
- Currently has 38 regular season games of 100 receiving yards or more, which is the most such games in team history and is the most 100-yard games by a tight end in league history.
- His 173 receptions of 20 or more yards is a franchise best for all pass catchers. Has tallied 94 receptions of 25+ yards which is the second-most for a tight end in NFL history since 1994.
- Kelce's is tied for the second-most 90+ reception seasons with seven. He trails only former WR Larry Fitzgerald with eight seasons.
- Kelce's three seasons of 100+ receptions is a franchise best for any pass catcher and a league best for all tight ends. He is the only tight end in NFL history with multiple 100+ reception seasons.
- With 6,158 yards after catch, Kelce is ranked at the top amongst all tight ends in NFL history. With 6,158 career YAC after recording 443 in 2025, Kelce now owns the third-most YAC, regardless of position, in the NFL.
- Kelce was the fastest player to reach 900 career receptions, doing so against the Raiders (12/25/23) in just 158 games. The previous record was held by TE Jason Witten in 181 games. Kelce is just one of four tight ends to snag 900 receptions. In 154 games, Kelce became the eighth-fastest player to do so in NFL history, regardless of position. Became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach the 800-reception plateau, doing so in 142 career games played. He tied with PFHOF WR Torry Holt for seventh-fewest games to record 800 receptions by any NFL pass catcher.
- Surpassed the 11,000 receiving yard mark Week 12 (11/26/23) at Las Vegas, eclipsing the mark in 154 games. Kelce was the fastest tight end to reach 11,000 receiving yards and the 17th fastest of any NFL pass catcher after also being the fastest tight end in NFL history to record 6,000, 7,000, 8,000, 9,000 and 10,000 receiving yards. Kelce was the fifth tight end to ever reach 10,000 receiving yards and tied with WR A.J. Green as the 16th-fastest to do so of any NFL pass catcher.
- For the seventh-straight season in 2022, Kelce eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards, extending his previously established NFL record for tight ends and franchise pass catcher record of seven such seasons. Was just 16 yards short of his eighth 1,000 receiving yard season in 2023. He opted to rest Week 18 (1/7/24) in Los Angeles against the Chargers as there were no playoff implications.
- His 2022 season was one for the record books as he recorded the most receptions by any Chiefs tight end in a single-season with 110 catches.
- In Week 3 against Indianapolis Colts (9/25/22), successfully completed his fifth-career two-point conversion setting a Chiefs record for the most two-point conversions in a career.
- Week 15 against the Chargers (12/16/21), Kelce recorded a career-high 191 yards on 10 receptions with two receiving touchdowns, including a fourth-quarter seven-yard score and the game-winning 34-yard catch-and-run touchdown in overtime.
- Recorded 105 receptions in 2020, setting the franchise record for most receptions in a single-season by any pass catcher, at the time. He also became the first Chiefs player to record multiple seasons with 100 or more receptions (2018, 2020, 2022).
- Finished the 2020 season with 1,416 receiving yards. Kelce and former Chiefs WR Tyreek Hill (1,276) both recorded 1,000+ receiving yards and 10+ receiving touchdowns in 2020. It marked the second time in franchise history that the club had a pair of players accomplish this feat, with Hill and Kelce also doing so in 2018. It marks the 16th time in NFL history that a team had at least two players with 10+ receiving touchdowns and 1,000+ receiving yards in the same season. Kelce and Hill are just the third pair of teammates to accomplish the feat in multiple seasons with the same team, joining Cris Carter and Randy Moss (Minnesota, 1998 and 1999) and Demaryius Thomas and Eric Decker (Denver, 2012 and 2013).

- With 1,416 receiving yards in 2020, he set the NFL record for the most receiving yards in a single season by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. He finished the 2020 season with 1,643 receiving yards in the regular and postseason, also the most by a tight end in NFL history.
- Recorded his first-career rushing touchdown on a four-yard carry in Week 14 against New England (12/8/19).
- During the 2018 season recorded 1,336 receiving yards the most by a tight end in a single-season in Chiefs history, at the time. He also briefly broke the NFL single-season receiving yards record before San Francisco TE George Kittle broke the record later that same day.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of five players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by K Harrison Butker, DT Chris Jones, QB Patrick Mahomes and LS James Winchester.
- His 20 career receiving touchdowns, 178 receptions, 2,078 receiving yards and 2,085 scrimmage yards in the postseason are all the most in franchise history.
- Kelce's 20 receiving touchdowns are a league best for tight ends and second-most amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, behind PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (22).
- His 178 receptions are a league best amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, passing PFHOF WR Jerry Rice's 151 receptions.
- Kelce's 2,078 receiving yards are a league best for tight ends and second-most amongst all NFL pass catchers in the postseason, behind PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (2,245).
- His eight career 100-yard receiving games in the postseason are the most in franchise history.
- Appeared in his 25th career postseason game with the club versus the Philadelphia Eagles (2/8/25) in Super Bowl LVIII establishing a new franchise record for most postseason games played with LS James Winchester.
- Has recorded at least three receptions in each of his 23 postseason appearances, marking the longest streak of consecutive games with at least three receptions in postseason play.
- Has recorded six-straight postseasons with 150+ receiving yards and seven total seasons reaching the mark, tied for the most such seasons with PFHOF WR Jerry Rice. With 178 receptions and 20 touchdowns, he is one of two players to record 100+ receptions and 10+ receiving touchdowns in their postseason career. He joins PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (151, 22).
- Caught two touchdowns from QB Patrick Mahomes in the Divisional Round Game (1/21/24) in Buffalo in 2023, giving the duo 17 postseason touchdown connections. Mahomes' three-yard pass to Kelce for his second touchdown in the game surpassed QB Tom Brady and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most QB-pass catcher postseason touchdown connections in NFL history.
- Recorded his third-most postseason receptions in a single game in Baltimore in the 2023 AFC Championship Game (1/28/24) in 2023 with 11 receptions. Also tallied 116 receiving yards, his fifth-highest single postseason game performance. His 116 yards in the AFC Championship Game brought his career receiving yards in Conference Championship Games to 460, the third-most in Conference Championship Game history.
- Kelce owns the second-most receiving yards in Super Bowl history with 389 yards in his five appearances. He owns the second-most receptions in Super Bowls with 35, passing PFHOF WR Jerry Rice.
- Caught game-winning pass from QB Patrick Mahomes in the 2021 AFC Divisional Round Game to beat the Buffalo Bills in overtime (1/23/22).
- Became the second tight end in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass in the postseason after throwing a two-yard pass to WR Byron Pringle in the 2021 AFC Wild Card game versus the Steelers (1/16/22). The only other tight end to throw a postseason touchdown pass is Trey Burton, who completed a one-yard touchdown pass to QB Nick Foles for the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl LII (2/4/18).
- With 133 yards in Super Bowl LV recorded his third-consecutive postseason game with 100+ receiving yards. He became the first TE in NFL history to record three-consecutive 100-yard games in a single postseason. He joined former WR Larry Fitzgerald, who recorded four-consecutive 100-yard games in the 2008 postseason, as the only two players in NFL history with at least three-consecutive 100-yard games in the same postseason.
- Led the Chiefs with four receiving touchdowns in the 2019 postseason, including a one-yard score in Super Bowl LIV against San Francisco.
- In the 2019 AFC Divisional Round against Houston (1/12/20), he scored three receiving touchdowns, the most receiving touchdowns scored in a postseason game in Chiefs history. All three scores came in the second quarter, making him the first player in the Super Bowl era to record three receiving touchdowns in a single quarter in a postseason game.

- Mahomes enters his 10th season with the Chiefs in 2026 and his ninth year as the starter (2018-26).
- Mahomes is the youngest player ever to win both a league MVP and a Super Bowl title.
- He is the first player in the 21st century to win both the league MVP and the Super Bowl MVP in the same season (2022).
- Originally entered the NFL as a first-round pick (10th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2017 NFL Draft.
- The Chiefs traded the No. 27 overall pick, a third-round pick and their 2018 first-round selection to the Buffalo Bills in order to move up to the 10th spot to select Mahomes.

Career Highlights:

- Mahomes tops the franchise's career passing charts in multiple categories, ranking first in passer rating (100.8), passing attempts (4,673), completions (3,093), completion percentage (.662), passing yards (35,939), passing touchdowns (267), 300-yard passing games (50), 100.0 passer rating games (60), yards-per-attempt average (7.73), 20-yard completions (507), passing yards in a single-season (5,250 in 2022), passing yards in consecutive seasons (10,089; 2021-22), rushing yard by a quarterback (2,665) and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (19).
- He currently holds the fourth-highest passer rating in NFL history amongst people with 1,500 passing attempts (100.8).
- Owns 122 career touchdown passes at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, passing QB Trent Green (62) for the most career touchdown passes in the stadium's history.
- In Week 4 of 2025 (9/28/25), Mahomes became the youngest quarterback in NFL to throw for 250 touchdowns at just 30 years and 11 days old.
- In Week 6 of 2025 (10/12/25), Mahomes became the fastest player in NFL history to throw 300 career touchdown passes (regular and postseason, doing so in just 139 career games.

In Week 12 vs. Indianapolis, Mahomes became the fastest quarterback to surpass 35,000 career passing yards, doing so in just 123 games, which is three games faster than QB Matthew Stafford.

- In Week 13 against Dallas, Mahomes passed QB Russell Wilson (61) for most 100.0+ passer rating games since 2017.
- In Week 3 of 2024 (9/22/24), Mahomes tallied most wins by a quarterback in their first 100 starts (77), doing so in only 99 starts. Mahomes ended up with 78 career wins through his first 100 starts.
- In Week 8 of 2024, Mahomes became the quickest quarterback to reach 30,000 passing yards, besting QB Matthew Stafford (109) and reaching the mark in just 103 games.
- Mahomes passed PFHOF Len Dawson (237) for most passing touchdowns in franchise history. He now owns267 passing touchdowns.
- In Week 17 vs. Pittsburgh (12-25-24), Mahomes broke PFHOF QB Peyton Manning's record (128 games) for most touchdown passes in a quarterbacks first eight seasons, achieving this in 112 games.
- With 5,250 passing yards in 2022, Mahomes recorded his sixth-consecutive season (2018-23) with 4,000 or more passing yards. He joins PFHOF QB Peyton Manning as the only two players to have six such seasons in their first seven years in the league.
- Mahomes threw for 4,500+ yards and 35+ touchdowns in four of his first six seasons in the league (2018, 2020, 2021, 2022). He is one of eight players in NFL history to have multiple seasons throwing for 4,500+ yards and 35+ touchdowns and one of just four quarterbacks in NFL history to have at least four such seasons, joining Tom Brady (five), Drew Brees (four) and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning (four).
- Starting his 75th game against the Cincinnati Bengals in Week 13 of 2022 (12/4/22), Mahomes holds the record for most touchdown passes (181), passing yards (22,799) and wins (59) in any NFL quarterback's first 75 games.
- With 4,183 yards in 2023, Mahomes now owns 28,424 passing yards, surpassing the 25,000 yard plateau in just 83 games, the fastest in NFL history to surpass that mark.
- Mahomes was already the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 15,000 career passing yards, but he officially became the fastest one to reach 20,000 career passing yards, doing so in 67 games. His 67 games outpaced QB Matthew Stafford's 71 games.
- Between Mahomes and TE Travis Kelce, the pair has 59 touchdown connections. Their 59 touchdown connections passed PFHOF QB Len Dawson and former WR Otis Taylor for most QB-pass catcher connections in Chiefs history. The 59 touchdown connections are the third-most in NFL history.
- After being named the NFL MVP for the 2018 season as voted on by the Associated Press, he became the youngest recipient of the award since PFHOF QB Dan Marino in 1984.
- Mahomes threw a touchdown pass in 31 straight regular season games between the 2019 and 2021 seasons, establishing a new franchise record and ranking as the ninth-longest streak in NFL history (regular season only). He also owns a streak of 14 consecutive regular season games spanning from 2018 to 2019 with at least two touchdown passes, the second-longest streak in NFL history behind only PFHOF QB Peyton Manning's streak of 15 such games.
- Owns 50 career 300-yard games, marking the most 300-yard games in franchise history and the most in the NFL since 2017. Twenty-six of those performances came in his first four seasons (2018-20), tying PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (26) for the most games of at least 300 passing yards in a player's first four seasons in league annals.

- Recorded 1,831 passing yards with no interceptions in the first five games of the 2019 season, passing PFHOF Peyton Manning (1,744 passing yards in 2013) for the most passing yards without an interception to begin a season in NFL history.
- Threw for 278 yards in the second quarter in Week 2 at Oakland (9/15/19), the second-most passing yards in any single quarter in a game in NFL history, trailing only former QB Drew Brees who threw for 294 yards in the fourth quarter at Atlanta on Nov. 9, 2008.
- During the 2018 season, became just the second quarterback (Peyton Manning in 2013) in NFL history to throw for 50 touchdowns and 5,000 passing yards in a single-season.
- In his first season as the full-time starter in 2018, he broke the Chiefs single-season passing touchdown record by Week 10, passing Len Dawson (30) with 31 touchdown passes. Went on to finish the 2018 season with 50 touchdown passes, tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history with former Tom Brady (50 in 2007).
- Has recorded six touchdown passes in a game twice in his career against the Steelers (9/16/18) and the Rams (11/19/18), tying Chiefs and PFHOF QB Len Dawson for most touchdown passes in one game in team history. Mahomes is one of ten quarterbacks in league history to record multiple six-touchdown games.
- Threw 29 touchdown passes in his first 10 career NFL games, more TD throws than any QB in NFL history in their first 10 games.
- First quarterback in Chiefs history to throw for 300+ yards in eight consecutive games in a single season (2018). His streak is tied for second-most consecutive games with 300+ yards.
- Made his NFL debut and first start during the Chiefs 2017 regular season finale at the Denver Broncos (12/31/17), completing 22-of-35 passes (62.9%) for 284 yards. His 284 passing yards in the game are the second-most by a rookie passer in a single-game in franchise history.

Postseason Career Highlights:

- Is one of five players to have been on the active roster for all three of the club's Super Bowl victories over the past five years (LIV, LVII and LVIII). He is joined by K Harrison Butker, DT Chris Jones, TE Travis Kelce and LS James Winchester.
- Has started 21 career postseason games for the Chiefs, the fifth-most in Chiefs history, carrying an 17-4 record. His 21 starts and 81.0 winning percentage are the top marks by a quarterback in franchise history.
- After starting his fifth Super Bowl in 2025, Mahomes became just the third quarterback in NFL history to start in five or more Super Bowls, joining former QBs Tom Brady (10) and John Elway (5).
- As he started his fourth Super Bowl in 2023, Mahomes became just the eighth quarterback in NFL history to start in four or more Super Bowls. After defeating the 49ers for back-to-back Super Bowl titles in Super Bowl LVIII, Mahomes now has three Super Bowl titles, the fourth most in NFL history. He trails only Brady (7), Joe Montana (4) and Terry Bradshaw (4).
- Mahomes owns the franchise's postseason records for passing yards (5,814), touchdown passes (46), completions (511), attempts (755), completion percentage (67.7), passer rating (105.4) and rushing yards (606).
- Mahomes' 46 postseason touchdown passes are the second-most in NFL history amongst players with at least 150 attempts.
- His 105.4 passer rating in the postseason is the second-highest passer rating by any NFL quarterback in playoff history.
- Mahomes has recorded seven games of a 120.0+ passer rating in the postseason, marking a league-best.
- In his first nine NFL seasons, Mahomes ranks at the top in the following postseason categories: touchdown passes (46), passes completed (511), passes attempted (755) and passing yards (5,814).
- Mahomes threw three touchdowns in Super Bowl LIX, giving him 10 career Super Bowl touchdown passes, the second-most in Super Bowl history. He has now also thrown for 1,328 yards in his five Super Bowl appearances, giving him the second-most passing yards in Super Bowl history and making him one of just six players to throw more than 1,000 yards in Super Bowls.
- Has thrown five touchdown passes in a postseason game twice, joining PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (twice) and former QB Daryle Lamonica (twice) as the only players in NFL history to have multiple playoff games with five or more passing touchdowns.
- Became the 13th starting quarterback to win multiple Super Bowls with his victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl LVII.
- After receiving the Super Bowl MVP, Mahomes became the fifth player in history to win multiple Super Bowl MVP titles and 11th player ever to receive both the Super Bowl MVP and league MVP in the same season.
- In Super Bowl LVII in Arizona, Mahomes threw three touchdown passes, marking his eighth postseason game of three or more touchdown passes. Having eight such games puts him in a tie for third-most postseason games of three or more touchdown passes with QB Aaron Rodgers. PFHOF QB Joe Montana (nine) and former QB Tom Brady (13) are the other two ahead of Mahomes.
- Finished the 2021 postseason with 11 passing touchdowns, tying Joe Flacco (2012) and PFHOFs Kurt Warner (2008) and Joe Montana (1989) for the most touchdown passes in a single postseason in NFL history, at the time.
- Threw three touchdown passes in the 2021 AFC Championship Game vs. Cincinnati (1/30/22), giving him seven postseason games with three or more touchdown passes, ranking as the fourth-most by a quarterback in NFL history, at the time.
- Orchestrated one of the most exciting finishes to a playoff game in the 2021 AFC Divisional Round Game against the Buffalo Bills, leading the Chiefs to 19 fourth-quarter and overtime points, including setting up the game-tying field goal with just 0:13 remaining on the clock in regulation and connecting with TE Travis Kelce for an eight-yard game-winning touchdown in OT. Completed a franchise record 33 passes and tied for the second-most yards in a single game in franchise postseason history wth 378 yards in the win to set up an NFL record fourth-consecutive home conference title game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.
- With his start in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season, Mahomes became the youngest quarterback in NFL history (25 years and 143 days old) to start in two Super Bowls, surpassing Russell Wilson, who was 26 years and 64 days old at the time of his second Super Bowl start (SB XLIX) with the Seattle Seahawks.
- With his start in the AFC Championship Game against Buffalo (1/24/21) during the 2020 season, he became the 12th quarterback since the 1970 merger to start in three-consecutive conference championship games and was the first player to accomplish the feat prior to his 26th birthday. He also became the first quarterback ever to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons in the league.
- At 24 years and 138 days, Mahomes became the third-youngest player and youngest quarterback in NFL history to be named Super Bowl MVP, earning the honors for his performance in Super Bowl LIV vs. the San Francisco 49ers.
- In the AFC Championship Game against Tennessee (1/19/20) became the first player in Chiefs franchise history to ever record multiple passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown (three passing, one rushing) in a postseason game.
- Became the first player in NFL history to record 300+ passing yards, five or more passing touchdowns and 50+ rushing yards in a playoff game in the AFC Divisional Round against Houston (1/12/20).

- Threw five touchdown passes in the 2020 AFC Divisional Round, the most in a single-game in Chiefs postseason history and tied for the fourth-most in NFL history. Four of his five touchdowns came in the second quarter, making him just the second player in NFL postseason history (QB Doug Williams in Super Bowl XXII) with four passing touchdowns in a single quarter.

L'JARIUS SNEED

CORNERBACK #38

LA TECH

5TH YEAR WITH THE CHIEFS

HEIGHT: 6'1"
HOW ACQUIRED: D4-20
BIRTHDAY: 1/21/97

- Sneed returns for his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2026 after a two-year stint with the Titans.
- Originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round pick (138th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Career Highlights:

- Since entering the league in 2020, Sneed has recorded 6.5 sacks for a loss of 71.0 yards. His 6.5 sacks ranks fifth in the NFL amongst cornerbacks during that time.
- Sneed's 6.5 sacks are tied for second-most amongst defensive backs in franchise history, only 2.0 sacks from passing former S Ron Parker (8.0) for first.
- In 2022, Sneed recorded 3.5 sacks, which is tied for second-most sacks in a single-season by a Chiefs defensive back.
- With three interceptions in 2020, he tied 13 other Chiefs players who recorded three interceptions during their rookie season, tying for the 10th-most INTs by a rookie in franchise history. The most recent Chiefs rookie to do so was teammate S Juan Thornhill who recorded three interceptions during his rookie season in 2019. Sneed's three interceptions are tied for the most among NFL rookies that season with three other players.
- In Week 2 of 2020 vs. the Chargers recorded an interception for the second-consecutive week picking off Chargers QB Justin Herbert at Kansas City's five-yard line. He became the first rookie CB to record an interception in the first two games of the season since CB Marcus Peters did so in the first two weeks of the 2015 season.

Honors:

- 2020 PFWA All-Rookie Team.

Transactions:

Signed with Kansas City (6/9/26) ... Cut by Tennessee (3/13/26) ... Signed with Tennessee (3/27/24) ... Traded to Tennessee (3/25/24) ... Originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round pick (138th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2020 NFL Draft.

HISTORY

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between the Baltimore Colts and the N.Y. Giants, which later became known as "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise – Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) – and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny, and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities – Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was awarded the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise, which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier, received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, N.M. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 fans for their home games, the highest average attendance in the league.

Stram

1961 – Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) – as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3), which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game. The Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson, he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

1962 – Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

Lamar Hunt, Owner of Professional Football Team, Flies to Kansas City to Begin Preparations for Shifting the Club—Ahead on the Stadium Plans.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963 – Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft, which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, Kan. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club finished the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting talks at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC), who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFL Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo Head Coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Fla. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship, and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

CHIEFS SMASH N.F.L. BEARS, 66-24

Striking for 32 Points in Second Quarter, Kansas City Rolls Up Record Score in Exhibition Before 33,041 Fans in the Municipal Stadium

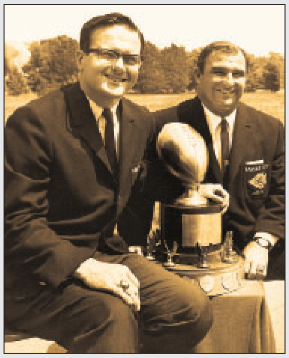
The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFL Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champion. The victory set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.



Hunt and Stram

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being mic'd for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 p.m., the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71 Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended the game as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

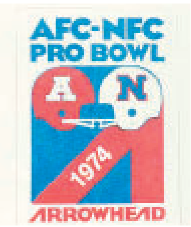
ARROWHEAD OPENS

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Los Angeles (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the team off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.



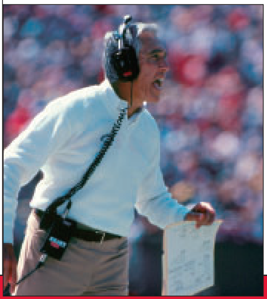
1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian.

While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the season, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climactic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, on December 27th, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The Chiefs dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record, Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the first in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th, one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.



"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"
by Marv Levy
Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.
(Refrain)
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old
Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," Levy later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48. Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening

Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

1980 – An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with 1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenny." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 – Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie RB. "I've played against the best – O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital 'G.'" Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's fight song, Levy penned a fight song of his own for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

1982 – RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened season at 3-6.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 – Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st – Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo – 14th), Tony Eason (New England – 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets – 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami – 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history (at the time) took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead, as the club finished at 6-10.

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

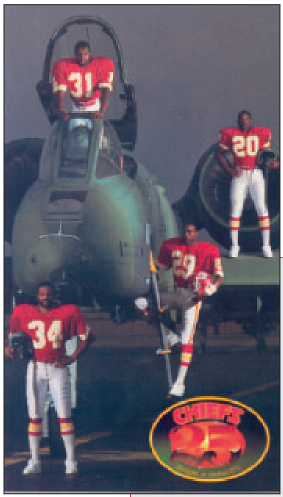
1984 – Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming 1.0 sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.



THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1985 – The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. Kansas City was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign. One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 – LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams: a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge drew the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 – One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Gansz, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Gansz was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's then all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 – The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/ General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE:
CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chiefs player to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Szott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of its first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs), Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd of 76,120 fans at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. Kansas City finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy offseason awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the then all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as the QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of the Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th, the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended in their initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest played at the L.A. Coliseum for 22 seasons. Marcus Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third-straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's west end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's west end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites.

Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department at that time. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, Wis., on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Okla. (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records at the time for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

1999 — On January 11th, Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history, a number that has since been surpassed by Andy Reid. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Cunningham produced a 9-7 record, the best mark of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009, Thomas also had his #58 officially retired by the Chiefs in 2009.

2000 – The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident and died shortly after.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

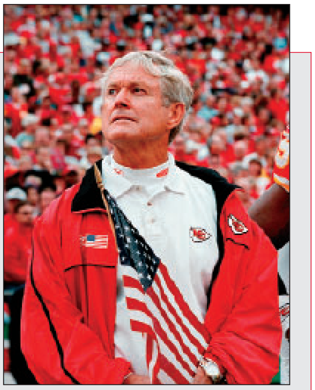
However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 – After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and Washington by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

SEPTEMBER 11TH



On September 11, 2001, Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

2002 – The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-82 as the club produced a then franchise-best 484 points (now third all time). The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the fourth-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive Coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season – Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs at the time. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, Head Coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

A late-season three-game winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a then franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) and vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head Coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just the fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history at the time. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead while the State of Missouri contributed $37.5 million. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its initial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children – Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron – shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance – Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggin. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98, Lamar Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Mo., on December 19th.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards. After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

2007 – The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a then team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of ground breaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only ground breaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a ground breaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings. That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30). WR Dwayne Bowe set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards in that contest, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends at the time in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good. DE Jared Allen was a defensive bright spot, leading the league with 15.5 sacks.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 – Head Coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a then single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal-caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was the second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's time from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

On January 23rd, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoration of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history.

On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum owned the distinction of being one of just three employees in team history to serve the club during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. On May 21st, Mark Donovan was hired as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer after spending six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles.

On June 18th, the Chiefs announced the return of training camp to the state of Missouri, beginning in 2010. The Chiefs and Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo., agreed to the university's plans for a training facility including a climate-controlled, 120-yard indoor field, as well as two 120-yard grass fields. The Chiefs officially ended their 19-year training camp tenure at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls, conducting their final practice at that facility on August 20th.

The Chiefs began the regular season on the road at Baltimore (9/13) with QB Brodie Croyle at the helm after QB Matt Cassel was injured vs. Seattle (8/29). Kansas City tied the game at 24-24 with 5:21 left to play in Head Coach Todd Haley's regular season debut, but couldn't pull out the victory.

For the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game, the club wore its Dallas Texans uniforms in a contest billed as "The Game That Never Was" vs. Dallas (10/11). Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt had longed for a head-to-head duel between his AFL squad and the NFL's Cowboys during their three-year co-existence in Dallas, and that contest finally came to fruition. However, the Cowboys would prevail by a 26-20 margin in OT, sending the Chiefs record to 0-5.

Haley recorded his initial NFL win the following week, as Kansas City produced a 14-6 victory at Washington (10/18). It would be one of three road wins for the Chiefs on the season.

On October 23rd, a major section of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex was designated as "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway" by the Missouri General Assembly and the Missouri Department of Transportation. In October, the club also mourned the death of longtime assistant coach Darvin Wallis, whose 19-year tenure with the Chiefs ranked as the second-longest stint in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years).

The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games, including total points, total offense, passing yards per game, rushing yards per game, third-down percentage and sacks allowed. Kansas City began that eight-game stretch with a 16-10 win at Oakland (11/15) as the Chiefs became the first NFL club to register seven straight road wins against the Raiders. The Chiefs followed that up with a thrilling 27-24 OT victory vs. Pittsburgh (11/22) as Haley exacted some retribution against a Steelers squad that defeated his Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

RB Jamaal Charles helped spearhead the Chiefs second-half resurgence. Only Tennessee RB Chris Johnson (1,047) rushed for more yards over the final eight games of the year than Charles (968). Charles finished the season with 1,120 yards on 190 carries, becoming the first player in league annals to top the 1,100-yard plateau on less than 200 carries. He also was the youngest player to ever win the Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP.

2010 — The Chiefs saved their best performance of the season for the regular season finale at Denver (1/3). Charles racked up a franchise-record 259 rushing yards, while LB Derrick Johnson became just the third linebacker in NFL history to return two INTs for TDs in a single game. Kansas City registered a 44-24 win, marking the club's first-ever win at INVESCO Field and the most points scored by the Chiefs in Denver since '72.

Despite finishing the year with a 4-12 record, the Chiefs led the NFL in red zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and improved in 30 categories compared to 2008. Only three clubs made more dramatic jumps in the comprehensive special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News, as the Chiefs went from 29th to 12th.

Haley began reshaping his coaching staff almost immediately after the season. Charlie Weis was named offensive coordinator on January 8th, while Romeo Crennel was hired as defensive coordinator on January 14th. Haley also added a number of coaches with playing experience, including Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas, who returned to the Chiefs as defensive backs coach on February 1st after registering a franchise-record 58 INTs from '66-78.

Commissioner Roger Goodell introduced four-time Pro Bowl G Brian Waters as the winner of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV on February 6th. Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to win that prestigious accolade. Super Bowl IV MVP QB Len Dawson – winner of the '73 Man of the Year Award – was on hand to present the Lombardi Trophy to the victorious New Orleans Saints.

On February 12th, Ann Roach announced her retirement after 44 seasons with the club. The second-longest tenured employee in Chiefs history, Roach served as an assistant to the first 10 head coaches in franchise annals. Roach and longtime Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby were both acknowledged at the 40th annual 101 Awards on March 6th. Grigsby announced his retirement after a distinguished 63-year career in broadcasting.

The National Football League announced on April 20th that Monday Night Football would return to Kansas City on September 13th as the Chiefs officially celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego.

Chairman Clark Hunt led dozens of media members on an exclusive tour of the New Arrowhead on July 23rd, giving a behind the scenes look at the stadium and all its amenities before the first event was open to the public.

In an event reminiscent of Lamar Hunt's founding of the MLS and the Kansas City Wizards, the Wizards hosted English Premier League powerhouse Manchester United in a friendly match on July 25th, marking the first event held inside the New Arrowhead.

Clark Hunt was joined by the entire Hunt family and NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on July 30th for the unveiling of Founder's Plaza, an engaging outdoor area that serves as a tribute to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and recognizes his contributions to the founding of the American Football League.

That afternoon, Chiefs Training Camp made it's debut on the campus of Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, marking the first time in 20 years that the Chiefs held their summer practices in the state of Missouri.

Upon returning to the Arrowhead Training Facility, Kansas City held a free night practice on August 25th that was open to the public at Arrowhead Stadium, giving 22,142 Chiefs fans the opportunity to see the newly renovated stadium and watch the team practice before the start of the regular season. In conjunction with the open practice, the Chiefs dedicated the Chiefs Hall of Honor, presented by Time Warner Cable on the Lower Concourse of the stadium.

On September 13th, Kansas City celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead with a 21-14 rain-soaked victory over the AFC West rival San Diego Chargers on ESPN's Monday Night Football. The victory signaled the culmination of the three-year, $375 million renovation project.

Hunt assumed the title of Chairman and CEO of the Kansas City Chiefs on Tuesday, September 14th.

The Chiefs started the season 3-0 for the first time since 2003 on their way to a 10-6 record and the club's first AFC West title since 2003 and first playoff appearance since following the 2006 season. Kansas City registered a 7-1 record at home, restoring the Arrowhead advantage. The Chiefs went 4-0 against the NFC West, the second-straight time they've swept that division (2006). WR Dwayne Bowe tallied 15 TD receptions to pace the league in scoring catches. RB Jamaal Charles gained 1,467 yards on 230 carries, finishing second behind Houston RB Arian Foster for the NFL's individual rushing title. LB Tamba Hali led all AFC defenders and was second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks on the season.

2011 – On January 9th, Kansas City hosted it's first NFL playoff game since 2003 when the Chiefs fell to the Baltimore Ravens in a 30-7 final. Six Chiefs players were selected to the 2011 Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii: S Eric Berry, WR Dwayne Bowe, QB Matt Cassel, RB Jamaal Charles, DE Tamba Hali and G Brian Waters, marking the most Pro Bowl performers for the Chiefs since KC sent six players to the NFL's version of the all-star game in 2006.

Head Coach Todd Haley made two moves related to his coaching staff, naming Bill Muir offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on February 3rd and hiring Jim Zorn as quarterbacks coach on February 15th. Haley garnered two post-season coaching awards for leading the Chiefs to a 10-6 record in only his second year at the helm, earning the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year award and also the AFC Coach of the Year award from the Committee of 101.

The Chiefs were saddened at the loss of a pair of treasured Kansas City icons in 2011 as longtime trumpeter and TD Pack Band leader Tony DiPardo passed away in February at the age of 98. Only a few weeks later, longtime voice of the Chiefs Bill Grigsby passed away at the age of 89. Thousands of Kansas Citians helped celebrate the lives of these two Chiefs legends at open memorial services.

During the offseason, Arrowhead Stadium returned to prominence as a Midwest entertainment destination as country music star Kenny Chesney played the venue as a stop on his 'Goin' Coastal Tour' along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Taylor Swift's 'Speak Now Tour' also made a stop at Arrowhead.

For the second year in a row, the Chiefs held training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. After returning to their Kansas City facility for the home portion of training camp, the Chiefs hosted a free practice for fans at Arrowhead Stadium as part of the team's Back to Football Bash.

After dropping three-straight contests to open the season, Kansas City rebounded with four straight victories. That stretch of four straight wins included a 28-24 victory at Indianapolis (10/9) in which the Chiefs tied a then club record by overcoming a 17-point deficit and a 28-0 shutout at Oakland (10/23) in which Kansas City recorded six interceptions.

Kansas City appeared in three prime time contests in 2011, including two at Arrowhead Stadium. For the second year in a row, the Chiefs topped AFC West rival San Diego (10/31) at home on ESPN's Monday Night Football, this time, using a 30-yard K Ryan Succop field goal in overtime for the win.

QB Matt Cassel was placed on injured reserve with a hand injury suffered vs. Denver (11/13). Kansas City claimed QB Kyle Orton off waivers from Denver on Nov. 23. Kansas City was one of two teams to have three different starting quarterbacks open an eventual victory in 2011, with Houston being the other team to accomplish that feat.

With a 5-8 record after 13 games, Todd Haley became the second coach in team history to be relieved of his duties during the season. Defensive Coordinator Romeo Crennel assumed the head coaching duties. The Chiefs upset the previously undefeated Green Bay Packers by a 19-14 final at Arrowhead (12/18) in Crennel's first game at the helm.

In the final three contests with Crennel serving as both head coach and defensive coordinator, the Chiefs defense ranked third in the NFL in total yards per game allowed, second in net passing yards per game allowed and second in points per game allowed.

The final game of the 2011 season marked the 227th career game for C Casey Wiegmann and was his 200th career start. Dating back to a contest vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01), Wiegmann had started 175 consecutive games at center and played 11,162 straight offensive snaps, marking the longest streak by any NFL offensive lineman. Dating back to a contest vs. Carolina (11/20/05), RB Thomas Jones had appeared in 102 consecutive games.

2012 – Crennel was named the 12th head coach in franchise history by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli on Jan. 9, 2012.

Although the team finished with a 7-9 record, the Chiefs were one win shy of repeating as the AFC West Division champions and earning an automatic berth in the playoffs.

Crennel started making changes to his coaching staff in the weeks following the regular season. Tom McMahon was named special teams coach on Jan. 30 while Brian Daboll was named offensive coordinator on Feb. 6. On Feb. 14, Nick Sirianni was promoted to wide receivers coach, while Jack Bicknell was named offensive line coach, Jim Bob Cooter was hired as offensive quality control coach and Derius Swinton was named special teams quality control coach. Crennel rounded out his coaching staff by hiring Steven Smith as assistant offensive line coach on March 9.

Former Chiefs T Willie Roaf was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2012, announced Saturday, Feb. 4, the day before Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis.

On April 14, the Kansas City Chiefs announced that every Chiefs Season Ticket Account Holder would receive one personalized Chiefs Nike jersey as a thank you in celebration of the club's 50 years in Kansas City. On May 15, Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt further outlined multiple plans and initiatives to thank Chiefs fans and the Kansas City community for their support through the years in a special press conference at Union Station in downtown Kansas City.

On June 10, Kansas City welcomed back Kenny Chesney to Arrowhead Stadium as a stop in the 'Brothers of the Sun' tour along with Tim McGraw.

For the third consecutive year, the Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for training camp.

The Chiefs went 2-14 in 2012, picking up their first win in a 27-24 overtime battle at New Orleans (9/23) with the help of RB Jamaal Charles, who registered a 91-yard rushing touchdown, the longest rush from scrimmage in team history. On Dec. 2, Kansas City picked up its second victory of the season a day after tragedy struck the organization. The Chiefs rallied to beat the Carolina Panthers 27-21 on the shoulders of 127 rushing yards from Charles and two passing touchdowns from QB Brady Quinn.

Despite having struggled in 2012, the Chiefs had six players elected to the play in the annual Pro Bowl in Hawaii. S Eric Berry, RB Jamaal Charles and LBs Tamba Hali and Derrick Johnson all earned their second trip, while P Dustin Colquitt and LB Justin Houston earned their first trip to the Pro Bowl.

REID, DORSEY TEAM UP IN KANSAS CITY

2013 – The Kansas City Chiefs and General Manager Scott Pioli parted ways on Jan. 4, 2013. On Jan. 7 Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt introduced Andy Reid as the Chiefs 13th head coach, and one week later on Jan. 14, he named John Dorsey as the team's sixth general manager in franchise history. Soon after Reid arrived in Kansas City, he started assembling his coaching staff, which consisted of several coaches he brought in from his staff in Philadelphia, including former NFL quarterback Doug Pederson as offensive coordinator. Reid named Bob Sutton defensive coordinator and Dave Toub special teams coordinator, and he hired former NFL head coach Brad Childress as a spread game analyst/special projects coach.

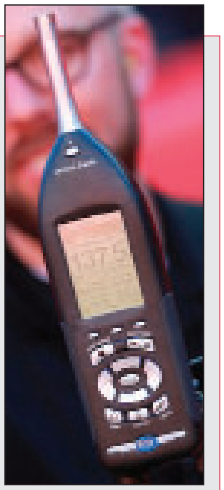
Former Chiefs DT Curley Culp was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame as part of the class of 2013, announced Saturday, Feb. 2, the day before Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans.

On March 13, the Chiefs announced a trade with the San Francisco 49ers to acquire QB Alex Smith. Kansas City used the first overall pick of the 2013 NFL Draft by selecting T Eric Fisher. Fisher played collegiately at Central Michigan.

During the 2013 offseason, the Chiefs unveiled the Chiefs Kingdom Pass, a personalized experience just for Season Ticket Holders to manage their relationship with the Kansas City Chiefs. There is a website, ChiefsKingdomPass.com, that lets Season Ticket Holders manage their accounts, view exclusive video from Emmy award winning 65 Toss Power Trap Productions and earn and redeem points for unique prizes.

On May 18, the Chiefs hosted the inaugural Chiefs 5K at Arrowhead Stadium featuring a one-of-a-kind finish on the 50yard line. Fans were able to feel the rush of excitement as they ran out of the Chiefs tunnel and onto the field for a dramatic finish in front of a cheering section.

SETTING A GUINNESS WORLD RECORD



On Sunday, Oct. 13, 2013, Chiefs fans inside Arrowhead Stadium set a new Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at an Outdoor Sports Stadium. A grassroots initiative led by a group of fans and supported by the Chiefs organization, all Kansas City fans inside Arrowhead rallied around the team as the Chiefs topped AFC West foe Oakland 24-7. The group hit recording a peak decibel reading of 137.5 decibels during a fourth-quarter play that saw LB Derrick Johnson sack Oakland QB Terrelle Pryor with just under one minute left in the game. With Guinness Book of World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitoring the sound levels on a specially designed decibel meter, Chiefs fans inside Arrowhead broke the old Guinness World Record of 136.6 set by the fans of the Seattle Seahawks at CenturyLink Field on Sept. 15 in Seattle.

On June 15, Kansas City welcomed Kenny Chesney back to Arrowhead Stadium as a stop in the 'No Shoes Nation' tour along with Eric Church.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Chiefs returned to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for training camp.

Following training camp in St. Joseph, Head Coach Andy Reid's team shot out of the gate at a blistering pace, winning nine consecutive games to start the 2013 campaign. The nine-game winning streak to open the season tied the club's longest win streak at that time and tied the Chiefs 2003 squad who also opened its campaign 9-0 as the most wins to start a season, at the time.

The Chiefs defense pitched a shutout in the season opener at Jacksonville (9/8) as the Chiefs won 28-2, setting the tone for what would be a dominant defensive performance throughout the first half of the season.

The team debuted in red-on-red uniforms in the home opener against Dallas (9/15) among other new gameday elements, including pyrotechnics for individual player introductions during pregame.

Reid returned to the city and stadium that he called home for the previous 14 years as the Chiefs traveled to Philadelphia (9/19) and earned a 26-16 victory in prime time on Thursday Night Football.

Kansas City hosted a three-game homestand in the month of October, starting with a game against AFC West foe, the Oakland Raiders. In that game, Chiefs fans established a Guinness World Record for the loudest crowd roar at an outdoor stadium, reaching 137.5 decibels and breaking the old record of 136.6 decibels set by Seattle Seahawks fans. Seahawks fans eventually broke the record again at CenturyLink Field on Dec. 2.

With a win at Buffalo (11/3), the Chiefs entered the bye week unbeaten at 9-0 just one year removed from the team's 2-14 record. The seven-game improvement by the bye marked the best single-season turnaround in franchise history.

After a three-game skid marked by a pair of losses to the eventual Super Bowl contending Denver Broncos and a loss to the San Diego Chargers who advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs, the Chiefs rebounded with statement victories on the road at Washington and in Oakland as the offense turned up the heat in the second half of the season, posting 101 combined points in back-to-back weeks (45 at Washington, 56 at Oakland).

With a fifth seed guaranteed in the AFC playoffs and no chance for improving playoff seeding, Reid rested a number of starters and key players in the season finale at San Diego to give extra rest heading into the postseason. The team, led by QB Chase Daniel, took the San Diego Chargers to overtime in San Diego, but eventually fell short of a victory after a 36-yard K Nick Novak field goal marked the difference in the extra period.

2014 — The Chiefs finished the regular season with an 11-5 record, marking the best finish since the club went 13-3 in 2003. It was the first playoff appearance for the team since the 2010 season, and Andy Reid became just the second coach in franchise history to lead the Chiefs to the playoffs in his first season at the helm, joining Herm Edwards who accomplished the feat in 2006.

In the AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/4), the Chiefs offense picked up where it left off in the second half of the season. With Charles lost to injury on the game's opening drive, Smith put the team on his shoulders, setting a number of franchise postseason records. He finished the game completing 30 of 46 passes for 378 yards with four touchdowns and a 119.7 passer rating. WR Dwayne Bowe hauled in eight passes for 150 yards and a touchdown in the game. In the end, 44 total points was not enough as the Indianapolis Colts overcame a 21-point first-half deficit to win the game 45-44 and advance to the AFC Divisional round at New England.

Following the 11-5 season, the Chiefs sent a total of 10 players to the Pro Bowl in Hawaii, more than any other team in 2013: T Branden Albert, S Eric Berry, RB Jamaal Charles, CB Brandon Flowers, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston, LB Derrick Johnson, PR Dexter McCluster, DT Dontari Poe and QB Alex Smith.

Charles and Berry were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press following the season, while DT Dontari Poe, LB Tamba Hali and WR/PR Dexter McCluster were named second-team All-Pro.

Under the direction of Special Teams Coordinator Dave Toub, the team set an NFL record for kickoff return average, posting 29.9 yards per return, leading the league by more than 3.0 yards per return and breaking the old NFL record of 29.4 yards per return set by the 1972 Chicago Bears.

Following their first year leading the club, Reid was named the 2013 AFC Coach of the Year by the 101 Committee and Dorsey was named Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America.

In late July, the Chiefs returned to St. Joseph, Mo., for their fifth straight year of training camp at Missouri Western State University.

SETTING A GUINNESS WORLD RECORD AGAIN

On Monday, Sept. 29, 2014, Kansas City defeated the New England Patriots 41-14, and Chiefs fans set a Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at a Sports Stadium (Outdoors). Chiefs fans reached a peak decibel reading of 142.2 as Guinness World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitored the sound levels. The mark was set early in the contest while the club was on defense. The Arrowhead Stadium record passed the old record of 137.5 decibels and broke Seattle's record of 136.6.

LOUDEST ROAR SO FAR:
DB

BE BOLD, BE BRAVE, BE BERRY

Before the Chiefs game at Arizona on Sunday, Dec. 7, 2014, a number of Cardinals players and coaches wore the "Be Bold. Be Brave. Be Berry." T-shirt in support of Chiefs safety Eric Berry, who was put on the non-football illness list after being diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians (below) was one of the many who wore the shirt in support of the Chiefs Pro Bowl safety. In addition, Cardinals president Michael Bidwill made a $10,000 donation

The club opened up the 2014 season 1-2 before hosting New England on Monday Night Football (9/29) to close out the month of September. The team featured its red-on-red uniforms for only the second time in team history. The Chiefs dominated the eventual Super Bowl Champions 41-14 in a game that featured a Guinness World Record for the loudest outdoor stadium, reaching 142.2 decibels and breaking the old record of 137.5 decibels set by Seattle Seahawks fans at CenturyLink Field in 2013. Three touchdowns in the contest from Charles garnered him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Kansas City went into the bye week with a 2-3 record before a victory at San Diego (10/19) in which Charles broke Priest Holmes' franchise career rushing record of 6,070 yards on a 16-yard touchdown run. The win over the Chargers also began a five-game winning streak, culminating with a 24-20 victory at Arrowhead Stadium over the defending Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks to improve to 7-3.

Following the Chiefs Week 12 game at Oakland, Berry was diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma and was placed on the NFL list for the remainder of the season in order to begin his treatments. To support Berry's fight, Chiefs teammates designed Be Bold, Be Brave, Be Berry T-shirts for public purchase, with all proceeds going to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. In addition, Chiefs players and other players around the league also supported Berry's battle by wearing the T-shirts during pre-game warm-ups.

Heading into the final game of the regular season against San Diego (12/28), the club still had postseason aspirations. Chiefs starting QB Alex Smith was ruled out prior to the game with a spleen injury, which allowed QB Chase Daniel to start his first game with the club since the season finale in San Diego in 2013. Daniel completed 16-of-27 passes for 157 yards and led the Chiefs to a 19-7 victory to end the regular season. However, a Baltimore victory over Cleveland eliminated the Chiefs from playing in the postseason for the second consecutive season.

Off the field, the Chiefs made headlines when the NFL announced (11/6) that the club was selected to host a regular-season game overseas for the first time in franchise history. The Chiefs would take on the Detroit Lions in London on Nov. 1, 2015. The Week 8 contest was part of the NFL's International Series played at Wembley Stadium, one of three NFL games taking place in the United Kingdom in 2015.

Arrowhead Stadium played host to three college football games in 2014. Langston University took on Lincoln University on Sept. 6, while the NAIA Gridiron Challenge doubleheader (10/11) featured MNU (Kan.) vs. Missouri Valley and Baker University vs. Benedictine.

In the second year of the Reid-Dorsey era, the Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, their second straight winning season. With 11 wins in 2013 and nine wins in 2014, Reid's 20 total wins gave him the most wins by a coach in his first two seasons in team history, passing Marty Schottenheimer's 19-win total in 1989 and 1990. Reid's .625 (20-12) winning percentage also marks the best by a head coach in team history through his first two seasons.

After the season, a total of four Chiefs were voted and participated in the annual Pro Bowl: RB Jamaal Charles, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston and DT Dontari Poe. All four players made return trips to the NFL's All-Star game after participating in 2013.

LB Justin Houston had one of the best single season performances in team history in 2014. Houston recorded 22.0 sacks, which led the league and also fell one sack short of passing Michael Strahan (22.5 sacks) for the most sacks in a single season in NFL history. The total also surpassed former Chiefs great Derrick Thomas' 20 sacks in 1990, a record that stood for more than 20 years. Houston was named to the 2014 AP All-Pro first team after the season.

The Chiefs went 4-0 against the AFC East in 2014, the third time in the last five years that the Chiefs had swept a division in one season (2010 - NFC West, 2013 - NFC East).

2015 — On Jan. 15, the Board of Governors at Missouri Western State University announced they had approved a contract amendment that will keep the summer training camp of the Kansas City Chiefs at the school in St. Joseph for three more years, through 2017.

It was announced on Jan. 31 that former Chiefs G Will Shields would be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Shields became the 11th longtime member of the Kansas City Chiefs to be enshrined.

On the final day of February, the Committee of 101 hosted the 45th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former cornerback Gary Green would be the 2015 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Green, who earned All-Pro honors three consecutive years with the club (1981-83), was the 45th player to earn the coveted honor. The Committee also recognized Justin Houston as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and De'Anthony Thomas as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

The Chiefs began free agency on Mar. 11 when they signed WR Jeremy Maclin. The former Eagles wide receiver spent the first four years of his career with Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid in Philadelphia. The Chiefs also signed veteran free agents G Paul Fanaika and S Tyvon Branch and acquired G Ben Grubbs in a trade with New Orleans.

Arrowhead Stadium hosted its first non-Chiefs event in 2015 by holding an international friendly soccer match between Mexico and Paraguay on Mar. 31. Arrowhead Events LLC also hosted three concerts in the summer of 2015: The Rolling Stones – June 27; One Direction – July 28; Kenny Chesney – Aug. 1. The American Royal's World Series of Barbecue also moved to Arrowhead Stadium from Oct. 1-4, making it the biggest barbecue in Kansas City history. On Nov. 14, Arrowhead served as the site for the Missouri-BYU college football game. It was the first Division I college football game at Arrowhead since Missouri defeated Kansas in the Border Showdown in 2011.

The 2015 Chiefs got off to a hot start, winning all four of its preseason games for the first time since the four-game preseason schedule was installed in 1978. It was also first time the club went undefeated in the preseason since 1969, when the team went 6-0 en route to winning Super Bowl IV.

After opening the season with a 27-20 victory in Houston (9/13), which saw rookie CB Marcus Peters record an interception on the very first pass and very first play he saw in his NFL career, the Chiefs and the NFL community received an enormous boost on Thursday Night Football when Berry made his Arrowhead Stadium return vs. Denver (9/17) for the first time since being diagnosed with Hodgkin's Lymphoma during the previous season. Additionally, Peters returned Denver QB Peyton Manning interception 55 yards for a touchdown, marking his second interception in as many weeks in his rookie season. However, the contest against the Broncos was the first in a five-game losing streak for the Chiefs - with four of Kansas City's opponents advancing to the postseason.

Kansas City turned its season around against Pittsburgh (10/25) at Arrowhead, with the help of RB Charcandrick West, who was filling in for Jamaal Charles, who was lost for the season with a torn ACL, who rushed for 110 yards and a touchdown on the afternoon. The victory against the Steelers would turn out to be the beginning of a franchise-record 10-game single season winning streak for the Chiefs.

The Chiefs victory over the Steelers was followed up by a trip across the pond to face the Lions (11/1) at London's Wembley Stadium. Kansas City's 45-10 victory tied an International Series record for most points scored by one team. Following the bye week, Kansas City traveled to Denver (11/15) to face the Broncos, where they would secure the team's first victory in Denver since the final week of the 2011-12 season. Peters continued his stellar rookie campaign, picking off Manning's first attempt of the game. The lone bright spot for the Broncos came in the first quarter when Manning broke the NFL's record for career passing yards. Following the stoppage of play, Chiefs defenders intercepted Manning and backup quarterback Brock Osweiler four more times in the game, including an interception by Berry, adding another great note to his already storybook return from Hodgkin's Lymphoma.

Kansas City's defeat of Denver was the third of 10-consecutive wins that would turn the season around after a rocky start. The 10-straight victories also set a franchise record for most victories to end a season, surpassing the previous mark of six, set in 1997. The streak helped the Chiefs finish 11-5 and earn a spot in the playoffs for the second time under Reid.

The Chiefs regular season saw players set numerous team and NFL records. Smith threw 312 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, the second-longest streak in NFL history at the time. In a Week 3 matchup at Green Bay, Johnson broke Gary Spani's team record for most career tackles. Newcomer Jeremy Maclin set the then Chiefs single-season record for most receptions by a wide receiver with 87 and rookie Peters set numerous records, including most interceptions by a rookie in a season (eight) and most passes defensed (26). His two interception returns for touchdowns tied a Chiefs rookie record and his 280 INT return yards were the most in franchise history and the ninth-most in NFL history. Additionally, Peters became the 14th rookie in club history to start all 16 games.

2016 — The Chiefs returned to Houston where they faced the Texans (1/9) in the first round of the AFC playoffs. The game got off to a blistering start when RB Knile Davis ran the opening kickoff back 106 yards for a touchdown. The 106-yard return was the longest in AFC Wild Card postseason history and the second-longest in NFL postseason history. Kansas City's defense forced five Houston turnovers in the game, en route to a 30-0 victory. Not only was it the first postseason victory by the Chiefs since 1994, it was the first shutout in the franchise's postseason history.

Kansas City then traveled to New England (1/16), where it fell to the Patriots 27-20, ending the most successful season in the Reid-Dorsey era in Kansas City.

Following the season, the Chiefs had six players - S Eric Berry, LB Tamba Hali, LB Justin Houston, LB Derrick Johnson, TE Travis Kelce and CB Marcus Peters - in addition to the entire coaching staff, participate in the Pro Bowl. The team also saw two of its defenders take home postseason honors, with Marcus Peters taking home the AP's Defensive Rookie of the Year Award, as well as Eric Berry's courageous season and story being acknowledged with the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award.

On March 5th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 46th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former fullback Tony Richardson would be the 2016 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Richardson, spent 11 years on Kansas City's roster and rushed for 1,576 yards and recorded 1,298 receiving yards and tallied 24 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Committee also recognized S Eric Berry and QB Alex Smith as the first co-winners of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and CB Marcus Peters as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

In the offseason the Chiefs continued to improve the team by resigning their own players, including TE Travis Kelce, T Eric Fisher, RB Spencer Ware and RB Charcandrick West. The Chiefs also signed veteran T Mitchell Schwartz to anchor the right side of the offensive line.

Arrowhead Events LLC also hosted two concerts in the summer of 2016: Guns and Roses – July 29; Kenny Chesney – July 16.

After a 2-2 preseason record, the Chiefs opened their season at home with an overtime victory vs. the San Diego Chargers (9/11). After trailing 21-3 at halftime, the Chiefs stormed back scoring 17 points in the fourth quarter capped by a five yard touchdown run by RB Spencer Ware with 1:11 left on the clock to tie the game at 27. The Chiefs forced overtime, took the ball and on a 3rd-and-2, Smith ran the ball two yards up the middle to win the game 33-27. In Week Two the Chiefs fell to Houston (9/18), but rebound in a big way Week Three vs. the Jets (9/25). The Chiefs intercepted six passes from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick en route to a 24-3 victory as Peters (2), Berry, Johnson, S Daniel Sorensen and CB D.J. White tallied picks. After losing to Pittsburgh in week four (9/10), Kansas City went into the bye week 2-2 before winning their next 10 of 12 games. Along the way, the Chiefs beat the defending NFC Champion Carolina Panthers (11/13) on a game-winning field goal by K Cairo Santos. Santos' heroics were set up by a forced fumble by Peters after stripping WR Kelvin Benjamin with 29 seconds remaining. In Week 12 , the Chiefs beat the defending Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos (11/27). K Cairo Santos again connected on an overtime game-winning field goal off the crossbar with five seconds left to win in dramatic fashion.

2017 — The Chiefs began the year and closed the season with a chance to capture their first AFC West division title since 2010 with a win against the San Diego Chargers (1/1). In the third quarter, WR Tyreek Hill put the game out of reach by returning a P Drew Kaser punt 95 yards for a touchdown. With the Week 17 win, the Chiefs finished with a 12-4 record, going 6-0 vs. divisional opponents and earned a first round bye in the playoffs.

For the second straight year, earning the Chiefs competed in the AFC Divisional round of the playoffs, this time, hosting the Pittsburgh Steelers at Arrowhead Stadium (1/15). The Chiefs and Steelers battled, trading points throughout the game, but ultimately the Chiefs fell, 18-16.

Following the season, the Chiefs had seven players - P Dustin Colquitt, S Eric Berry, TE Travis Kelce, WR Tyreek Hill, LB DJ Alexander, QB Alex Smith and CB Marcus Peters - in addition to the entire coaching staff, selected to participate in the Pro Bowl.

On February 26th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 47th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former wide receiver Carlos Carson would be the 2017 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Carson spent 10 years on Kansas City's roster recording 6,360 receiving yards, 352 career receptions and 33 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Chiefs also recognized S Eric Berry as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and WR Tyreek Hill as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

In the offseason, the Chiefs continued to improve the team by resigning their own veteran players such as Berry, S Daniel Sorensen and G Laurent Duvernay-Tardif, while adding free agents RB CJ Spiller and DL Bennie Logan.

On June 22, 2017, the Chiefs agreed to part ways with General Manager John Dorsey. On July 10, 2017, the Chiefs hired General Manager Brett Veach, becoming the seventh General Manager in franchise history.

At the end of July, the Chiefs attended training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph for the eighth year in a row.

U2 was hosted by Arrowhead Events LLC, performing at Arrowhead Stadium on September 12.

After going .500 in the preseason, the club opened its season against the defending Super Bowl champions, New England Patriots, in the opening game of the NFL season (9/7). Rookie RB Kareem Hunt scored three touchdowns (two receiving, one rushing) as the Chiefs defeated the Patriots 42-27. This sparked a 5-0 start to the season behind the leagues No. 1 offense in points scored.

Kansas City entered its bye week in Week 9 at 6-3. After close losses to the Giants (11/9), Bills (11/26) and Jets (12/3), the club hosted Oakland in a crucial divisional match up (12/10). The Chiefs scored 26 unanswered points with rushing touchdowns from running backs Kareem Hunt and Charcandrick West and four field goals from K Harrison Butker. Kansas City defeated Oakland 26-15 and carried that momentum with a 30-13 victory over the Chargers the following week. Going into Week 16 against Miami, the Chiefs needed one win to clinch the AFC West. QB Alex Smith threw for over 300 yards for the fifth time and the defense forced two fumbles on the way to a 29-13 victory and a second-straight AFC West title. In the final game of the regular season, Kansas City rested several players, which allowed players like rookie QB Patrick Mahomes to see the field. The rookies shined against Denver, as Mahomes threw for 284 yards, Hunt clinched the league rushing title and Butker hit the game-winning field goal as time expired.

Several Chiefs players stood out during the season, including QB Alex Smith who led the league in passer rating with 104.7, rookie RB Kareem Hunt led the league in rushing with 1,327 yards and rookie K Harrison Butker led the team in scoring with 142 points.

At the end of the season, three Chiefs players were selected to the Pro Bowl: QB Alex Smith, RB Kareem Hunt and WR/KR Tyreek Hill.

On February 24th, the Committee of 101 hosted the 48th 101 Awards at the Westin Crown Center Hotel in Kansas City. It was announced that former TE Tony Gonzalez would be the 2018 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Gonzalez spent 12 years on Kansas City's roster recording 10,945 receiving yards, 916 career receptions and 76 total touchdowns during his tenure. The Chiefs also recognized QB Alex Smith as the winner of the Derrick Thomas Award, given to the team's most valuable player, and RB Kareem Hunt as the winner of the Mack Lee Hill Award, granted to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

The club started its offseason fast, signing WR Sammy Watkins and LB Anthony Hitchens on the first day of free agency. QB Alex Smith was traded to Washington for CB Kendall Fuller and a 2018 third-round draft pick. CB Marcus Peters and a 2018 sixth-round pick were also moved to the Los Angeles Rams for 2018 fourth-round and 2019 second-round draft picks.

The Chiefs began the year with victories in each of their first five matchups on the season slate, starting with a 38-28 victory in Los Angeles over the AFC West Division-rival Chargers (9/9). The win marked the ninth-consecutive victory over the Chargers, as Hill ignited the scoring output with his fourth career punt return TD after the defense forced a Chargers three-and-out to start the contest. Hill continued his contributions on the offensive end, accounting for two of Mahomes' four passing TDs on the day.

Taking the show on the road in Week 2, Kansas City traveled to Pittsburgh to battle the Steelers in the team's first road contest of the season (9/16). Capitalizing off of his Week 1 offensive output, Mahomes threw for a franchise-tying record six TDs in a 42-37 win in the Steel City. Mahomes connected with five different pass-catchers to accumulate the half-dozen passing scores, calculating a career-high 154.8 passer rating on 23 completions for 326 yards and zero INTs. With 10 passing scores within the team's first two games of the season, Mahomes broke and re-set the club record to commence his sophomore season.

Over the subsequent three weeks, Kansas City advanced to a 5-0 record through the first five weeks of the 2018 season, including a three passing TD performance by Mahomes in Week 3 vs. San Francisco and the Chiefs defense accumulating a four INT outing in a Week 5 win against the Jaguars (10/7) at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Chiefs traveled to Foxborough, Mass. in Week 6 to take on the New England Patriots (10/14). On Sunday Night Football, Kansas City suffered its first loss of the 2018 by a 43-40 final. The offense's 40-point outburst helped break the franchise record for total points scored (215) through the first six games of a single season. Mahomes threw for four TDs in the contest and logged his fifth consecutive 300-plus passing yard output, the latter of which set another franchise record at the time.

The Chiefs rebounded by ripping off four wins in a row from Weeks 7-10, accumulating a win at home over the AFC West Division-rival Denver Broncos and two 35-plus point offensive performances against a pair of AFC North foes in Cincinnati and Cleveland.

The Week 7 win over the Bengals on Sunday Night Football marked Head Coach Andy Reid's 200th career victory, becoming only one of two active coaches in the NFL (Bill Belichick) to have hit the 200-win threshold.

Mahomes' two passing TDs in the Week 10 victory over Arizona (11/11) set the franchise record for passing TDs in a single season, as the quarterback's first full season at the helm broke Pro Football HOF QB Len Dawson's record of 30 passing TDs set in 1964.

The Week 11 matchup pitted the 9-1 Kansas City Chiefs against the 9-1 Los Angeles Rams (11/19). The setting for the Monday Night Football contest was moved to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum from Estadio Azteca in Mexico City, Mexico. The two offensive juggernauts combined to score 105 total points, a Monday Night Football record, with the Rams taking the de facto home victory, 54-51. QB Patrick Mahomes tied his own career and franchise-tying record by tossing for six scores, adding a career-high 478 passing yards for a 117.6 passer rating.

Kansas City returned to the field in Week 13 following a Week 12 bye week and avenged the Week 11 loss to the Rams by posting 40 points on the scoreboard and defeating the division-rival Oakland Raiders (12/2). The Chiefs offense rode on the shoulders of Mahomes' four passing TDs and 295 passing yards, which helped Mahomes become the fastest QB (13 games) in NFL history to eclipse 4,000 passing yards.

Returning to Arrowhead Stadium in Week 14 (12/9) to take on the eventual AFC North Division champion Baltimore Ravens, the Chiefs used a K Harrison Butker 35-yard game-winning FG to gain an overtime win over the visitor to secure the ninth home victory in a row for the Chiefs and Reid, dating back to 2017.

The following week, a quick turnaround at Arrowhead Stadium for a Thursday Night Football showdown ensued for the hosting of AFC West foe, the Los Angeles Chargers (12/13). Though Kansas City put 28 total points on the scoreboard and set the then franchise record for most points scored in a single season (499), Los Angeles rallied from seven points down on the final drive of the fourth quarter to score a TD with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. With a share of the lead in the AFC West on the line, the Chargers attempted and successfully converted a two-point conversion to claim victory over the Chiefs for the first time since 2013.

Week 16 subsequently presented the final road game of the 2018 regular season slate for Kansas City, traveling to Seattle to battle the Seahawks on Sunday Night Football (12/23). Down seven points entering the final quarter of play, the Chiefs and Mahomes accounted for 14 fourth-quarter points behind a TD pass to WR Demarcus Robinson, a successful two-point conversion rush for Mahomes and a pair of FGs by K Harrison Butker. But, being matched by Seattle's 14 fourth-quarter points, the Seahawks topped the Chiefs, 38-31, to grant Kansas City their fourth loss of the season. On the defensive side for Kansas City, DT Chris Jones logged 1.5 sacks to set the NFL record for most consecutive games with at least one sack (11 games).

In the regular season finale at home against the Oakland Raiders (12/30), the Chiefs put together a combined effort to defeat the divisional foe, 35-3, en route to winning the AFC West Division for the third consecutive season. With the win, the Chiefs also secured the top-seed in the AFC earning a first-round playoff bye and home field advantage throughout the postseason.

With the outing in Week 17, Mahomes totaled 50 passing TDs and 5,000-plus passing yards for the first time in franchise history. The achievement was also accomplished for just the second time in NFL history (Peyton Manning, 2013). The offense totaled 565 points over the length of the regular season, ranking third in NFL history in total scoring output.

Tied along with Mahomes' passing spree, several Chiefs benefitted on the receiving end. Kelce set the then franchise record with 103 receptions, accumulating a career-high 1,336 receiving yards, as Hill set the current franchise record with 1,479 receiving yards. The trio of Mahomes, Hill and Kelce all earned first-team All-Pro honors following the regular season.

2019 — In the AFC Divisional round of the NFL Playoffs, the Indianapolis Colts rode into a snowy Arrowhead Stadium for a Saturday afternoon contest (1/12). Behind an impressive showing by the Chiefs' rushing offense, Kansas City put in four scores on the ground and added a Butker FG, while the defense held the visiting Colts to 13 total points, to claim the first home playoff victory at Arrowhead Stadium since 1994 and advance to the AFC Championship game for the first time in 25 years.

The Kansas City Chiefs and Arrowhead Stadium hosted the New England Patriots the following week (1/20) for the first AFC Championship at Arrowhead Stadium in franchise history. Following a 14-0 halftime deficit, the Chiefs rallied to score 31 second-half points behind a three-TD performance by RB Damien Williams. QB Patrick Mahomes threw for three TDs in the second half to help the scoring output, as the 31-31 draw took the contest into overtime. The Patriots won the coin toss, orchestrated an offensive drive and scored a rushing TD on the opening possession to defeat the Chiefs and advance to Super Bowl LIII.

Following the loss in the AFC Championship Game, six Chiefs players participated in the 2019 Pro Bowl the following week. Mahomes was named 2019 Pro Bowl MVP following the AFC's victory over the NFC. One week later at NFL Honors, Mahomes was presented with the AP NFL MVP Award and it was announced that Chiefs Hall of Famers S Johnny Robinson and TE Tony Gonzalez would be inducted into the 2019 Class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August. Prior to the 2019 NFL Draft, it was announced that Mahomes would appear on the cover of EA Sports' Madden NFL 20, and in July, Mahomes was awarded the ESPY for Best NFL Player.

As an organization, the Kansas City Chiefs bolstered their roster with a pair of significant acquisitions on the defensive side of the football. Former first-team All-Pro S Tyrann Mathieu signed with the club in the early phases of unrestricted free agency, and former Seattle Seahawks DE Frank Clark was acquired by the Chiefs via a trade that sent Kansas City's first-round draft pick to the Seahawks prior to the annual NFL Draft.

The Chiefs marked a decade of training camp at Missouri Western State University with record crowds flocking to see the team train in St. Joseph.

The 2019 campaign marked the franchise's 60th season, and the 57th in Kansas City. The 60th theme was celebrated throughout the offseason, training camp and throughout the season as the club honored its rich tradition and history. The season began with four consecutive wins, including three victories coming on the road.

Week 2 marked the franchise's last scheduled game against the Raiders (9/15) in the Oakland Coliseum as the AFC rival prepared for it's move to Las Vegas in 2020. It also marked the NFL's last game to feature a dirt infield as part of the playing surface for a football game.

The Week 3 home opener against the Baltimore Ravens (9/22) featured gold end zones and throwback field markings for the club's 60th season, an homage to the club's original Kansas City home, Municipal Stadium.

The club won a tightly-contested game in Detroit (9/29) before dropping two-consecutive home games to AFC South teams, the Indianapolis Colts (10/6) and the Houston Texans (10/13).

Kansas City went to Denver for a Thursday Night Football matchup with the Denver Broncos (10/17) and saw Mahomes go down with a dislocated kneecap that kept him out for the remainder of the game. QB Matt Moore saw his first meaningful snaps with the club, helping lead the team to a 30-6 win over the Broncos. The win marked Head Coach Andy Reid's 200th career regular season win, making him just the eighth coach in NFL history to accumulate at least 200 career victories.

Moore got his first of two starts in a Chiefs uniform in Week 8 (10/27) against the Green Bay Packers on Sunday Night Football as Mahomes was sidelined with the knee injury. Despite being tied 24-24 in the fourth quarter, the Chiefs could not hold off the eventual NFC runner-up Packers, falling 31-24.

Moore again started in place of the recovering Mahomes in Week 9 (11/3) as the Chiefs hosted the Minnesota Vikings. Williams scored a 91-yard rushing touchdown, tying Jamaal Charles for the franchise record longest-run from scrimmage. Butker converted four field goals on the day, including what tied a then career-long 54-yard field goal with less than three minutes left on the clock to tie the game at 23-23. After a quick defensive stop, Moore led the Chiefs down the field, with Butker converting a 44-yard game-winning field goal as time expired to secure the 26-23 victory. During the game, the team's helmets featured gray facemasks as a nod to the design of the helmet during the club's Super Bowl IV win against Minnesota following the 1969 season.

Mahomes returned to the field in Week 10 at the Tennessee Titans (11/10), but despite throwing for three touchdowns and the then second-highest yardage output of his career, the Chiefs surrendered a nine-point fourth-quarter lead and had a potential game-tying 52-yard field goal blocked to fall to the Titans 35-32, pushing the team's record to 6-4.

After seeing its scheduled Mexico City game vs. the Rams in 2018 get moved to Los Angeles (11/18), the Chiefs headed to Estadio Azteca in Mexico's capital city for a Week 11 divisional matchup against the Los Angeles Chargers on Monday Night Football. Behind a four-interception performance from the Chiefs defense, the club returned to the United States with a 7-4 record heading into the bye weekend.

Following the bye, the club secured a 40-9 win in the final contest against the Oakland Raiders in Week 13 (12/1), committing zero penalties in a game for just the third time in franchise history.

After falling to the New England Patriots in both the regular season and in the AFC Championship Game in 2018, the 2019 Chiefs traveled to Foxborough for a Week 14 (12/8) revenge game against the Patriots. The game had historical significance for the two head coaches as Head Coach Andy Reid (203) and Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick (271) had at that point combined for 474 career regular season victories, marking the second-most combined regular season wins between two head coaches in NFL history. Their 474 combined wins trailed only Don Shula (251) and Tom Landry (245) who combined for 496 regular season wins when the Dolphins and Cowboys met on November 22, 1987. Behind three Butker field goals, a trio of sacks against QB Tom Brady and Kelce's first-career touchdown run, the Chiefs escaped with a 23-16 win, snapping a 21-game Patriots winning streak at Gillette Stadium that stretched over the regular season and the postseason.

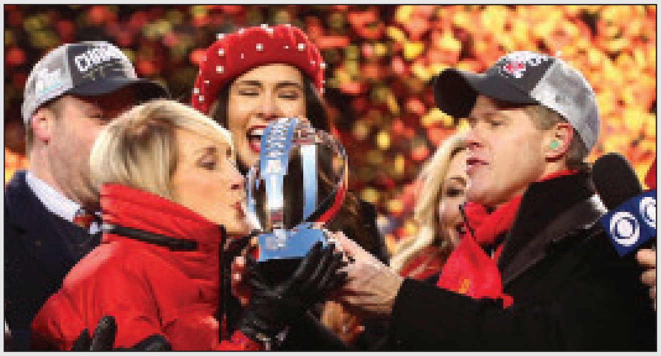
The Chiefs returned to a snowy Arrowhead for a 23-3 victory over the Denver Broncos in Week 15 (12/15), moving the Chiefs to 10-4 on the season. It marked the fifth-consecutive season under Reid that the club accumulated double-digit wins, passing the previous club record of four-straight 10-win seasons from 1990-93 under Chiefs Hall of Fame Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer. In the win, TE Travis Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history to record 1,000+ receiving yards in four consecutive seasons. He also joined PFHOF TE Tony Gonzalez, TE Jason Witten and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most career 1,000-yard seasons by a tight end in league annals.

The Chiefs claimed veteran DE Terrell Suggs off waivers from the Arizona Cardinals, bringing in additional veteran leadership and a championship resume for the final weeks of the season. The move shored up a defensive line position that had seen two regular contributors - Alex Okafor and Emmanuel Ogbah - suffer season-ending injuries.

The club's Week 16 (12/22) matchup pitted Head Coach Andy Reid vs. one of his pupils, Chicago Bears Head Coach Matt Nagy, who spent five seasons on the Chiefs coaching staff under Reid, including two years as Offensive Coordinator. The club left the Windy City with a 26-3 win, extending its winning streak to five games. It marked the seventh-consecutive year that the club had a minimum of a five-game winning streak under Head Coach Andy Reid. It was also the seventh road win of the season for the Chiefs, a total that hadn't been reached since a 7-0 road record during the 1966 AFL campaign.

Kansas City wrapped the season with a 31-21 Week 17 (12/29) win against the Los Angeles Chargers at Arrowhead, giving the club a 6-0 record against AFC West foes for the second time under Reid (2016). RB Damien Williams added an 84-yard touchdown run, while rookie WR Mecole Hardman returned a kickoff 104 yards for a touchdown, the third-longest kick return score in franchise history. A Chiefs win, paired with a Miami Dolphins win over the New England Patriots secured the No. 2 seed and a first-round bye for the Chiefs in the playoffs.

LAMAR HUNT TROPHY COMES HOME



Norma Hunt, late wife of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, kisses the Lamar Hunt Trophy on stage following the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium as Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt looks on. Since the trophy for the AFC champions was renamed 2020 – In the AFC Divisional round of the playoffs against the Houston Texans (1/12), the Chiefs overcame a 24-point deficit to earn a 51-31 victory, setting numerous franchise records and tying for the fourth-largest comeback in NFL postseason history at the time. QB Patrick Mahomes threw five touchdown passes, tying for the fourth-most scoring throws in a postseason game in NFL history at the time. Both Kelce and Williams found the end zone three times in the game. DE Clark recorded 3.0 sacks and the Chiefs defense tallied 5.0 total sacks. Sorensen was responsible for two momentum-altering plays in the game's second quarter, stopping a fake punt attempt on 4th-and-4, and forcing a fumble on Houston's next kickoff return, with both plays resulting in Kansas City touchdowns.

For the second-consecutive season, the club played for the Lamar Hunt Trophy in Kansas City, hosting the Tennessee Titans in the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium (1/19). The five degree wind chill at kickoff tied for the sixth-coldest game at Arrowhead since 1994. After falling behind 10-0 early, the Chiefs overcame two separate 10-point first-half deficits behind two Mahomes touchdown passes to WR Tyreek Hill, as well as a 27-yard touchdown run by the quarterback, giving the Chiefs a 21-17 halftime advantage. A three-yard touchdown rush by RB Damien Williams and a 60-yard touchdown reception by WR Sammy Watkins put the game out of reach, giving the Chiefs a 35-24 victory. The Hunt family raised the Lamar Hunt Trophy as AFC Champions for the first time in franchise history, doing so in front of Chiefs Kingdom inside Arrowhead Stadium.

Six Chiefs players were named to the AFC Pro Bowl roster, but could not attend due to Super Bowl LIV. Clark, DT Chris Jones and rookie KR Mecole Hardman each earned their first Pro Bowl nods, while Mahomes earned his second Pro Bowl appearance. Hill was named to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time and Kelce was selected for the fifth time.

When the club got to Miami, Florida, to prepare for Super Bowl LIV against the NFC champion San Francisco 49ers, the team practiced at The Baptist Health Training Facility in Davie, Florida, the practice facility for the Miami Dolphins. As the home team, the Chiefs wore their traditional red tops with white pants, and like had been the case in the home opener and the club's two postseason contests at Arrowhead, the team's end zone in Super Bowl LIV was painted gold to honor the club's 60th season.

LOMBARDI TROPHY IS KANSAS CITY'S AGAIN

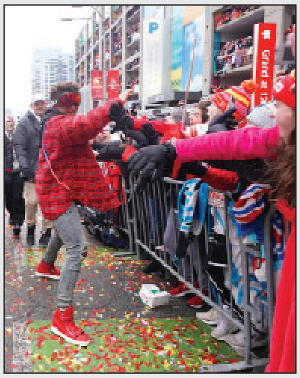
Kansas City jumped out to a 10-3 lead in the second quarter of Super Bowl LIV against the 49ers on Sunday, Feb. 2, but the teams went into halftime tied at 10. San Francisco scored 10 third-quarter points, taking a 20-10 lead into the fourth quarter. Facing 3rd-and-15 with approximately seven minutes left in the game, Mahomes found Hill for a 44-yard reception, shifting the game's momentum and setting up an eventual one-yard touchdown pass to Kelce with just over six minutes left in the game.

Kansas City's defense forced a three-and-out, and took a 24-20 lead on a five-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to Williams. On the following defensive series, Clark sacked 49ers QB Jimmy Garoppolo on 4th-and-10 to give Kansas City the ball back with less than two minutes to play. Williams broke a 38-yard touchdown run to give the Chiefs 21-unanswered points and a 31-20 lead, while DB Kendall Fuller clinched the game with an interception, allowing the Chiefs to run out the clock for the club's second Super Bowl championship, and first since the 1969 season.

QB Patrick Mahomes earned the Pete Rozelle Trophy after being named the game's MVP on 26 of 42 passing for 286 yards with two passing touchdowns to go along with a rushing touchdown. Mahomes became the youngest quarterback and third-youngest player to win the Super Bowl MVP award. The 10-point comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in Super Bowl history, while the Chiefs became the first team to record three comebacks of at least 10 points in a single postseason in NFL history.

It marked the first Super Bowl victory as a head coach for Andy Reid, whose Eagles played in Super Bowl XXXIX following the 2004 season during his tenure in Philadelphia. As an assistant coach, Reid appeared in two Super Bowls with Green Bay following the 1996 and 1997 seasons, earning an NFL championship with the Packers in Super Bowl XXXI following the 1996 season.

KC TURNS RED FOR PARADE AND RALLY



On Wednesday, Feb. 5, Kansas Citians and Chiefs fans from all over lined Grand Boulevard in downtown Kansas City and packed together in front of Union Station for the Chiefs Kingdom Champions Parade and Rally as the entire team and city celebrated the club's first championship in 50 years. At right, QB Patrick Mahomes celebrates with fans along the parade route, as well as the view of Chiefs fans in front of Union Station and on the north lawn at Liberty Memorial at the National World War I Museum.

The club's Super Bowl celebration tour was short-lived as the global coronavirus pandemic halted traditional offseason activities and moved OTAs and the 2020 NFL offseason to virtual platforms.

The club retained a number of regular contributors in free agency, including FB Anthony Sherman, WR Demarcus Robinson, DT Mike Pennel, CB Bashaud Breeland and back-up QB Chad Henne, while also signing a few veteran players for depth, such as OL Mike Remmers and TE Ricky Seals-Jones.

Due to NFL policy during COVID-19, the club was unable to host training camp at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, instead holding camp practices at The University of Kansas Health System Training Complex and Arrowhead Stadium.

There were no preseason games in the 2020 NFL season due to the pandemic, but the Chiefs held two Season Ticket Member Days at Arrowhead during training camp with capacities of 2,000 and 5,000 fans.

The Chiefs opened the 2020 season at Arrowhead Stadium against the Houston Texans, a rematch of the AFC Divisional round game the previous season, in the NFL Kickoff game on Thursday, Sept. 10. A new array of stadium health and safety policies were implemented in response to the ongoing global pandemic and stadium capacity was limited to approximately 22 percent for all Chiefs home games for the entirety of the 2020 season. Before the game, the Chiefs celebrated the franchise's second Super Bowl title with a short on-field ceremony that concluded with the unveiling of a new championship banner inside the stadium.

The Chiefs picked up where they left off the previous season and defeated the Texans, 34-20, behind 138 rushing yards and a score from rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire in his first career game in a Chiefs uniform.

The Chiefs won the subsequent three games, becoming the first team in NFL history with four-consecutive seasons starting 4-0. Their victory against the Patriots in Week 4 (10/5) also marked the club's 13th-consecutive win (regular and postseason), the most consecutive wins in franchise history.

Kansas City suffered its first loss of the season in Week 5 (10/11) against the Raiders, 40-32, in a hard-fought contest that came down to the wire.

The club rebounded with four-consecutive victories to head into the Week 10 bye with a record of 9-1. During that span, the Chiefs made a splash by signing two-time first-team All-Pro RB Le'Veon Bell to a one-year contract on Oct. 17. Bell played his first game as a Chief in Week 7 (10/25) against the Broncos, recording six carries for 39 yards.

For the first time ever, Arrowhead Stadium was also used as a polling location for the 2020 General Election on Nov. 3, successfully providing another site for residents of Jackson County to exercise their right to vote.

The Chiefs kept on rolling after the bye, winning their next six games in a row. Their 10-game win streak tied for the longest such streak in a single regular season in franchise history.

Most notably during that stretch, the Chiefs defeated the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 12 (11/29) on the road behind historic performances from Mahomes and Hill. Hill tallied a single-game career-high 269 receiving yards on a career-high 13 receptions (20.7 avg.) with three touchdowns in the game. His 269 receiving yards are the second-most in a single-game in franchise history, trailing only WR Stephone Paige (309). Hill recorded 203 receiving yards in the first quarter of the game, becoming the third player since 1980 with at least 200 receiving yards in a single quarter, joining Qadry Ismail (210, 3rd quarter, Dec. 12, 1999) and Lee Evans (205, 1st quarter, Nov. 19, 2006). Mahomes' 462 passing yards in the game are the second-most single-game passing yards in his career and the fourth-most single-game passing yards in franchise history. His 359 first-half yards are the most by any quarterback in the first half of a regular season game since at least 1991.

Against another formidable NFC South opponent, the Chiefs battled to a 32-29 victory on the road in a showdown with the New Orleans Saints in Week 15 (12/20) to cap off the first perfect 8-0 road record in club history. Edwards-Helaire suffered a high ankle sprain in the contest which would keep him sidelined through the Divisional round (12/27) of the playoffs.

With a victory in Week 16 against the Atlanta Falcons, the Chiefs clinched the No. 1 seed in the AFC and earned a bye in the first round of the playoffs for the third-consecutive season. The win also improved Kansas City to a record of 14-1, marking the first-ever 14-win regular season in franchise history.

2021 — With the first-round bye already locked up, many of the team's starters rested in a Week 17 home matchup with the Los Angeles Chargers (1/3). The Chargers came away with the win, but many of Kansas City's backups, such as QB Chad Henne, got valuable playing time in the game which would prove to be helpful in the postseason.

At the conclusion of the regular season, seven Chiefs were selected to the Pro Bowl: QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, WR Tyreek Hill, T Eric Fisher, DT Chris Jones, S Tyrann Mathieu and DE Frank Clark. Kelce, Hill and Mathieu were also each named first-team AP All-Pro while Mahomes and Jones earned second-team All-Pro honors.

Several Chiefs finished among the league's best statistically for the regular season. Mahomes was second in the league in passing yards with 4,740. Mathieu was third in the NFL with six interceptions, and ranked first among all safeties. The two primary pass-catchers for the Chiefs, Kelce (1,416) and Hill (1,276) ranked second and eighth in the league, respectively, in receiving yards. Overall, Kelce and Hill each had historic seasons in 2020. With then career-highs in receptions (105) and receiving yards (1,416), Kelce became the first tight end in NFL history with multiple seasons of 100+ receptions in his career (2018 and 2020), while his 1,416 receiving yards were the most-ever by a tight end in NFL history, passing 49ers TE George Kittle's previous record of 1,377 yards set in 2018. He became the first Chiefs player to record multiple seasons with 100 or more receptions. His 105 receptions in 2020 were the most receptions by a player in a single-season in franchise history, breaking his own record of 103 receptions set in 2018. His 1,416 receiving yards were the second-most receiving yards by any pass catcher in Chiefs history. Then, with a career-high 15 receiving touchdowns, Hill tied Dwayne Bowe's franchise record for most single-season touchdown receptions.

Following the bye in the first round of the playoffs, the Chiefs hosted the Cleveland Browns in the AFC Divisional round at Arrowhead Stadium (1/17). Cleveland was coming off a victory against the No. 3-seeded Pittsburgh Steelers on Wild Card Weekend.

The Chiefs looked dominant early on in the contest, taking a 19-3 lead into halftime. However, with 7:27 remaining in the third quarter, Mahomes took a hit which sent him into the concussion protocol and took him out for the remainder of the game, shifting the momentum toward Cleveland. Mahomes was replaced by QB Chad Henne, who was making the first postseason appearance of his career. The Browns cut the lead to 22-17 in the fourth quarter and had a chance to retain possession and go for the win if they could stop the Chiefs offense one more time. However, Henne stepped up with some late-game heroics on the final drive of the game. With a 13-yard scramble on a 3rd-and-14 with under two minutes remaining followed by a 4th-and-1 conversion on pass to Hill to seal the win for Kansas City, Henne sent them to their third-consecutive AFC Championship Game at home. Henne's performance prompted Mahomes to tweet after the game: "#HenneThingIsPossible."

Over the course of the next week, Mahomes passed the concussion protocol and became eligible to start in the AFC Championship Game at home against the Buffalo Bills (1/24). The Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to host three-consecutive AFC Championship Games with the only to host three-consecutive conference championships being the 2002-04 Philadelphia Eagles, also coached by Reid. With his start, Mahomes became the 12th quarterback since the 1970 merger to start in three-consecutive conference championship games and the first to accomplish the feat prior to his 26th birthday. He also became the first quarterback ever to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons in the league.

The Bills started fast, getting out to a 9-0 lead to open the game. But an offensive explosion by the Chiefs in the second quarter with three unanswered touchdowns by Hardman, Williams and Edwards-Helaire would put them ahead 21-9. Behind two touchdown receptions by Kelce and some solid defensive play in the second half, Kansas City would ultimately win the game by a final score of 38-24, hoisting the Lamar Hunt Trophy and advancing to the Super Bowl for the second season in a row.

Although Kansas City was victorious, they lost a key component of the offense in the AFC Championship Game as Fisher suffered a torn Achilles tendon which would force him to miss Super Bowl LV.

LAMAR HUNT TROPHY STAYS IN KANSAS CITY

The Kansas City Chiefs hoist the Lamar Hunt Trophy during the postgame celebration following the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium. This marked the first time in franchise history that the Chiefs won back-to-back AFC Championships. This game also marked the first time in NFL history that the AFC Championship Game was held at the same stadium for three consecutive years.

The Chiefs would face off against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl LV on Feb. 7, 2021 in a rematch of the Week 12 regular season matchup. With the game being played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team would play a Super Bowl in its home stadium.

Due to COVID-19 protocols, the events leading up to the Super Bowl were held virtually and the Chiefs did not arrive in Tampa until the day before the game.

Although the Chiefs won the regular season matchup, the Buccaneers controlled the majority of the contest. Tampa Bay, led by Brady and a stout defensive front, limited the Chiefs to just nine points on three field goals by Butker en route to claiming the Lombardi Trophy and preventing a Kansas City repeat with a final score of 31-9.

A few weeks into the offseason on March 4, the Kansas City Chiefs and GEHA announced that GEHA will be the exclusive naming rights partner for Arrowhead Stadium. Beginning with the 2021 NFL season, the home of the Chiefs would become known as GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The top players and coaches of the 2020 NFL season were honored at the annual 101 Awards on March 6 in a virtual event. Clyde Edwards-Helaire was named the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the team's top rookie or first year player while Travis Kelce was the recipient of the Derrick Thomas Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.

On March 11, the club announced that they had released tackles Fisher and Schwartz, leaving holes along the offensive line.

The Chiefs immediately worked to solve that problem and bolster the offensive line by signing guards Joe Thuney and Kyle Long on the first day of free agency a week later, followed by C Austin Blythe at the end of the month. The club also signed DT Jarran Reed as a new addition to the defensive line.

The week of the 2021 NFL Draft, the Chiefs made a splash with a trade to acquire two-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle Orlando Brown from the Baltimore Ravens. The Chiefs traded their 2021 first-round pick (31st overall), third-round pick (94th overall) and a fourth-round pick (136th overall), along with a 2022 fifth-round pick in exchange for Brown, a second-round pick in 2021 (58th overall) and a sixth-round pick in 2022.

Kansas City Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced on May 1 that former center Tim Grunhard is the 2021 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Grunhard was the 50th individual and 46th player to earn this coveted honor. Grunhard, a Pro Bowl center, spent 11 years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1990-2000), appearing in 169 games with 164 starts, including a streak of 120 straight starts from Sept. 5, 1993 - Oct. 29, 2000, the fourth-longest starting campaign in franchise history. His toughness and grit helped pave the way for Marty Schottenheimer's physical running attack that was a staple of Chiefs football in the 1990s.

After a year away due to Covid, on July 23, rookies and quarterbacks reported to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Mo. for Chiefs training camp. This marks the first season in NFL history where teams played 17 regular season games and only one team had first-round bye for the playoffs.

The Chiefs went 3-0 in preseason games against San Franscisco, Arizona and Minnesota, with the first two being road games.

Kansas City began the 2021 regular season in a divisional round rematch at home against the Cleveland Browns. After the Browns took an early lead going into half time, the Chiefs ended up winning 33-29. They sealed the win on a late interception by CB Mike Hughes, a 197 yard game from Hill and two touchdowns from Kelce.

The team struggled early in the season. After seven games, the Chiefs were 3-4 and sat at the bottom of the AFC West for the first time in the Patrick Mahomes era.

The club played in Philadelphia in Week 4 of the regular season (10/3). With a 42-30 win over his former team in his return to the City of Brotherly Love, Head Coach Andy Reid earned his 100th total win with the Chiefs (93 regular season, seven postseason). When paired with his 140 total victories at the helm of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1999-2012, he became the first head coach in NFL history to accumulate 100 total victories with two separate franchises.

The Chiefs went on an eight game win-streak, winning nine of their last 10 games of the season after the 3-4 start.

During that win streak, Kansas City played the Raiders twice with a combined total 89-23. In the first matchup, Mahomes threw for five touchdowns, Williams posted 144 scrimmage yards and a touchdown, while Kelce had 119 yards on eight receptions. P Tommy Townsend completed an 18-yard pass to WR Marcus Kemp on a fake punt to extend a fourth down play in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs ended up winning 41-14. In the second matchup, in Kansas City, the Chiefs ran away with the win scoring 48 points to the Raiders nine. Mahomes went 20 for 24 on completions for 258 yards and two touchdowns while Edwards-Helaire added two rushing touchdowns. The Kansas City defense completely dominated, not letting Las Vegas get into field goal range until the end of the second quarter. The defense sacked Raiders QB Derek Carr four times for a total loss of 17 yards.

Kansas City played the Dallas Cowboys (11/21) at home right before the bye week, making it their fourth win in a row. Jones established a single-game career-high with 3.5 sacks (-20.0 yards) of Dallas QB Dak Prescott, including sacks on back-to-back plays in the second quarter with a forced fumble on the second of the two sacks. In addition to a single-game career-high, it marked the club's first time having a player record 3.5 or more sacks in a game since OLB Dee Ford recorded 3.5 sacks at Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2016. It ties for the ninth-best single-game sack performance in team history. For Jones, it marked his 11th-career multi-sack performance and his first multi-sack game since recording 2.0 sacks vs. Cleveland (9/12/21) to open the 2021 season. For the fourth game in a row, the Chiefs defense allowed 17 or fewer points while also allowing 350 or fewer total yards to the opposing offense.

The Chiefs won both of their games against the Denver Broncos during this season, registering their 13th-consecutive victory against the Broncos dating back to the 2015 season. That extended the club's record for longest winning streak against a single opponent in franchise history, and tied for the sixth-longest winning streak against a single opponent in NFL history (since 1970). In the second matchup versus the Broncos (1/8), Hardman recorded his career first 103-yard game on eight receptions. At halftime, the Chiefs were down 14-10. RB Jerick McKinnon caught a 14-yard pass from Mahomes to put Kansas City up 17-14. The Broncos came back with a touchdown and Butker netted a field goal, making the score 21-20 Broncos in the fourth quarter. With 7:42 left in the fourth, DE Melvin Ingram forced a fumble of Broncos RB Melvin Gordon and rookie LB Nick Bolton took the ball to the house on a 86-yard fumble recovery to give the Chiefs the lead at 28-21. The Broncos scored a field goal with four minutes left to make the final score 28-24, Chiefs.

After losing to the Chargers earlier in the season during Week 15, Kansas City traveled to LA to take on the Chargers for the second time this season. The Chiefs extended their win streak in an overtime thriller to beat the Chargers 34-28. Kelce recorded a career-high 191 yards on 10 receptions with two receiving touchdowns, including a fourth-quarter seven-yard score and the game-winning 34-yard catch-and-run touchdown in overtime. The contest marked Kelce's franchise-record-extending 29th career 100-yard receiving game, ranking as the third-most by a tight end in NFL history. Hill finished the game with 12 receptions for 148 yards and a touchdown. It marked his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and his 18th-career 100-yard performance. Per ESPN Stats and Info, for the second time in their careers, Kelce and Hill each had at least 10 receptions and 100 receiving yards. They're the first duo in NFL history with multiple such games. The first time they did it was Week 11 (11/19/18) at the Los Angeles Rams.

Throughout the last five home games of the year, the Chiefs defense held teams to 10 or less points, outscoring teams in a combined score of 98-44. The Chiefs are tied for fifth in the most consecutive home games allowing 10 or fewer points, regular and postseason, since 1970. During this stretch, the defense registered 314 total tackles, 15 sacks and nine interceptions, including a 75 yard interception returned for a touchdown against Denver by S Daniel Sorensen (12/05/21).

Kansas City won at least 12 games in each of the past four seasons, becoming the fifth team in NFL history to record at least 12 victories in four consecutive seasons. The Chiefs join the New England Patriots (8, 2010-17), Indianapolis Colts (7, 2003-09), Denver Broncos (4, 2012-15) and Dallas Cowboys (4, 1992-95). This season also marked the third time since 1990 that a team won 12+ games after winning no more than three of their first seven contests in the same season.

2022 — Kansas City closed out the regular season with a loss to the Cincinnati Bengals (1/2), breaking their eight game win streak and with a win at Denver (1/8).

The Chiefs set a number of new franchise records during the 2021 regular season, including most passes completed (448), most passes attempted (675), most passes completed in consecutive seasons (868), most passes attempted in consecutive seasons (1,305), most net passing yards in consecutive seasons (9,645), most first downs (419) and most passing first downs (267). The team also moved into top-five spots in a number of statistical categories, including most net yards (6,746), most net passing yards (4,791), most total touchdowns (57), most offensive touchdowns (53), most points scored (480) and most first-quarter points scored (130).

Defensively, rookie Bolton led the team in tackles with 112 total tackles and 11 tackles for loss. Jones led the team in sacks with 9.0 for a loss of a total 65.5 yards. Mathieu led the team in interceptions with three, while LB Willie Gay, CB L'Jarius Sneed, Sorensen and CB Charvarius Ward tied for second most with two interceptions. Both Mathieu and Sorensen returned interceptions for touchdowns.

After not receiving the first round bye, Kansas City hosted the AFC Wild Card against the Pittsburgh Steelers, a team they just played three weeks prior. The first time the two teams played, the Chiefs clinched the AFC West division title for a record setting sixth-consecutive time, breaking the previous three-way tie for the longest streak of consecutive division titles in AFC West history (5; Oakland, 1972-76; Denver 2011-15). The sixth-consecutive division title in 2021 tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history dating back to 1970. Reid won his 102nd regular season game in Kansas City, passing Chiefs Hall of Fame coach Marty Schottenheimer (101) for sole possession of second place in franchise history. Reid now only trails PFHOF coach Hank Stram's franchise record of 124 regular season victories.

The Chiefs beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 42-21 in the Wild Card round, scoring the third-most points in a postseason game in franchise history, trailing behind only performances of 51 points vs. Houston in the 2019 AFC Divisional round (1/12/20) and 44 points at Indianapolis in the AFC Wild Card round (1/4/14). Kelce recorded five receptions for 108 yards with a touchdown reception and adding a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Byron Pringle. Kelce also recorded his seventh-career 100-yard postseason receiving game, which ranks as the second most 100-yard receiving games in NFL history, trailing only PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (8). The game was Kelce's fourth-straight 100-yard postseason game, tied for longest such streak in NFL postseason annals with WR Larry Fitzgerald (1/3/09 – 2/1/09) and WR Antonio Brown (1/3/15 – 1/15/17). With his two-yard touchdown pass to Byron Pringle in the fourth quarter of the game, Kelce became just the second tight end in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass in the postseason, joining Trey Burton, who completed a one-yard touchdown pass to QB Nick Foles for the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl LII (2/4/18).

For the second time in the season, Kansas City hosted the Buffalo Bills, but this time it was for the AFC Divisional round. The game ended in stellar fashion with an eight yard overtime touchdown grab by Kelce for the Chiefs to win 42-36. Kansas City recorded 552 total net yards of offense in the win, setting a new franchise record for a postseason game. Mahomes finished the game completing 33 of 44 passes (75.0%) for 378 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions, good for a 123.1 passer rating. His 33 completions are the most in a single postseason game in franchise history, his 44 attempts are the fourth most in a single postseason game in franchise history and his 75.0 completion percentage is the fourth-best single-game mark in franchise postseason history. Mahomes added seven carries for a game-high 69 yards (9.9 avg.) and added an eight-yard touchdown rush. His 69 rushing yards are the most by a quarterback in a single postseason game in franchise history. Hill caught 11 passes for 150 yards (13.6 avg.) with a 64-yard touchdown in the game. His 11 receptions are the second-most by a player in a single postseason game in franchise history.

The Chiefs won six consecutive playoff games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, extending the club's franchise record and tying for the 10th-longest home playoff winning streak in NFL history, dating back to the 1970 merger. The win over the Bills and a Tennessee Titans loss allowed the Chiefs to host a fourth-consecutive AFC Championship game. Kansas City became the first team in NFL history to host three home playoff games.

The Chiefs hosted the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship game (1/30). Kansas City started off hot taking a 21-10 lead going into halftime. Mahomes threw three touchdowns (10 yards to Hill, five yards to Kelce and three yards to Hardman) on 26 of 39 passing, with 275 passing yards. The Bengals quickly caught up as the Chiefs offense stalled in the second half, making the game 24-21. Butker tied the game at 24-24 to advance into overtime for a second game in a row. The Chiefs lost 27-24 on a field goal made by Bengals kicker Evan McPherson.

Kelce, Sorensen and LS James Winchester all appeared in their 15th career postseason game with the club, establishing a new franchise record for most postseason games played. With his 10 catches in the Bengals game, Kelce owns 106 career postseason receptions, passing Rob Gronkowski for the most by a tight end in NFL history and the third-most by any player in league history.

The top players and coaches of the 2021 NFL season were honored at the annual 101 Awards on March 26 in a virtual event. LB Nick Bolton was named the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the team's top rookie or first year player while S Tyrann Mathieu was the recipient of the Derrick Thomas Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.

Throughout the offseason, the Chiefs lost more than two dozen contributors from the 2021 season, many of whom were also core players for the club's back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2019 and 2020. Between free agency and trades, General Manager Brett Veach was able to re-stock the Chiefs roster with players at key positions of need on both sides of the ball.

Defensively, the Chiefs orchestrated two key transactions in March. First, Clark restructured his contract and on March 17, the Chiefs agreed to terms with former Houston Texans S Justin Reid. With the loss of Mathieu in free agency, Reid brought veteran experience and quickly emerged as a new leader on defense.

During the month of March, the Chiefs also made major moves to their wide receiver room. On March 20, the Chiefs signed WR JuJu Smith-Schuster as a free agent. Three days later, the Chiefs traded Hill to the Dolphins for five draft picks: a 2022 first-round pick (29th overall), second-round pick (50th overall) and fourth-round pick (121st overall), along with fourth- and sixth-round picks in the 2023 NFL Draft. A couple of days later, on March 24, the Chiefs signed wide receiver Marquez Valdes-Scantling to continue transforming the receiver position.

Other offensive offseason moves the Chiefs made included signing RB Ronald Jones II in free agency and re-signing McKinnon. Between the two, the Chiefs added 12 years of NFL experience and six playoff berths. Both had also been a part of Kansas City's two recent Super Bowls appearances, although sporting the opposing teams' colors (Jones II with the Buccaneers in 2020 and McKinnon with the 49ers in 2019).

Through late April into early May, the Chiefs drafted 10 players and signed 11 players in college free agency. The Chiefs 2022 draft class was loaded with defensive talent. In the first round, the Chiefs picked up CB Trent McDuffie and DE George Karlaftis. The Chiefs added more talent to the receiver room with the addition of Skyy Moore in the second round.

Kansas City Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced on April 30 that former fullback Kimble Anders would be the 2022 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Anders was the 51st individual and 47th player to earn this coveted honor. Anders spent his entire 10-year NFL career with the Kansas City Chiefs (1991-2000), appearing in 125 games with 94 starts. His 125 games played for the team are tied for the second most by a running back or fullback in franchise history. Anders was named to three-straight Pro Bowls following the 1995-97 seasons, becoming the first running back or fullback in franchise history to earn three consecutive trips to the NFL's annual all-star game.

On May 12, the National Football League announced the regular season schedule for the 2022 season. The Chiefs were slated to play in five prime time contests in the announcement, including three nationally televised games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. No other team has more than five prime time slots. The regular season schedule featured nine games versus eight playoff teams from 2021.

On June 16, Kansas City was named one of 11 U.S. host cities for the 2026 FIFA World Cup. The Kansas City Sports Commission, along with the Chiefs, Sporting KC, the Royals and elected officials had been working on the city's bid for seven years before FIFA made its announcement. Any 2026 World Cup matches in Kansas City will be contested at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Renovations will have to be made to convert the American football stadium into a regulation FIFA fútbol pitch. Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt was a known soccer fan and played an integral role in the popularization of soccer in the U.S. Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said his father would be "over the moon" to have the honor to host World Cup games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Coaches, rookies and quarterbacks reported to Missouri Western State University for Chiefs Training Camp presented by Mosaic Life Care on July 22, while camp opened to fans on Wednesday, July 27. This marked the club's 12th training camp at MWSU in St. Joseph, Mo.

Arrowhead Events closed out the summer with country stars Kenny Chesney and George Strait (with Chris Stapleton) performing at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on July 2nd and July 30th, respectively, before turning attention to the preseason. The Chiefs kicked off August and their preseason slate by taking on the Chicago Bears on the road, falling 19-14. The team rallied to defeat their final two preseason opponents, taking down Washington 24-14 and Green Bay 17-10 at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. General Manager Brett Veach and his personnel staff evaluated the roster making a move to acquire DE Carlos Dunlap and keeping all 10 draft picks on the roster to head into the regular season.

On August 24th, Chiefs Kingdom suffered the loss of Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson. Dawson was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame both as a player and a broadcaster, and was a figurehead of the Kansas City community. Dawson helped lead the Chiefs to their first two Super Bowl appearances, and first Super Bowl win. Dawson earned seven All-Star/Pro Bowl accolades and was twice a first-team All-Pro in his career. To honor Dawson, many players, coaches and staffers donned Len Dawson tribute hoodies as the Chiefs took the field against the Green Bay Packers. The team also unveiled a No. 16 helmet decal on their helmets which the team would wear for the entirety of the 2022 season. After taking a moment of silence to honor Dawson, Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes, along with many other starters who typically would not have played in this preseason game, took the field in a "choir huddle" formation – a signature of Dawson's.

The club's 2022 regular season start was marked by four major events for the Chiefs organization, including the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and the Chiefs hosting The Kickoff Luncheon. The excitement continued when for the first time in Kansas City history, the Chiefs worked alongside the First Fridays committee to create "First Fridays with the Chiefs" in anticipation of the team's season opener in Arizona. On Sept. 8th, the Kansas City Chiefs opened their second Chiefs Fit flagship location which opened just in time for Red Friday, a day of giving, on Sept. 9th, with net proceeds benefiting the Ronald McDonald House. The Chiefs sold Red Friday flags at participating McDonalds locations, bringing Chiefs Kingdom together for good. In the past nine years, these efforts have raised more than $4.6 million dollars for families in the Kansas City area who are supporting children suffering from an illness.

The 2022 season opened on the road against the Arizona Cardinals (9/11) at State Farm Stadium, the host site of Super Bowl LVII in February 2023. Despite the youth on the team, the Chiefs had a dominant performance. Mahomes threw for 360 yards and five touchdowns with a quarterback rating of 144.2. Mahomes' performance marked the sixth time in his career in which he's had five or more touchdown passes. Rookie running back Isiah Pacheco rushed for 62 yards with a long of 22 yards and one touchdown. The Chiefs foreshadowed their return to State Farm Stadium with a 44-21 victory over the Cardinals. It was the club's eighth straight season-opening victory.

The Chiefs had their home opener and hosted the inaugural Thursday Night Football on Amazon Prime game (9/15). The club started its season at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium with a close match against the Los Angeles Chargers. Chiefs rookie CB Jaylen Watson had a 99-yard pick-six to put the Chiefs up 24-17 in the fourth quarter in the eventual 27-24 win. Jones was able to get to Chargers QB Justin Herbert for 2.0 sacks (-8.0 yards) which moved him into the top five for career sacks in Chiefs history with 51.5.

In Week 4 of the regular season, the Chiefs took on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (10/2) led by QB Tom Brady in what would be his final season. Against a defense that had not allowed more than 14 points to an opponent and had allowed just 27 points through the first three weeks, the Chiefs offense put up 41 points.

Mahomes made a quick trip to Lubbock, Texas, in October where he became the eighth player to be enshrined in Texas Tech's most prestigious group of athletes, the Ring of Honor, before the Chiefs took on the Las Vegas Raiders in Week 5 (10/10) for the Crucial Catch game which aims to raise awareness and funds for diagnosing and treating cancers. The Chiefs were able to pull off a 30-29 win with a historic performance from Kelce as he found the end zone for all four of Mahomes' touchdown passes. With just 25 receiving yards, Kelce tied the franchise record for most receiving touchdowns in a game (RB Jamaal Charles 12/15/13). The team then took on the Buffalo Bills (10/16) at home suffering a 24-20 loss against their foe before going back on the road to San Francisco to take on the 49ers (10/23) and close out October. The Chiefs walked away with a win after putting up 44 points against San Francisco's defense who had previously averaged just 14.8 points allowed per game and no more than 28 points all season.

The Chiefs Week 9 matchup against Tennessee went into overtime, marking the first overtime game and overtime victory of the Chiefs 2022 season. Butker connected on a 28-yard go-ahead field goal giving the Chiefs the 20-17 lead in overtime. During the Titans matchup, the Chiefs honored Chiefs legend and former fullback Kimble Anders with his induction into the Chiefs Hall of Fame. Finally, the Titans game marked the first game in a Chiefs uniform for WR Kadarius Toney after Veach and company acquired Toney in a trade with the New York Giants.

In Week 10, the Chiefs returned to the GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium to defeat Trevor Lawrence and the Jacksonville Jaguars (11/13) 27-17 after a scrappy matchup in which Mahomes had 331 yards passing for four touchdowns to four different receivers (TE Travis Kelce, WR Kadarius Toney, WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling and TE Noah Gray). This also marked the Chiefs Salute to Service game honoring active military service members and veterans.

While hosting the Los Angeles Rams on November 27th, the Chiefs celebrated American Indian Heritage Month in a variety of ways. Prior to kickoff, the Blessing of the Four Directions was conducted by Alan Fletcher, Chief/Spokesman of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma and Chief of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma Chief Gary Batton. Many other members of Native tribes were honored throughout the game. The Chiefs defeated the Rams 26-10 before embarking on a three-game road stretch.

The Chiefs started their time on the road with an AFC Championship rematch against the Cincinnati Bengals. The two teams met on December 4th with the Bengals barely outscoring the Chiefs, 27-24. Over 20 Chiefs players participated in the Week 13 League initiative, My Cause My Cleats, in which players had the opportunity to pick a cause important to them and represent their chosen organization on custom-designed cleats.

Upon returning to Kansas City, Mahomes hosted the third-annual 15 and the Mahomies Gala where his charity gave out nearly $400,000 in charity grants. Many of his Chiefs teammates came to support the event which supports initiatives focusing on health, wellness and communities in need specifically for children. Mahomes was announced as the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year Nominee presented by Nationwide.

On the second week of the team's three-week road stretch, the Chiefs secured their first of two wins over the Broncos (12/11). Mahomes found Smith-Schuster for a four-yard pass to the end zone to put the Chiefs up by 12 heading into the fourth quarter after the Broncos scored 21 unanswered points. The game also marked a historic point in Kelce's career. With 71 receiving yards against the Broncos, Kelce eclipsed 10,000 career receiving yards, making him the fifth tight end in NFL history to surpass 10,000 receiving yards. The Chiefs won 34-28.

With just one victory and one tie before facing the Chiefs, the Texans put up a fight forcing the Chiefs into overtime but ultimately falling to the Kansas City offense. RB Jerick McKinnon sealed the game with a 26-yard rush into the end zone, rushing for 52 total yards and putting the Chiefs up 30-24 for the win. The victory over Houston also clinched the Chiefs seventh consecutive AFC West title.

On December 21st, seven Chiefs players were named to the 2023 Pro Bowl. The seven players selected from the Chiefs made them one of two teams with seven selections, with only the Eagles sending more (eight). The selections included: QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, T Orlando Brown, G Joe Thuney, C Creed Humphrey, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend.

The Chiefs faced frigid temperatures on their Christmas Eve game versus the Seattle Seahawks but the holiday spirit helped propel them to a 24-10 win to close out 2022. With the victory over Seattle, the Chiefs completed another sweep of their NFC opponents, going 4-0 for the third consecutive season (NFC South, 2022; NFC East, 2021). RB Jerick McKinnon scored on a nine-yard pass from Mahomes, marking his sixth total touchdown over four weeks. McKinnon earned AFC Offensive Player of the Month for his performances.

2023 - To start the new year, the Chiefs took on the Broncos at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The 27-24 win over the team's AFC West rival extended their win streak over Denver to 15; the franchise record for most consecutive wins against a single opponent. It is the third-longest win streak against a single opponent in NFL history and the longest active streak. QB Patrick Mahomes started his 2023 making history. With 328 passing yards, Mahomes surpassed the 5,000-yard mark for the season with 5,048 passing yards. This was his second season with 5,000+ passing yards (5,097 in 2018), making him just the third player in NFL history to record multiple seasons with 5,000+ passing yards. The only other players to do so are QB Drew Brees (five seasons) and QB Tom Brady (two seasons). Mahomes also became one of two players, joining Brees, with two career seasons of 5,000+ passing yards and 40+ touchdown passes. Only four other quarterbacks have managed the feat once.

To close out the regular season and divisional play, the Chiefs faced the Raiders (1/7) in Week 18, walking away with a 31-13 victory and going 6-0 against the AFC West. The club has now gone 6-0 against the AFC West three times under Reid (2016, 2019). With their 14th win of the season, it marked the second time in franchise history the club posted a 14-win season. Mahomes added to his records, breaking the NFL record for total yardage in a season with 5,614 yards, passing QB Drew Brees' previous mark of 5,562 yards from 2011. McKinnon stayed hot, recording another receiving touchdown, his ninth of the season. His touchdown extended his streak to six consecutive games with a touchdown reception. Bolton also rewrote history to close out the regular season. With 16 tackles against Denver, his season total moved to 180 tackles (108 solo), the most in Chiefs history in a single season. The previous record was held by LB Derrick Johnson with 179 tackles in 2011. Bolton also set a new record for 10+ tackle games in a season with 10 games.

The Chiefs earned the No. 1 seed, giving them a first-round playoff bye. The Chiefs had several more players honored for their performance through the 2022 regular season. QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend all earned AP first-team All-Pro honors. G Joe Thuney and C Creed Humphrey earned second-team All-Pro selections. On January 19, 2023, the NFL announced that the Kansas City Chiefs had been designated to play one of two international games in Germany during the 2023 season.

On January 21st, the Chiefs started their postseason journey against the Jacksonville Jaguars. Kelce opened the game with an eight-yard touchdown reception from Mahomes before the Jaguars tied it back up. In the second quarter, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium held their breath as Mahomes limped off the field with an injured ankle. Backup QB Chad Henne was put into the game and went on to drive 98 yards down the field sealing the scoring drive with a one-yard pass to Kelce. Both teams struggled to score in the third quarter, but Chiefs Butker converted a 50-yard field goal putting the Chiefs up 20-10. The Chiefs were able to hold off the Jaguars to advance to the AFC Championship Game after winning 27-20. On January 23rd, four Chiefs were named to the PFWA "All-NFL Team" including Mahomes, Kelce, DT Chris Jones and P Tommy Townsend.

The Chiefs faced the Cincinnati Bengals in the AFC Championship Game (1/29), a rematch of the 2021 AFC Championship Game in which the Bengals kept the Chiefs from going to their third-straight Super Bowl. The game marked the fifth-straight AFCCG game hosted at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The speculation about Mahomes' ankle injury was a key storyline leading up to the highly anticipated matchup. Injuries plagued the Chiefs during the AFCCG with key receivers Smith-Schuster and Hardman both sustaining injuries making them unable to finish the game. Rookie WR Skyy Moore stepped up alongside WR Valdes-Scantling and practice squad receiver Marcus Kemp. Valdes-Scantling ended the day with 116 receiving yards and a touchdown deep in the back of the end zone. The Chiefs defense knew they had to step up and posted 5.0 sacks with DT Chris Jones leading the way with 2.0, which marked his first career postseason sacks. The rookies on the Chiefs defense didn't back down from the challenge. Rookie CB Jaylen Watson had a second-quarter interception only to be followed up in the fourth quarter with a pass deflection from rookie S Bryan Cook into the hands of fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams. With the game tied, Moore was called upon for punt returns after injuries sidelined the other punt returners. In the moment Chiefs Kingdom needed him, he delivered, returning it 27 yards and helping position Butker for a 45-yard field goal to send the Chiefs to their third Super Bowl in four years.

The Chiefs returned to State Farm Stadium where they started their 2022 season in Glendale, Arizona. Super Bowl LVII held many emotions for those involved and two Chiefs members in particular. Reid would be facing the Philadelphia Eagles where he served as head coach for 12 years (1999-2012). Kelce and his family made history and headlines throughout the Super Bowl week as Kelce and his older brother, Eagles C Jason Kelce, would be the first set of brothers to face each other in a Super Bowl. Jason has played for Philadelphia for his entire 12-year career which included time being coached by Reid.

On February 12, 2023, the Chiefs kicked off against the Eagles for Super Bowl LVII. The Chiefs started four rookies, tying the record for most rookies to start in the Super Bowl. The Chiefs and the Eagles exchanged trips to the end zone but the momentum of the Eagles was slowed when Eagles QB Jalen Hurts fumbled and Bolton was able to pull off a scoop and score, returning it 36 yards to tie the game 14-14. It was the first Eagles' turnover of the postseason. The Eagles then had two unanswered scores, a touchdown and a field goal, putting them up 24-14 as the Chiefs trotted into the locker room for halftime.

Despite having re-aggravated his ankle injury in the first half, Mahomes kept the Chiefs opening second-half drive alive with a 14-yard rush helping to set up rookie Pacheco's rushing touchdown putting the Chiefs back within three points. The Eagles came back with a long drive taking time off the clock, but a crucial tackle from Bolton forced the Eagles to settle with a field goal, putting the Eagles back up by six points. Mahomes and Smith-Schuster connected four times to help get the Chiefs down the field before setting up for 'Corn-Dog,' a play in which misdirection allowed WR Kadarius Toney to walk into the end zone for a touchdown. The Chiefs took the lead for the first time in the game 28-27 just a few minutes into the fourth quarter.

Travis Kelce celebrates Super Bowl LVII win

With a third-down pressure from Gay, the defense was able to force the Eagles into a three-and-out for the first time that evening. Toney had one of the biggest plays of the game – a 65-yard punt return to put the Chiefs at the Philadelphia five-yard line. Toney's 65-yard return was the longest punt return in Super Bowl history. The Chiefs offense quickly made their way to the end zone,this time with a four-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to rookie Moore, giving the Chiefs their largest lead of the night at 35-27. Eagles QB Jalen Hurts and company made their way back down the field and found the end zone for six points before converting a two-point attempt tying the game up for the second time with just over five minutes to play. The Chiefs managed the clock over the next five minutes best displayed by the heads up play by McKinnon when he stopped short of the end zone to keep the clock running. With 11 seconds left, Butker converted a 27-yard field goal for the final score of the game. The Chiefs defeated the Eagles in Super Bowl LVII 38-35.

On February 15th, the Chiefs brought the Lombardi trophy back to Kansas City for their second parade in four years. Fans filled the streets as buses made their way to Union Station where the team and staff members celebrated their accomplishment. Mahomes capped off his 2022 season accomplishments with being named Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. He was named AP NFL MVP prior to the Super Bowl.

On the heels of a Super Bowl victory, Kansas City was host to the 53rd Annual 101 Awards. Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes was voted as the AFC Offensive Player of the Year while Philadelphia Eagles QB Jalen Hurts was voted NFC Offensive Player of the Year. Chiefs DT Chris Jones was voted to AFC Defensive Player of the Year and rookie RB Isiah Pacheco was voted the Mack Lee Hill Award winner for the most outstanding rookie voted on by his Chiefs teammates.

Just a few weeks after his Super Bowl victory, Kelce hosted Saturday Night Live making him part of a small group of NFL players to be a host. His monologue impressed fans and critics alike and his episode featured cameos from his brother Eagles C Jason Kelce and teammate C Creed Humphrey. He is the only active Chiefs player to ever host SNL.

As the Chiefs continued to relish in their Super Bowl victory, Veach and his staff prepared for the 2023 NFL Combine in Indianapolis while also making free agency moves. The Chiefs signed T Jawaan Taylor, DE Charles Omenihu and S Mike Edwards. Coaching changes were also made as Chiefs quarterbacks coach Matt Nagy was promoted to offensive coordinator and former NFL WR Todd Pinkston was added to the mix as running backs coach. Additional promotions and additions were also announced. On March 21st, the Chiefs signed LB Drue Tranquill through free agency and the city continued to prepare to host the 2023 NFL Draft in April.

Veach and his staff continued free agency by signing WR Richie James and QB Blaine Gabbert. On April 25th, the club announced they had been granted IHMA Rights for Austria and Switzerland, further extending the club's international footprint. On April 28, 2023, Kansas City hosted the 2023 NFL Draft welcoming hundreds of thousands of people to Union Station as the Chiefs once again hoisted the Lombardi Trophy and made a first-round pick. With pick number 31, the Chiefs selected DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah who has been a life-long fan of the Chiefs and a Kansas City native. The Chiefs added six additional players to the roster via draft picks. During the Draft festivities, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt announced that former Chiefs KR/WR Dante Hall will be the 2023 inductee into the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

As May began, the Chiefs began to acclimate their rookies with rookie mini-camp. The NFL also announced that the Chiefs would be playing the Miami Dolphins in Frankfurt for the 2023 Germany Game before announcing the rest of the 2023 schedule on May 11th.

On June 4, 2023 the Chiefs mourned the loss of the Hunt family matriarch, Norma Hunt.

"Mom was steadfastly devoted to her family and fiercely passionate about her family's sports teams. She was by our father Lamar's side every step of the way -- from the merger of the AFL and the NFL to the formation of Major League Soccer, World Championship Tennis, the North American Soccer League, and their founding investment in the Chicago Bulls," the Hunts said in their statement. "She was the only person we knew who rivaled his love of sports. The two of them found such joy together, whether at home, or in stadium stands around the world.'

Norma attended every Super Bowl and a few months before her passing, watched the team she loved hoist the Lombardi Trophy for the third time in franchise history.

To mark the last day of 2023 OTAs, the team celebrated their Super Bowl LVII victory one more time with the ring ceremony on June 15. The ring encompassed many facets of the team's history, paying homage to Chiefs Founder, Lamar Hunt, with his quote, "Arrowhead Stadium is my favorite place on Earth." The ring, made by Jostens, is 16 carats, features a removable top that can convert to a pendant and shines with over 600 diamonds.

The Chiefs opened the 2023 preseason with a loss in New Orleans, before taking on the Cardinals in Arizona for a 38-10 win. They closed out the preseason with a 33-32 win against Cleveland as they looked towards the regular season with their eyes set on back-to-back Super Bowl wins, a feat that hadn't been accomplished since the 2003-04 New England Patriots.

To start the regular season, the Chiefs hosted the Lions for the NFL Kickoff game (9/7). Prior to gametime, the Chiefs revealed their Super Bowl LVII banner inside the stadium to put a bow on last season's Super Bowl victory. WR Rashee Rice made the most of his first NFL reception, hauling in a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to tie the game, 7-7. With 0:37 left until halftime, TE Blake Bell caught a four-yard touchdown pass to put the Chiefs up 14-7, going into halftime. With a quiet second half, the Chiefs only points came from Butker who converted on two field goals from 35 and 39 yards which was not enough to match the two second half touchdowns from the Lions. Down two starters, DT Chris Jones and TE Travis Kelce, the Chiefs fell short and lost, 20-21.

Kansas City picked it up and went on a six-game win streak heading into Week 8 with a record of 6-1. The team hit the road, facing their AFC West rivals, the Denver Broncos. Having just played in Week 6, the teams were more than familiar with each other. Unlike Week 6, the Chiefs could not pull out the win, scoring only nine points which all came from K Harrison Butker in the first half with a score of 9-24. This loss against the Broncos snapped a 16-game win streak which was the longest win streak against a single opponent in franchise history. The streak also ties for the third-longest win streak against a single opponent in the NFL since 1970.

From all the way in Frankfurt, Germany, the Chiefs took on the Miami Dolphins (11/5). Being the second year that the Chiefs had marketing rights in Germany, Chiefs Kingdom took over the city. To anchor the Chiefs appearance in Frankfurt, the club docked a custom-wrapped, Chiefs-themed boat on the banks of the Main River in central Frankfurt called the "ChampionShip", in honor of the club's Super Bowl titles. The boat served as the central hub of activity and entertainment throughout the club's stay in Germany. When it was gametime, Kansas City started off hot scoring 21 unanswered points in the first half, six coming from a defensive touchdown by S Bryan Cook after stripping Dolphins WR Tyreek Hill. In the second half, the offense slowed down. However, Kansas City's defense held their own and allowed only 14 points the whole game, which was enough for KC to hold on to win, 21-14, heading into the bye week.

Coming out of the bye week, the Chiefs would face off against the Philadelphia Eagles in a rematch of Super Bowl LVII (11/20). In addition, this game recognized American Indian Heritage Month and was the Salute to Service Game. During pregame, the Blessing of the Four Directions was conducted by members of the Kickapoo Nation of Kansas, the Young Bucks of the Omaha Nation performed the blessing of the drum and honor song, the Choctaw Nation Honor Guard presented the colors and former Chiefs LB Donnie Edwards, a member of the Apache Indian Nation, served as the Drum Honoree. Also, during the game Gary Johnson, a member of the American Indian Community Working Group, was recognized as the Lamar Hunt Legacy Seat honoree and the American Indian Code Talkers presented the game's Hometown Heroes by Chief Gary Batton of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma. WR Justin Watson kicked off the scoring with a three-yard touchdown reception from QB Patrick Mahomes to put the Chiefs up 7-0 in the first quarter. After the Eagles scored a touchdown on the next drive, the Chiefs responded quickly when TE Travis Kelce connected with QB Patrick Mahomes on a four-yard touchdown pass to put the Chiefs up 14-7. Kelce's touchdown marked the 74th receiving touchdown of his career, the second-most receiving touchdowns in franchise history. With under a minute left to play in the first half, K Harrison Butker converted on a 43-yard field goal extending the lead to 17-7 going into halftime. The Chiefs were held scoreless in the second half while the Eagles scored two second half touchdowns topping the Chiefs, 17-21.

On the first week of the team's two-week game road stretch, the Chiefs secured a win over the Raiders, 31-17 (11/26). The Chiefs defense allowed just 17 points marking the 11th straight game of 2023 that the defense has held their opponent to 24 or fewer points. The streak of 11 consecutive games is the fourth longest streak in Chiefs history to start a season. Dating back to Week 15 of the 2022 season, the Chiefs allowed fewer than 24 points in 15 straight games, tying for the fifth-longest streak in Chiefs history.

With the win over the Raiders, Head Coach Andy Reid also took sole ownership for the most regular season wins by a head coach in Chiefs franchise history, passing PFHOF Head Coach Hank Stram. Reid – who is also the all-time winningest head coach in Philadelphia Eagles history – joined Dan Reeves (Broncos and Falcons), Tom Coughlin (Jaguars and Giants) and Tony Dungy (Buccaneers and Colts) as the only four coaches to rank in the top two in all-time wins for two different NFL franchises. Reid now is the winningest coach for two different NFL franchises, the only coach in NFL history to do so.

On the second week of the team's road stretch, the Chiefs took on the Green Bay Packers (12/3). The Packers controlled the first half, scoring two first half touchdowns compared to the Chiefs two field goals. RB Isiah Pacheco opened the second half scoring with a one-yard touchdown run on the Chiefs opening third-quarter drive. The next time the Chiefs scored was in the fourth quarter when TE Noah Gray hauled in a two-yard pass from QB Patrick Mahomes keeping the Chiefs in striking distance with a score of 19-21. However, two unanswered field goals from the Packers secured the win over the Chiefs, 19-27.

Back home at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, the Chiefs hosted the Bills (12/10). The Bills started out fast, gaining a 14-0 lead. With under two-minutes left to play in the first half, RB Jerick McKinnon ran in a seven-yard touchdown to give the Chiefs their first score of the night, narrowing the Bills lead to 14-7. Coming out of the half, the score remained tight for the rest of the game. With a 27-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker in the fourth quarter, the score was tied, 17-17. After the Bills chewed 5:03 off the clock, Bills K Tyler Bass converted a 39-yard field goal, making the score 20-17 and leaving 1:57 to play. With 1:25 left, QB Patrick Mahomes threw a pass to TE Travis Kelce. With a cinematic play, Kelce lateraled it to WR Kadarius Toney who ran it 24 yards into the endzone. During the play, a flag was thrown and after further review, an offsides call was enforced, calling the touchdown back. Unable to reach the endzone again, the Chiefs fell to the Bills, 20-17.

KC was able to bounce back in Week 15 in New England (12/17). Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid and Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick are the only two coaches in NFL history to have their teams meet when the coaches have combined for 500 or more regular season victories with each coach owning at least 200 wins in their careers. In the first quarter, Chiefs RB Jerick McKinnon threw his first touchdown pass of his career with a four-yard pass to rookie WR Rashee Rice. His pass to the endzone put the Chiefs up 7-0 en route to their 27-17 win.

On Christmas Day (12/25), the Chiefs faced the Raiders. Despite Mahomes' 235 passing yards and a passing touchdown, the Chiefs played from behind in all but three minutes of the game. Unable to dig themselves out of the hole, the Chiefs fell to the Raiders. This game would be the final loss in a historic late-season turnaround.

Still looking to secure the AFC West title, the Chiefs took on the Bengals. In a dominate game, the defense held the Bengals scoreless in the second half and totaled 6.0 sacks by five different players for a loss of 38.0 yards. K Harrison Butker converted a career-high six field goals and one PAT for a single-game career-high 19 points. This performance earned him the Week 17 AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. With Kansas City's 25-17 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals, the Chiefs claimed their eighth-consecutive AFC West title, extending their record for the longest consecutive streak of division titles in the history of the AFC West. It also marks the second-longest streak of division titles in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Chiefs now qualified for the playoffs for nine-consecutive seasons (2015-23), tying for the second-longest streak of consecutive playoff appearances in NFL history.

2024 - Entering 2024 and closing out the regular season, the Chiefs defeated their AFC West opponent, the Los Angeles Chargers (1/7), 13-12. In this game, DT Chris Jones recorded another sack giving him 10.5 on the season and tying DE George Karlaftis for the team lead. Jones reached double-digit sacks for the third time in his career and for the second year in a row, moving him into fifth place in franchise history for career sacks with 75.5 sacks. Having already clinched their eighth-straight AFC West title, many notable starters got rest and backups were highlighted. QB Blaine Gabbert took the field for his first start as a member of the Chiefs and went on to connect on 15 completions for 154 yards. His 15 completions on the day helped the offense close out the season with 421 completed passes, ranking as the third-most in a season in Chiefs history. On the defensive side of the ball, the Chiefs showed a knack for shutting down opposing offenses in the second half against the Chargers. After allowing only six points in the second half against LA, the Chiefs defense ended the year allowing just 120 total second-half points, the fewest in the NFL. With 10+ tackles by LB Cam Jones, he became the second player this season, along with S Mike Edwards, to record 10+ solo tackles in a game. He became the sixth different Chiefs defender to have 10+ tackles in a game this season, joining LB Nick Bolton, S Mike Edwards, CB Trent McDuffie, S Justin Reid and LB Drue Tranquill.

With a regular season record of 11-6, the Chiefs entered the playoffs as the three seed. Offensively, QB Patrick Mahomes recorded his sixth-consecutive season of 4,000+ passing yards (4,183), tying him with QB Tom Brady and PFHOF Peyton Manning for the sixth-longest streak of such kind. This season, several Chiefs players were honored for their standout performances. In Week 12, Mahomes was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week and in Week 17, K Harrison Butker was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Additionally, CB Trent McDuffie, DT Chris Jones and G Joe Thuney earned AP first-team All-Pro honors.

On January 13th, the Chiefs hosted the Dolphins for the AFC Wild Card game. This game was the coldest game ever played at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium and the fourth coldest game in NFL history. With a kickoff temperature of -4 degrees and a windchill of -27, it was the third coldest kickoff wind chill in NFL history. The Chiefs defense held Miami to just seven points, after the Dolphins averaged 29.2 in the regular season, the second-highest in the league. It was the fewest points the Chiefs have allowed in a playoff game since they shut out the Texans in Houston in the 2015 Wild Card Round Game (1/9/16) and the seventh time in franchise history that they have held an opponent under 10 points in a postseason game. The Chiefs defense shut out the Dolphins in the second half, holding them to just one-of-seven on third down conversions and allowing just one-of-twelve all game. It marks the second-fewest third down conversions allowed and the second-lowest third-down percentage allowed in a postseason game in franchise history (since 1991).

Mahomes had a 28-yard rush on a fourth-and-five which earned a fresh set of downs and passed RB Marcus Allen (386) for the franchise record for most postseason rushing yards with 425. Kelce ended the game with seven receptions for 71 yards and is just the third player in NFL history with more than 100 career postseason receptions, joining PFHOF WR Jerry Rice and WR Julian Edelman (118). Rookie WR Rashee Rice earned his first postseason start and scored the Chiefs first touchdown by pulling in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to put the Chiefs up 7-0. With under a minute left before halftime, Rice caught a 39-yard pass from Mahomes to put the Chiefs in field goal range. Butker converted the 26-yard field goal to put the Chiefs on top, 16-7. Rice finished the day with 130 yards on eight receptions, both career postseason highs and both marks are also Chiefs rookie single-game postseason receiving records. Rice also earned the sixth-place spot in league history for receiving yards in a playoff game by a rookie. On special teams, Butker kept his momentum in tough temperatures, converting all four of his field goals, with kicks of 28, 26, 32 and 21 yards, respectively. His four made field goals set a new franchise record for most field goals made in a postseason game. His 14 points marked the fourth most points in franchise history for a single postseason game which helped the Chiefs to a 26-7 victory.

The Chiefs went on the road to Buffalo, traveling in the postseason for the first time in Mahomes' seven-year career, to face the Bills in the AFC Divisional Round Game (1/21), marking the teams' fifth time playing each other in three seasons (regular and postseason). Mahomes was unphased, throwing for 215 yards, going 17-for-23 with two touchdowns, both to TE Travis Kelce. With his two TDs to Kelce, the pair connected on 16 postseason touchdowns, passing QB Tom Brady and TE Rob Gronkowski (15) for the most QB-pass catcher TDs in NFL postseason history. After trailing until late in the second quarter, the Chiefs defense had a fourth quarter shutout to secure the win. A three-yard tackle for loss by LB Drue Tranquill put the Bills in a third-and-five situation. Karlaftis got his hand on the next pass from Bills QB Josh Allen, forcing the incompletion with his pass defensed. LB Leo Chenal then took down S Damar Hamlin short of the line-to-gain on a direct-snap fake punt rush. After the Bills got the ball to the Kansas City 27-yard line on what would be their final drive of the night, the Chiefs defense put their foot down again. On first down, NT Mike Pennel and Tranquill stopped Bills RB James Cook for just a one-yard gain. The Chiefs then forced back-to-back incompletions, including a quarterback pressure by DE Charles Omenihu on third-down forcing the Bills to attempt a 44-yard field goal. Bills K Tyler Bass missed the kick wide right, and the Chiefs were able to run out the clock on the 27-24 victory.

The Chiefs continued their road run and visited M&T Bank Stadium to play the AFC one seed, the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game (1/28). Mahomes started hot, completing his first 11 pass attempts, the most consecutive pass attempts completed to start a game in Chiefs playoff history. TE Travis Kelce had a big first half, hauling in nine catches for 96 yards. His 96 receiving yards passed his own previous franchise record (94, Jan. 16, 2022 vs. PIT) for most first half receiving yards in a Chiefs postseason game. The nine catches were the third most in the first half of a playoff game in NFL history tying PFHOF TE Shannon Sharpe (Jan. 9, 1994 at LA Raiders) and himself (Jan. 24, 2021 vs. BUF). RB Isiah Pacheco punched in the Chiefs second touchdown of the game on a two-yard run early in the second quarter giving the Chiefs a 14-7 lead. Pacheco had a rushing touchdown in four-consecutive postseason games dating back to Super Bowl LVII against the Eagles, the second-longest such streak in Chiefs postseason history. He now owns the fourth-most postseason touchdowns in Chiefs annals. CB L'Jarius Sneed was able to stop Ravens WR Zay Flowers from scoring after Ravens QB Lamar Jackson connected on a 54-yard pass to put them on the KC 25 yard-line. After the clock ran out for the third, Sneed forced a fumble on Flowers at the KC nine yard-line which, CB Trent McDuffie recovered in the endzone for a touchback. This marked Sneed's first forced fumble in his postseason career and McDuffie's first postseason fumble recovery. The defensive unit continued their fourth quarter dominance and held the Ravens to just three points in the fourth quarter in the Chiefs 17-10 victory. The Chiefs punched their ticket to Super Bowl LVIII, the club's fourth Super Bowl appearance in five years.

On February 11, 2024, the Chiefs faced the San Francisco 49ers at Allegiant Stadium in Super Bowl LVIII. When Mahomes took the field for Super Bowl LVIII, he marked his fourth Super Bowl appearance and his fourth in five years. He is now the eighth quarterback in league history to start in four or more Super Bowls. Only two QBs have played in more than four, PFHOF QB John Elway and QB Tom Brady.

On the opening drive of Super Bowl LVIII, Chenal forced a fumble from 49ers RB Christian McCaffrey that was recovered by Karlaftis in the first quarter. This was Chenal's first forced fumble in his postseason career and Karlaftis' second postseason fumble recovery of his career after his recovery in the AFC Championship Game against the Ravens. Later in the first quarter, P Tommy Townsend sailed a 62-yard punt, tying for the fourth-longest punt in Super Bowl history and was the longest postseason punt of his career. Down by 10, the Chiefs put their first points on the board after Butker converted a 28-yard field goal to keep the Chiefs in striking distance, 10-3, going into halftime.

After a slow start to the second half with a turnover on their first drive, Butker gave the Chiefs some needed momentum by knocking in a 57-yard field goal. This field goal eclipsed the NFL record for the longest field goal in Super Bowl history, a record set at 55-yards in the first half of this game by 49ers K Jake Moody. The kick was the longest in Chiefs postseason history and ties Butker with three other kickers for the third-longest field goal in NFL postseason play. This momentum continued to the Chiefs next drive when Townsend punted on a fourth-and-two which was muffed and recovered by CB Jaylen Watson. With the ball on the San Francisco 16 yard-line, WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling hauled in a 16-yard pass from Mahomes to put the Chiefs up 13-10 in the third quarter and taking the lead in Super Bowl LVIII for the first time.

After the 49ers QB Brock Purdy connected on a 10-yard touchdown pass with 11:27 to play to open the fourth quarter, Chenal was able to block Moody's extra point attempt, with a recovery by rookie DB Chamarri Conner. Chenal's block kept the score within a field goal at 16-13 and was 16-16 after Mahomes took 5:36 off the clock before a 24-yard field goal by Butker. In the final two minutes of the fourth quarter, Moody knocked in a 53-yard field goal and Butker followed with a 29-yard field goal that tied the game with six seconds left to play, after Mahomes and company drove 64 yards to the 49ers 11 yard line. For just the second time in Super Bowl history, overtime commenced.

Super Bowl LVIII going to overtime marked the first postseason overtime since the NFL adopted new overtime rules in 2022, giving each team a possession with the ball. The 49ers opted to receive after winning the coin flip. After a 66-yard drive, the 49ers converted a field goal putting them up 22-19. The Chiefs then had their opportunity to strike and Mahomes took matters into his own hands on a third-and-one with a 19-yard scramble. His rush got them to the 49ers 13-yard line and just three plays later, Mahomes connected with WR Mecole Hardman for a three-yard touchdown pass with 0:06 left in overtime, sealing the 25-22 victory.

Mecole Hardman celebrates Super Bowl LVIII win

The Chiefs franchise won its fourth Super Bowl and appeared in six. With six Super Bowl appearances in franchise history, the Chiefs had the sixth-most Super Bowl appearances in the Super Bowl era. This Super Bowl win made it back-to-back victories, becoming the first team to win back-to-back Super Bowls since the 2003-04 New England Patriots. With two back-to-back Super Bowl appearances (2019-20), the Chiefs became one of eight franchises to have multiple back-to-back Super Bowl appearances. It marked the ninth time in NFL history that a team won back-to-back Super Bowls.

Shortly after winning Super Bowl LVIII in Las Vegas, the City of Kansas City celebrated the Chiefs historic achievement with a second-consecutive parade and rally. Celebrating with the city, region, and beyond, Chiefs players, coaches and staff rode on floats through downtown to Union Station where the rally took place. Shortly after the conclusion of the rally, senseless gun violence erupted near the site of the rally. Tragically, one life was lost and others were injured. To help victims of this tragedy, the Chiefs, ownership, the League and many others stood with the victims through significant donations to United Way of Greater Kansas City's KC Strong fund, which recently distributed more than $2 million dollars to victims of the tragedy and more than a dozen local organizations doing vital work in the community.

On March 22, players and coaches were awarded at the 2023 NFL 101 Awards ceremony. QB Patrick Mahomes was recognized as the Derrick Thomas Award recipient as the team's MVP and rookie WR Rashee Rice was honored as the Mack Lee Hill Award recipient, the team's best rookie or first year player.

In the 2024 offseason, the Chiefs drafted seven rookies. The Chiefs 2024 draft class included first-round draft pick WR Xavier Worthy, who ran a 4.21 40-yard dash at the NFL Combine, setting a new combine record. With an offensive-heavy draft class, five of the seven draft picks are on the offensive side of the ball with three being lineman.

The offseason also brought a key departure from the team. CB L'Jarius Sneed was traded to the Tennessee Titans. General Manager Brett Veach and his team made other moves to ensure that the defensive unit remained strong. This included restructuring DT Chris Jones contract as well as LB Drue Tranquill to keep them on the team and keep the defense dominant.

The Chiefs also signed President Mark Donovan, General Manager Brett Veach and Head Coach Andy Reid to contract extensions. Chiefs Chairman and CEO said "Mark, Brett and Andy have achieved historic success together, and we are thrilled that they will continue in their roles for many years to come," Hunt said. "Individually, Mark, Brett and Andy each represent the best in the National Football League at their respective positions, and together, they make up one of the finest leadership teams in all of professional sports. They have been tremendous leaders for this organization on and off the field, and we look forward to their continued success in the years ahead."

On the last day of the club's 2024 OTAs, the club came together to celebrate back-to-back Super Bowl wins with their ring ceremony on June 13th. Nelson Atkins Museum gave a beautiful backdrop to a historic celebration as all players, coaches and staff from the 2023 season came together to receive their rings. The ring featured many meaningful details including 22 diamonds to represent the points scored in the second-half and overtime to win Super Bowl LVIII, 19 diamonds to represent 11 winning seasons and eight-straight AFC West titles, 11 princess-cut rubies to represent the 11 regular season wins and four marquise diamonds to represent the four Super Bowl titles in franchise history. On the inside, Coach Reid's mastermind is on display, with the game-winning touchdown play, 'Tom and Jerry' inscribed on the inside, along with the game's date and 17 miniature gold-leaf confetti pieces to represent the 17 points scored in the AFC Championship Game.

After a few weeks of rest and relaxation, the team reported to Missouri Western State in St. Joseph, Missouri on July 16 to start the journey of something that has never been done before – a three-peat.

In an effort to complete a feat never-before-seen in the National Football League, the Kansas City Chiefs began the preseason in Jacksonville and then spent the next two weeks at home against the Lions and Bears. Although winless, the Chiefs remained poised and ready to compete in the regular season.

The Chiefs hosted the Baltimore Ravens for the NFL Kickoff game (9/5) and unveiled their banner celebrating back-to-back Super Bowl wins. At the start of the 2023 AFC Championship Game rematch, rookie sensation WR Xavier Worthy scored his first big league touchdown after taking an end-around 21 yards to the house to tie the game, 7-7. Two field goals from K Harrison Butker gave the Chiefs a 13-10 lead going into the half. RB Isiah Pacheco rumbled into the end zone for a one-yard score putting the Chiefs up by 10 on the opening drive of the third quarter of play. QB Patrick Mahomes found Worthy for a 35-yard touchdown pass extending the Chiefs lead to 27-17. After a last-second score was overturned, the Chiefs escaped ensuing overtime and opened the season 1-0.

On the second week at home, the Chiefs hosted the Bengals on Sept. 15, 2024. The first quarter of play was notched at 3-3 before the Bengals ended up scoring first to create a seven-point lead. An eventual 44-yard touchdown strike down the sideline to WR Rashee Rice evened the score at 10-all nearing the middle of the second quarter. Cincinnati tacked on two more field goals leading the Chiefs 16-10 at the half. Right out of the gate to open the second half, Head Coach Andy Reid reached into his bag of tricks. OL Wanya Morris broke off into the flat after reporting as an eligible receiver and hauled in a one-yard touchdown from Mahomes. Chiefs Kingdom erupted into a frenzy as the Chiefs put themselves ahead by one, 17-16. The Bengals quickly responded with another touchdown but missed the point after attempt making the score 22-17. Starting the fourth quarter, a defensive masterclass was put on by Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo's crew. DB Chamarri Conner took a 38-yard scoop-and-score to the house after DE Mike Danna brought down Bengals QB Joe Burrow. Cincinnati was able to capitalize on their next opportunity knocking down a 53-yard field goal making the score 25-23. On the last possession of the game, the Chiefs offense drove down the field finding themselves in field goal range where K Harrison Butker was able to slam the door as time expired after nailing a 51-yard walkoff field goal making the score 26-25 Chiefs.

In response to an early injury to RB Isiah Pacheco suffered against the Bengals (9/15), the Chiefs had to answer some questions regarding the running back situation two weeks into the season. The decision was made to bring back free agent RB Kareem Hunt, who was with the team during the 2017-18 seasons, to the active roster shortly before the Week 4 matchup against the Chargers. Hunt sprang into action as the game's lead back carrying the ball 14 times in the 17-10 victory over the AFC West rival. Although the game ended with a victory, WR Rashee Rice suffered a season-ending knee injury en route to what was shaping up to be a massive year for the second-year receiver.

Despite offensive struggles, especially at the left tackle position, and gruesome injuries to some of the team's biggest stars, the Chiefs rallied behind their resiliency of their defense led by Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo and the genius of Coach Reid helping the team focus on each week one game at a time. Riding a five-game win streak into the Week 6 bye, the Chiefs were able to rest and regroup before traveling to Santa Clara, California for a highly anticipated Super Bowl rematch against the 49ers (10/20). The Chiefs ended up scoring four touchdowns on the ground, two coming from RB Kareem Hunt, as the team remained undefeated. Since the second Super Bowl victory in franchise history in 2019, the Chiefs are undefeated in the regular season and the playoffs against San Francisco with a record of 4-0.

The team then hit the road to face another AFC West rival in Las Vegas (10/27) after recently acquiring WR DeAndre Hopkins from a trade with the Titans to address some needs on the outside. The presence of Hopkins opened up the field for TE Travis Kelce who wasn't receiving the usual workload that so many in Chiefs Kingdom are used to. Kelce hauled in 10 receptions for 90 yards and scored his first touchdown on the year as the Chiefs won 27-20.

Coming back home for a two-week stint at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, the next two home victories were anything but routine. The offense was firing on all cylinders in a tight game against a scrappy Tampa Bay team. A week after his first game with the Chiefs, WR DeAndre Hopkins caught two touchdowns on eight catches for 86 yards. Kelce put up a monster performance hauling in 14 receptions for his only 100-yard game of the year one week removed from catching 10 passes. RB Kareem Hunt recorded his second 100-yard rushing performance and found the end zone to secure a 30-24 overtime victory against the Buccaneers (11/4). The following week, a pure defensive battle ensued between the Chiefs and Broncos (11/10). With one second left on the clock after a timeout taken by Denver, Kansas City standing on their own 12-yard line as the Broncos set up a chip shot field goal, LB Leo Chenal quickly became the hero of the city after diving in to block the potential game-winner helping the Chiefs win 17 of their last 18 divisional matchups since 2015.

Finally, the Chiefs would then take their unbeaten record into Highmark Stadium for the Week 11 (11/17) matchup that everyone had circled on their calendars. The regular season matchups, dating back to 2021, between two of the NFL's top teams highly favored Buffalo as the Bills were 3-0 over the course of the last three years. Early adversity struck the Chiefs after QB Patrick Mahomes was intercepted two plays into the game's first scramble would then put the Bills up by nine with 2:27 left to go in the game's final quarter. Another interception on Kansas City's final drive of the game wrapped up the night for the Bills and ended the Chiefs bid as the last unbeaten team left in the league. Coach Reid and his team made sure to remember that there was still a lot of football to be played and a later matchup against the Bills is more likely than not. "The undefeated thing was cool. But that's not our ultimate goal. So, we'll keep building toward that," Mahomes said.

With the pressure of staying undefeated now off their shoulders, the Chiefs picked right back up from where they left off before Buffalo. A season sweep of the Raiders and Chargers came in back-to-back weeks (11/29 and 12/8), both ending in a final score of 19-17. In that Chargers game on December 8th at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, K Matthew Wright helped the Chiefs clinch their ninth-consecutive AFC West title with a 31-yard field goal as time expired in what will be known as "A Doink for The Division" for years to come. The celebration was on for that night and that night only because there was still work to be done. A dominant win in Cleveland kicked off a brutal stretch of three games in 11 days for the Chiefs. Earning another win against Houston six days later was no small task either. The Chiefs were able to secure a first-round bye and home field advantage in the playoffs after a commanding win in Pittsburgh against the Steelers on Christmas Day, closing the door on the third game in a little over a week and a half wrapping up the perfect Christmas present for the Chiefs faithful.

2025 - Now, as the AFC West, playoffs, first-round bye and home field advantage were all clinched ahead of the last regular season game of the year against Denver (1/5), Head Coach Andy Reid decided to give his starters some much needed rest as they entered the new year before the playoffs began. Backup QB Carson Wentz was given the start against the Broncos and a lot of the younger players were able to gain some authentic in-game experience. The Chiefs were not able to leave Empower Field at Mile High with a win, but with their starters healthy and the regular season put away, the Chiefs had their sights set on another Lombardi Trophy.

Along with earning a franchise-best record of 15-2, several Chiefs were honored for their outstanding performances throughout the season. In Week 4, DT Chris Jones was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week and in Week 10, LB Leo Chenal was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Three members of the Kansas City Chiefs earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors. G Joe Thuney, C Creed Humphrey and DT Chris Jones were each recognized for their efforts. Additionally, CB Trent McDuffie was honored with a Second-Team All-Pro selection. Including the three First-Team All-Pro linemen, TE Travis Kelce and G Trey Smith were also selected for the 2025 Pro Bowl Games.

On January 18th, the Chiefs hosted the Houston Texans for the AFC Divisional Round game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. The Texans had just recently visited the Chiefs at home in the final weeks of the regular season (12/21) where they lost 27-19. A couple of early field goals made the score 6-3 with the Chiefs ahead at the end of the first quarter. A one-yard rushing score from RB Kareem Hunt came late in the second quarter to put the Chiefs up by 10, but shortly before halftime, the Texans were able to add on three points before heading into the locker room with a score of 13-6. Coming out of the half, the only points scored in the third quarter came from a rushing touchdown from Texans RB Joe Mixon putting the Texans within one point from tying the ballgame. As always, the connection between QB Patrick Mahomes and TE Travis Kelce emerged for an 11-yard touchdown making the score 20-12. Kelce tallied 117 yards on seven catches with a touchdown giving him 2,020 career postseason receiving yards. He joined PFHOF WR Jerry Rice (2,245) as the only two individuals in NFL history with 2,000+ career receiving yards in the postseason. His touchdown reception from QB Patrick Mahomes marked the pair's 18th postseason touchdown connection, further extending their NFL record for the most QB-TE touchdown connections in the postseason.

With the aid of another field goal from K Harrison Buter to make it a two-score ball game, the Chiefs were up 23-12 and just had to manage the game until time expired. In a strategic effort to run out as much time on the clock as possible, Assistant Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator Dave Toub had P Matt Araiza run out of the Chiefs own end zone for a safety instead of punting the ball back to Houston. With the final score of 23-14 and a Divisional Round win, the Chiefs advanced to their seventh-straight conference championship game. Head Coach Andy Reid also recorded his 300th career win (regular season and postseason combined). He became just the fourth head coach in NFL history to reach the 300-win mark.

Due to their home field advantage earned back in Week 17, the Chiefs prepared to host the AFC Championship Game against the Buffalo Bills (1/26), setting up yet another same-season rematch. Even though the Bills had recent success in the regular season, the playoff success belongs to the Chiefs as of late. After the 2023 Divisional Round game against the Bills ended on a missed field goal to keep the Chiefs Super Bowl hopes alive, the 2024 postseason matchup had its fair share of drama as well. An early touchdown on the ground from RB Kareem Hunt quickly put the Chiefs up by seven in the first quarter. The Bills then answered with a field goal, ending the first quarter with a score of 7-3. Buffalo would then add onto their recent field goal with a six-yard rushing touchdown giving them a three-point lead at the start of the second. WR Xavier Worthy would establish an early connection with QB Patrick Mahomes by taking an 11-yard pass to the house making the score 14-10, Chiefs. Mahomes then added to the short lead with a one-yard rushing touchdown giving the ball back to the Bills with just over a minute left before halftime. A 34-yard touchdown pass from Bills QB Josh Allen would then close in on the Chiefs lead with a score of 21-16 right before the teams hit the locker room. Coming out of halftime, Bills RB James Cook owned the only touchdown of the third quarter after capping off an 80-yard drive that would end in a failed two-point conversion. Mahomes then would take it in himself for a 10-yard rushing touchdown to switch the lead once again back to the Chiefs with a score of 29-22 after adding a successful two-point conversion to WR Justin Watson. Buffalo countered the fourth-quarter score with one of their own tying the game at 29-all with just over six minutes left in the final quarter. K Harrison Butker tipped the lead back over to favor the Chiefs with a 35-yard field goal with 3:33 left on the clock.

The bend-don't-break Chiefs defense had to make one more stand to keep the Bills from getting into field goal range. One final shot remained to try and tie the game and take the AFC Championship to overtime. A surgical blitz dialed up by Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo put pressure on Bills QB Josh Allen forcing a do-or-die fourth-and-five heave that ended up unsuccessful. The Chiefs were able to claim their third-consecutive Lamar Hunt trophy and collect their ninth-straight postseason win all while advancing to their third-straight Super Bowl. Patrick Mahomes was outstanding when it mattered most. He completed 18 of 26 passes for 245 yards with one passing touchdown, good for a 111.9 passer rating. Also, he added 11 carries for 43 yards with a pair of rushing touchdowns. It marked his 13th career postseason game with a 100.0+ passer rating, breaking a tie with PFHOF QB Joe Montana (12) for the second-most 100.0+ passing games in NFL history. The ticket had been punched to the Big Easy to face the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Bowl, marking the second time in three years the two teams have met in the Super Bowl.

HISTORY MADE WITH THREE-STRAIGHT TRIPS TO THE SUPER BOWL

The stage had been set. On February 9, 2025, the Chiefs visited the Eagles at Caesars Superdome in New Orleans for Super Bowl LIX. When Patrick Mahomes took the field, it marked his fifth Super Bowl appearance in six years, joining PFHOF QB John Elway and QB Tom Brady as the only three quarterbacks to play in more than four Super Bowls. Kansas City conjured up some competition at the end of the third quarter and fought the whole way through until there were zeroes on the clock, ultimately losing 22-40.

The Chiefs wrapped up a historical season as AFC West Divisional Champions and AFC Champions yet again, and after 20 weeks of hard-nosed football, the players and coaches were able to enjoy some much-needed time off. Even though the three-peat bid ended up unsuccessful, the Chiefs joined some elite company as there are now only four teams in NFL history to ever play in the Super Bowl three times in a row: The 1971-1973 Miami Dolphins, the 1990-1993 Buffalo Bills (who ended playing in four straight), the 2016-2018 New England Patriots and now the 2022-2024 Kansas City Chiefs.

Along with the team accolades earned during the season, individual awards were given out as well. On January 22, The Committee of 101 named six recipients of the 55th Annual 101 Awards for the 2024 NFL Season. The 101 Awards is the nation's longest running awards program dedicated to the NFL. Founded in 1969 by Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and a group of Kansas City business leaders, the 101 Awards have recognized outstanding players and coaches in the AFC and NFC after each full season since the AFL-NFL merger. Award winners are selected in nationwide balloting of 101 sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the NFL throughout the season. Coach Reid was awarded with the AFC Coach of the Year fresh off a 15-2 record. The record was not only the best in Chiefs history, but also the best in Reid's 26 years as a head coach in the NFL. Coach Reid also concluded the 2024 season with 28 career postseason wins, three wins behind tying HC Bill Belichick for the most career postseason wins of all-time. G Joe Thuney was awarded the Derrick Thomas MVP award voted on by his teammates for his consistency and versatility on the offensive line all season, and Xavier Worthy was the Mack Lee Hill Rookie of the Year for the 2024 season, awarded to Kansas City's best player during their rookie year or first year in the league. Worthy finished second on the team in receiving yards behind TE Travis Kelce with 638 yards and six touchdowns while also adding three more touchdowns on the ground.

There were a lot of things to address in the offseason to prepare for the upcoming 2025 season with the first changes coming to the offensive line. On February 27th, Kansas City placed a franchise tag on G Trey Smith. In using the franchise tag, the Chiefs and Smith agreed to a one-year deal worth $23.4 million for the 2025 season. On July 15th, the two sides were able to come to an agreement, keeping Smith in Kansas City for the next four seasons. As of the start of the new league year, G Joe Thuney was traded to the Chicago Bears for a 2026 fourth-round pick. Kansas City also agreed to a four-year extension with DE George Karlaftis on July 21st.

Throughout a busy free agency period starting with the re-signing of WR Hollywood Brown and LB Nick Bolton, the departure of other key players such as WR DeAndre Hopkins, DT Derrick Nnadi, S Justin Reid, WR Justin Watson and DT Tershawn Wharton opened the door for the addition of new faces such as CB Kristian Fulton, QB Gardner Minshew, RB Elijah Mitchell, OL Jaylon Moore, DE Janarius Robinson and DL Jerry Tillery. The Chiefs worked with QB Patrick Mahomes and DT Chris Jones to restructure their contracts eventually freeing up $49.446 million in salary cap space to aid in the free agency signings. To help anchor the defensive side of the ball with young talent, the Chiefs picked up the fifth-year options for both CB Trent McDuffie and DE George Karlaftis, keeping both of the 2022 draft selections under contract through the 2026 season.

In the 2025 offseason, the Chiefs selected seven rookies in the 2025 NFL Draft. The Chiefs 2025 draft class included first-round draft pick T Josh Simmons who was selected as the final pick of the first round after a trade with Philadelphia. Simmons allowed just one sack during his 2023 season at The Ohio State University and in the 2024 season, he surrendered only one quarterback hurry with no quarterback hits or sacks allowed before suffering an injury in the Buckeyes' sixth game of the year. Kansas City put together a balanced draft class with four of the picks playing defensive positions (DT, DE, CB and LB) and three of the picks playing offensive positions (T, WR and RB). The roster was loaded with a whole new batch of talent as the Chiefs entered OTA's followed by mandatory minicamp.

The club reported back to Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri in preparation for the 2025 season after a much-needed reset. Kansas City hit the ground running during training camp with their sights set on 10-straight AFC West division titles, four-straight AFC Championships and Super Bowl redemption.

The Chiefs opened the season against the Chargers in an international contest in São Paulo, Brazil. The team's matchup in Brazil marked the team's fourth international contest and first in South America.

Ahead of the Chiefs season opener in São Paulo, the team celebrated its 34th Red Friday celebration and in a rare occasion, held the tradition on a Chiefs gameday. While the coveted Red Friday limited-edition flags were sold at locations across the Kansas City region, Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, President Mark Donovan and other members of Chiefs leadership paid a visit to Ronald McDonald House São Paulo. From the Red Friday celebration, over $1 million was raised for children and families who rely on Ronald McDonald House Kansas City for support.

Chiefs 34th Red Friday celebration

The team secured its first team win on Sept. 21st against the Giants in Week 3. QB Patrick Mahomes threw for 224 yards and one touchdown to secure the 22-9 victory. The team kept the momentum going against the Ravens in Week 4, defeating an AFC foe, 37-20. The victory marked Head Coach Andy Reid's 200th game as head coach of the Chiefs and his 163rd win (regular and postseason) with the Chiefs after taking over at the helm in 2013.

The Chiefs fell 31-28 on the road in Jacksonville before a three game win-streak against the Lions, the Raiders and the Commanders. Against the Lions, Mahomes continued to mark history, throwing three touchdowns en route to the clubs 30-17 victory and giving him 302 career touchdowns (regular season and postseason). Mahomes continued to rewrite the history books by becoming the fastest player in NFL history to throw 300+ career passing touchdowns, doing so in 139 games. TE Travis Kelce also continued to shine, leading the team against the Lions with 78 receiving yards and marking his 180th straight game with a pass reception, the longest active streak in the NFL. When the Chiefs faced the Raiders at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in Week 7, Reid and Mahomes claimed their 93rd win as a head coach-QB duo. The pair's 93rd victory passed PFHOF's Hank Stram and QB Len Dawson (92) for the most in Chiefs history. The defense had a historic night as well, shutting out the Raiders 31-0. It was the team's first regular season shutout since Coach Reid became the head coach in 2013 and the club's 21st in team history. Chiefs Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo has had one other shutout performance as a defensive coordinator or head coach which came on Dec. 16, 2012, as defensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints. The team closed their three-game win streak against the Washington Commanders which also marked GM Brett Veach's 300th game in the NFL.

The Chiefs were defeated in Buffalo before the team utilized Week 10 as their Bye Week. Although the Chiefs fell to the Broncos in Week 11, TE Travis Kelce made Chiefs history, surpassing RB Priest Holmes for the most touchdowns in franchise history. Kelce caught his 81st touchdown, giving him 84 total (81 rec., 2 rush, 1 fum.). In Week 12, the Chiefs secured their final win of the season in an overtime thriller against the Indianapolis Colts. The win featured a fourth-quarter shut out by the defense and a game-tying 25-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker. In the victory, QB Patrick Mahomes surpassed 35,000 career passing yards after completing 29-of-46 pass attempts for 352 yards. Mahomes was the fastest quarterback to eclipse 35,000 yards, doing so in just 123 games. Mahomes was also the fastest QB to the 20-, 25-, and 30,000-yard marks.

The Chiefs were on the road for Thanksgiving, playing in Dallas against the Cowboys. It marked the club's first time playing on Thanksgiving since 2006 and the first time playing in Dallas on Thanksgiving since 1995. The Chiefs then hosted Houston and the Los Angeles Chargers in Weeks 15 and 16. Late in the Chargers game, Mahomes suffered a leg injury, later discovering that he had torn his ACL. He was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 17, 2025. QB Gardner Minshew had his first start for Kansas City Week 16 against the Tennessee Titans. Against the Titans, Kelce surpassed 800 receiving yards on the season, giving him 12 straight such seasons, tying him for the most by a player of any position with PFHOF WR Jerry Rice. The club returned home to KC for their Week 17 matchup against the Broncos.

In December, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and Kansas Governor Laura Kelly announced an agreement to build a state-of-the-art domed stadium, mixed-use entertainment district, team headquarters, training facility, and mixed-use development in Kansas. The new home for the Chiefs, set to be completed ahead of the 2031 season, will be financed through a public-private partnership with the public portion being funded through Sales Tax and Revenue (STAR) bonds and the Attracting Professional Sports to Kansas. The projects also include $1 billion in additional development in the State of Kansas. The $3 billion stadium location was announced to be built in Wyandotte County while the new training facility is set to open in the City of Olathe in Johnson County.

2026 – The Chiefs closed out the season in Las Vegas, falling to the Raiders. In the final game of the 2025 season, TE Travis Kelce surpassed 13,000 career receiving yards, doing so in the fewest games of any tight end and the 14th fewest games of any player, regardless of position. Kelce also climbed the leaderboard to the fourth-longest streak of games with a pass reception of all time and the longest active streak with 191 games. DT Chris Jones also recorded 2.0 sacks against the Raiders, bringing his career total to 87.5 sacks and ending his season with the third-most sacks in Chiefs history.

After missing the playoffs for the first time since 2014, the Chiefs immediately turned the page to the next season. The club's player personnel staff, including General Manager Brett Veach, added several free agents to the squad in the offseason including Super Bowl LX MVP RB Kenneth Walker, S Alohi Gilman, and NT Khyiris Tonga. The Chiefs traded for QB Justin Fields and brought back familiar face, CB L'Jarius Sneed, who was with the Chiefs when they raised the Lombardi trophy following the 2022 and 2023 seasons. The Chiefs also had several notable departures including trading CB Trent McDuffie to the LA Rams in exchange for a 2026 first-round pick along with a 2026 fifth and sixth round pick and a 2027 third-round pick.

Coach Reid also bolstered the coaching staff, bringing back OC Eric Bieniemy after he most recently served as the running back's coach for the Chicago Bears. Reid also added Running Backs Coach DeMarco Murray and Wide Receivers Coach Chad O'Shea to the staff. On the defensive side of the ball, Andre Curtis joined as the defensive backs/safeties coach alongside Dave Merritt.

The 2026 NFL Draft took place in Pittsburgh, Pa. and the Chiefs had two first-round picks at their disposal. General Manager Brett Veach and his staff traded up from No. 9 to No. 6 selecting CB Mansoor Delane out of LSU. The Chiefs were back on the clock with pick No. 29, which they acquired from the Trent McDuffie trade, and selected DL Peter Woods from Clemson. Veach and his staff stayed on the defensive side of the ball in the second round, taking DE R Mason Thomas and DB Jadon Canady in the fourth-round. RB Emmett Johnson and WR Cyrus Allen were the first offensive additions to the rookie class, both taken in the fifth round. The club rounded it out with QB Garrett Nussmeier from LSU in the seventh round before adding additional CFAs to the roster.

On the first day of the 2026 NFL Draft, the state of Kansas joined the ranks of 17 other states by sanctioning girls high school Flag Football as varsity sport by receiving overwhelming support in a 61-1 vote from Kansas high school sports leaders. The Chiefs supported this initiative through the team's "Let Her Play" campaign, urging Kansas leaders to expand access and opportunity to high school girls across the state. In total, more than 11,000 members of Chiefs Kingdom supported "Let Her Play" and the sanctioning vote through petitioning.

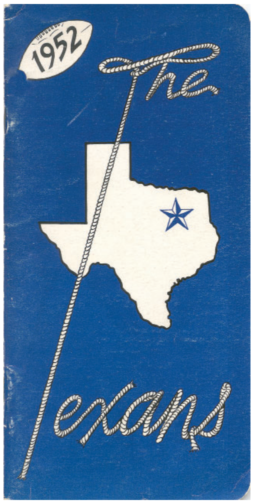
The Chiefs began their journey in May, starting with rookie mini camp, acclimating the newcomers to Chiefs Kingdom. By June, OTAs were underway and Mahomes returned to the field in a limited capacity after spending the offseason rehabbing his ACL. On June 11, the team took a well-deserved break to recover before training camp would begin later in the summer.

In June, Arrowhead Stadium transformed into "Kansas City Stadium" to host six matches during the 2026 FIFA World Cup. For Kansas City's first match, the city witnessed World Cup history as Argentina's Lionel Messi scored his first World Cup hat trick, defeating Algeria 3-0 on June 16. Four days later, the FIFA World Cup's smallest ever competing nation, Curaçao, achieved its first World Cup point after a draw with Ecuador and a record-breaking performance from goalkeeper Eloy Room, who recorded 15 saves, the most in a 90-minute FIFA match. On June 25, hours after a sea of "Oranje" flooded Grand Blvd. in downtown Kansas City, The Netherlands defeated Tunisia 3-1, clinching the Dutch's Group F win and a spot in the Knockout stage. In Kansas City Stadium's final group stage matchup, Algeria and Austria traded blows through the matchup, before a wild extra time finish featuring a 93rd-minute goal by Riyad Mahrez and a last-second 96th-minute goal by Sasa Kalajdzic sent both teams to the Knockout round after a 3-3 draw. During the Round of 32 matchup on July 3, Colombia defeated Ghana 1-0 after a dominant shooting performance, outshooting Ghana 20-8. Eight days later, Argentina defeated Switzerland 3-1 in its Quarterfinal matchup sending the defending champions to play England in the Semifinals. Argentina's Alexis Mac Allister opened the game up in the 10th minute, giving Argentina the 1-0 lead going into the half. Later into the second half, Switzerland broke through after a goal from Dan Ndoye in the 67th minute. The match remained deadlocked until the 112th minute of the match when Argentina's Julián Álvarez put the defending champions up 2-1 after a long-range strike to the top corner of the goal. To seal the victory, Lautaro Martínez scored the final goal for Argentina in the 120th minute of the match. Through the entirety of the 2026 FIFA World Cup, Kansas City led local markets across the country in match viewership, attributing a 4.89 rating and 20 share per match. Attendance wise, Kansas City Stadium hosted 413,169 fans while FIFA Fan Festival hosted more than 400,000 guests.

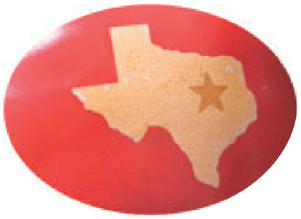
Ahead of Chiefs training camp, the club release renderings and more information regarding the Chiefs new stadium. Dubbed "A Legacy Reimagined," Kansas City based architectural firm MANICA was selected as the lead design group for the new $3 billion stadium set to be finished ahead of the 2031 season. The renderings revealed a 70,000-capacity stadium in Wyandotte County with a fully enclosed ETFE paneled roof and more than 20,000 parking spaces. The stadium is being designed with a focus on crowd noise and tailgating, building upon traditions created at Arrowhead over the course of 54 years. Additionally, Kansas City-based architectural firm Populous was chosen to design the team's new headquarters and training facility, also set to open ahead of the 2031 season. The $300 million practice facility, headquarters, and mixed-use development will be built on approximately 155 acres near the intersection of College Boulevard and Ridgeview Road in Olathe.

In July, the Chiefs reported back to St. Joseph, Mo. to kick off their 16th training camp at Missouri Western State University, preparing their mindset for the season ahead.

CHIEFS LOGO HISTORY



An Inspiration



Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for nearly 63 years.

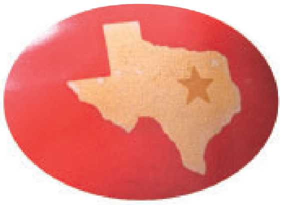
CHIEFS UNIFORM HISTORY

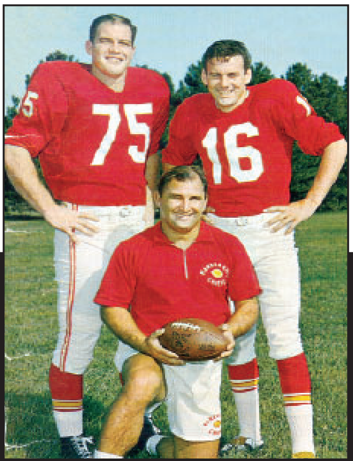
1959 – At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.



Texans Helmet

1960-62 – The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.



Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1963-67 – The Texans moved to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and Head Coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, General Manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 –The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head Coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways with the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

AFL-10 Patch

1970 – Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

1974 – The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

1979-80 – During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams - most notably Dallas - had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

Joe Delaney Patch

Silver Anniversary Patch

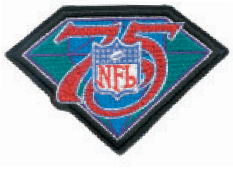
1989 – The arrival of Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

1991 – A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

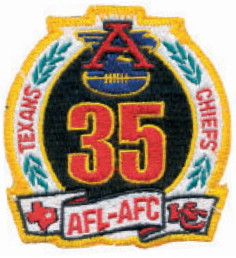
1992 – The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11th. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16th.

WWD Patch

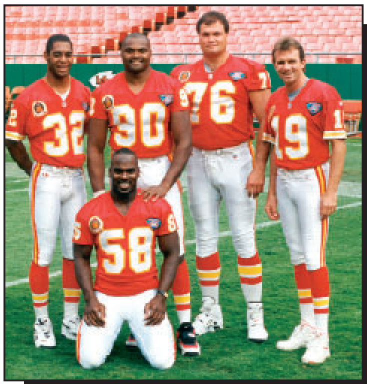
1994 – Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the first time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).



75th Anniversary Patch

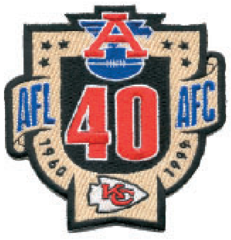


35th Anniversary Patch



RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the first uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Three members of this quintet (Allen, Montana and Thomas) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

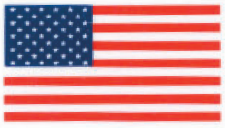
1999 – The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.



40th Anniversary Patch

2000 – The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number “58” on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8th. Ever mindful of Stram’s legacy and the franchise’s glory days, Head Coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt’s blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain part of the club’s road attire.

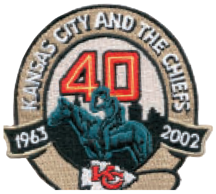
58 Sticker



U.S. Flag Sticker

2001 – A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

2002 – The Chiefs wear a “40th Anniversary in Kansas City” patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise’s 40th season in Mid-America. “The Scout” - Kansas City’s most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City’s downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces the NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.



40th Anniversary in KC Patch

Pat Tillman Sticker

2004 – The Chiefs wear a “40” decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

2005 – The Chiefs wear a circular sticker on their helmets all season bearing the initials “HS” in honor of Hall of Fame Head Coach Hank Stram who passed away on July 4th. Stram compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from ’60-74. He guided the franchise to four AFL titles, two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram’s legacy was remembered all season with the “HS” decal. All NFL teams wear a “Fútbol Americano” decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL’s first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City’s Estadio Azteca.

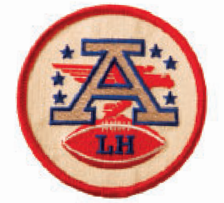
FÚTBOL AMERICANO

Fútbol Americano Sticker

2006 – The Chiefs wear white jerseys and white pants on opening day vs. Cincinnati (9/10/06) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since ’80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren’t a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials “LH” to honor the franchise’s Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17/06). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the “classic” look of that uniform combination.

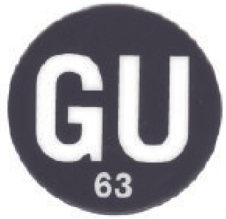
Lamar Hunt Sticker



Lamar Hunt Patch

2007 – Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father’s memory. The design of the patch is historically significant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt’s formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt’s humble spirit, the letters “LH” are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City’s home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a number 21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

Sean Taylor Sticker



Gene Upshaw Sticker

2008 – On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season. All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14/08), a decal bearing Upshaw’s initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

50th Anniversary Patch

AFL 50th Anniversary Patch

2009 – On April 14th, the Chiefs unveil their "50th Anniversary" patch that was worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City wears replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11/09), vs. San Diego (10/25/09) and at Oakland (11/15/09). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

2012 – On April 3rd, Nike became the National Football League's exclusive maker of licensed on-field apparel. With the transition to Nike, the club made a few changes to the looks of the traditional Chiefs uniforms. The numbers on the new uniforms moved from the jersey sleeve to the top of the shoulder while the traditional stripe on the sleeve increased in thickness.

Captain's Patch

2013 – As a sign of new energy at Arrowhead Stadium, Head Coach Andy Reid receives permission from Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt to have the team wear red pants with its home red tops in the 2013 home opener against Dallas (9/15/13). It marks the first time in franchise history that the team wore the red-on-red uniform combination. For the team's postseason game at Indianapolis (1/4/14), the Chiefs captains donned "C" patches on their jerseys.

10/12/23	vs. Denver	W, 19-8

2015 – For the team's final four regular season games, the Chiefs wore white jerseys with white pants and red socks for the first time since 1994. It was the first time the team wore white pants and white jerseys in the regular season since Week 10 in 2012. The Chiefs also brought back the "C" patches for the two postseason games, following the tradition established in the 2013 postseason.

Gray Facemasks

2019 – In honor of the club's 60th season, the franchise introduced a special 60th season logo that was featured prominently in the team's branding, as well as a helmet sticker throughout the entire year. The logo features a combination of the Lamar Hunt patch, "60 seasons" text, the traditional arrowhead "KC" logo, along with six stars, each representing a decade of Chiefs football. The 2019 campaign also marked the NFL's centennial season, and the league replaced the standard NFL shield on jersey collars with a metallic/reflective NFL100 logo. The league also replaced NFL shield stickers on the back of helmets with NFL100 stickers. On November 3, as the Chiefs took on the Minnesota Vikings at Arrowhead Stadium, the Chiefs replaced their traditional white facemasks in favor of gray facemasks as a tribute to the club's victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV and in celebration of the club's 60th season. The team's helmets featured gray facemasks from 1960 until the change to white facemasks in 1974.

Social Justice Decals

2020 – In response to an unprecedented offseason and to honor the historic social justice movement and community engagement of NFL players and clubs, all NFL players, coaches and officials were given the opportunity to honor victims of systemic racism, victims of police brutality, as well as social justice heroes with helmet stickers and patches. More than 1,400 players and 300 coaches and officials, including dozens of Chiefs players and coaches, selected names or phrases to participate. Players also had the opportunity to wear warmup t-shirts with the unifying messages "Injustice Against One of Us, Is Injustice Against All of Us" and "END RACISM."

Rare Combination of White on White Uniforms with Gray Facemasks

2021 – For the December 16 game (Week 15) the Chiefs wore white-on-white uniforms with gray facemasks in their overtime win at Los Angeles versus the Chargers. The team's helmets featured gray facemasks from 1960 until the change to white facemasks in 1974. It is believed the last time Kansas City wore white-on-white with gray facemasks was Week 16 (12/17/67) at Denver in 1967.

2022 - The Chiefs honored former Chiefs and Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson by wearing a number 16 helmet decal after Dawson passed before the Chiefs preseason game against the Packers (8/25/22). Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes and the team opened the preseason game with Dawson's signature choir huddle as a tribute. The team wore the number 16 decal for the remainder of the 2022 season. In Weeks 4 and 5 of the 2022 season, the NFL set in motion an initiative to celebrate the growing number of nationalities and cultures that are included in the NFL. Players and coaches were able to select a helmet decal to represent the country or territory's flag that holds meaning to them or their heritage. Over 200 players, coaches and executives participated, including five Chiefs players: DE George Karlaftis (Greece), DT Derrick Nnadi (Nigeria), WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (Samoa), T Prince Tega Wanogho (Nigeria) and CB Joshua Williams (St. Kitts & Nevis). Many Chiefs players joined in throughout the remainder of the season to represent their heritage.

Norma Hunt Patch

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "SUPER BOWL"

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."

- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.

- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."

- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."

- Rozelle agreed with Hunt's suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term "super." According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle's book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.

- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.

- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."

- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

SUPER BALLS WITH SUPER BOWL CHAMPS

The influence of Lamar Hunt on the naming of the Super Bowl took center stage in December, 2022 as Peyton Manning and the crew of ESPN's mini-show "Peyton's Places" joined Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, Head Coach Andy Reid, QB Patrick Mahomes and former Chiefs Offensive Coordinator Eric Bieniemy to bring the story to life.

The jovial episode aired on December 24, 2022, and featured the show's host and PFHOF QB Peyton Manning. Mahomes and Manning were seen throwing the Super Balls that inspired the name of the Super Bowl off of the top of GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, testing their bouncing ability and jokingly hitting Reid and Bieniemy's golf cart. Bieniemy remarked, "Are those some teenage pranksters?" To which Reid replied with a smile, "That's our franchise quarterback and a 46-year-old retiree," before driving away from the shenanigans of Mahomes and Manning.

The two quarterbacks then upped the ante by dropping 10,000 Super Balls from a helicopter and igniting a cacophony of bouncing and fun.

The Christmas themed episode also featured Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt retelling the story of his father's legacy of naming the Super Bowl as Hunt, Mahomes and Manning gathered around the Christmas tree in Hunt's stadium apartment, all three sporting Christmas sweaters and poking fun at one another. Hunt recalled him and his siblings being gifted the popular '60s toy at Christmas and attempting to bounce them over the house.

HONORING THE FIRST LADY OF FOOTBALL: NORMA KNOBEL HUNT

By Bob Moore, Team Historian

Norma Hunt was one of a small company of persons in whom there is no inconsistency to be explained, no enigma to be solved. What she seemed, she was - a gracious, refined lady of intelligence and wit.

Her husband, Lamar, was arguably the greatest sportsman of the last half-century. And while you may never have seen it, behind the scenes she was a sounding board for many of his ideas and as avid a fan for his beloved Chiefs as anyone who ever lived.

She was there at the founding of the American Football League, the Dallas Texans who became the Kansas City Chiefs, numerous professional soccer enterprises and the world's first truly professionally run tennis tour.

Her death severs one of the last remaining links between what professional football once was and how it became the nation's preeminent sport.

A graduate of North Texas State with a degree in secondary education, she had taken classes with the future Dallas Texans and Kansas City Chiefs running back Abner Haynes, the AFL's first MVP. In high school, she had been part of the Richardson High drill team and it was there that she developed a love for sports and, as author Michael MacCambridge identified in his biography of Lamar Hunt, "the way it served as a social glue for people of different ages and backgrounds."

"Women liked her," MacCambridge wrote, "men were drawn to her, and she became adept at putting people at ease, often while talking about sports."

Lamar had met her when she joined a group of schoolteachers who went about selling tickets for his Dallas Texans games. He quickly noticed her because of her personality. She wasn't self-conscious around him because of his position and wealth. And she knew sports, especially football, knew its strategies and was a quick study.

"I never met a game I didn't like," she said once.

They married on January 22, 1964, in Richardson, Texas, and honeymooned at the Winter Olympics in Innsbruck, Austria. They were together in Austria when they heard that the AFL had completed a new contract with NBC-TV, which would guarantee that the fledgling league had a future among major American sports.

Throughout all of Lamar's sports ventures, Norma was there at his side, traveling to endless World Cup soccer games, college football and basketball games, Chicago Bulls games (Hunt was a minority owner), tennis tournaments, the Indianapolis 500, and of course wherever the Chiefs were playing. The distance and the sport in play made no difference. When the two had dated, they had attended as many as five football games over a single weekend. She is the only woman to have attended each of the first 57 Super Bowls.

She was a presence during finals week of Lamar's World Championship Tennis championship in Dallas, at one time called the sport's "fifth Grand Slam." She mixed well with international media who covered tennis and could converse on a level that surprised them.

But it was in her personal relationships that conjure up the most vivid memories of Norma. She touched the lives of not only countless sports people she met, but also those of fans and their families. She met every person, every player, stadium worker, public official, and fan with a smile no matter what their station in life might have been. She sought to make everyone comfortable in her presence. With her friends, she had singular and remarkable relations. She was always thoughtful, sensitive and interested - but never intrusive. Their pleasure, somehow, became her pleasure, their disappointment, suddenly hers. Their victories were a reason for her to celebrate, and their concerns engaged her patient and sympathetic ear. Acts of kindness extended to her, large or small, were received enthusiastically and gratefully. In short, she reduced life to the essentials.

If she was disappointed with something or someone, you never heard it expressed in angry words. Those who may look at her through the glamour of her position as an NFL owner's wife will be disappointed. Her life was simple for the un-escapable reason that she was a gracious lady. She enriched the lives of her family, her friends and everyone she came in contact with. She also helped shape, proudly for the better, the world of sport as we know it.

Ave atque vale.

NORMA HUNT SUPER BOWL CHAMPION OF EDUCATION PROGRAM

To kick off the 2023 NFL season, the NFL and the Chiefs jointly announced the creation of the Norma Hunt Super Bowl Champion of Education program.

Each year, beginning with Super Bowl LVIII in Las Vegas, a female educator is selected to attend the Super Bowl and be honored for their commitment to education, their dedication in the classroom and their selfless service to the next generation of students.

The program honors Norma's passion for education, her lifelong love of football and her renowned Super Bowl attendance streak. Norma was the only woman to attend every Super Bowl – from Super Bowl I when the Chiefs faced the Green Bay Packers, to Super Bowl LVII when the Chiefs hoisted the third Lombardi Trophy in franchise history.

Norma began her career as a high school teacher. After earning a degree in secondary education from North Texas State University in 1960, she returned to her alma mater at Richardson High School (Richardson, Texas) to serve as an American history teacher.

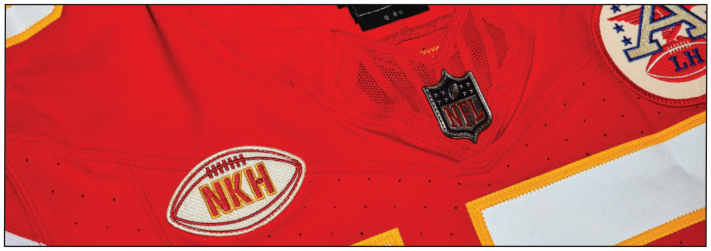
McClellan teaches middle school Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) and American History at Lincoln College Preparatory Academy Middle School in Kansas City, Missouri. She was named the 2022 KCPS Teacher of the Year and was selected as a 2023 Missouri Regional Teacher of the Year.

2023 NKH PATCH

Throughout the 2023 season, players donned a commemorative patch on their home and road Chiefs jerseys featuring Norma's initials – "NKH" – in gold lettering at the center of a football.

The patch was worn on the right side of the jersey, a perfect partner to the patch on the jersey's left side honoring Lamar Hunt and the American Football League. Together, the two patches served as a visual representation of Norma's partnership with Lamar.



FROM THE HUNT FAMILY

> "Our family is deeply saddened by the passing of our mother, Norma. She was a wonderful mother and an extraordinary woman who will be dearly missed by all who knew her.
>
> Kind, generous and unfailingly positive, mom was one of a kind. Her joy and zeal for life were infectious. She loved caring for others, and she always had an encouraging word. She was a loyal friend, the consummate hostess and she had a rare ability to make everyone she encountered feel valued and at ease.
>
> Mom was steadfastly devoted to her family and fiercely passionate about her family's sports teams. She was by our father Lamar's side every step of the way – from the merger of the AFL and the NFL to the formation of Major League Soccer, World Championship Tennis, the North American Soccer League, and their founding investment in the Chicago Bulls. She was the only person we knew who rivaled his love of sports. The two of them found such joy together, whether at home, or in stadium stands around the world."

2023 NFL DRAFT IN KANSAS CITY

NATIONAL ATTENTION

Over the last weekend in April, the NFL took the 2023 Draft to Kansas City. In conjunction with the NFL, the Kansas City Chiefs, Union Station, Visit KC, the Kansas City Sports Commission and local event partners were proud to welcome the 2023 NFL Draft to Kansas City's historic Union Station, the National WWI Museum and Memorial and the downtown Kansas City area. The main stage sat in front of Union Station and was the largest stage built for any NFL Draft to date. The NFL Draft Experience took place on the south side of the National WWI Museum and Memorial, featuring life-interactive exhibits, autograph sessions, photo opportunities with the Vince Lombardi Trophy and more.

According to the NFL, the 2023 Draft footprint was roughly 3.1 million square feet. The area contained 7.5 miles of temporary fence lines and 1.5 miles of concrete barrier. It took more than 500 semi-trailer loads to transport all the gear, which included 168 loudspeakers and subwoofer enclosures, 10,018 square feet of screens and 1,433 LED panels. This was the largest footprint to date for an NFL Draft.

During the three-day event, 312,000 fans were in attendance -- the second-biggest crowd in NFL Draft history at the time. On top of the hundreds of thousands of fans watching in person, there were 54 million viewers across the three platforms that were broadcasting the 2023 NFL Draft -- ABC, ESPN and NFL Network. Viewership was up 13% from the previous year's Draft on the first night with approximately 11.29 million viewers tuning in at home.

Since taking the Draft to football cities, the NFL has also engaged with the local community. According to Director, NFL Environmental Program Jack Groh, the league's four community greening projects that took place in Kansas City around the Draft were the most they have done in a host city to date. On top of the community greening projects, the league hosted a plethora of other community events from character-building initiatives to youth football events and food distribution. The NFL aimed to leave a lasting, positive legacy in Kansas City and throughout the state of Missouri.

CHIEFS FLARE

As reigning Super Bowl champions, the Chiefs got the unique distinction of being able to continue their victory celebration while hosting the NFL Draft. Since the Draft became a traveling event in 2015, no host city was able to showcase the Lombardi Trophy the home team won only a couple of months before. Kansas City became the first, hence getting the privilege to bring in a couple of stars to bask in the glory.

To help NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell kick off the 2023 NFL Draft, comedian Heidi Gardner and actor Eric Stonestreet -- both Kansas City natives and life-long Chiefs fans -- stepped to the podium to address the crowd. Gardner and Stonestreet were then followed by franchise QB Patrick Mahomes, TE Travis Kelce and the Lombardi Trophy. Chiefs legends Dante Hall and Will Shields were also a part of the opening festivities. Later in the night, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt brought the Lombardi out for one last good measure to announce the club's first-round pick, DE Felix Anudike-Uzomah. Ironically, Anudike-Uzomah grew up in Kansas City, played collegiately at Kansas State and has been a die-hard Chiefs fan his entire life.

CHIEFS KINGDOM EXPERIENCE

Uniquely positioned with a view of the NFL Draft Theater that was built in front of the iconic Union Station, the Chiefs Kingdom Experience offered fans the chance to explore Kansas City's rich football culture, while also offering immersive experiences. The largest on-site, club-sponsored Draft activation in NFL history, the space had a distinct Chiefs feel, with flags recreating the architectural styling of Arrowhead Stadium and experiences that brought gameday to life for fans throughout the weekend.

2023 NFL DRAFT IN KANSAS CITY

The Chiefs had a handful of friends help announce the club's draftees to the world. As previously mentioned, Eric Stonestreet was in attendance and was on stage to announce a pick on the third day. The first -- and only -- father-son duo both to be selected in the first round by the same team, Chiefs Legends Ed and Brad Budde, also announced a selection for the team. Other announcers included: Influencer James Droz, City Year Reps Nicole Matos and Madison Wilson, Chiefs German Fan Pascal Lippert and Chiefs Season Ticket Members the Deghand's Family.

The club was also able to invite other local partners to take part in larger league initiatives surrounding the NFL Draft such as handing out hats to draftees before they walked out on stage and assisting Commissioner Goodell on stage when he was announcing a pick. Some of those partners included: Chiefs High School Girls FLAG student-athletes Anneliesse Murphy (Leavenworth High School), Bethany Uribe (North Kansas City High School) and Cora Westebrook (Lee Summit West HS) along with high school student-athletes Mac Armstrong (Bishop Miege), Kendrick Bell (Park Hill), Mikey Bergeron (Mill Valley), Chandavian Bradley (Platte County), Isaiah Coppage (Bishop Miege), Melvin Laster (Liberty North), Joshua Manning (Lee's Summit), Logan Reichert (Raytown) and Dirac Tsafack (Center).

LOCAL IMPACT

Kansas City had never held a sports-related event that attracted as many as 100,000 spectators, much less one that would average that figure over a three-day period. The 2023 NFL Draft brought thousands of football fans across the country -- and across the world -- to the epicenter of Chiefs Kingdom. There was no surprise at the comments made about Kansas Citians' hospitality. NFL spokesman Brian McCarthy said in a statement:

"The sights and smells of the Kansas City Draft will forever be remembered by the fans in attendance, but also by those of us in the league office who are so thankful to the members of the local community for their hard work and hospitality. The success of the 2023 Draft was a testament to the collaboration and cooperation of thousands of people, led by the Chiefs, Kathy Nelson and the Kansas City Sports Commission, sponsors and local law enforcement officials and organizers. Kansas City took advantage of what has become one of the most-anticipated events of the year and the most-watched sporting event of the week and showcased not only its planning capabilities, but its people and passion."

GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL

Following a historic vote on April 23 by the Kansas State High School Activities Association (KSHSAA) Board, girls Flag Football was officially sanctioned as a high school sport in the state of Kansas – marking a historic milestone for student-athletes, schools, and communities statewide.

With the decision, Kansas became the 18th state in the United States to sanction girls Flag Football at the high school level, reflecting the sport's continued nationwide momentum and growing demand for expanded opportunities for female athletes.

The decision came after weeks of widespread community engagement and advocacy, highlighted by a Chiefs-led grassroots campaign that generated overwhelming public support. In total, more than 11,000 individuals signed the "Let Her Play" petition, urging Kansas leaders to expand access and opportunity for girls through school-based Flag Football.

In advance of the vote, members of the Kansas City Chiefs organization – including Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, President Mark Donovan, General Manager Brett Veach, and Head Coach Andy Reid – recorded a video message from the club's Draft Room that was shared with decision-makers ahead of deliberations. The video reinforced the organization's commitment to girls Flag Football, highlighted the strong regional support, and underscored the lasting impact sanctioning would have for students across Kansas.

"Today's vote will make it possible for so many girls across the state of Kansas to play Flag Football," said Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt following the vote. "We're incredibly grateful to the fans, families, educators, school leaders, and communities across Kansas who raised their voices and showed up in support of these athletes. This outcome reflects a collective effort, and we're proud to stand alongside everyone who helped make it clear that girls Flag Football deserves a place in Kansas high schools."

Sanctioning girls Flag Football allows schools statewide to establish officially recognized programs, implement standardized rules and governance, and compete for state championships – creating a sustainable pathway from youth participation through high school athletics and beyond.

The Chiefs will continue their commitment to growing Flag Football through youth programming, school partnerships, coaching education, and community initiatives across both Kansas and Missouri. The organization is also actively supporting the growth of girls Flag Football across the region, with the sport currently at emerging status in Missouri and a planned launch of programming in Nebraska beginning this fall. As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular season schedule was reduced from 16 to nine games. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

NFC Championship: Washington 31, Dallas 17
Super Bowl XVII: Washington 27, Miami 17

CHIEFS ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

RECORD: 34-22 (.607)

CHIEFS ON SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

RECORD: 27-16 (.628)

NBC began airing Sunday Night Football in its current format in 2006, while the Sunday Night Football package previously aired across both ESPN (1987-2005) and TNT (1990-97). In the team's history of Sunday Night Football games, the Chiefs played twice on TNT (*), including the club's inaugural Sunday Night Football appearance on Oct. 25, 1992 vs. Pittsburgh, and 11 times on ESPN (^). The club has made 30 appearances on NBC's Sunday Night Football dating back to the 2006 season.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd for a regular season game in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

From the '68 preseason through the 2015 preseason, the Chiefs faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 46 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Following the 2015 season, the Rams relocated back to Los Angeles, giving the Chiefs a winning record versus their "Show-Me State" rivals.

CHIEFS IN INTERNATIONAL CONTESTS

NFL INTERNATIONAL GAMES

In 2005, the NFL held its first regular season game outside the United States when the Arizona Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers met at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City. In 2007, the league introduced its International Series with regular season games taking place at Wembley Stadium in London. The London Series expanded to two additional stadiums, Twickenham Stadium - the home of England Rugby, and Tottenham Hotspur Stadium - a joint partnership between the NFL and the Premier League's Tottenham Hotspur. In 2016, the NFL returned to Mexico with the start of the NFL Mexico Series.

The Chiefs have played in four regular season International Series games, taking on the Detroit Lions in London in 2015 and playing against the Los Angeles Chargers in Mexico City in 2019. The club was scheduled to play against the Los Angeles Rams in Mexico City during the 2018 season, but the game was moved back to the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum due to field conditions that did not meet NFL standards at Estadio Azteca. The club holds a 3-1 record in regular season International Series games.

On Thursday, January 19, 2023, the NFL announced that the Chiefs were designated to play one of two international games in Germany during the 2023 season. It was confirmed on Wednesday, May 10 that the Chiefs would face the Miami Dolphins on Sunday, November 5, 2023 at Frankfurt Stadium in Frankfurt, Germany. The contest was the first of two 2023 Germany NFL games and the second overall NFL game hosted in Germany since the league awarded International Home Marketing Area rights for the country in December of 2021.

"We are incredibly excited to put the Kansas City Chiefs and all of Chiefs Kingdom on the international stage with a Germany game in 2023," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said at the time of the NFL's announcement that the club would play in Germany. "We've aggressively pursued this opportunity because we know how passionate German fans are about NFL football and we're committed to the international growth of the game as well as our brand. We think we'll be able to provide the right mix of opportunities for our existing Season Ticket Members and domestic fans while also creating unique experiences that will make this memorable for German fans as well."

On September 5, 2025 the Chiefs kicked off the regular season at Corinthians Arena in São Paulo, Brazil, against the Los Angeles Chargers. It was exclusively streamed on YouTube for the NFL's Friday night Week 1 game of the 2025-26 season, bringing the NFL to a worldwide audience for free on YouTube and YouTubeTV. It marks YouTube's first time as a live NFL broadcaster.

"We are always honored when the NFL recognizes our organization with unique opportunities to showcase our team, our brand, and Chiefs Kingdom, whether that's primetime games, international games, or landmark games in terms of rights and distribution," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said. "Participating in the first game to stream for free around the globe exclusively on YouTube certainly fits that bill, and we can't wait for audiences around the world to be introduced to Chiefs football when we take on the Chargers in Brazil."

Heading into the 2026 season, there have been a total of 62 regular-season games have been played internationally with London, Berlin, Munich, Frankfurt, Madrid, Dublin, São Paulo, Mexico City and Toronto being the host cities. On September 10th, 2026, the international slate kicks off in Melbourne, Australia where the San Francisco 49ers will meet the Los Angeles Rams at the Melbourne Cricket Ground. For the remainder of the international schedule, London will host three games, while Rio De Janerio, Paris, Madrid, Munich and Mexico City will all each host one competition.

"American football is for all. It's a global game, an all-inclusive sport, that provides the opportunity for all ages to enjoy the values, fun and competitive environment unique to the sport of football," said Troy Vincent, Sr., Executive Vice President of NFL Football Operations. "The NFL is committed to expanding NFL action to international fans in their home countries and developing young athletes around the world."

Kansas City's first regular season international contest featured an offensive explosion and stifling defense. The Chiefs had four different players score rushing touchdowns and had over 200 total rushing yards as a team, while the defense forced two QB Matthew Stafford interceptions. Just prior to landing in Kansas City following the game, the Chiefs learned that the Kansas City Royals beat the New York Mets in Game 5 to win the 2015 World Series.

Los Angeles Chargers	3	6	8	0	—	17

After missing out on the NFL's Mexico game in 2018 due to poor field conditions, the Chiefs competed in an AFC West matchup at Estadio Azteca in 2019. The Chiefs defense forced four QB Philip Rivers interceptions and recorded 2.0 sacks, while TE Travis Kelce was the bright spot for the Chiefs offense with seven receptions for 92 yards with a touchdown. RBs Darrel Williams and LeSean McCoy each added a rushing touchdown.

Kansas City started off hot scoring 21 unanswered points in the first half, six coming from a defensive touchdown after stripping Dolphins WR Tyreek Hill. In the second half, the offense slowed down. However, Kansas City's defense held their own and allowed only 14 points the whole game, which was enough for KC to hold on to the win.

In 2025, the Chiefs had the opportunity to travel to Brazil for a matchup against the Los Angeles Chargers in Arena Corinthians. K Harrison Butker was responsible for nine points, including a 59-yard field goal. WR Hollywood Brown set his season high in receptions (10) and receiving yards (99). QB Patrick Mahomes was responsible for two touchdowns, including a 37-yard pass touchdown to TE Travis Kelce.

CHIEFS EXPAND THE KINGDOM

In December 2021, the NFL - under the leadership of the International Committee - announced that 19 teams were granted access to 10 International Home Marketing Areas (IHMA). The groundbreaking, new initiative granted clubs access to international territories for marketing, fan engagement and commercialization as part of an important, long-term, strategic effort to enable clubs to build their global brands while driving NFL fan growth internationally. Now known as the Global Markets Program in its second year in 2023, the NFL has expanded to 21 teams across 14 international markets. In 2025, the NFL expanded to all 32 teams across 21 international markets.

As part of the Global Markets Program, clubs have access to international markets for at least a five-year term, during which a club will have rights to pursue activities in that international market that are consistent with what they can do in their domestic HMA (home marketing area). This includes in-person and digital marketing, corporate sponsorship sales, fan events and activations, youth football activities, merchandise sales and co-marketing relationships with other sports and entertainment properties in the market.

As part of the announcement, it was confirmed that the Chiefs bid on and received Global Markets Program rights for Germany and Mexico as part of the global growth of professional football. Beginning on January 1, 2022, the club could begin activating elements of its marketing plans in both countries, including posting on new localized Chiefs social media channels to engage fans, unveil market/language-specific digital properties (Chiefs.com and Chiefs Mobile app), begin paid advertising campaigns, sign local sponsorship deals, extend domestic sponsors internationally and align with local agencies with on-the-ground knowledge and expertise.

"We are thrilled with the league's announcement today that the Chiefs have secured the international marketing rights to both Germany and Mexico," Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said at the time. "My father, Lamar, founded the Chiefs and the American Football League in 1960 to introduce pro football to new fans in new regions of the country. Over the last three decades, the Chiefs have been at the forefront of the NFL's global growth initiatives – building on the legacy of our founder to bring America's game to new fans in new places. We look forward to building relationships with fans in Germany and Mexico and continuing to share the best of Chiefs Kingdom around the world."

Longer-term, the club plans to invest in growing its fanbase in both markets through on-site activations and fan events, support and grow local youth FLAG Football participation, launch local merchandise sales initiatives, establish partnerships with existing fan clubs, create local community and social initiatives, as well as explore opportunities to play regular season games in the markets as part of the NFL's new rotation of International Series games.

"We are currently enjoying the most successful period in franchise history, with some of the top players and coaches on the field as well as the support of a talented and dedicated business operations staff, and we believe we are uniquely positioned to be a leader in the NFL's global growth," Chiefs President Mark Donovan said. "We have an internal committee which has been leading our international efforts for multiple years and today's announcement not only recognizes the hard work that went into this bid process, but it also signals the start of an exciting challenge for our team and opportunity for our fan base in the coming years."

In April 2023, the NFL granted the Chiefs the ability to expand their Global Markets Program presence beyond Germany to include Austria and Switzerland as part of the DACH region.

The Chiefs and the Hunt family have been involved in numerous international initiatives over the past three decades, investing in growing the game and its fanbase globally and helping showcase the best of the sport on the international stage. In addition to appearing in two International Series regular season games since 2015, as well as playing in four American Bowl preseason contests, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt currently sits on the NFL's International Committee. From 2011-18, he served as the Chairman, advocating for the expansion of the league's international efforts and the NFL's footprint overseas. At the conclusion of the 2022 season, all 32 teams had played at least once internationally since 2011.

In April 2025, the NFL announced that the Chiefs have been awarded marketing and commercialization rights for the United Kingdom, Ireland and Spain as part of the Global Markets Program. These three new markets add to the Chiefs existing rights in Mexico, Germany, Austria and Switzerland, bringing the team's total to seven, among the highest in the NFL.

THE AMERICAN BOWL

Between 1986 and 2005, the NFL held a series of preseason games at sites outside the United States under the American Bowl banner. Designed to promote American football in other countries, the series eventually featured games in England, Japan, Canada, Germany, Spain, Mexico, Ireland and Australia. The Chiefs appeared in four American Bowl games, the first in 1990, and the last in 1998, playing in Berlin, West Germany; Monterrey, Mexico; and twice in Tokyo, Japan. The Chiefs hold a 1-3 record in American Bowl contests.

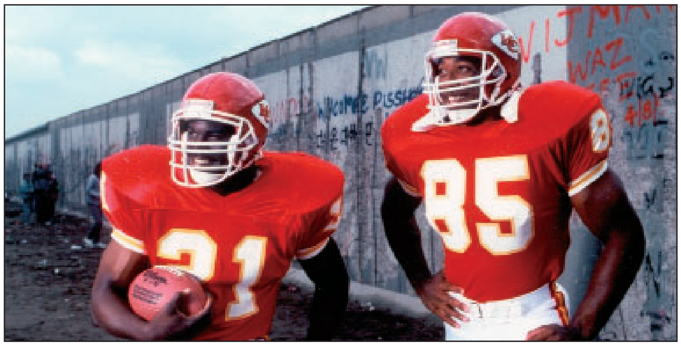
Los Angeles Rams	7	3	0	9	—	19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.



RB James Saxon (21) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

Minnesota Vikings	7	10	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

Kansas City Chiefs	3	10	6	13	—	32
Dallas Cowboys	3	0	3	0	—	6

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboys fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

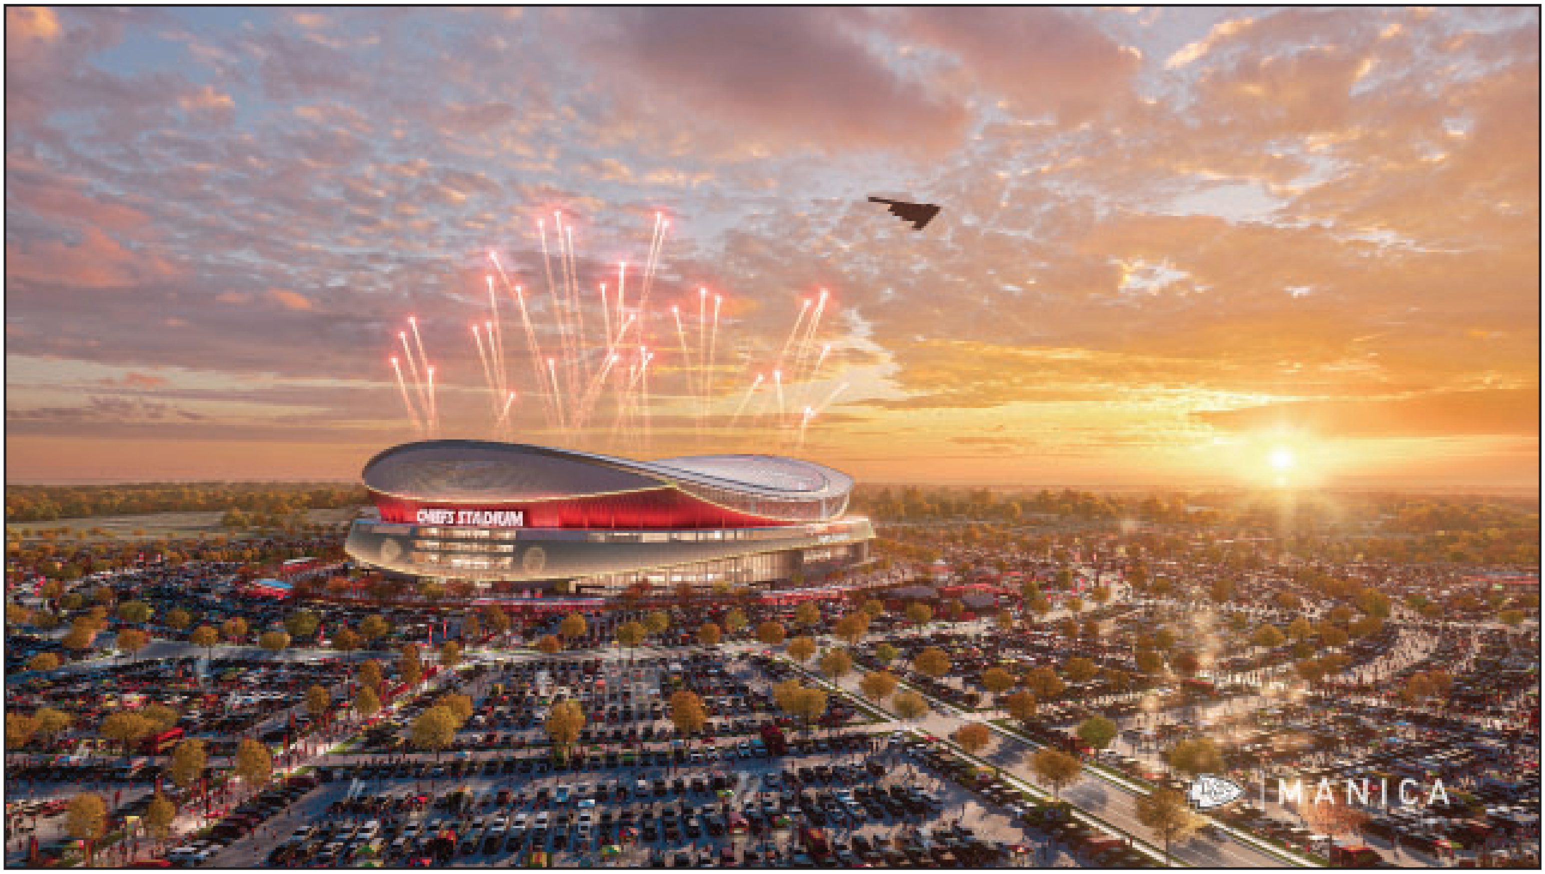
Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

A LEGACY REIMAGINED



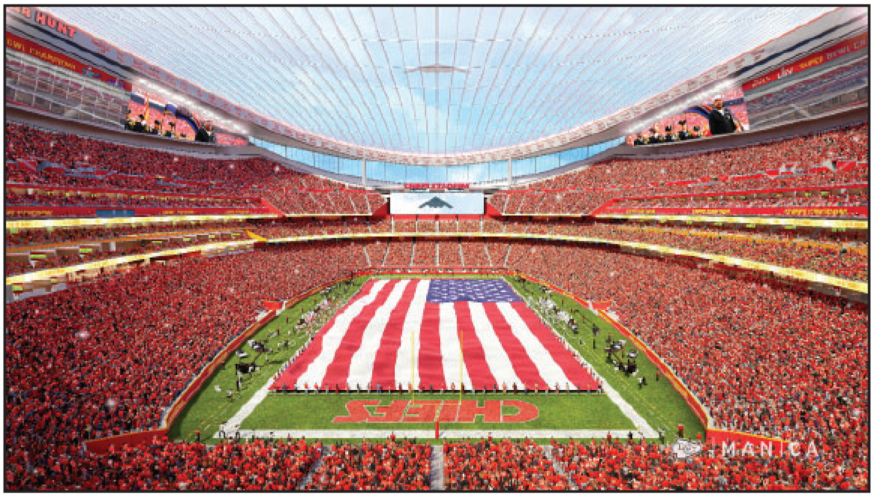
In July, the Kansas City Chiefs released initial concept renderings for the club's brand new enclosed stadium set to open in Kansas City, Kansas, in 2031.

Additionally, the Kansas City Chiefs also announced that the club has selected Kansas City-based MANICA as the lead design architect for the Chiefs new stadium. In addition, the Kansas City-based sports architecture firm HNTB selected as the architect of record (AOR) for the project. CAA ICON is serving as owner's representative on the stadium project, having led all elements of the RFQ, RFP, and lead design competition processes.

Key Details

- $3 billion state-of-the-art stadium
- Fully enclosed roof featuring translucent ETFE panels
- Expected total capacity of approximately 70,000
- More than 20,000 parking spots
- Competition process between the two finalists.

The $3 billion state-of-the-art stadium will be fully enclosed with a translucent ETFE roof and is expected to have a total capacity of approximately 70,000. The team, along with MANICA, has worked to incorporate – and improve – many of the club's and fanbase's beloved traditions. Parking lot infrastructure will be built specifically to enhance the tailgating experience. The stadium's size, shape, and roof geometry have been studied by audio engineers to maximize crowd noise and help ensure that Chiefs fans can continue to provide an unrivaled homefield advantage. The stadium's seating bowl is reminiscent of Arrowhead Stadium; it will include a Drum Deck for pregame and in-game ceremonies, as well as the prominent placement of the Chiefs Ring of Honor above the bowl. The roof will also include more than 400,000 square feet of translucent panels directly above the playing surface, maximizing visibility for military flyovers.

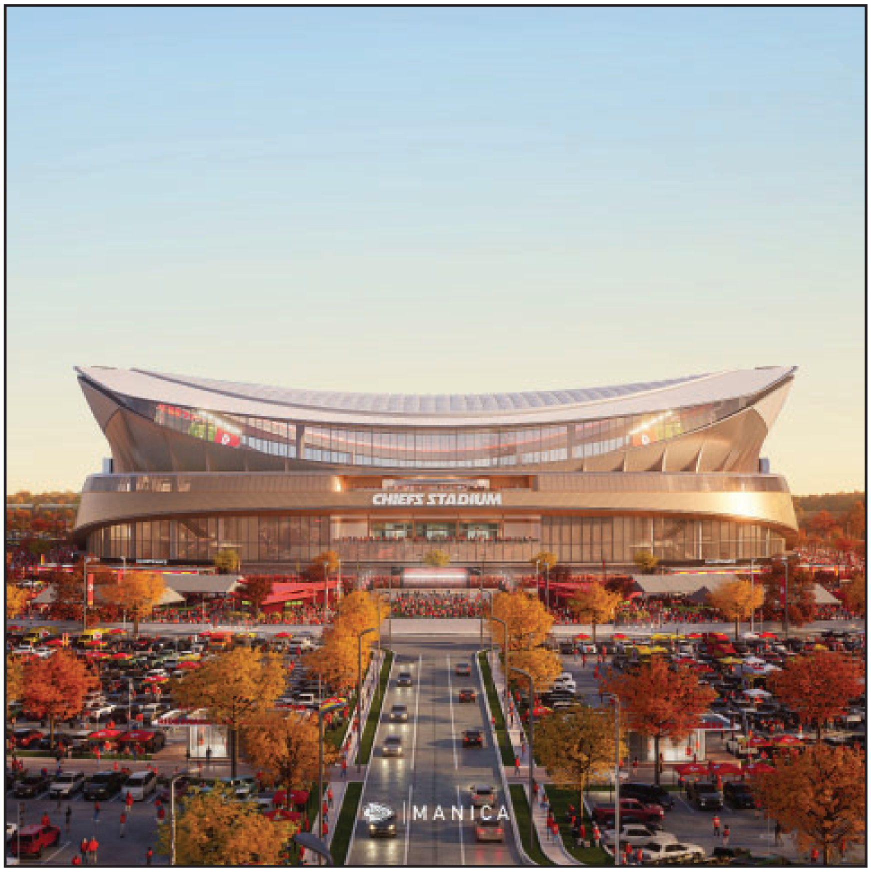


A LEGACY REIMAGINED

Outside the stadium, Chiefs fans will be able to visit the Lamar Hunt statue in a modern plaza, access a specially curated Chiefs Hall of Honor more than twice the size of its current space, and peruse an expanded Chiefs Team Store approximately four times larger than the current store. The stadium will also anchor a vibrant mixed-use development which will further augment the gameday experience.

Based on the most recent economic impact figures released by the club in June, the fixed-roof stadium project in Wyandotte County, Kansas, along with the practice facility/team headquarters in Olathe, Kansas, and two private ancillary mixed-use development districts, is slated to deliver 36,500 full-time equivalent (FTE) job-years and $8.2 billion in economic impact for the Kansas City region during the construction period. The stadium – along with the practice facility and surrounding developments – is slated to support 8,500 full-time equivalent (FTE) jobs and generate $1.5 billion in economic impact annually for the region once operational.

The project is being financed through a public-private partnership, with the public portion funded through Sales Tax and Revenue (STAR) bonds and the Attracting Professional Sports to Kansas Fund. Both funding mechanisms were established specifically to ensure that there will be no new state taxes and no negative impact on the state budget. The remaining portion will be privately funded. The project also includes $1 billion in additional development in the State of Kansas.



CHIEFS CHAIRMAN AND CEO CLARK HUNT

“From the beginning, our goal has been to build something that improved the gameday experience for every single fan. This new stadium will do just that. It’s spectacular. It honors the rich legacy of this franchise while setting a bold course for the future of Chiefs Kingdom. While we’re still finalizing many of the details, there are a few things we know for sure: it will hold 70,000 fans, it will still be the best place in the world to tailgate, and the whole building will be built for noise.”

CHIEFS PRESIDENT MARK DONOVAN

“We’re proud to name MANICA as our lead design architect and HNTB as the architect of record for this transformational stadium undertaking which will come to life over the next five years. We are incredibly fortunate that Kansas City is home to world-class sports and entertainment design talent, and that has been on full display throughout this process. David (Manica) and the MANICA team stood out throughout a rigorous months-long process, honoring and embracing our history while presenting a bold and dynamic vision for the future. We look forward to working alongside both firms to refine these plans and deliver the premier sports and entertainment venue not only in the Midwest, but in the world.”

MANICA PRESIDENT AND OWNER DAVID MANICA

“It is the honor of a lifetime to be entrusted with designing the next home of the Kansas City Chiefs in our hometown. My entire team is committed to creating a stadium that honors the legacy, tradition, and unmatched energy of Arrowhead while boldly reimagining its future. This stadium is being designed not just for today’s fans, but for the generations of Chiefs Kingdom to come – a place that reflects the passion, pride, and enduring strength of one of the greatest fan bases in all of sports.”

PRESIDENT OF HNTB AND PROJECT EXECUTIVE TOM O’GRADY

“The opportunity to help shape the next home of the Kansas City Chiefs is deeply meaningful to HNTB. This project brings together our deep roots in Kansas City and our experience delivering transformative sports and entertainment venues that elevate the fan experience and strengthen community connections. Together with MANICA, we look forward to creating a destination that reflects the legacy of the Chiefs and becomes an enduring landmark for generations of fans.”

Municipal Stadium served as the original home of the Chiefs in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the 1967 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the 1971 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of 1971, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

Municipal Stadium was demolished in 1976 and was originally replaced by a municipal garden. Today, much of the site has been redeveloped with new single-family homes. Although the stadium is no longer standing, its history and significance to the Kansas City sports scene has been commemorated in Monarch Plaza, which stands at the corner of E. 22nd and Brooklyn Ave. In 2019, as part of the Chiefs celebration of 100 years of the National Football League and 60 seasons in franchise history, the club replaced an aging Municipal Stadium marker at Monarch Plaza with a brand new historical marker highlighting the teams that called the former stadium home.

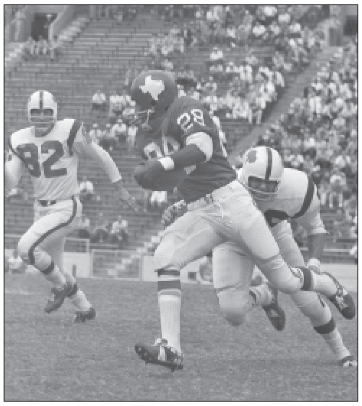
The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in 1963 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until 1999 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

Situated on the site of the State Fair of Texas, the stadium was also the longtime home of the annual college football bowl game known as the Cotton Bowl Classic, and also hosts the Red River Showdown, the annual college football game between the Oklahoma Sooners and the Texas Longhorns. In addition, the venue has been the home stadium for professional soccer's Dallas Tornado (NASL), the Dallas Burn and FC Dallas (MLS), and it was one of nine venues to host the 1994 FIFA World Cup.



ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

1967: In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof. Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold.

1984: The Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome – this time made of fabric – but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

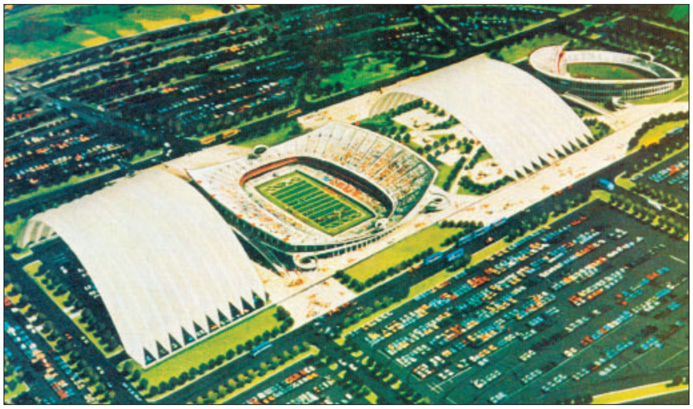
1999: The stadium saw its first seat upgrade, replacing all 33,975 seats in the upper level and all 35,277 seats in the lower level.

2000: Prior to the 2000 season, all 10,199 club level seats were replaced.

2006: On April 4, 2006, Jackson County, Mo., taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that was expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead. The State of Missouri also contributed $37.5 million. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project.



Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

2010: Upgrades were officially done prior to the start of the 2010 season and included Founder's Plaza, the Ford Fan Zone, the Chiefs Sports Lab, the Chiefs Hall of Honor, the Founder's Club, the CommunityAmerica Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements included an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board and concourses that were doubled in size.

2013: The club introduced a stadium-wide Wi-Fi network at Arrowhead, installing 600 high-density wireless access points as part of a seven-figure investment to create a more fully integrated mobile experience for Chiefs fans. Arrowhead Wi-Fi changed the way fans consume Chiefs content in-stadium, and also changed the way fans interact with the team and each other. The Wi-Fi network received an upgrade over two years in 2017 and 2018.

2019: Prior to the 2019 season, the Chiefs committed more than $10 million in upgrades to the stadium, including concrete repairs and new waterproofing measures in the stadium's upper level. In addition, the club replaced most seats in the upper deck with a newer version that includes cupholders, and in some cases, wider seats. The club also upgraded the technology in the west scoreboard to state-of-the-art LED technology that offers an enhanced screen image for fans in Arrowhead. The team introduced the GEHA Drum Deck, moving the club's pregame drum tradition from field-level to a more prominent location in the upper deck in the west end zone.

2020: In the week following Kansas City's AFC Championship Game victory on Jan. 19, 2020, the club announced multiple offseason projects to get Arrowhead ready for the 2020 season, including new seats in the lower bowl and a few sections in the upper bowl that weren't replaced in 2019; a technology upgrade to the east end zone scoreboard; enclosing multiple open-air field box suites; and an expanded Team Store. Additional offseason work that was scheduled, including a renovation to the home locker room was put on hold due to the coronavirus pandemic.

2021: The club finished the third phase of the three-year seat replacement project by installing all new seats on the CommunityAmerica Club Level. The team also completed a massive renovation to the home locker room complex inside the stadium, including not only the Chiefs locker room, but the equipment room, athletic training room and the coaches' locker rooms as well. After a decade as the preeminent space dedicated to Chiefs and AFL history, the Chiefs Hall of Honor on the lower level concourse of the stadium received a substantial upgrade, providing a more upscale, fully enclosed, temperature-controlled museum experience while creating a new special events space.

To this day, Arrowhead Stadium remains one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL, and these improvements ensure it is not only one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of the NFL, but is also a year-round entertainment destination serving the entire Midwest region.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

2025: In the offseason, modifications were made to the north side of the lower seating bowl in preparation for 2026 FIFA World Cup matches to be played at the stadium. Approximately 3,200 seats were removed and concrete was pulled out in order to make room for the wider internal soccer field requirements of FIFA. A modular seating structure was then installed, allowing for the re-installation of every seat in time for the 2025 Chiefs football season.

2026: The club continued its renovation of Arrowhead Stadium into a facility capable of hosting the 2026 FIFA World Cup immediately after the 2025 season, repurposing the field of play inside of Arrowhead to meet FIFA pitch standards, making improvements to the field's air temperature and moisture control systems, and creating an operational and fan-facing experience that rivals other venues. Known as "Kansas City Stadium" through June and July, Arrowhead hosted six matches, including three Group Stage matchups, a Round of 32, and a Quarterfinal.

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football afficionados since it opened in 1972. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," the stadium has hosted or is scheduled to host a number of different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, an annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown" and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State have all been past regular events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead. On January 30, 2024 the Kansas Jayhawks announced they would play their four conference home games at Arrowhead Stadium in 2024 while upgrades were made to their stadium complex. The facility also served as the site of the 1974 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL AT ARROWHEAD STADIUM

THE DR PEPPER BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Since 2000, Arrowhead Stadium has played host to the Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game five times. Oklahoma has claimed four of the five contests played in Kansas City, including a 62-21 win over Missouri in the most recent affair on December 6, 2008.

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN
Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series was at one point, the second-most played rivalry in college football history. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. Missouri leads the all-time series 57-54-9. A total of 26 contests in this 120-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU for a five-year series.

BATTLE SPORTS KANSAS CITY CLASSIC: CINCINNATI VS. NEBRASKA

In December 2024, it was announced that the University of Cincinnati will take on the University of Nebraska at Arrowhead Stadium – home of the Chiefs – on Thursday, August 28 in the inaugural Battle Sports Kansas City Classic game. A late game interception by the Cornhuskers with 34 second left sealed their 20-17 win over the Bearcats. Nebraska QB Dylan Raiola threw for 243 yards and two touchdowns. This face-off between the Bearcats and the Cornhuskers marked the first meeting of the two programs since 1906, when the Cornhuskers defeated the Bearcats 41-0. This game was originally scheduled for 2020 as part of a home-and-home series but was impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The two games were rescheduled for the 2025 and 2033 seasons.

2026 FIFA WORLD CUP

KANSAS CITY HOSTS FOUR NATIONAL TEAMS AS BASE CAMPS FOR 2026 FIFA WORLD CUP

In February 2026, the Kansas City region was selected as a base camp for four qualifying teams, tied the most for any region with New York/New Jersey. These teams include Algeria, Argentina, England, and The Netherlands.

KC CURRENT TRAINING FACILITY

CURRENT

Host Team: The Netherlands

The University of Kansas Health System Training Center is a 17,000 square foot facility complete with two full-field, grass pitches and serves as the headquarters for the KC Current in Riverside, Mo. The facility is the first purpose-built training center for a women's professional sports team in the United States, unveiled in June 2022 as a privately funded $18 million project by team owners. It features all necessary features for player health and training including training (weight, cardio, and recovery), nutrition (chef and locally-sourced items), and sports medicine care (specialized health care for female athletes from The University of Kansas Health System).

ROCK CHALK PARK

Host Team: Algeria

Opened in 2014, Rock Chalk Park is a 181,000-square-foot athletic village in Lawrence, Kan. which inludes fitness areas, a walking track, eight basketball courts, a track and field stadium, soccer field, softball stadium, and other amenities for athletes and students. The soccer stadium is a 2,500-seat stadium for the Kansas Jayhawks womens' soccer team and includes a locker room, player lounge, coaches' offices, athletic training room, and an equipment room. The stadium also includes a multi-level press box for television and radio broadcasts.

SPORTING KC TRAINING CENTER

Compass Minerals
NATIONAL PERFORMANCE CENTER

Host Team: Argentina

Compass Minerals National Performance Center is a $75 million state-of-the-art training facility based in Kansas City, Kan. and serves as the training grounds for the Sporting KC. Opened in 2018, It features five pitches, including a SuperPitch which includes three full-sized natural grass pitces and two synthetic turf fields with LED lighting. Luxury accomodations include a state-of-the art gym, sports performance lab, hydrotherapy pools, a training room, locker rooms, team lounge, offices, and a media studio. The facility also houses the U.S. Soccer Coaching Education Center, built with two locker rooms, three clasrooms for courses and seminars, brakout rooms, and a full cafeteria.

SWOPE SOCCER VILLAGE

Host Team: England

Located in the Heart of the historic Swope Park, Swope Socer Village is a $20+ million facility. Since 2007, the facility has served as a training hub for premiere clubs across the world including the U.S. Men's and Women's National Teams, Manchester United, Manchester City, AS Roma, CD Guadalajara, Club America, Montpellier, Newcastle United and Stoke City. Swope Soccer Village includes nine full-sized fields, including six equipped with synthetic turf and three with natural grass. In September 2014, renovations also included new restroom, concession and storage amenities.

2026 FIFA WORLD CUP

ARROWHEAD TRANSFORMS INTO "KANSAS CITY STADIUM"

Since Kansas City was announced as a host city for the 2026 FIFA World Cup, work began almost immediately to turn Arrowhead Stadium into a venue capable of hosting the world's premier soccer tournament.

In addition to the approximately 3,500 seats that were removed for matches, several other updates include the installation of a state-of-the-art LED lighting system, repurposing the field of play inside of Arrowhead Stadium to meet FIFA pitch standards, making improvements to the field's air temperature and moisture control systems, and creating an operational and fan-facing experience that rivals other venues.

Timeline:

2024 Offseason: Work begins with lower bowl demolition to redevelop the venue's aeration and moisture control system; LED light banks are installed.

March 2025: Lower-level northern sideline seating is removed to widen the field to FIFA regulated pitch standards.

June 2025: Concrete slab is poured on the northern sideline side to reinforce risers and bleacher system.

July 2025: Seats are reinstalled ahead of the 2025 NFL season along with wall pads.

August 2025: A brand-new warning track is installed around the perimeter of the field and sod is reinstalled ahead of the 2025 NFL season.

January 2026: Lower-level seating removal process begins.

May 2026: FIFA back-of-house and hospitality villages are built, Bermuda grass pitch is installed, and FIFA signage is installed.

June 16, 2026: Kansas City Stadium hosts Argentina vs. Algeria, its first of six FIFA World Cup matches.

Kansas City Stadium Field Installation

The centerpiece project for the conversion of Arrowhead Stadium into Kansas City Stadium for the 2026 FIFA World Cup was the installation of a FIFA-regulated natural playing surface. Bermuda grass with synthetic stitching was installed weeks before the first match, ensuring time for proper growth ahead of matchday. The synthetic stitching allows for proper playability and ball bounce. The field also featuted a "turtle back" crown to ensure proper drainage, with completely level goal areas.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from 1960-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in 1975. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in 1987, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season except for 2009 under Todd Haley. In 2016, Brad Childress and Matt Nagy were named Co-Offensive Coordinators.

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium • 37,981

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An interception by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda – then a "young" 35 years old – passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Chiefs Head Coach Hank Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes – the game's Most Valuable Player – then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium • 42,080

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	31
BUFFALO	7	0	0	0	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play evening the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the Kansas City signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short, leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to WR Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later, Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,036

KANSAS CITY	0	10	0	0	— 10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	— 35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers – one of the greatest pro football teams of all time – won Super Bowl I 35-10. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to WR Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play – one that doomed the underdog Chiefs – unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off Starr's pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

OAKLAND	21	7	0	13 —	41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs at the time.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but Kansas City could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard FG by K Jan Stenerud to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38-yard line. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved Kansas City to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception haulted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started Kansas City's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on Kansas City's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on Kansas City's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first interception of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put Kansas City in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second interception of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	3	17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a four-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered Kansas City's first interception of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later, a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an interception. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon on Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson – who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award – the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that was the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly throughout that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium • 50,374

MIAMI	0	10	7	7	0	3	— 27

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podalok. But in the end, it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled – the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included – Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podalak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, Kansas City was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out, but Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Larry Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into Kansas City territory. Four plays later, Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium • 69,307

KANSAS CITY	6	0	0	9	— 15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	— 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three Kansas City turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. However, a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarty had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was intercepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,276

KANSAS CITY	3	7	6	0	16
MIAMI	0	3	0	14	17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg – who had guided Kansas City to an 11-5 regular season record – had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an at the time NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even the count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. Kansas City capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-3 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history at the point. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith – who had 1.5 sacks on the day – preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving Kansas City the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved Kansas City back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard line at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. Fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the playoffs. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success – solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a then team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the Kansas City defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on Kansas City's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	— 37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis, who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second-straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position. Kelly then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three interceptions himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic – who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury – suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered Kansas City's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout Kansas City has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door, but DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram – RB Marion Butts – burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks – including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas – San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	— 24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	— 27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the fourth quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After Kansas City went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. Kansas City's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, Kansas City moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on Kansas City's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring drive was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on RB Warren Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana – who finished the contest with 299 yards – found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

The Oilers wouldn't relent. Moon – who compiled 306 yards on the day – promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to keep Houston in it with the score 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the Kansas City 30-yard line. Then, faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

BUFFALO	7	13	0	10	— 30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

Kansas City would answer as QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY . . . . . . 14 3 0 0 — 17
MIAMI . . . . 7 10 10 0 — 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414 to 381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12-of-15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14-of-16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

Kansas City struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. This time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as Kansas City crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards going 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one interception, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no interceptions.

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, the Colts still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a Kansas City fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh, but just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

Kansas City's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. Kansas City still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. The kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER	0	7	0	7	— 14
KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	0	— 10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg), but it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, Kansas City appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. Kansas City could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompletion, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

Kansas City got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move Kansas City to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	— 38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	— 31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record with 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Chiefs QB Trent Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history (now fifth most).

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY	0	0	8	0	8
INDIANAPOLIS	6	3	7	7	23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435 to 126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but Kansas City's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning interceptions and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive, rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive, Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the Kansas City one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive, the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law – who was no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts – intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason interception and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the Kansas City two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again, the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third interception of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason interception, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jump-started the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

Ravens 30, Chiefs 7

January 9, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 72,190

BALTIMORE	3	7	13	7	30
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	7

The Chiefs were within striking distance at halftime, trailing by only a 10-7 margin, but four second-half turnovers doomed Kansas City as Baltimore pulled away for a 30-7 victory. The Chiefs defense registered 4.0 sacks, including 2.0 from LB Tamba Hali.

The Chiefs won the toss, deferred to the second half and kicked off to open the game. Baltimore promptly moved down field and was poised with first and goal at the Chiefs one-yard line, but Kansas City's defense made a goal-line stand, rebuffing the Ravens on three-straight plays. QB Joe Flacco's third-down pass was broken up by S Eric Berry, setting up a 19-yard K Billy Cundiff FG that gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City went three-and-out on its opening drive. On Baltimore's ensuing possession, Hali recorded a sack and strip of Flacco and jumped on the ball, giving the Chiefs great field position at the Baltimore 46-yard line. Two plays later, RB Jamaal Charles reeled off a 41-yard TD scamper, the longest postseason TD run in team history, to put the Chiefs up 7-3 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's next possession, a fumble by Charles set up Baltimore at their own 45, but Kansas City's defense held. The teams exchanged punts before Flacco and company again moved into Chiefs territory. A nine-yard TD pass from Flacco to RB Ray Rice put the Ravens up 10-7 with 0:19 left to play before halftime, capping an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

On the third play of the third quarter, QB Matt Cassel's pass intended for TE Tony Moeaki was batted into the air and intercepted by S Haruki Nakamura. However, a hustling Charles stripped and recovered the ball at the Kansas City 32-yard line, giving the Chiefs a fresh set of downs.

Kansas City moved the ball to the Baltimore 33-yard line, but Charles was thrown for a four-yard loss on fourth and one. Cundiff knocked through a 29-yard FG on the Ravens ensuing drive, extending their lead to 13-7 with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

Chiefs WR Dexter McCluster fumbled the ball on Kansas City's ensuing possession, setting up Baltimore at the Chiefs 17-yard line. Cundiff connected on another 29-yard FG, putting the Ravens up 16-7 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Two plays later, Cassel's pass for Moeaki was intercepted by S Dawan Landry, putting the Ravens at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Flacco then hit WR Anquan Boldin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard TD pass, pushing the Ravens advantage to 23-7.

On the first play of Kansas City's next drive, Cassel fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Ravens. Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play and the ruling on the field was overturned to an incomplete pass. The Chiefs were eventually forced to punt. Ravens RB Willis McGahee delivered the game's final score as he broke free for a 25-yard TD, extending Baltimore's lead to 30-7 with 4:26 left in the game.

Kansas City took over at the 40-yard line after the Ravens kickoff went out of bounds. Cassel was sacked twice on the drive and his fourth-down pass was intercepted by CB Josh Wilson at the Baltimore 34-yard line. Baltimore was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

Colts 45, Chiefs 44

KANSAS CITY	10	21	10	3	— 44
INDIANAPOLIS	7	3	21	14	— 45

The Chiefs fell one point short of the Colts in a 45-44 loss in Indianapolis, eliminating them from the playoffs. Kansas City broke numerous then club postseason records including most points scored in a game with 44 (now second most), most net yards with 513 (now second most), most touchdown passes with four (record is now six TDs) and most passing yards with 378 (record is now 406 yards), but the record-setting statistics were still not enough to top the Colts.

Kansas City came out of the gate with a 14-play, 6:49 drive that included a 16-yard Chiefs QB Alex Smith scramble from the pocket and resulted in a six-yard pass to WR Dwayne Bowe, putting the Chiefs up 7-0. RB Jamaal Charles suffered a concussion on the game's opening drive and would not return. The Colts answered with a quick push down the field and a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Andrew Luck to WR T.Y. Hilton to tie the game at 7-7.

On the ensuing drive, Smith and Bowe connected on a 63-yard pass to land the Chiefs on the Indianapolis two-yard line. After not being able to convert on the first three attempts, Kansas City was forced to settle for a K Ryan Succop field goal to make the score 10-7.

The second quarter kicked off with a huge 79-yard touchdown pass on third-down from Smith catching Chiefs WR Donnie Avery in stride, increasing the Kansas City lead to 17-7. After the score, Chiefs LB Tamba Hali forced an Indianapolis fumble on first down and LB Justin Houston recovered it for seven yards to the Colts 17-yard line. This set Kansas City up for another score after Smith found FB Anthony Sherman for a five-yard shovel pass that was good for a 24-7 lead in favor of the Chiefs.

Indianapolis moved swiftly down the field on the next drive as Luck scrambled for 21 yards on fourth-and-one. K Adam Vinatieri booted a 37-yard field goal to make the score 24-10.

The next drive proved to be a slow and steady one for the Chiefs. Picking up six first downs, four of which were third-down conversions, the drive was capped off by a RB Knile Davis four-yard touchdown run up the middle to increase the Chiefs lead to 31-10. Before the first half came to a close, Kansas City CB Brandon Flowers picked off a Luck pass and returned it for 17 yards, the second takeaway by the Chiefs.

Indianapolis opened the second half with another Luck interception as S Husain Abdullah jumped a pass on the first play of the half, putting the ball at the Colts 18-yard line. Smith found Davis for a 10-yard touchdown pass, putting the Chiefs up 38-10.

The Colts' next drive included a 10-yard completion to Hilton, an 11-yard pass to RB Donald Brown and a 46-yard completion to WR Da'Rick Rogers with Luck bringing them to the Kansas City 10-yard line and Brown punching it in for 10 yards to bring the point total to 38-17.

After the Chiefs got the ball back, Colts LB Robert Mathis had a sack and strip on Smith with LB Kelvin Sheppard recovering the ball on Kansas City's only turnover of the day. Indianapolis was able to turn the fumble recovery into points after another Brown touchdown off of a three-yard connection with Luck, making the score 38-24.

After a Chiefs three-and-out, Abdullah picked off Luck for the second time, setting up a 42-yard Succop field goal, with the Chiefs' lead increasing to 41-24. The Colts fired right back with a drive that included a 25-yard pass to Brown, a 30-yard completion to WR LaVon Brazill and a 13-yard run by Brown to get them to the Chiefs 12-yard line. Luck then connected with TE Coby Fleener for a 12-yard touchdown to narrow the score to 41-31.

On the Colts first drive of the fourth quarter, Luck recovered a fumble by his own team on the Kansas City five-yard line and dove into the end zone for an unconventional touchdown, narrowing the Chiefs lead to 41-38. Kansas City responded with another Succop field goal, this one from 43 yards, making the score 44-38.

On the ensuing drive, Luck hit Hilton for a 64-yard touchdown on third-and-five, putting the Colts ahead 45-44 with 4:29 left to play. Kansas City moved down the field but was unable to convert on fourth down. Indianapolis was able to kneel for the last 1:55 of the game to move on to the divisional playoffs.

Chiefs 30, Texans 0

January 9, 2016 • NRG Stadium • 71,800

KANSAS CITY	7	6	7	10	— 30

Kansas City's first postseason victory in 22 years began with a bang. Before many people at NRG Stadium were in their seats, RB Knile Davis returned the opening kickoff 106 yards for a touchdown - those seven points ended up being the only score the Chiefs would need. Davis' return was the longest kickoff return in AFC Wild Card history.

Prior to the 2015 season, the Chiefs most recent playoff victory came across the street from NRG Stadium in Houston, when the Chiefs defeated the Oilers in the 1993 Divisional Round at the Astrodome.

In the next three possessions, the two teams alternated turnovers, beginning with S Eric Berry intercepting a Brian Hoyer pass. Two plays later, Texans LB Brian Cushing picked off Alex Smith. As Houston was driving into Kansas City territory, DL Allen Bailey forced and recovered a Brian Hoyer fumble, making that two turnovers in three Texans possessions to begin the game.

Sandwiched on either side of a P Shane Lechler punt, K Cairo Santos booted two 49-yard field goals to push the Chiefs lead to 13-0 midway through the second quarter. Santos' 49-yard field goals marked the longest field goals in franchise postseason history at the time.

Following Santos' second field goal, Houston was inside the Kansas City red zone for the only time on the afternoon. After a direct snap to DE J.J. Watt at the Chiefs two-yard-line lost a yard on first down, Hoyer threw his second interception of the day, this time to LB Josh Mauga on second-and-goal from the Kansas City three-yard line.

Houston's ensuing possession ended the same way the previous possession did. On the second play of the drive, and the first play following the two-minute warning, Hoyer's pass was intercepted by Marcus Peters - who, four weeks later, would go on to be named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. Peters' interception was the fourth forced turnover of the half for the Kansas City defense. The Chiefs would go into halftime with a 13-0 lead on the AFC South Champions.

After forcing a Houston punt to open the second half, QB Alex Smith got the offense on the board for the second half, capping an 11-play, 89-yard drive with a nine-yard touchdown pass to rookie WR Chris Conley. The score was Smith's 10th career postseason touchdown.

Following another of Lechler's five punts, the Chiefs got in the end zone for the final time in the game. On the first play of the fourth quarter, FB/RB Spencer Ware took a handoff from five yards out to give the Chiefs a 27-0 lead.

The Texans subsequent drive ended in Kansas City territory after Hoyer recovered his own fumble on fourth down. Following a Chiefs punt seven plays later, Hoyer threw his fourth interception of the day, this time to CB Sean Smith at the Houston 34-yard-line.

Three plays later, Santos capped the Chiefs scoring on the afternoon, knocking in a 33-yard field goal to increase the Chiefs lead to 30-0.

The four interceptions by Kansas City was tied for the second-most interceptions ever recorded in a playoff game and the fourth time the Chiefs have recorded four or more interceptions in a single postseason contest.

The 30-0 shutout marked the first time in franchise history that the club had shut out an opponent in the postseason.

2015 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Patriots 27, Chiefs 20

January 16, 2016 • Gillette Stadium • 66,829

KANSAS CITY	3	3	7	7	20
NEW ENGLAND	7	7	7	6	27

The Chiefs most successful season in more than a decade came to an end in Foxborough, Mass., at the hands of the New England Patriots, falling 27-20.

QB Alex Smith's performance included a franchise postseason record 50 pass attempts, and his sixth postseason touchdown pass with Kansas City moved him into a tie, at the time, for second place in the club's record book.

New England opened the game by taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards, ending the possession with an eight-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to TE Rob Gronkowski.

Kansas City answered back right away, taking 8:31 off the clock on a 17-play, 64-yard drive, culminating in a 34-yard K Cairo Santos field goal, bringing the score to 7-3 after the first two possessions of the game.

Both teams alternated punts on the next four possessions. After a pass that resulted in a three-yard loss, Brady scrambled for 10-yards, ending at the Kansas City one yard line. New England challenged the ruling on the field, believing Brady broke the plane of the goal line. The ruling was upheld, but a quarterback sneak on the next play resulted in a touchdown, putting New England up 14-3.

As was the case following the Patriots first touchdown, the Chiefs answered back right away. A 17-yard run from RB Charcandrick West and a 26-yard pass from Smith to WR Jason Avant put the Chiefs in field goal range, where Santos booted a 32-yard field goal with 0:12 remaining in the half.

The second half began for the Chiefs with a consistent mixture of Smith completions and West and Knile Davis rushes, moving the team into Patriots territory. On the 10th play of the drive, New England LB Chandler Jones forced a Davis fumble, recovered by LB Dont'a Hightower for the only turnover of the game by either team. Kansas City's momentum was stopped once Brady hit Gronkowski for the duo's second touchdown of the night, pushing the Chiefs deficit to 21-6.

Smith accounted for 72 of the team's 80 yards on the next drive, culminating in a 10-yard touchdown pass to WR Albert Wilson.

K Stephen Gostkowski kicked two field goals on New England's next two possessions - with a Chiefs punt in between - resulting in a 27-13 Patriots lead with 12:26 remaining in the game.

After a turnover on downs on Kansas City's next drive, New England punted, giving the ball back to the Chiefs at the 20-yard-line. Smith went six-of-11 for 60 yards on the drive, eventually marching the team to the one-yard-line where West ran into the end zone to bring the score to 27-20.

Kansas City failed to recover the ensuing onside kick, and on the second play of the possession, Brady completed a 12-yard pass to WR Julian Edelman, giving the Patriots a first down that would wrap up the game.

Steelers 18, Chiefs 16

January 15, 2017 • Arrowhead Stadium • 75,678

PITTSBURGH	6	6	3	3	18
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	6	16

The Chiefs had a successful season in 2016, finishing with a 12-4 record and an AFC West Championship. Unfortunately, it came to an end at the hands of the Pittsburgh Steelers, falling 18-16 in the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

Pittsburgh won the coin toss and took the opening kickoff. The Steelers would go on an 11-play, 66-yard drive, aided by 25 rushing yards from RB Le'Veon Bell, that would end in a 22-yard Chris Boswell field goal.

Kansas City immediately answered back, taking only six plays to respond. QB Alex Smith went four-for-four during the drive, hitting TE Travis Kelce for a 21-yard gain before finding WR Albert Wilson for a five-yard touchdown pass to bring the score to 7-3.

The Chiefs and the Steelers would alternate possessions during the half, with Pittsburgh connecting field goal drives of seven and 14 plays, with the Steelers leading 9-7. Midway through the second quarter, S Eric Berry intercepted a pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger, intended for WR Antonio Brown in the end zone, halting a scoring threat.

As the second half began, the Chiefs received the ball after a 19-yard kick return by WR Tyreek Hill. The opening drive for the Chiefs was a three-and-out and on the Steelers ensuing possession Bell proved to be a key component. He began the drive with a 38-yard run bringing the Steelers into Chiefs territory. Bell carried the ball four times in the seven-play drive leading to the first score of the half, a 43-yard field goal by K Chris Boswell to extend the lead to 15-7.

Both teams traded punts on the next two possessions toward the end of the third quarter. On the Chiefs final possession of the third quarter, the offense strung together a seven-play drive with the help of QB Alex Smith's arm to get within field goal range. K Cairo Santos nailed a 48-yard field goal to bring the Chiefs closer, ending the quarter with a 15-10 score.

With the Chiefs trailing to begin the fourth quarter the Steelers opened with a 10-play, 45-yard drive. Roethlisberger threw for 43 yards to get the Steelers in field goal range. Boswell fired a 43-yard field goal, stretching the lead to 18-10 with 9:49 remaining.

Following Pittsburgh's score, the Chiefs got the ball and responded Smith would start the drive with a 24-yard completion to Kelce. Over the 13-play drive Smith would pass for 62 yards, leading to a one-yard touchdown run by RB Spencer Ware, bringing the Chiefs within two points. The Chiefs converted their first attempt at the two-point conversion, however the play was called back after a holding call on the offensive line. The Chiefs would fail the second attempt and kick off with 2:43 left, hoping to stop the Steelers from collecting a first down for a final chance to take the lead.

On third-and-three from their own 12-yard line, Roethlisberger connected with Brown on a seven-yard reception that would effectively end the game. The Steelers would kneel, running out the clock and winning by a final score of 18-16.

Titans 22, Chiefs 21

January 6, 2018 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,319

TENNESSEE . . . . 0 3 7 12 — 22
KANSAS CITY . . . . 14 7 0 0 — 21

After a 10-6 season and another AFC West title, Kansas City hosted a playoff game for the second-straight year. It was the first time in franchise history the Chiefs won back-to-back division titles.

The Chiefs hosted the Tennessee Titans at Arrowhead Stadium for an AFC Wild Card matchup. Kansas City would fall in a close contest, 22-21.

Tennessee won the coin toss and deferred to Kansas City with the Chiefs choosing to receive the opening kickoff. TE Travis Kelce managed a first down on the opening drive, but the Chiefs ended the possession in a punt.

In Tennessee's first possession, the Chiefs forced a three-and-out after an incomplete pass. Kansas City improved on its next drive, ending in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Kareem Hunt.

After another three and out by the Chiefs defense, Kansas City started with the ball at its own 24 yard line. Three completions by QB Alex Smith and a penalty resulted in a 13-yard touchdown pass to Kelce. The Chiefs led at the end of the first quarter 14-0.

The Titans took their next drive to midfield, but stalled and were forced to punt. The Chiefs and Titans would trade punts for the next two possessions.

With a little over 10 minutes remaining in the first half, Titans QB Marcus Mariota marched the offense down into Kansas City territory for the first time, but at the Kansas City 21-yard line, CB Marcus Peters intercepted Mariota and returned the ball 28 yards. However, the Chiefs offense was not able to capitalize on the interception and punted to the Titans 21 yard line.

The Titans again chewed up yards, this time with several big runs from RB Derrick Henry. On third-and-four at the Chiefs 22-yard line, LB Derrick Johnson sacked Mariota on a blitz up the middle. The Titans still came away with a field goal, cutting the lead to 11.

Smith would then lead a masterful two-minute-drill, taking the Kansas City offense down the field in 1:52 and ending with a 14-yard touchdown pass to WR Demarcus Robinson. The Chiefs headed into halftime with a 21-3 lead.

The Titans received the ball to begin the third quarter and marched 91 yards for a touchdown where Mariota caught a tipped ball from himself and ran into the end zone.

With the Titans back within 11 points at 21-10, Kansas City could not get its offense back to form. The Chiefs gained life after recovering a Tennessee muffed punt, but missed the ensuing field goal attempt.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Henry scored a 35-yard rushing touchdown and Titans Head Coach Mike Mularkey called for a two-point conversion attempt. However, the attempt was no good, keeping the score to 21-16 Chiefs.

After another Kansas City punt, the Titans ran the ball down the field and gained the lead with a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Eric Decker.

With their season on the line, the Chiefs drove into Titans territory but could not convert on fourth down at the Tennessee 44 yard line.

CHIEFS — Hunt, 1-yard run (Butker kick) (6-81, 2:56).

Chiefs 31, Colts 13

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	0	6	— 13
KANSAS CITY	14	10	0	7	— 31

The Kansas City Chiefs culminated the regular season with a Week 17 home victory over the AFC West Division rival Oakland Raiders to claim a division title for the third consecutive season. They also secured the top-overall seed in the AFC, earning them home field advantage throughout the playoffs.

The Chiefs hosted the Indianapolis Colts in the Divisional Round of the postseason on a snowy Sunday afternoon at Arrowhead Stadium. Indianapolis had defeated Houston in a road contest in the Wild Card Round of the playoffs one week prior, advancing them to the second round of the playoffs to take on the Chiefs.

Kansas City won the coin toss and deferred. This proved to be smart as Indianapolis received the opening kickoff and was met with a three-and-out offensive halt by the Chiefs defense. On the unit's first possession of the contest, the eventual AP NFL MVP, QB Patrick Mahomes led the Chiefs offense on a five-play, 90-yard scoring drive, capped off by a 10-yard rushing TD by RB Damien Williams to take an early lead.

The Chiefs defense executed a copy-and-paste on the following drive, as Indianapolis' second offensive possession ended the same as the first. The Chiefs offense stayed consistent as they drove the ball 70 yards in eight plays, ending with a WR Tyreek Hill 36-yard rush around the left end to give Kansas City a two-score lead in the first quarter.

After the defense stepped up again, Kansas City went on a 15-play, 6:54 drive that covered nearly seven minutes of action completed by a 39-yard FG by K Harrison Butker to take a 17-0 lead.

Looking for a spark, Indianapolis vigorously pursued a Chiefs punt. Colts LB Najee Goode blocked a P Dustin Colquitt punt and Colts WR Zach Pascal recovered the ball at the Kansas City two-yard line and stumbled into the end zone to put the Colts on the scoreboard.

For the fourth time of the contest, Kansas City's offense then orchestrated a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive, in which Mahomes scrambled around the right end and dove for the pylon. Mahomes' rushing score gave the gave the home team a 24-7 lead heading into the intermission.

After a failed fourth-down conversion attempt by Kansas City, copious exchanges of punts and a pair of lost fumbles, one by each team, the third quarter culminated with zero total points scored.

On Indianapolis' second possession of the final quarter, QB Andrew Luck found WR T.Y. Hilton on a 29-yard passing score to give the Colts their first offensive TD of the game. K Adam Vinatieri's ensuing PAT failed wide right, but Hilton's receiving score still narrowed the margin to 24-13.

Per game-long trend, Kansas City answered on the team's final offensive possession with a rushing score from six yards out by RB Darrel Williams. Butker connected on the PAT to draw the final score of 31-13, in favor of the Chiefs.

Kansas City nearly doubled the Colts in first downs, total net yards and time of possession and with the dominant win, the Chiefs advanced to their first AFC Championship Game since 1994 and Arrowhead Stadium would be set to host the annual bout for the first time in franchise history.

Patriots 37, Chiefs 31 (OT)

January 20, 2019 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,034

NEW ENGLAND	7	7	3	14	6	— 37

Following the Chiefs performance featuring four rushing TDs in the Divisional Round against the Indianapolis Colts, the Chiefs turned around one week later to welcome the five-time Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots to Arrowhead Stadium with an opportunity to go to Super Bowl LIII on the line. This game marked the Chiefs first appearance in the American Football Conference's annual championship showdown in 25 years (1994), and their first time hosting the contest.

New England was coming off of an impressive Divisional Round victory of their own, scoring five TDs in the first half to beat the Los Angeles Chargers. The well-deserved win earned the Patriots a spot in the AFC Championship for the fifth-consecutive season and a chance to appear in their third-straight Super Bowl.

The visiting Patriots received the opening kickoff and put on an impressive display of offensive matriculation. New England's 15-play, 80-yard opening drive spanned 8:05 and was capped by RB Sony Michel punching it in from one yard out. New England's defense managed to hold Kansas City to a less than three-minute possession before being punted the ball and taking their second drive into the second quarter. The Chiefs benefited from a LB Reggie Ragland interception, only to have an exchange of punts ensue.

The Patriots regained possession with 3:08 remaining in the opening half, scoring on a WR Phillip Dorsett receiving TD from QB Tom Brady with 0:33 remaining in the first half, eventually drawing the halftime tally to a 14-0 advantage in favor of the visiting Patriots. Coming out of the intermission, the Chiefs answered.

Kansas City QB Patrick Mahomes hit WR Sammy Watkins on a 54-yard catch on third-and-two to set up a TE Travis Kelce 12-yard TD reception to open the scoring for the Chiefs. Two possessions later, New England K Stephen Gostkowski connected on a 47-yard FG to advance the visitor's lead to double digits, 17-7 with 4:07 in the third quarter. 10 plays later, RB Damien Williams hit paydirt from one yard out for his second rushing TD of the postseason, pulling Kansas City to within a three-point margin. Two possessions after that, Williams' lightning struck twice, this time on a 23-yard TD pass from Mahomes, to give Kansas City a 21-17 lead with under eight minutes remaining in regulation.

On the following possession, Brady and the Patriots put together a 10-play, 75-yard drive that covered 4:13 to regain the lead off a Michel 10-yard TD rush, leaving 3:35 on the clock.

Mahomes and the Chiefs responded with a scoring drive of their own. RB Damien Williams capped off the series with his third TD of the game and fourth of the postseason to put the Chiefs back on top.

The Patriots used the two-minute warning and assembled a six-play drive capped with a rushing TD to regain the lead for the third time. With 0:39 remaining in regulation, Mahomes used two deep passes to set up a game-tying Harrison Butker FG and extend the contest into overtime.

New England won the toss and elected to receive, orchestrating a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by RB Rex Burkhead punching it in from one yard out to defeat the Chiefs and advance to Super Bowl LIII.

Chiefs 51, Texans 31

January 12, 2020 • Arrowhead Stadium • 73,503

HOUSTON . . . . .21 3 7 0 — 31
KANSAS CITY. . . . . .0 28 13 10 — 51

Kansas City entered the 2019 postseason as the conference's second seed, earning a first-round bye for the second consecutive year. In a rematch of a 2019 regular season game that saw the Texans leave Arrowhead Stadium with a 31-24 win, Houston picked up where they left off taking an early lead in the AFC Divisional Game. By the start of the second quarter, the Texans had accumulated 24 points and left Kansas City scoreless.

Sparked by a 58-yard kickoff return by WR Mecole Hardman, QB Patrick Mahomes connected with RB Damien Williams for a 17-yard touchdown to get the Chiefs on the board. On the next defensive series, S Daniel Sorensen made a game-changing tackle on a fourth-down fake punt to set up the first of three consecutive touchdown passes to TE Travis Kelce. On the ensuing kickoff return, Sorensen and CB Alex Brown combined to force a Houston fumble, setting up Kelce's second TD of the quarter. After a 51-yard Houston field goal sailed wide right as the clock expired on the first half, the Chiefs offense dominated the second quarter. After another Mahomes to Kelce TD, the Chiefs had put up 28 unanswered points in less than five minutes of game time. Kansas City took a 28-24 lead into halftime.

In the third quarter, RB Damien Williams rattled off a pair of rushing touchdowns to cap off 85- and 77-yard drives, extending Kansas City's lead to 41-24. The Texans scored their final points of the day on a five-yard touchdown run by QB Deshaun Watson at the end of the third quarter.

Mahomes drove the Chiefs right down the field and found TE Blake Bell for an eight-yard TD to ignite the fourth quarter. The Chiefs defense forced a Houston turnover on downs, setting up a 24-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker to extend the lead to 51-31.

The Chiefs etched themselves in the NFL and Chiefs record books, setting franchise records for most points scored in a postseason game in Chiefs history, as well as the franchise record for most touchdowns (seven). The 24-point deficit the Chiefs overcame tied for the fourth-largest comeback in a playoff game in NFL history, while the 28 unanswered points in the second quarter were tied for the third-most points scored by a team in the second quarter of a playoff game in NFL history at the time.

With five touchdown passes in the game, Mahomes set a new single-game franchise record and tied for the fourth-most touchdown throws in a postseason game in NFL history, behind the record of six. Kelce became the first player in the Super Bowl era to record three receiving touchdowns in a single quarter in a postseason game.

DE Frank Clark recorded 3.0 sacks in the game, tying for the most career postseason sacks in a game in franchise history, and tying for the fourth-most sacks in a single postseason game in NFL history.

Chiefs 35, Titans 24

TENNESSEE . . . . 10 7 0 7 — 24
KANSAS CITY . . . . 7 14 0 14 — 35

For the second-consecutive season, the Chiefs hosted the AFC Championship Game at Arrowhead Stadium for the opportunity to secure the Lamar Hunt Trophy in front of the team's home fans. In another rematch against an AFC South opponent that ended in a 2019 regular season loss, the Tennessee Titans visited Arrowhead and jumped out to a 10-0 lead behind a 30-yard field goal and a four-yard touchdown rush from RB Derrick Henry.

QB Patrick Mahomes found WR Tyreek Hill for the club's first score of the day on an eight-yard pass. The Chiefs fell behind by double digits for the second time in the game when Tennessee QB Ryan Tannehill found T Dennis Kelly for a one-yard touchdown pass on a tackle-eligible play.

Despite another double-digit first-half deficit, Mahomes connected with Hill for the second time, this time from 20 yards out to narrow the margin to 17-14 midway through the second quarter. After the Chiefs defense forced a Tennessee three-and-out and the offense took over inside the two-minute warning, Mahomes found TE Travis Kelce and WR Sammy Watkins for two 3rd-down conversions. Down by three and facing second-and-10 with 23 seconds left in the first half, Mahomes scrambled for a 27-yard touchdown to put the Chiefs up 21-17 going into halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Chiefs opened up the fourth quarter with a three-yard touchdown run from RB Damien Williams, giving him three rushing touchdowns in the 2019 postseason and four overall touchdowns.

DE Tanoh Kpassagnon recorded one of his 2.0 sacks on the ensuing drive, forcing a punt to give the Chiefs offense the ball back with just under 12 minutes left in the game. Facing third-and-six, Mahomes connected with WR Sammy Watkins for a 60-yard touchdown pass that pushed the Chiefs lead to 35-17.

Tennessee went on to score a touchdown on a 22-yard pass from Tannehill to TE Anthony Firkser to cut into the Chiefs lead. After a Kansas City drive that took two minutes off the clock, the Chiefs defense applied heavy pressure on the Titans final drive as S Tyrann Mathieu broke up a third-down pass and DE Frank Clark sacked Tannehill for a 17-yard loss on fourth-and-six.

For the first time in franchise history, the Chiefs secured the Lamar Hunt Trophy as the AFC Champions and the club punched its ticket to the franchise's third Super Bowl, the first since the 1969 season.

With Hill's two first-half touchdown receptions, he and TE Travis Kelce became the first pair of teammates to each record a playoff game with multiple first-half receiving touchdowns in a single postseason since Colts wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Brandon Stokley accomplished the feat in 2003.

SUPER BOWL LIV

February 2, 2020 • Hard Rock Stadium • 62,417

SAN FRANCISCO	3	7	10	0	— 20
KANSAS CITY	7	3	0	21	— 31

The Kansas City Chiefs squared off against the NFC Champion San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV at Hard Rock Stadium, the home of the Miami Dolphins, in Miami Gardens, Florida, on Sunday, February 2, 2020. It marked the club's third Super Bowl appearance (I, IV and LIV), but the first appearance for the club since winning Super Bowl IV against the Minnesota Vikings following the 1969 season.

The Chiefs went three-and-out on the game's opening drive and San Francisco got on the scoreboard first with a 38-yard K Robbie Gould field goal. The Chiefs then marched down the field and after a QB Patrick Mahomes scramble left the offense with a fourth-and-one, the Chiefs drew inspiration from the 1948 Rose Bowl between Michigan and USC, calling "Shift to Rose Bowl Right Parade" for RB Damien Williams to pick up four yards and a first down on the one-yard line. After being stopped on first down, Mahomes ran a speed option to the right and took the ball into the end zone to take the 7-3 lead.

On the following drive, CB Bashaud Breeland intercepted San Francisco QB Jimmy Garoppolo, setting up the chance for the Chiefs to extend their lead at the start of the second quarter. After reaching the red zone, Kansas City's drive stalled and K Harrison Butker connected on a 31-yard field goal to go up 10-3.

San Francisco evened the score at 10-10 in the second quarter after a string of five-consecutive plays that gained 10 or more yards, including a 15-yard touchdown pass from Garoppolo to FB Kyle Juszczyk. The Chiefs followed up with a punt on their next possession, and an offensive pass interference call against the 49ers stalled a late first-half drive, sending the teams to the locker room tied at 10-10.

San Francisco started the second half much the same way it started the game, taking its opening drive 60 yards before the Chiefs defense forced a 42-yard field goal. Facing third-and-12 on the next drive, Mahomes threw an interception as LB Fred Warner picked off a pass intended for WR Tyreek Hill. The 49ers converted that into points as RB Raheem Mostert scored on a one-yard rush, giving San Francisco the 20-10 lead. With under three minutes left in the third quarter, the Chiefs were facing their third-straight double-digit postseason deficit.

As the Chiefs were driving to start the fourth quarter, a nine-yard sack set the offense back, and Mahomes threw a pass on third-and-six intended for Hill that was intercepted by S Tarvarius Moore.

The Kansas City defense stepped up and forced a San Francisco punt after the interception, and the offense got to work. Facing second-and-15, Mahomes completed a 16-yard pass to Hill that was eventually overturned to an incomplete pass after a 49ers challenge. On third-and-15, Mahomes completed a 44-yard pass to Hill on the now-fabled "Gun Trey Right 3 Jet Chip Wasp Y Funnel," or "Wasp" for short. On third-and-10, Mahomes threw a pass to TE Travis Kelce that drew a defensive pass interference penalty, putting the ball on the one-yard line. Mahomes found Kelce for a one-yard touchdown pass on the next play to narrow the deficit to 20-17.

After a San Francisco three-and-out, the Chiefs took possession with just over five minutes left in the game. Highlighted by a 38-yard pass to WR Sammy Watkins, the drive was capped with a five-yard touchdown pass to RB Damien Williams, giving the Chiefs a lead they would not relinquish.

With San Francisco moving the ball in an attempt to take the lead, DE Frank Clark sacked Garoppolo for a nine-yard loss on fourth-and-10 with 1:25 left on the clock. Williams broke through the San Francisco defense on second down for a 38-yard touchdown run to extend the Chiefs lead to 31-20. DB Kendall Fuller then put the game on ice as he intercepted a last-ditch Garoppolo pass. The Chiefs were able to run out the clock to secure the club's second Super Bowl championship.

The 10-point fourth-quarter comeback tied for the second-largest comeback in Super Bowl history and the Chiefs became the first team to record three comebacks of at least 10 points in a single postseason in NFL history.

QB Patrick Mahomes was awarded the Pete Rozelle Trophy as MVP of the game. At 24 years and 138 days old, Mahomes became the youngest QB and the third-youngest player (Marcus Allen and Lynn Swann) to win the Super Bowl MVP award.

Chiefs 22, Browns 17

CLEVELAND	3	0	7	7	17
KANSAS CITY	6	13	3	0	22

Kansas City entered the 2020 postseason as the AFC's top seed, earning a first-round bye for the third-consecutive year. The Chiefs jumped out to an early 6-0 lead on a 10-play, 75-yard opening drive capped off by a one-yard rushing touchdown by QB Patrick Mahomes.

After a failed Chiefs PAT attempt, the Browns were able to cut the lead in half on the ensuing possession with a 46-yard field goal by K Cody Parkey. The drive stalled largely due to the first-career postseason sack by Chiefs rookie CB L'Jarius Sneed.

The Kansas City offense continued its hot start with a second-straight 75-yard drive, this time capped off by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce to give the Chiefs a 13-3 lead.

Chiefs K Harrison Butker was able to convert a 50-yard field goal later in the quarter to extend Kansas City's lead to 13 points with a score of 16-3. The 50-yarder marked what was at the time the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history.

The Browns looked to gain momentum by making it a one-score game before the half as they marched down the field on the following possession. The drive ended with a huge swing in Kansas City's favor as S Daniel Sorensen made one of the biggest defensive plays of the season for the Chiefs. Browns QB Baker Mayfield connected with WR Rashard Higgins on a deep pass near the goal line, but as Higgins reached the ball out in attempt to break the plane, Sorensen delivered a strong hit to pop the ball out and force a fumble through the back of the end zone for a touchback and change of possession, preserving the 16-3 lead for the Chiefs.

The Chiefs offense worked efficiently on the next drive, going 70 yards in just over a minute and a half, setting up Butker to tack on another field goal to make the score 19-3 heading into halftime.

However, just as everything seemed to be going Kansas City's way, the trajectory of the game changed dramatically. After a missed Chiefs field goal following the interception, Mayfield connected with WR Jarvis Landry on a touchdown pass to cap off a 77-yard drive for the Browns and cut the Chiefs lead to 19-10.

On the ensuing possession for the Chiefs, Mahomes took a hit around the head and neck area with 7:27 remaining in the third quarter. He came up off-balance and was forced to exit for the remainder of the contest as he entered the concussion protocol.

Mahomes was replaced by 35-year-old backup QB Chad Henne who was making his first-career postseason appearance. On Henne's first drive, he was able to move the Chiefs into field goal range and allow Butker to convert his third field goal of the day to give Kansas City a 22-10 lead.

The momentum fully swung in Cleveland's direction on the next possession as the Browns put together a long touchdown drive to close out the third quarter. The 18-play drive spanned 75 yards in over eight minutes, ending with RB Kareem Hunt punching it in from three yards out to make it a one-score game, 22-17, going into the final quarter.

Henne was picked off in the end zone by Browns S Karl Joseph on the following drive, setting Cleveland up with a touchback and a chance to take the lead late in the game.

The Kansas City defense stepped up to the plate and came up with a huge stop to preserve the lead and force Cleveland to punt the ball away with just over four minutes remaining in the game.

Henne and the Chiefs offense needed to come up with two first downs on the final drive to ice the game and advance to the AFC Championship Game. After moving the sticks once, Henne was sacked on the second set of downs to set up a 3rd-and-14 at the two-minute warning.

Following the pause in the action, it was Henne's turn to rise to the challenge as he made a play that will be remembered in Chiefs Kingdom forever. As he dropped back to pass on third down, the pocket collapsed and Henne escaped out to the left, scrambling toward the marker and diving head-first for the line to gain. After a measurement, the ball was marked less than one yard shy of the first down and the Chiefs were faced with a fourth down with 1:14 remaining.

The Chiefs came out in a shotgun formation with three receivers split out wide to the right for the fourth down. After letting the play clock wind down, the ball was snapped and Henne connected with WR Tyreek Hill on a short out-route from the slot, good for five yards and the first down. After that, Henne was able to line up in victory formation and take a knee to send Kansas City to its third-consecutive AFC Championship Game.

Notably, Hill (110) and Kelce (109) both tallied 100+ receiving yards in the game, marking only the second time in franchise history that the Chiefs have had two 100+-yard receivers in a postseason game.

By completing 21-of-30 passes (70.0%) for 255 yards in the game, Mahomes (1,729) passed QB Len Dawson (1,497) for the most postseason passing yards in franchise history. But it was the late-game heroics by Henne that will be remembered and left Mahomes to write on Twitter following the game: "#HenneThingIsPossible."

2020 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 38, Bills 24

January 24, 2021 • Arrowhead Stadium • 16,993

*Reduced capacity due to COVID-19

	1	2	3	4	Final
BUFFALO	9	3	3	9	24
KANSAS CITY	0	21	10	7	38

The Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to host three-consecutive AFC Championship Games as they took on the Buffalo Bills in front of their home crowd with a chance to hoist the Lamar Hunt Trophy for the second year in a row. The only other team in NFL history to host three-straight conference championship games were the 2002-04 Philadelphia Eagles, also led by Head Coach Andy Reid.

The major storyline throughout the week leading up to the game was whether QB Patrick Mahomes would be eligible to play, but he was able to clear the concussion protocol and make the start, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to start three-consecutive conference championship games in his first four seasons in the league.

The Bills got out to an early lead, with a 51-yard field goal by K Tyler Bass and a three-yard touchdown reception by TE Dawson Knox following a muffed punt by the Chiefs to put Buffalo ahead 9-0.

No strangers to postseason deficits after their Super Bowl run the year before, Kansas City responded on their next drive as WR Mecole Hardman, who had muffed the punt earlier, quickly redeemed himself by taking a three-yard pass in for the score to cut the lead to 9-7.

After the defense forced a punt, Hardman took a handoff around the left end for 50 yards down to the Buffalo 32-yard line. The 50-yard carry marked the longest run from scrimmage in postseason franchise history. This set up a quick scoring drive capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by RB Darrell Williams to put the Chiefs ahead 14-9.

After forcing a three-and-out on the next possession, the Chiefs were able to punch it into the end zone one more time before the half on a one-yard rush by rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire. Returning from a high ankle sprain suffered in Week 15, it was his first-career postseason touchdown. Buffalo responded with a field goal to make the score 21-12 heading into halftime.

After both teams traded field goals to open up the second half, the Chiefs offense continued its hot streak with a quick 75-yard drive ending with a one-yard touchdown reception by TE Travis Kelce. The drive was highlighted by a short pass to WR Tyreek Hill on the second play in which Hill was able to elude several Bills defenders and use a burst of speed to stretch it into a 71-yard gain. The 71-yard reception was the second-longest catch in Chiefs postseason history. Hill finished the game with 172 yards, the most receiving yards by any Chiefs player in postseason history.

A 30-yard interception return by CB Rashad Fenton set up yet another scoring drive for Kansas City, this time closed out with a five-yard pass to Kelce to push the lead to 38-15. With two touchdowns on the day, Kelce increased his career total to nine postseason receiving touchdowns, the most in Chiefs history and the second-most by a tight end in NFL history, trailing only Tampa Bay TE Rob Gronkowski. Kelce finished with 118 yards on 13 receptions, the most receptions by any player in a Conference Championship Game in the Super Bowl era.

The Chiefs defense held the Bills to only nine points in the fourth quarter. Chiefs DE Frank Clark recorded 2.0 sacks in the final quarter, bringing his career postseason total to 10.0 sacks, including a franchise record 7.0 postseason sacks with the Chiefs in just two seasons with the team.

Notably, Chiefs T Eric Fisher suffered a torn achilles tendon in the fourth quarter of the game which would force him to miss the remainder of the postseason.

With a final score of 38-24, Kansas City advanced to the Super Bowl for the fourth time in franchise annals and earned back-to-back appearances for the first time in team history.

With three touchdown passes in the game, Mahomes (17) passed Seahawks QB Russell Wilson (16) for the most postseason passing touchdowns by a player in his first four seasons in NFL history.

The win gave Reid 17 postseason victories on his career, moving him into a tie for fourth place with PFHOF coach Joe Gibbs on the NFL's all-time list.

SUPER BOWL LV

Buccaneers 31, Chiefs 9

February 7, 2021 • Raymond James Stadium • 24,835

*Reduced capacity due to COVID-19

KANSAS CITY	3	3	3	0	— 9
TAMPA BAY	7	14	10	0	— 31

The Chiefs faced off with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Super Bowl LV in a rematch of a Week 12 contest in the regular season that the Chiefs won 27-24. With the game being held at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla., home to the Buccaneers, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team would play a Super Bowl in its home stadium.

Entering the game with a record of 16-2 (regular and postseason), the Chiefs stellar season would come to a disappointing close as Tampa Bay controlled the contest from nearly start to finish.

It was a defensive start to the game with both teams trading punts on the first three drives. On Tampa Bay's second drive, Chiefs DE Frank Clark notched his third sack of the 2020 postseason by taking down Buccaneers QB Tom Brady for a loss of six yards to force a fourth down. This brought Clark's total to 11.0 career postseason sacks and 8.0 postseason sacks since joining the Chiefs, the most in franchise history. On the ensuing possession, the Chiefs were finally able to put points on the board with a 49-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker to take a 3-0 lead.

The Buccaneers responded on the next possession, with an eight-yard pass from Brady to TE Rob Gronkowski to put them ahead 7-3 at the end of the first quarter.

The Bucs opened up the lead in the second quarter. Butker converted another field goal for Kansas City, but Tampa Bay answered with two more touchdowns on a 17-yard pass to Gronkowski and a one-yard pass to WR Antonio Brown to make the score 21-6 at halftime.

The third quarter opened with a 52-yard Butker field goal, marking the longest made field goal in Chiefs postseason history, topping the previous franchise-long kick of 50 yards, which Butker set in the 2020 AFC Divisional matchup against the Cleveland Browns. But field goals wouldn't be enough as the Bucs came back with another touchdown and a field goal to increase their lead to 31-9, which would ultimately be the final score.

Although Kansas City was denied in its attempt to become the first team since the 2003-04 Patriots to win back-to-back Super Bowls, several Chiefs still made history in the contest.

For the third-consecutive postseason game, Chiefs TE Travis Kelce tallied 100+ receiving yards, recording 133 yards in Super Bowl LV. Kelce became the first TE in NFL history to record three-consecutive 100-yard games in a single postseason. He joined Arizona WR Larry Fitzgerald, who recorded four-consecutive 100-yard games in the 2008 postseason, as the only two players in NFL history with at least three-consecutive 100-yard games in the same postseason. Kelce's six career 100-yard receiving games in the postseason were the most in franchise history at the time.

Furthermore, with 10 receptions in Super Bowl LV, Kelce set the NFL record for the most receptions by any player in a single postseason with 31. He passed Fitzgerald who recorded 30 receptions during the 2008 postseason. The previous high mark by a tight end was 22 receptions, set by Cincinnati TE Dan Ross in the 1981 postseason.

With his start in Super Bowl LV, Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes became the youngest quarterback in NFL history (25 years and 143 days old) to start in two Super Bowls, surpassing Seattle's Russell Wilson, who was 26 years and 64 days old at the time of his second Super Bowl start (SB XLIX). Mahomes and Brady (43 years and 188 days old) had the largest age differential (18 years and 45 days) between opposing starting quarterbacks in Super Bowl history.

By completing 26 passes for 270 yards in Super Bowl LV, Mahomes brought his totals to 191 completions for 2,324 yards in his postseason career. He passed Seattle QB Russell Wilson (167) and PFHOF QB Kurt Warner (169) for most postseason completions in a quarterback's first four seasons and moved past Warner (2,221) for second-most postseason passing yards by a quarterback in their first four seasons.

2021 AFC Wild Card Playoff Game

Chiefs 42, Steelers 21

January 16, 2022 • GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium • 73,253

PITTSBURGH . . . . 0 7 7 7 — 21
KANSAS CITY . . . . 0 21 14 7 — 42

Following Kansas City's sixth-consecutive AFC West Title, the Chiefs hosted the Pittsburgh Steelers in a primetime Super Wild Card Weekend showdown on NBC's Sunday Night Football. The game marked Pittsburgh's second trip to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in three weeks as it was a rematch of a Week 16 regular season matchup, which the Chiefs won, 36-10.

Both offenses sputtered at the start of the game as the two teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter, along with an interception by Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes.

Kansas City looked for a spark by turning to the Wildcat formation on the first drive of the second quarter with a direct snap to WR Mecole Hardman. However, the offensive woes continued as a handoff between Hardman and RB Darrel Williams was fumbled and then recovered by Steelers DE T.J. Watt and returned 26 yards for the first score of the game.

After the Steelers capitalized on the Chiefs miscue, Kansas City rattled off five straight touchdowns - all coming on passes from QB Patrick Mahomes. RB Jerick McKinnon and WR Byron Pringle each recorded touchdown receptions, and Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce for a 48-yard catch-and-run touchdown with less than 15 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-7 lead into the break.

The offense picked up where it left off in the third quarter with Mahomes finding G Nick Allegretti for a one-yard touchdown pass on a tackle-eligible play. On Pittsburgh's first play from scrimmage after the touchdown, Chiefs LB Willie Gay forced a RB Najee Harris fumble that was recovered by Chiefs DE Frank Clark. Two plays later, Mahomes connected with WR Tyreek Hill on a 31-yard touchdown pass to go up 35-7.

Pittsburgh would tally its first offensive touchdown of the day on a 13-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Diontae Johnson to cap its longest drive of the day - a 10-play, 75-yard scoring effort. Kansas City answered with another highlight play as Kelce took a direct snap and found Pringle in the end zone for a one-yard touchdown, marking the Kansas State product's second touchdown reception of the game to extend the lead to 42-14.

Pittsburgh would add a fourth-quarter touchdown on a 15-yard pass from Roethlisberger to WR James Washington to narrow the final score gap to 42-21. Kansas City's second win against the Steelers in three weeks set up another 2021 rematch in the AFC Divisional Round as the Chiefs would play host to the Buffalo Bills for the second time in 2021.

The AFC Wild Card Game would prove to be the final professional game of Roethlisberger's 18-year career as he announced his retirement from the NFL less than two weeks after the playoff game in Kansas City.

2021 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Chiefs 42, Bills 36 (OT)

BUFFALO	7	7	7	15	0	—36
KANSAS CITY	7	7	9	13	6	—42

The 2021 AFC Divisional Round matchup against Buffalo was a rematch of the 2020 AFC Championship Game that propelled the Chiefs to a spot in Super Bowl LV, and it was also a rematch from Week 5 of the 2021 regular season in which the Bills handed Kansas City a 38-20 loss. The storylines around the game made it one of the most highly anticipated matchups of the entire season.

Buffalo opened the game with a 13-play, 71-yard drive that saw the Bills convert two fourth-down attempts, including a one-yard TD rush by RB Devin Singletary to get out to an early 7-0 lead. Kansas City would quickly answer with an eight-yard TD rush by QB Patrick Mahomes to cap an 11-play, 74-yard drive. The clubs traded second-quarter touchdowns as Mahomes found WR Byron Pringle for a two-yard score, and Buffalo QB Josh Allen answered on the next drive with an 18-yard touchdown pass to WR Gabriel Davis to knot the game at 14-14 at halftime.

Kansas City jumped out to a two-score lead in the third quarter on a 39-yard K Harrison Butker field goal and a 25-yard jet sweep touchdown rush by WR Mecole Hardman, although Butker's PAT bounced off the left upright. Allen and the Bills wasted no time answering as Allen connected with Davis for a 75-yard touchdown to narrow the Chiefs lead to 23-21 entering the fourth quarter.

The game's fourth quarter alone lived up to the hype generated prior to the game as the teams combined for an explosion of 28 fourth-quarter points. Butker converted a 28-yard field goal to start the scoring. Then Allen connected with Davis for a 27-yard touchdown to cap a 17-play, 75-yard drive that took more than seven minutes off the clock. The Bills had the 29-26 lead with less than two minutes remaining. Kansas City retook a 33-29 lead after a five-play, 75-yard drive that lasted 52 seconds and was capped by a 64-yard pass to WR Tyreek Hill. Allen led the Bills down the field in short order, finding Davis for his NFL-postseason record fourth touchdown reception of the game, this time a 19-yarder that put the Bills up 36-33 with just 13 seconds left on the clock. What happened in those ensuing 13 seconds is now etched in franchise lore as Mahomes first found Hill for 19 yards before taking a timeout with eight seconds left. Mahomes then found TE Travis Kelce for a 25-yard gain, followed by another timeout with three seconds left. That set up a game-tying 49-yard field goal from Butker to push the game into overtime.

Kansas City won the overtime coin toss and never looked back as the Chiefs marched down the field in seven plays and found themselves in a first-and-goal situation. On the next play, Mahomes found Kelce for the game-winning eight-yard touchdown to win 42-36 and advance to the club's fourth-consecutive home AFC Championship Game. The Chiefs became just the seventh team in NFL history to reach four-straight Conference Title Games and the first team to host four consecutive Conference Title Games.

The win gave the Chiefs a franchise record six consecutive home postseason victories, tying for the 10th-longest home winning streak in the NFL dating back to 1970.

2021 AFC Championship Game

Bengals 27, Chiefs 24 (OT)

CINCINNATI	3	7	11	3	3	—27

The Kansas City Chiefs made history as the first team in NFL annals to host four consecutive conference championship home games when the franchise welcomed the Cincinnati Bengals to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Kansas City defense opened the game by forcing a quick three-and-out against the Bengals, and converted that into points behind an 11-play, 84-yard drive that was capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to WR Tyreek Hill, putting the Chiefs up 7-0. Cincinnati would answer with a 14-play drive of its own that resulted in a 32-yard field goal from rookie K Evan McPherson.

Mahomes then quickly found WR Mecole Hardman for a 44-yard connection, eventually setting up a five-yard touchdown pass to TE Travis Kelce to extend Kansas City's lead to 14-3. After forcing another Bengals punt, Kansas City added to its lead on a three-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to Hardman to go up 21-3. The Bengals narrowed the gap before halftime as QB Joe Burrow connected with RB Samaje Perine for a 41-yard catch-and-run touchdown with less than two minutes to go in the first half of the game. Kansas City would push down the field in the waning moments of the first half, but were stopped at the goal line attempting to extend the lead with a touchdown with just five seconds left in the first half.

The two teams traded punts to open the third quarter before McPherson connected on a 31-yard field goal for the Bengals. After a Mahomes interception early on the ensuing drive, Cincinnati converted the turnover into points as Burrow found rookie WR Ja'Marr Chase for a two-yard touchdown. With a successful two-point conversion pass, the Bengals pulled even at 21-21 heading into the fourth quarter.

Kansas City was forced to punt, but immediately got the ball back as CB L'Jarius Sneed intercepted Burrow near midfield. The Chiefs offense could not capitalize on the turnover though and punted the ball back to the Bengals. Cincinnati then used 11 plays to cover 46 yards and took a 24-21 lead on a 52-yard McPherson field goal with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

Kansas City covered 49 yards in 14 plays, including converting two separate third downs before K Harrison Butker connected on a 44-yard field goal as time expired to send the game into overtime tied at 24-24.

After winning the coin toss, Kansas City's only drive of overtime stalled when a Mahomes' pass intended for Hill on third-and-10 was tipped and intercepted near midfield. Cincinnati then used nine plays to cover 42 yards and converted a 31-yard field goal from McPherson on third-and-11 to thwart Kansas City's bid for a third-straight trip to the Super Bowl.

KANSAS CITY	7	10	3	7	— 27

With a 14-3 regular season record, the Kansas City Chiefs secured the AFC playoff's only first-round bye, welcoming the Jacksonville Jaguars to GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium for the Divisional Round. It was a rematch of a Week 10 matchup in Kansas City, and the Chiefs jumped on the board first with an eight-yard TD pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce.

Jacksonville would pull even on the ensuing drive after a 63-yard kickoff return by WR Jamal Agnew set the Jaguars up with a short field. QB Trevor Lawrence connected with WR Christian Kirk for a 10-yard touchdown to tie the game.

Mahomes injured his right ankle at the end of the first quarter, with K Harrison Butker giving the Chiefs a 10-7 lead with a 50-yard field goal less than a minute into the second quarter. After Jacksonville got inside Kansas City's 30-yard line, a Jaguars penalty and a DE Frank Clark sack pushed the Jaguars out of field goal range and forced a punt that was downed at the Chiefs two-yard line.

With Mahomes sidelined with the ankle injury, QB Chad Henne entered the game and orchestrated a 12-play, 98-yard touchdown drive to extend the Chiefs lead to 17-7. Henne completed five of seven passes for 23 yards on the drive, capping it with a one-yard connection to Kelce, his second receiving touchdown of the game.

Coming out of halftime, Mahomes re-entered the game and the two teams each traded a pair of punts in the third quarter before Mahomes found TE Noah Gray for a 27-yard strike to get into Jacksonville territory. After the drive stalled, Butker converted on his second 50-yard field goal of the day, becoming the first Chiefs kicker, and the ninth kicker in NFL history, to record multiple 50+ yard field goals in a single postseason game.

Jacksonville made it a single-score game again at the beginning of the fourth quarter as Lawrence found WR Zay Jones for a 37-yard gain to get into Chiefs territory. Kirk then recorded an 18-yard rush around the right end, setting up a four-yard touchdown run by RB Travis Etienne, making the score 20-17 in favor of Kansas City.

The Chiefs answered back immediately with a 10-play, 75-yard drive that was punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling. Mahomes found Kelce for passes of 11 yards and 15 yards, as well as connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for 16 yards on the drive. WR Kadarius Toney took an end-around for 14 yards as well.

Jacksonville would add a late 48-yard field goal to narrow the margin to 27-20, but the Jaguars ensuing onside kick was recovered by Toney, sealing the 27-20 victory.

Kelce finished the game with a franchise postseason game record 14 receptions, tying for the third-most receptions by a player in a single game in NFL postseason history.

TE Travis Kelce recorded 14 total receptions, including two touchdown catches in the game. He caught touchdowns from both QBs Patrick Mahomes and Chad Henne.

2022 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 23, Bengals 20

CINCINNATI	0	6	7	7	— 20
KANSAS CITY	3	10	7	3	— 23

For the fifth-consecutive season, the Kansas City Chiefs hosted the AFC Championship Game at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, extending an NFL record for most consecutive home conference championship games. The 2022 version featured a rematch of the 2021 AFC title tilt with the Cincinnati Bengals visiting with a trip to Super Bowl LVII on the line.

Cincinnati opened the game on offense but after a nine-yard sack of QB Joe Burrow by DE Frank Clark, the Bengals punted to the Chiefs. QB Patrick Mahomes connected on 16-yard passes to rookie RB Isiah Pacheco and TE Travis Kelce before the drive stalled, setting up a 43-yard K Harrison Butker field goal to put the Chiefs on top 3-0.

The Kansas City defense forced a three-and-out on the heels of a six-yard DT Chris Jones sack. The Chiefs then went on a 12-play, six-minute drive, getting inside Cincinnati's 10-yard line. An offensive holding penalty nullified a Pacheco touchdown rush, eventually leading to a 24-yard Butker field goal, giving Kansas City a 6-0 lead at the start of the second quarter.

The Bengals got on the scoreboard in the second quarter, with Burrow connecting with WR Tyler Boyd twice for 40 total yards. Kansas City's defense forced the drive to stall in the red zone, with K Evan McPherson connecting on a 30-yard field goal to narrow the Chiefs lead to 6-3.

On the ensuing drive, Mahomes found WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling on back-to-back passes for 11 and 29 yards. Facing fourth-and-one after a zero-yard sack of Mahomes, the quarterback connected with Kelce for a 14-yard touchdown, putting Kansas City up 13-3 with under four minutes left in the first half.

Rookie CB Jaylen Watson recorded an interception of a Burrow pass that was intended for WR Tee Higgins. The Cincinnati defense forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back around the two-minute warning. Burrow then connected with Higgins for gains of 11 and 21 yards to get to Kansas City's five-yard line with 0:11 left on the clock. Kansas City's defense rose to the occasion, forcing back-to-back incompletions. The Bengals then converted a 23-yard field goal from McPherson to narrow the Kansas City lead to 13-6 as the clock expired on the first half.

The Chiefs were forced into a three-and-out to start the second half, with the Bengals tying the game at 13-13 on a 27-yard connection from Burrow to Higgins. The Chiefs answered on their next drive, with Mahomes finding Valdes-Scantling for 25 yards to get into Bengals territory. On third-and-seven, Mahomes found Valdes-Scantling again for seven yards and a first down. Facing third-and-10 from just inside the red zone, Mahomes again connected with Valdes-Scantling for a 19-yard touchdown to put the Chiefs up 20-13.

The Bengals converted a fourth-and-six with a 35-yard pass from Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase to open the fourth quarter, moving the ball to the Kansas City five-yard line. RB Samaje Perine scored an equalizing touchdown on a two-yard rush, tying the game at 20-20 with 13:35 left in regulation.

After a Kansas City punt, rookie S Bryan Cook tipped a Burrow pass intended for Higgins into the air, and fellow rookie CB Joshua Williams intercepted the ball, thwarting a potential Bengals scoring drive mid-way through the fourth quarter. Although the Chiefs were forced to punt back to the Bengals, shortly after on a third-and-eight, DT Chris Jones recorded his second sack of the day, dropping Burrow for a seven-yard loss. On the ensuing Cincinnati punt, rookie WR Skyy Moore recorded a 29-yard return. After a six-yard Pacheco carry, a five-yard Mahomes scramble paired with a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on Cincinnati, the stage was set for a field goal. Butker connected on what would become the game-winning 45-yard field goal to send the Chiefs back to the Super Bowl for the third time in four years.

With the win, Head Coach Andy Reid earned his 21st career postseason victory as a head coach, passing PFHOF Tom Landry (20) for the second-most playoff victories in NFL history.

SUPER BOWL LVII

Chiefs 38, Eagles 35

February 12, 2023 • State Farm Stadium • 67,827

KANSAS CITY	7	7	7	17	— 38
PHILADELPHIA	7	17	3	8	— 35

Kansas City returned to the Super Bowl stage for the third time in four seasons, with a number of national storylines driving interest in the game - two Black quarterbacks facing off in the Super Bowl for the first time, the Kelce brothers becoming the first siblings to face each other in the big game, and Head Coach Andy Reid taking on his former team.

Philadelphia jumped out to the early lead with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by QB Jalen Hurts. The Chiefs offense matched on a six-play, 75-yard drive of its own that saw an 18-yard TD connection between QB Patrick Mahomes and TE Travis Kelce.

The teams traded punts to close out the first quarter, but on the first play of the second quarter, the Eagles struck paydirt on a 45-yard touchdown pass from Hurts to WR A.J. Brown to go up 14-7. After a Chiefs third-and-out, LB Nick Bolton recovered a Hurts fumble and returned it 36 yards for a Kansas City touchdown to tie the game at 14-14. The Eagles retook the lead on Hurts' second TD run of the game, this time from four yards out to go up 21-14.

With just over two minutes left in the first half, the Kansas City offense took over, but the drive stalled after a three-yard rush by Mahomes on third-and-15 that left the quarterback hobbling back to the sideline in pain after re-aggravating his ankle injury from the Divisional Round. Following a Kansas City punt, Philadelphia added a 35-yard FG from K Jake Elliott as time expired in the first half to go up 24-14.

Kansas City opened the second half with a one-yard touchdown run by rookie RB Isiah Pacheco, narrowing the margin to 24-21. Philadelphia then went on a 17-play, 60-yard drive that took 7:45 off the clock and ended with a 33-yard FG from Elliott to extend their lead to 27-21.

Entering the fourth quarter down six and with the ball, Mahomes found WR JuJu Smith-Schuster four times as Kansas City marched down the field. Facing third-and-three from the Philadelphia five-yard line, Mahomes found WR Kadarius Toney for a five-yard touchdown pass on the play call that was dubbed "Corn Dog," giving the Chiefs their first lead of the game at 28-27.

Kansas City's defense rose to the occasion by forcing a Philadelphia three-and-out on the Eagles next drive. On the ensuing punt, Toney fielded a short kick from Eagles P Arryn Siposs and recorded a Super Bowl-record 65-yard punt return, setting the Chiefs up with first-and-goal from the Philadelphia five-yard line. After a rush on first down and an incomplete pass on second down, Mahomes found rookie WR Skyy Moore for a four-yard touchdown, marking the rookie's first-career NFL touchdown in the regular season or the postseason. It extended the Chiefs lead to 35-27.

On Philadelphia's next drive, Hurts led them down the field, capitalizing on a 45-yard pass to WR DeVonta Smith to get to the Kansas City two-yard line. On the next play, Hurts took the ball two yards to record his third rushing touchdown of the game. Hurts then added a two-point conversion run to tie the game 35-35 with 5:15 left on the clock.

Kansas City took possession and Mahomes found Smith-Schuster for 10 yards and a first down. Mahomes also found Kelce for seven yards and Pacheco rattled off a 10-yard carry to convert a third-and-one. In Philadelphia territory, Mahomes scrambled for a 26-yard run to move into the red zone with under three minutes left in the game. Facing third-and-eight, Mahomes looked for Smith-Schuster but a defensive holding penalty committed against Smith-Schuster kept the Chiefs drive alive. RB Jerick McKinnon took a handoff at the Philadelphia 11-yard line and carried it nine yards before sliding down short of the end zone to maintain possession and force the Eagles to burn their final timeout. After two QB kneels from Mahomes, K Harrison Butker converted a 27-yard FG with :08 left on the clock to go up 38-35.

After a squib kick, Philadelphia's last-second Hail Mary effort fell incomplete, giving the franchise its third Lombardi Trophy and the second in the past four seasons.

2023 AFC Wild Card Playoff Game

Chiefs 26, Dolphins 7

MIAMI	0	7	0	0	7
KANSAS CITY	7	9	3	7	26

After winning the AFC West for an eighth-consecutive season the Chiefs hosted the Miami Dolphins in what would rank as one of the coldest NFL games ever during Super Wild Card Weekend. At kickoff, the temperature came in at -4 degrees Fahrenheit with a wind chill of -27 degrees making it the fourth coldest contest in NFL history. Despite the frigid conditions, Chiefs Kingdom showed up in force with an announced attendance of 71,492.

After receiving the opening kickoff, QB Patrick Mahomes led a surgical opening drive highlighted by a 23-yard run by RB Isiah Pacheco that set up an 11-yard touchdown strike to rookie WR Rashee Rice giving the Chiefs a 7-0 lead. The touchdown was just the start of a huge day for Rice. He would go on to finish the game with then record eight receptions for 130 yards, both single-game postseason rookie franchise records.

S Mike Edwards intercepted Dolphins QB Tua Tagovailoa near the end of the first quarter giving the Chiefs another possession. Rice got the ensuing drive rolling with a 23-yard catch-and-run eventually setting up K Harrison Butker for his first field goal of the day to make the score 10-0.

On the next drive, the Dolphins got themselves back in the game. Playing at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium for the first time as a visitor, Dolphins WR Tyreek Hill adjusted to a deep pass from Tagovailoa and took the pass all the way to the endzone for a 53-yard touchdown. The score knocked the Chiefs lead down to 10-7.

From there, Butker would slowly put the game away three points at a time. Butker capped off a 12-play, 72-yard drive with a 26-yard field goal. With under two minutes to play in the first half, the Chiefs moved the ball 47-yards highlighted by their longest play of the day – a 39-yard catch from Rice – in just 1:25 to set up a 32-yard field goal giving the Chiefs a 16-7 halftime lead.

Out of halftime, the Chiefs forced a three-and-out and then put together a methodical 13-play drive for 69 yards. Butker put through a 21-yard field goal, his fourth of the day, to push the lead to 19-7. His four field goals and 14 points were both single-game Chiefs playoff records.

The Chiefs put the final points on the board in the fourth quarter. Rice had another big play, a 28-yard catch, to move the ball into the red zone setting up Pacheco for a three-yard touchdown run to secure the win, 26-7.

The defense left their stamp on the game executing a second-half shutout and holding the league's number two scoring offense in the regular season to their lowest scoring output of the year at just seven points. They gave up 264 total yards to the Dolphins, their second-lowest yardage total of the year, helping the Chiefs advance to the Divisional Round.

QB Patrick Mahomes and teammates prepare to play in one of the coldest games in NFL history. The temperature was -4 degrees with a -27 windchill at kickoff.

Chiefs 27, Buffalo 24

January 21, 2024 • Highmark Stadium • 70,808

KANSAS CITY	3	10	7	7	— 27
BUFFALO	3	14	7	0	— 24

For the first time in QB Patrick Mahomes' career, the Chiefs headed on the road for a playoff game. Despite these two teams matching up in three playoff games over the past four seasons, this was the first time the Chiefs and Bills had met for a playoff game in Highmark Stadium since 1994.

The Bills took the opening kickoff and embarked on a 14-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a field goal from K Tyler Bass to open the scoring. The Chiefs responded with a field goal of their own, tying the game at 3-3 on their only drive of the opening quarter.

The Bills took their next drive and scored the first touchdown of the game on a five-yard run by QB Josh Allen to go up 10-3. In response, the Chiefs came back with another field goal from K Harrison Butker, igniting a back and forth battle with the Chiefs trailling 10-6.

After forcing a quick punt, the Chiefs put together a five-play, 65-yard drive that included a 28-yard rush from RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive culminated in a 22-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to TE Travis Kelce giving the Chiefs their first lead of the day at 13-10.

The Bills took a 17-13 lead into halftime after Allen scored his second touchdown of the game on a two-yard rush.

Mahomes found WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 30-yard pass on the first play of the second half. Just five plays later, Mahomes hit Kelce on a three-yard screen pass for a touchdown. It was the 16th time Mahomes has connected with Kelce for a postseason touchdown, passing QB Tom Brady and TE Rob Gronkowski for the most TD connections between a QB-pass catcher duo in playoff history and giving the Chiefs a 20-17 lead.

The Bills once again recaptured the lead, this time from the arm of Allen, who hit WR Khalil Shakir for a 13-yard touchdown. The lead was short lived as the Chiefs got the ball back and punched in another go ahead score when Pacheco took the ball in on a four-yard run to capture a 27-24 lead.

Heading into the fourth quarter the defense stepped up for both teams. Facing a fourth-and-five from their own 30 yard-line the Bills ran a fake punt, but the Chiefs were ready, stopping up the run for a gain of just two yards. Following the turnover on downs, the Chiefs moved the ball down to the Bills three-yard line. However, the drive ended when Bills S Jordan Poyer punched the ball out of WR Mecole Hardman's hands and through the endzone, giving the Bills a touchback.

Both teams traded punts and the Bills got the ball back one final time. They went on a 16-play drive ultimately lining up for a 44-yard field goal attempt to tie the game, but Bass pushed the kick wide right, keeping the score at 27-24.

The Chiefs were able to run out the clock on a 27-24 victory thanks to a first down run by Pacheco propelling the club to their sixth-straight AFC Championship Game.

QB Patrick Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce for two touchdowns. As of this victory, the two have now connected on 16 postseason touchdowns, the most by a duo in NFL postseason history.

2023 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Ravens 10

January 28, 2024 • M&T Bank Stadium • 71,439

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	0	— 17
BALTIMORE	7	0	0	3	— 10

For the sixth-consecutive season, the Chiefs were on the field for the AFC Championship Game, the second-longest streak of championship game appearances in NFL history. For the first time in that span they were the road team and took on the Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium.

The game was largely about the Chiefs defense and they started off right, forcing a quick three-and-out to set up Kansas City's first offensive possession. The Chiefs methodically moved down the field with the two biggest plays going to TE Travis Kelce. First, a 13-yard catch on fourth-and-two followed by a 19-yard touchdown grab in the front corner of the endzone putting the Chiefs up 7-0.

The touchdown grab was part of a historic day for Kelce. He finished the game with 116 receiving yards, his eighth postseason game with at least 100 yards tying PFHOF WR Jerry Rice for the most such games in postseason history. Kelce also had 11 receptions on the day pushing his career postseason total to 156, passing Rice (151) for the most receptions in playoff history.

On the Ravens next possession, Ravens QB Lamar Jackson evaded pressure and hit Ravens WR Zay Flowers for what would be Baltimore's only touchdown of the day on a 30-yard strike.

On their second drive of the game, the Chiefs ran 16 plays and ate up over nine minutes of game clock. They slowly moved into position and RB Isiah Pacheco finished the job punching in the score on a two-yard run. It was Pacheco's fourth-straight postseason game scoring a touchdown on the ground.

The final score of the first half came off the foot of K Harrison Butker. He hit a 52-yard field goal leaving just four seconds in the first half. It was Butker's fifth field goal of 50+ yards in postseason play tying K Adam Vinatieri for the most in playoff history.

In the second half, the Chiefs defense stood strong and no play was bigger than the very first play of the fourth quarter. With Baltimore inside the Chiefs 10-yard line Jackson completed a pass over the middle to Flowers. As Flowers extended the ball towards the endzone, CB L'Jarius Sneed punched the ball out of his hands and CB Trent McDuffie fell on the ball in the endzone for a touchback denying the Ravens of a scoring opportunity.

Ravens K Justin Tucker got the Ravens within one score with their only points of the second half on a 43-yard field goal. On the ensuing possession, the Chiefs faced a third-and-nine just before the two-minute warning. Mahomes dropped back and threw a deep-pass over the middle, hitting WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a game-sealing 32-yard catch.

The Chiefs knelt out the clock on a 17-10 victory sealing the team's fourth trip to the Super Bowl in just five years and the club's second opportunity to raise the Lombardi in back-to-back years.

CHIEFS — Kelce, 19-yard pass from Mahomes (Butker kick) (10-86, 5:45).
RAVENS — Flowers, 30-yard pass from Jackson (Tucker kick) (6-75, 2:43).

SUPER BOWL LVIII

Chiefs 25, 49ers 22 (OT)

February 11, 2024 • Allegiant Stadium • 61,629

SAN FRANCISCO . . . . . 0 10 0 9 3 —22
KANSAS CITY. . . . . 0 3 10 6 6 —25

For the fourth time in five seasons the Chiefs represented the AFC in the Super Bowl. Super Bowl LVIII was a rematch of Super Bowl LIV with a familiar venue – AFC West rival Raiders home, Allegiant Stadium.The 49ers took the opening kickoff getting the game underway, but were shut down when LB Leo Chenal forced a fumble of 49ers RB Christian McCaffrey that was recovered by DE George Karlaftis.

It wasn't until early in the second quarter when the first points went on the board via a Super Bowl record 55-yard field goal off the foot of 49ers K Jake Moody. Now down 3-0, the Chiefs threatened to take the lead after QB Patrick Mahomes connected with WR Mecole Hardman for a 52-yard reception, moving the ball down to the San Francisco nine-yard line. However, a fumble from RB Isiah Pacheco, recovered by San Francisco, put an end to the drive.

After a trick play featuring a 21-yard touchdown pass by 49ers WR Jauan Jennings, the Chiefs trailed 10-0 with 4:32 to play in the first half. The Chiefs took advantage of their final first half possession getting three points on the board with a 28-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker making it a 10-3 49ers lead going into the extended half time.

Kansas City continued to chip into the San Francisco lead with the first points of the second half. Butker converted a 57-yard field goal, breaking the Super Bowl record for longest field goal - a record that was set in the first half by Moody.

The Chiefs found themselves punting on their next possession, but a muffed catch set the Chiefs up just 16-yards from the goal line. Mahomes quickly put the Chiefs on top, throwing a 16-yard strike to WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling giving the Chiefs their first lead of the game at 13-10.

The game swung back in San Fran's direction a few plays later when 49ers QB Brock Purdy found Jennings over the middle for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Chenal came up big on the extra point attempt, getting his hand up and blocking the kick to keep it a three-point game.

The blocked extra point allowed the Chiefs to lock the game up at 16-16 with a field goal on their next possession. San Francisco followed by driving down into field goal range and faced a massive third-and-five at the two-minute warning. Needing a stop to keep the Chiefs in the game, Defensive Coordinator Steve Spagnuolo dialed up a blitz that sent CB Trent McDuffie straight into the back field blowing up the play and forcing the 49ers to settle for a field goal.

Using just a minute and 50 seconds, the Chiefs executed a drive all the way down to the San Francisco 11-yard line. The biggest play came on a short pass to TE Travis Kelce who ran 22-yards to set up a 29-yard field goal try. Butker converted, sending the Super Bowl into overtime for just the second time ever tied 19-19.

It was the first time the NFL's new playoff overtime rules were in effect guaranteeing both teams an offensive possession, barring a defensive score. The 49ers won the coin toss and elected to receive the opening overtime kickoff. A promising drive stalled at the Chiefs nine-yard line when DT Chris Jones quickly got into the back field on a third-and-four play forcing an incompletion and a field goal try. Moody put the 49ers up 22-19 and the Chiefs took over needing a touchdown to win the game.

Quickly, the Chiefs faced a fourth-and-one but Mahomes kept the game alive with an eight-yard run. Mahomes went back to his legs on a third-and-one, scrambling for 19 more. To secure the 25-22 Super Bowl LVIII win, Mahomes connected with Hardman on a three-yard touchdown pass play coined "Tom and Jerry" and for the second-straight year, red and gold confetti fell.

The Chiefs hoisted the Lombardi Trophy for the third time in five seasons and became the seventh team to win the Super Bowl in back-to-back years, the first since the Patriots 20 seasons prior. QB Patrick Mahomes was named Super Bowl MVP for the third time in his career. He joined QB Tom Brady (five) and PFHOF QB Joe Montana (three) as the only three-time winners of the award.

Chiefs 23, Houston 14

HOUSTON	3	3	6	2	— 14
KANSAS CITY	6	7	0	10	— 23

After earning home field advantage and coming off a bye week in the first round of the 2024 playoffs, Kansas City took on the Houston Texans in the Divisional Round. This is the second time in five seasons that the two clubs have faced off in postseason play, with both games being played at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

The Chiefs received the opening kickoff which WR Nikko Remigio returned for 63 yards, all the way to the Houston 32-yard line. This drive turned into a 32-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker, giving Kansas City a 3-0 lead. Houston responded on their first offensive drive with a 10-play, 68-yard drive which ended with a 30-yard field goal from K Ka'imi Fairbairn, tying the contest at 3-3 in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's second drive of the game, QB Patrick Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce on a 23-yard pass down the right sideline. A couple of plays later, Mahomes connected with WR Xavier Worthy on a 21-yard shot down the field. The Chiefs drive was halted and ultimately ended in a 36-yard field goal from Butker, giving them a 6-3 lead over the Texans.

After punting on their initial drive to begin the second quarter and a missed field goal by the Texans, Mahomes connected with Kelce once again for a 49-yard gain moving the Chiefs offense down to the Houston six-yard line. This drive turned into the game's first touchdown, which was a one-yard rushing touchdown by RB Kareem Hunt, giving Kansas City a 13-3 lead. Houston looked to strike on their final drive of the first half. QB C.J. Stroud threw a 24-yard pass to WR John Metchie to move Houston down to the KC 25-yard line. Two plays later, Chiefs DT Tershawn Wharton recorded an eight-yard sack of Stroud on second down. This led to a 48-yard field goal from Fairbairn to end the half.

Kansas City, holding a 13-6 lead, kicked the ball off to Houston to start the second half. The Texans marched down the field and put together a 15-play, 82-yard drive which took 10:24 off the clock and was capped off by a 13-yard rushing touchdown by RB Joe Mixon, moving the score to 13-12. Kansas City struck back on the next possession by scoring on a 13-play, 81-yard drive which ended with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to Kelce once again, widening the gap in the Chiefs favor, 20-12.

Following a Chiefs punt and two Texans three-and-outs, Kansas City drove down the field once again to add three more points to their lead. Butker connected on a 27-yard field goal to push the Kansas City lead to nine. After forcing another Houston three-and-out, Kansas City P Matt Araiza ran out of the back of the end zone giving the Texans two points. The time expired with a final score of 23-14, securing the Divisonal Round victory for the Chiefs.

TE Travis Kelce hauls in an 11-yard touchdown pass from QB Patrick Mahomes. As of this Divisional Round victory, Kelce eclipsed 2,000 career postseason receiving yards.

2024 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 32, Buffalo 29

BUFFALO	3	13	6	7	— 29
KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	11	— 32

The Chiefs faced the Bills in the AFC Championship Game for the second time in five seasons. This game also marked the fourth time the clubs have faced off in the playoffs in the last five seasons. Kansas City holds a 4-0 record over Buffalo during that time period.

Buffalo received the opening kickoff and quickly went three-and-out. On Kansas City's first drive, QB Patrick Mahomes connected with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 31-yard gain. The big play helped set up a 12-yard touchdown run from RB Kareem Hunt. The Bills, trailing 7-0, began their second drive of the game. QB Josh Allen connected with WR Khalil Shakir on the fourth play of the drive for a 12-yard gain, moving the Bills offense to the Buffalo 49. Buffalo ended the drive with a 53-yard field goal from K Tyler Bass.

Kansas City held a 7-3 lead over Buffalo entering the second quarter, but Buffalo started the second quarter with the ball. Buffalo marched down the field and scored a touchdown on a 10-play, 72-yard drive that was capped off by a six-yard touchdown run by RB James Cook, giving the Bills a 7-10 point lead. The Chiefs methodically navigated down the field and ended their 11-play, 70-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to WR Xavier Worthy.

After forcing a Bills three-and-out and an electric 41-yard punt return from WR Nikko Remigio, Kansas City took over with a 14-10 lead from the Buffalo 34-yard line. Mahomes connected with Worthy on the third play of the drive, propelling the Chiefs offense down to the Buffalo three-yard line. Three plays later, Mahomes scrambled right and reached the end zone on a one-yard rushing score, moving the Chiefs lead to 21-10. With 1:55 left in the first half, Allen and the Buffalo offense took the field once again. Allen connected with WR Keon Coleman for a 12-yard gain, moving the Bills offense down to the Kansas City 34-yard line. Two plays later, Allen connected with WR Mack Hollins for a 34-yard touchdown, making the score 21-16 with Kansas City still leading.

The Chiefs went three-and-out on their opening drive of the third quarter. Buffalo started out fast on their first drive of the third quarter with a 33-yard rush from Cook on the second play of the drive. A few plays later, Cook entered the end zone on a one-yard rushing score, giving the Bills the lead over the Chiefs, 22-21.

Kansas City went three-and-out on the next drive and had the opportunity to make Buffalo do the same. On a big fourth-and-one from the KC 41-yard line, LB Nick Bolton stood up Allen to give the Chiefs the ball back. This turned into a five-play, 59-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a 10-yard rush by Mahomes. Kansas City then converted a two-point conversion with a pass from Mahomes to WR Justin Watson. With Kansas City now leading 29-22, Buffalo looked to even the score. On the second play of their next drive, Allen threw a checkdown to Cook which he took 23 yards down to the KC 38. Three plays later, Allen connected with Hollins for a gain of 32 yards moving the Buffalo offense down to the KC four-yard line. Four plays later, Allen connected with WR Curtis Samuel for a four-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game up at 29 points apiece.

With 6:15 left in the fourth quarter, Kansas City had the opportunity to take the lead once again. The Chiefs started off with a six-yard rush from Hunt. Bills LB Matt Milano was flagged for a facemask on the play which resulted in an additional 15 yards added to Hunt's run. On the next play, Mahomes connected with TE Travis Kelce on an 11-yard pass. Two plays later, Mahomes threw a pass to Worthy for a 23-yard gain which led to a 35-yard field goal from K Harrison Butker.

Buffalo had 3:33 to go tie or win the game. On the second play of the drive, Allen scrambled for 13 yards, moving the offense to the Buffalo 42-yard line. Allen threw an incomplete pass on the next two plays, making it third-and-10 where he then completed a five-yard pass to WR Amari Cooper. On a big fourth down play, Chiefs DE George Karlaftis pressured Allen causing him to throw the ball up in the air on a last-ditch effort which was then dropped by Bills TE Dalton Kincaid. Kansas City got the ball back and kneeled the clock out, becoming the first team in NFL history to have a chance to win three-straight Super Bowls.

PHILADELPHIA. . . . . . . 7 17 10 6 — 40

The Kansas City Chiefs took on the Philadelphia Eagles for the second time in three years in Super Bowl LIX at Caesars Superdome in New Orleans, Louisiana. The two clubs have only faced off twice in the postseason.

Philadelphia received the opening kickoff to start the game. The Philadelphia offense moved the chains on the second play of the drive with an eight-yard pass from QB Jalen Hurts to WR DeVonta Smith. Three plays later, Hurts connected on a 32-yard pass to WR A.J. Brown which was called back due to an offensive pass interference call, forcing the Eagles to punt the ball on their first drive.

The Kansas City offense took over at the KC 12-yard line and they started off with a quick 11-yard gain on a pass from QB Patrick Mahomes to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster. The drive was halted by the Philadelphia defense just three plays later, forcing a 58-yard punt from P Matt Araiza. Philadelphia started their next drive from their own 31-yard line. Hurts found TE Dallas Goedert for a 20-yard gain. Five plays later, Hurts connected with WR Jahan Dotson for a 28-yard touchdown which was reversed after an official review moving the Philly offense to the one-yard line. Hurts ran up the middle for a one-yard touchdown, giving the Eagles a 7-0 lead.

Kansas City started the next drive with a five-yard pass from Mahomes to Smith-Schuster. The Eagles defense stopped Kansas City and forced a quick three-and-out. On the fourth play of the third Philadelphia drive, Hurts connected with Dotson for a 15-yard gain. Five plays later, Chiefs DE George Karlaftis sacked Hurts for a 10-yard loss, but it was called back because of an offsides call. Two plays later, Hurts was intercepted by S Bryan Cook and the Kansas City offense took over again, but quickly went three-and-out.

Hurts found Brown again on the next drive for a 22-yard gain. This drive led to a 48-yard field goal from K Jake Elliott, moving the Philadelphia lead to 10. Three plays into the next Kansas City drive, Eagles CB Cooper DeJean intercepted Mahomes and returned it 38-yards for a touchdown. The Eagles now led the Chiefs 17-0. The next Kansas City and Philadelphia drives both ended in three-and-outs. Kansas City took the field and on the very first play, Mahomes was intercepted by Eagles LB Zack Baun. On the second play of the Eagles drive, Hurts found Brown for a 12-yard touchdown.

Trailing 24-0 to start the second half, Kansas City ended up punting the ball on their first drive. Philadelphia took over and drove the ball 69 yards down the field resulting in a 29-yard field goal from Elliott, moving the lead to 27. After a failed attempt on fourth down on Kansas City's next drive, Philadelphia scored on a 46-yard pass from Hurts to Smith, making it 34-0 in the third quarter.

Kansas City began their next drive with a 50-yard bomb from Mahomes to WR Xavier Worthy. Four plays later, Mahomes connected with Worthy again for a 24-yard touchdown. The Chiefs attempted a two-point conversion which was unsuccessful, making the score 34-6. Philadelphia then drove 40 yards in 10 plays which led to a 48-yard field goal from Elliott.

Trailing 37-6, Kansas City took the field to try to close the gap. On the first play of the drive, Eagles DT Milton Williams stripped Mahomes and the fumble was recovered by the Eagles. This turned into a 50-yard field goal from Elliott. Kansas City then drove down the field and Mahomes connected with WR DeAndre Hopkins on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Mahomes found WR Justin Watson on the successful two-point conversion attempt.

Mahomes found Worthy for a 50-yard touchdown on the first play of the following drive, making the score 22-40 with Philadelphia leading. Worthy would finish the game with eight receptions for 157 yards, which tied for the most single game postseason receptions by a rookie. His 157 receiving yards are the most in a single-game in the postseason by a rookie. On the next drive, Philadelphia kneeled the rest of the clock out to secure the victory.

LAMAR HUNT

Southern Methodist
Foolish Club (1959)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1970)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1972)

Founded the American Football League in '59 and served as the league's first President ... Was the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1972 ... Described as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" by his Hall of Fame presenter, William Sullivan ... His Dallas Texans took the field as one of the AFL's charter franchises in '60 and became the Kansas City Chiefs in '63 ... Served as a principal figure in the negotiations that resulted in the AFL-NFL merger which was announced in '66 and fully completed in '70 ... Played a pivotal role in designing the league's current playoff format, as well as the adoption of the old AFL two-point conversion rule into NFL play in '94 ... Held the post of President of the American Football Conference ... Since '84, the AFC Championship Game trophy has carried his name ... Saw the Chiefs win three AFL titles ('62, '66 and '69), as well as a Lombardi Trophy from Super Bowl IV ... Was credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game ... Graduated from Southern Methodist University in '56 with a B.S. in Geology ... Was a reserve end on SMU's football team ... He was survived by his wife, Norma until her passing in 2023 and his four children, Lamar Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, as well as 15 grandchildren ... Born August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Ark. ... Died December 13, 2006 in Dallas, Texas.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The winning team in the American Football Conference receives the Lamar Hunt Trophy, named in honor of Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Lamar Hunt, the founder of the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs. First presented following the 1984 season, the 2010 season marked the debut of its redesign by Tiffany & Co. The new trophy reflects the sterling silver material of the Vince Lombardi Trophy, awarded each year to the Super Bowl champions. The Lamar Hunt Trophy is designed to depict the journey of the playoffs leading into the Super Bowl. The trophy's shape is based on the football shape used on the Vince Lombardi Trophy. It features an etched conference logo and the NFL Shield.

Linebacker • 1963-74

Minnesota
Draft (No. 7 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1980)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1983)

Considered by many as the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game ... Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on July 30, 1983 ... Was just the fifth American Football League performer to be immortalized in Canton ... Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end because the Chiefs needed help at that position when he joined the club as a seventh-round draft choice in '63 ... Was moved to linebacker in '65, where he earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl each of the next nine years ... Was named to the AFL's All-Time Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Starred on two AFL Championship teams, playing in Super Bowls I and IV ... Did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games ... Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles ... Scored nine career TDs, including a 53-yard kickoff return ... His eight defensive touchdowns are the most of any player in franchise annals ... Versatile performer handled deep snapping on punts and kicks for the Chiefs ... Began his collegiate career as a quarterback at Minnesota ... Switched to defensive tackle as a sophomore and earned All-America honors at that position as both a junior and senior ... Received the Outland Trophy as college football's outstanding lineman in '62 ... Played on the College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers in '63 ... Is enshrined in the College Football (1991) and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame (1995) ... Was an all-state QB at Cleveland High School in Shelby, N.C. ... Resides in Kansas City and is currently retired after previously doing marketing for Factory Motor Parts ... Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, N.C.

BUCK BUCHANAN

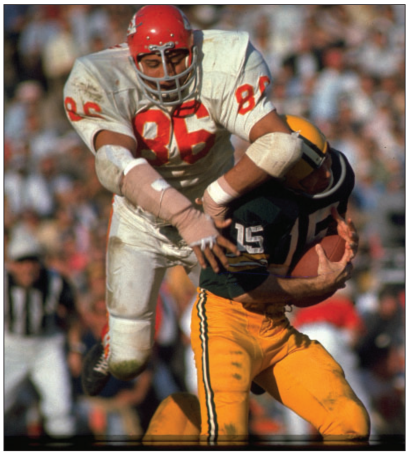
Grambling
Draft (No. 1 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1981)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1990)

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the '60s and '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on August 4, 1990 ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland ... The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the express purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their first Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star Game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Ala. ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Ala. and died July 16, 1992 in Kansas City. Survived by his wife, Georgia, who lives in Kansas City.



BUCK BUCHANAN • 1940-1992

> "The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

JAN STENERUD

KICKER • 1967-79

Montana State
Draft (Redshirt No. 3 - 1966)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1992)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (1991)

The first and only pure placekicker to be inducted into the Hall of Fame through 2015 ... Hank Stram presented Stenerud at enshrinement ceremonies in Canton on July 27, 1991 ... Stenerud's number 3 has been retired by the club ... Regarded by many as the best placekicker in pro football history ... Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in '94 and the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team in '90 ... Played 19 NFL seasons with Kansas City ('67-79), Green Bay ('80-83) and Minnesota ('84-85) ... At the time of his retirement he led the NFL in most career field goals and was second in scoring in the NFL behind the fabled George Blanda ... Ranks 22nd on the league's all-time scoring list with 1,699 points and is 20th in career field goals made with 373 ... Played in 186 regular season games with Kansas City, the seventh-highest tally in team history ... Still owns or shares five Chiefs records, including field goals attempted in a career (436) and season (44), as well as consecutive games scoring field goals in a single season (14) ... Linebacker • 1989-99

Alabama

Chiefs Hall of Fame (2001)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (2009)

Pass rusher extraordinaire became the third Chiefs linebacker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Served as the heart and soul of the Chiefs franchise for 11 glorious seasons ('89-99) ... Was not only a bona fide star in terms of his contributions on the field, but also illuminated countless lives through his charitable efforts ... Received the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Award and was named former President George H. W. Bush's "832nd Point of Light" ... On the field, was one of the most dominant defensive players of his day thanks to his patented sack-and-strip maneuver ... Established Chiefs career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (19) and forced fumbles (45) ... His 126.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total ever by a linebacker at the time of his death and still rank 19th, regardless of position, overall in NFL history ... Produced a then club-record 20.0 sacks in '90, including an NFL-record 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle (11/11/90) ... A member of the Hall of Fame's All-Decade Team of the '90s, no player could top his 116.5 sacks during that decade ... The lone player in Chiefs history to see action in three different decades with his final contest coming vs. Oakland (1/2/00) ... Saw duty in 169 games (157 starts) and appeared in 10 playoff games ... Won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '89 ... Produced nine consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '89-97 seasons, the second-highest total recorded by a player in Chiefs history ... Was the initial two-time winner ('91, '94) of the club's MVP trophy which now bears his name ... Known simply as "D.T." ... Was born January 1, 1967 in Miami, Fla., the same day the Chiefs won the '66 AFL Championship to advance to Super Bowl I. Died on February 8, 2000 in Miami, Fla., following a serious auto accident on January 23, 2000 in Kansas City, Mo.

TONY GONZALEZ

Tight End • 1997-2008

California
Draft (No. 1 - 1997)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (2018)
Pro Football Hall of Fame (2019)

Over 12 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997-08), Gonzalez appeared in 190 regular season games with 174 starts, earning 10 Pro Bowl appearances and five first-team All-Pro selections from the Associated Press ... He finished his career with numerous NFL records for tight ends, including most career receptions (1,325), most receiving yards (15,127), most 100-yard receiving games (31) and second-most touchdown receptions (111) behind TE Antonio Gates (116) ... While first among tight ends, his 1,325 career receptions are third to only Pro Football Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1,549) and Larry Fitzgerald (1,432) in NFL history ... Gonzalez recorded at least one reception in 211 consecutive games to finish his career, 61 games more than the previous NFL record by a tight end ... He became the first tight end in league history to produce 16 consecutive seasons with 50 or more receptions and ended his career with 14 70-catch seasons and 15 consecutive 60-catch campaigns to go with his 16 consecutive 50-catch seasons ... Only P Dustin Colquitt (238), G Will Shields (224), K Nick Lowery (212), P Jerrel Wilson (203) and TE Travis Kelce (192) played in more games ... During his 12 seasons with the Chiefs he set franchise records for receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940), receiving touchdowns (76) and 100-yard games (26) ... He had four 1,000-yard receiving seasons in Kansas City, becoming the first tight end in NFL history to record four such seasons ... He holds five records in team history for receptions in a single season, including a franchise record 102 catches that led the league during the 2004 season ... He caught at least one pass in a club-record 131 consecutive games, which is second-most in team history ... He concluded his career in Kansas City with a franchise-record 10,954 yards from scrimmage and is now second only to TE Travis Kelce and ranks third in team annals with 76 total touchdowns behind RB Priest Holmes (83) ... Was one of the bedrocks upon which the Chiefs defensive dominance of the '90s was built ... Paired with LB Derrick Thomas to forge one of the most feared pass rushing duos in NFL history ... Served as a foundation for a franchise-record string of six-straight postseason appearances from '90-95, making nine playoff starts over that span ... Possessed an imposing seven-foot wingspan that helped wreck havoc on opponents and allowed him to make a myriad of momentum-changing plays ... Accumulated 85.5 sacks and 29 forced fumbles in Kansas City – totals that both rank third in Chiefs history – in addition to blocking five FGs ... Will forever be intrinsically linked with his "little buddy" Thomas, but his individual accomplishments clearly stand on their own merit ... Registered double-digit sacks for four straight seasons from '92-95, leading the team or tying for the team lead with Thomas each of those years ... Voted team MVP following the '92 campaign when he had 14.5 sacks and followed up that performance with a career-high 15.0 sacks in '93 ... Played in 138 regular season games for Kansas City, accumulating 546 tackles (403 solo), three INTs with one TD, 13 fumble recoveries with one TD and 22 passes defensed ... Departed Kansas City following the '96 campaign and won a pair of Super Bowl rings with Denver, but it was in Kansas City where his legacy as one of the NFL's most dominant defensive performers of the '90s was clearly solidified ... The Chiefs traded up with Detroit to select Smith with the second overall pick in the '88 NFL Draft ... Was an All-American performer at the University of Nebraska ... Born April 10, 1966 in New Orleans, La.

He became the first offensive lineman to be named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week, which occurred following Kansas City's 56-10 win over the Atlanta Falcons on October 24, 2004 when the team rushed for an NFL record eight touchdowns in the game ... During Waters' time with the Chiefs, he helped pave the way for each of the top three individual single-season rushing performances in franchise history ... He was also on the field for three of the top five individual single-game rushing efforts in club annals, including RB Jamaal Charles' franchise-record 259-yard performance at Denver (1/3/10) ... In 2004, he teamed with Pro Football Hall of Fame G Will Shields to form the first tandem of Pro Bowl guards from the same team since Larry Allen and Nate Newton did it for Dallas following the 1995 season ... He and Shields also became the first guard duo from the same team to be named to three-consecutive Pro Bowls (2004-06) ... In 2009, the entire National Football League community honored Waters as the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year winner for his on-field accomplishments, as well as his commitment to community outreach ... Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to receive this honor, tying the Chiefs for the most award winners in the NFL ... Waters was signed by Dallas as an undrafted free agent and released after training camp in 1999 ... Following his release from Dallas, he arrived in Kansas City for a free agent workout in March of 2000 when the Chiefs convinced him to make the move to offensive line, a position he had never played ... He spent the spring of 2000 playing for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe where he started every game at center ... The Waxahachie, Texas, native played in 44 games at North Texas, starting at tight end for three years before switching to defensive end prior to his senior season ... Borrn on Nov. 22, 1982 in Waco, Texas.

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since 1966, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill. This year's recipient is DE Ashton Gillotte. Gillotte had 37 tackles (14 solo), three tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, one interception and one pass defensed. He tied for 20th among all rookies in total tackles and 12th in sacks.

Since 1979, the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was posthumously enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt. QB Patrick Mahomes was honored in 2025.

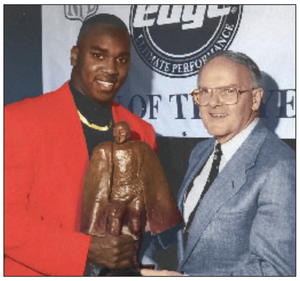
WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name ... Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 ... "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 ... Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City ... Has awarded over $550,000 in scholarships to Morgan State University and public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year ... Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program ... Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society ... Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities ... Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.



Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City ... Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games ... Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" ... Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association ... Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel ... He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 100,000 individuals ... Primary foundation benefactors include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children ... The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives ... Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News ... The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

Brian Waters (2009) – Four-time Pro Bowler became Kansas City's fifth NFL Man of the Year honoree after forming the "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" in 2004 ... Since its inception, tens of thousands of children and families in the Greater Kansas City area as well as the state of Texas have been positively impacted ... To date, his foundation has awarded 82 college scholarships to low-income students ... His back-to-school program provides backpacks full of school supplies, as well as haircuts, uniforms, shoes, immunizations and dental care, benefitting thousands of children ... The 54 Foundation partners with more than 20 different agencies annually.

MAN OF THE YEAR CHARITY CHALLENGE

NFL players are known for their competitiveness and for their community service, and every season since the 2014 campaign, Nationwide - the presenting sponsor of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award - has also run the annual Charity Challenge. During the six-week social media campaign, all 32 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominees - one from every team - earn mentions from fan social media support, with the most-mentioned player earning an additional contribution to their designated charity from Nationwide.

In the 11-year history of the Man of the Year Charity Challenge, five Kansas City Chiefs Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominees have walked away with the top spot in fan voting, earning a contribution to their charity of choice. After winning the 2025 Man of the Year Charity Challenge, TE Travis Kelce became the first three-time winner in the program's history. The five Chiefs honorees are the most by a single team in the short history of the challenge, with three of them earning the Charity Challenge title in consecutive seasons from 2020-22.

USA TODAY ALL-JOE TEAM

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the 1999 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life." This honor was awarded from 1992-2014 and through those years, 35 Chiefs players were acknowledged for their performances.

3

JAN STENERUD • KICKER • 1967-79

The first pure placekicker inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, K Jan Stenerud played 19 NFL seasons, including 13 with Kansas City.

LEN DAWSON • QUARTERBACK • 1962-75

The standard-bearer for Chiefs signal callers for decades, QB Len Dawson retired as the franchise's all-time leading passer. The Pro Football Hall of Fame QB led the club to three AFL titles and the franchise's first world championship in Super Bowl IV.

DAWSON

18

EMMITT THOMAS • CORNERBACK • 1966-78

The Chiefs career leader with 58 interceptions and single-season leader with 12 interceptions, CB Emmitt Thomas played in 181 games over his Hall of Fame career with Kansas City.

ABNER HAYNES • RUNNING BACK • 1960-64

HAYNES

JOHNSON

STONE JOHNSON • RUNNING BACK • 1963

A sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome and a QB at Grambling State, RB Stone Johnson's athletic career came to a tragic end during his rookie season of '63. Johnson suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game against the Houston Oilers in Wichita, Kansas and died just 10 days later on Sept. 8, 1963.

MACK LEE HILL • RUNNING BACK • 1964-65

An AFL All-Star as a rookie in '64, RB Mack Lee Hill rushed for 1,203 yards in just 27 games with the Chiefs. Hill tragically died on the operating table after suffering a knee injury late in the '65 season.

HILL

THOMAS
58

DERRICK THOMAS • LINEBACKER • 1989-99

The most prolific pass rusher in Chiefs history, Pro Football Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas was the heart and soul of the club's dominating defense throughout the '90s and owns the NFL's single-game sack record (7.0 vs. Seattle - 11/11/90).

WILLIE LANIER • LINEBACKER • 1967-77

A Pro Football Hall of Famer, LB Willie Lanier played 11 seasons for the Chiefs and was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team.

LANIER

BELL
78

BOBBY BELL • LINEBACKER • 1963-74

BUCK BUCHANAN • DEFENSIVE TACKLE • 1963-77

Game-Winning Field Goals

Chiefs kickers have connected on 25 game-winning field goals as time expired or in sudden death overtime situations throughout the franchise's history. The biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the 1962 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the 11 kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Harrison Butker booted a team-record five game-winning FGs, while Butker also owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 58-yard effort at the Los Angeles Chargers (9/20/20), which occurred after making a 53-yard FG that was nullified by a false start, and after making a 58-yard FG that was nullified by a Chargers timeout prior to the attempt.
